The W. C. T. U. took part in the parade on July 4th. Twenty boys dressed in white and carrying white banners, representing the name and different departments of work of the W. C. T. U. marched in the procession just after the band. One boy as leader, carried the American flag and another, marching next to the large banner carried a large white bow, the badge of the organization. They made a pretty sight.

Puffing Our Cigars

is a pleasure enjoyed by many smokers hereabouts who have learned that our line of cigars is one that can please every taste in tobaccos. Another point we make is the way we keep our cigars—everyone just moist enough to make a perfect smoke. We make a specialty of the box trade.

Lamborn Drug Co.

Mrs. Bryce expects to accompany Mr. Bryce on his trip to the Yellowstone and Portland. The party is to start on Tuesday, the 18th of July, instead of the 19th, as at first arranged.

On Thursday Mrs. Chas. Voss entertained a few young ladies in compliment to Miss Dunn and Miss Tucker, the guests of Miss Ethel Gulick. Mrs. Voss' hospitality is always charming and the guests had "a red letter night."

Mr. Otto Faul left on Monday for Muskogee, Ind. Ter., where he has been promised employment at good wages in a printing plant of that city. "Tut's" departure will be a serious loss to our athletic interests as he was one of the best pitchers in western Iowa. He is a first-class printer and above all else he is a quiet, gentlemanly young man of good habits and has been unspoiled by all the flattery a young and successful athlete receives. We are sorry to see him go, but we wish him the very best of good fortune in his new home.

Mrs. Emil Pump visited Vail relatives last week.

Mr. Frank Fee was a Monday visitor in Dunlap.

Mr. Geo. DeWolf of Nebraska, visited relatives here last week.

The Des Moines Capital has crawled to the top of the tree with Bailey of Britt" says the Rockford Register, "and insists that the democrats should be left the job of revising tariff."

The Iowa State Register thinks "it will be almost as difficult to prove fifty years from now that there were populists in Iowa in the year 1900 as it has been to prove that buffalo were here fifty years ago."

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Romans, Mrs. R. A. Romans and Mrs. Lena Ley were among the Denison people to attend the Bryan lecture at the Missouri Valley Chautauqua last week. They say the silver-tongued orator has lost none of his power and is as magnetic as ever.

There is a move on foot among a number of the substantial business men of the city to raise a fund for the purchase of a fine clock for the new court house. A clock that would strike the hours and the quarters would be a great luxury for Denison and would be money well invested.

As a summer resort town, Denison is very popular and nothing that hearty hospitality can do is left undone to make the guests feel at home. On Friday Mrs. J. T. Kelly gave a party in honor of Mrs. Casner. The ladies had a delightful visit. Mrs. Kelly served delicate refreshments in two courses.

Mr. C. D. Miller tells us that he heartily approves the suggestion made by THE REVIEW that we have a Jubilee Week next year. This is our semi-centennial time, the new court house is to be dedicated and it would appear that this is a golden opportunity for Denison to celebrate and to do it right.

On Saturday evening Mrs. S. H. Gulick and Mrs. Martin gave a very pretty tea complimentary to Miss Ethel Gulick's guests. The table decoration and favors were sweet peas, and a very elegant tea was served. After supper Mrs. Martin sang beautifully a number of selections that delighted her hearers.

The long-delayed new books have reached the Carnegie library at last. There are several hundred new volumes and as it will take some time to catalogue them they will not be put on the shelves until the last of the week.

Miss Hedwig Brodersen gave a party in honor of Miss Tillie Rippen on last Friday evening, which was largely attended by their high school friends. The young ladies all agree that the affair was delightful in every respect.

Miss Grace Meyers leaves on Saturday for a brief visit with Independence relatives, after which she will attend the librarian's school at the State University at Iowa City for a two weeks course. Miss Jessie Goodrich will act as librarian during Miss Meyers' absence.

On Monday afternoon Mrs. Criswell entertained a number of ladies in compliment to Mrs. Dr. Hart. All of the Charter Oak people who have, happily for Denison, moved here, were present, and the old days and the new were pleasantly discussed. Mrs. Criswell served very nice refreshments.

Fifteen pounds Fancy Jap Rice for 50c. "The Boys."

A woman stepped into the judge's office in a nearby county seat and said to his honor, "Are you judge of the reprobate?" "Well I am judge of the probate, if that is what you mean," replied the judge. "Yes I guess that is it," said the woman. "My husband died detested and left me three infidels and I want to be appointed their executioner." —Ex.

Purity, Accuracy, Competency, Promptness Courteous treatment is our motto Schumberger's Pharmacy.

A new feature of the cattle exhibit at the Iowa state fair this year will be the test for milk cows, in which is offered four premiums amounting to $100. The cows entered for the contest may be fed and handled at the option of the owner, except no condition powders or drugs of any kind shall be given to the cows during the test, but common salt, ashes or sulphur may be used. The rules further providing that only water may be given the cows to drink and that they shall not be milked more than three times during each twenty-four hours of the test, which continues three days. The scoring of the milk will be on the basis of twenty-five cents a pound for butter fat and two and one-half cents per pound for solids other than butter fat; or by rating butter fat at twenty-five cents per pound and by-products at twenty cents per hundred pounds.

A WARNING.

The services at the M. E. church in Duloit have been repeatedly disturbed on Sunday evenings by a crowd of rowdies who have assembled near the church for this purpose. A young man who will so debase himself as to disturb religious services lacks every element of true manhood. Below is the law which will be fully enforced if the disturbance continues.

Sec. 4959—Page 1946, Code of Iowa.

"Disturbing worshiping congregations or other assemblies."

If any person wilfully disturbs any assembly of persons met for religious worship by profane discourse or rude and indecent behavior, or by making a noise either within the place of worship, or so near as to disturb the order and solemnity of the assembly, or if any person wilfully disturb or interrupt any school, school meeting, teachers' institute, lyceum, literary society or other lawful assembly of persons, he shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not more than thirty days, or by fine not exceeding one hundred dollars.

BAMFORD'S BIG SALE.

M. M. Bamford comes to the front this week with a July cleaning sale which proves that the mid-summer is not to be a dead dull time in Denison. The prices quoted are marvelously low, as any good housewife will see by reading the figures given in Mr. Bamford's full page advertisement. The store devotes itself entirely to Dry Goods and millinery. Mr. Bamford is noted as an experienced buyer and his goods are selected with excellent taste and discernment. The grade of goods and the prices offered should easily accomplish what Mr. Bamford desires to make a clearance of light summer goods to make way for the large stock of heavier wear which he will place on his shelves for the fall trade.

A CHARMING PARTY.

Miss Ethel Gulick was a Monday hostess, giving an "at home" as a courtesy to her guests, Misses Tucker and Dunn. The party might well be called a musicale, for so much good talent was present that the afternoon was devoted to "divine harmony." A delicious supper was served at small tables, fragrant with flowers. The out-of-town guests included the Misses Williamson, Holderness, Auracher, Louis and Swan.

Mrs. Geo. Richardson and daughter went to Carroll for a visit on Friday.

Mrs. Green McAhren, and daughter Myrtle, left on Saturday for a visit at Oskaloosa.
