STRIKE REACHES ODESSA

WAVE OF DISORDER BREAKS OUT IN A NEW PLACE.

KOUROPATKIN REPORTED SLAIN

Rumors of Russian General's Death Spreading in St. Petersburg—Connected With It is Report That 70,000 Russians Are Cut Off.

St. Petersburg, June 28.—The wave of disorder rolling over Russia has appeared at Odessa, where a general strike, accompanied by bloodshed and disorders, has broken out. There were several collisions between the military and the strikers, in two of which volleys were fired by the troops. No report of the extent of the casualties has been received.

A press dispatch said that 400 armed workmen barricaded a suburb and repulsed the attack of a company of Cossacks. Reinforcements of three companies of Cossacks were sent to the suburb; but the result of their attack on the strikers is not yet known. There is little news from Poland, but copies of the Lodz Gazette, giving an account of the demonstrations, are eagerly read. A telegram to the official agency gives the number of killed and those who died of their wounds on Friday as 164. It adds that others were killed Saturday and Sunday and that the complete number of victims cannot be stated definitely. Other accounts give a total estimate of 500 dead at Lodz.

Kourpatkin Reported Killed.

St. Petersburg, June 28.—A rumor spread throughout the city that General Kourpatkin had been killed. This rumor was connected some times with a report that 70,000 Russians had been cut off by General Nog's army and that General Kourpatkin had been taken prisoner. Nothing confirmatory of these rumors has been received by the general staff or in press dispatches. A report received from General I. indicates that the Japanese continue steadily, and that the Russian transports, under pressure, are retreating.

LIFE IN PEACE NEGOTIATIONS

While President Roosevelt is Away Nothing Will Be Attempted.

Washington, June 28.—With the president away from Washington peace negotiations entered upon a period of inactivity, which may continue until the president reaches Oyster Bay. Neither the Russian ambassador nor the Japanese minister received messages today sufficiently urgent to necessitate their communicating with the president, and it is possible they will refrain from troubling him in that way until after his New England trip is over. There is no confirmation here of a report from Paris that negotiations for an armistice have been formally opened.

Meet Early in August.

St. Petersburg, June 28.—The foreign office has issued a communication confirming the statement that Russia has accepted the first ten days in August as the time within which the first meeting of the peace plenipotentiaries will take place. The precise date depends on the time of the arrival at Washington of the Japanese representatives.

Polish Prisons Are Filled.

Warsaw, Russian Poland, June 28.—All the prisons are full to overflowing, no less than 672 persons, mostly Jews, having been arrested during the last twenty-four hours. It is expected that a state of siege will be proclaimed, as great riots are anticipated during the mobilization.

Arrested at Funeral of Her Husband.

Yetter, Ia., June 28.—At the bier of her husband, where she was paying her last tribute, Mrs. Cyrus Pratt was arrested on the charge of his murder. At the same time Will Kersing, the hired man at the Pratt farm, was also taken into custody as being an accessory. Pratt died after a very brief illness and the officers declare there is suspicion of poisoning.

Gaynor and Greene Lose.

Montreal, June 28.—The supreme court unanimously granted the motion made in behalf of the government of the United States to quash the appeal of Gaynor and Greene from the judgment of the court of king's bench affirming the refusal of a writ of prohibition by Judge Davidson against the issue of a warrant for extradition. The appeal was quashed with costs.

Foe of Gypsy Moth.

San Francisco, June 28.—A box of insects that are expected to destroy the gypsy moth pest in Massachusetts arrived on the Manchuria from Asia. The insects, which are like ants in appearance, deposit their eggs in the larvae of the moth.

ASSESSED VALUATION

Aggregate Wealth of Crawford County Shown by Assessors

TRIFLE LESS THAN LAST YEAR

Interesting Figures Gathered at Auditor's Office Showing Assessed Valuation of Real and Personal Property.

ODD FELLOWS MEMORIAL

The Odd Fellows and the members of the Rebekkah lodge to the number of about sixty, observed last Sunday as the special memorial day for their honored dead. The lodge members were driven to the cemetery at three p. m. The services consisted of the reading of the impressive ritual of the order, singing, prayer by the chaplain, Mr. F. O. Ivens, and a brilliant and eloquent oration by Mr. R. Shaw Van. Mr. John Wiess, Noble Grand acted as chairman of the day. Immediately after the address the grave of the five Odd Fellows who are buried in Oak and cemetery were decorated with flowers and flags. The day was a beautiful one and the services were both dignified and impressive.

