NOTE TO CORRESPONDENTS.

News letters must be mailed to reach us, not later than Tuesday morning. Advertising matter, "puffs" etc. must not be included in letters unless marked "Advertising" and payment guaranteed. As the weather is practically the same throughout the country reference thereto can be omitted except in case of damage done by storm.

In case of sickness or accident do not mention name of attending physician except in most extraordinary cases. It is against the "ethics" of the profession. Give obituaries in full and give full accounts of events of public interest. Use the phone if anything of prime importance occurs between hour of mailing letter and 2 p. m. Wednesdays. Do not "josh" your neighbors in any way that you would not be willing to sign.

We wish to add that we are very proud of our present correspondence service. It is far and a-way the best in the county and if these suggestions are taken in the kindly spirit in which they are meant we believe the service will be still further improved. The Review would like a regular correspondent from Vail, Astor, Aspinwall, Kenwood and such other parts of the county as are not now represented.