GREGORY PROPERTY SOLD.

Mrs. A. L. Gregory has sold her handsome residence property in west Denison to Mr. J. H. Patterson, a retired banker of Dunlap, who is well known to Denison people. Mr. Patterson proposes to move the present residence to the north end of the lot and to build for himself a handsome residence on the present site of the Gregory home. The consideration for this fine bit of residence property was $3,000.00.

We understand that Mrs. Gregory intends moving to Omaha to make a home for her daughter, Katharyn.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Northam were among the Chicago excursionists. They report having had a splendid time. Mr. Northam stayed but a few days, but Mrs. Northam remained in Chicago with relatives, returning yesterday. They made the boat trip from Chicago to Milwaukee and felt fully repaid for the journey.

WAR TALK IN RIKSDAG

DEBATE ON NORWAY BRINGS OUT BELLICOSE SPEECHES.

SWEDISH CABINET IS CRITICISED

Moderate Party Backs King and Ministry Against the Uncompromising Element—Action of the Norwegian Storting is Condemned.

Stockholm, June 28.—Both houses of the riksdag elected extraordinary committees, to which were referred the government bill looking to a settlement with Norway. The debates on the remission of the bill brought out fiery speeches, in which the action of the Norwegian storting was condemned and the Swedish cabinet severely criticised. The tenor of the speeches throughout the debate in both houses leaves the impression that the majority of the speakers were of the opinion that a peaceful solution of the difficulty was extremely improbable.

In the senate, Judge C. A. Berg, who initiated the debate, said: "We must not use force to sustain the union, which is valueless to us under existing conditions, but the riksdag does not recognize the illegal and revolutionary breach of the union and does not recognize Norway as a sovereign state."

Herr Hammarskjold said that it was unworthy of Sweden to commence negotiations with revolutionists, and parliament and the cabinet should propose conditions which Sweden would accept, telling Norway that as she had broken away from the union Sweden would be willing to separate, but that Norway must agree to Sweden's conditions. If Norway did not accept, then Sweden should enforce her conditions by war. The speaker said he preferred war to the sacrifice of Sweden's honor.

Pastor Waldenström, speaking in the house, said that in Norwegian schools in recent years the children had been taught to hate Sweden, and continued: "I am against war, but it may have to come as a last resort. Norway's action amounts to revolution and should be treated accordingly as a deadly insult to Sweden. The government's proposition opens up the probability of war. Its weakness lies in the fact that Norway, having broken the union, is liable to break treaties."

Baron Kennedy, speaking in the senate, said: "If the king's message expresses his opinion, he has lost two crowns instead of one."

This remark was greeted with great cheering by the anti-government members.

Baron Kennedy said he repudiated the idea of a conference with the rebellious storting. Sweden must enforce her conditions and put behind the king all the resources of the country in order to protect Sweden's honor by war if necessary. The baron said that every man in Sweden was ready to give his life to protect the honor and glory of the country.

Premier Ramstedt then spoke. He said: "After June 7 Sweden had two alternatives—one that of force and the other to reluctantly accept dissolution. Nobody openly advocated force, but some persons advocated a procedure which would ultimately lead to war. The object of war would be to compel Norway to retrace its action, but anger must not blind us to our own interests, and our interests are against forcing Norway into any kind of a union. A conquered Norway, while of no advantage, would forever be a source of danger. Add to this the horrors of war, and their enfolding results—all arguments, against the employment of force. If not force, then it is best to assist the dissolution of the union without harsher conditions than the future safety of the peninsula demands."

PRESIDENT VISITS ALMA MATER

Active Participant in Anniversary Exercises of His Graduating Class. Cambridge, Mass., June 28.—Joining with his former college mates in celebrating the twenty-fifth anniversary of the graduation of their class from Harvard, President Roosevelt returned to his alma mater, not as the chief magistrate of the nation, but as a private citizen, and a loyal Harvard alumnus. Although the ancient university of Harvard would have been glad to pay him all the honor due his high office, it was the president's request that he be regarded merely as a member of the class of '80 rather than as the president of the United States. Nevertheless, students, alumni and the citizens of Cambridge united in giving him a hearty greeting as he drove through the streets of the university city.
