

DENISON IN CALIFORNIA.

Mrs. Hopkins Entertains Woman's Press Club of Southern California.

Nestled under the spreading boughs of a giant pepper tree, who-e graceful branches sway beside the uncovered veranda, is the artistic and beautiful bungalow home of Mrs. Uva Nixon Hopkins on Cypress place, and here she entertained in charming fashion the members of the Woman's Press Club of Southern California with an informal tea last evening.

Japanese lanterns twinkled and glowed among the fern-like foliage of the pepper tree, and the wide porch was converted into a cozy retreat by the use of soft rugs scattered over the floor and easy chairs placed invitingly about. Here at a daintily appointed table Miss Percival gracefully presided and served delicious punch. But the gem of the house is the exquisite rose drawing room. Against the deep dull rose color of the wall tones, and the dainty window hangings with their touch of rose tints, jardiniere of ferns produced a lovely color harmony and great clusters of pink amaryllis and red pink roses added to the beautiful effect. In the dining-room with its tones of Deft blue in the walls and hangings, a few beautiful pink roses were gracefully arranged.

Mrs. Hopkins was assisted in receiving by her mother, Mrs. L. S. Amador. The distinctive guest company included many of the best known literary women of Los Angeles and Pasadena and their friends and the evening was passed informally in delightful conversation. The daintiest of collations was served before the hour of leave taking. Mrs. Hopkins sketches and piper have won for her an assured place in a literary in California.

THE OAK'S QUARTETTE.

Famous Musical Organization Will Sing at Old Settlers' Picnic in Denison on Thursday.

The famous Oak's quartette, which has made such a great hit at chautauqua assemblies throughout the state, has agreed to take part in the program for the Old Settlers' Picnic.

The gentlemen are all Crawford county residents and they are showing their loyalty in this manner.

It is rumored that a prominent Chicago Lyceum bureau has offered them a fine contract for a season of singing, but that it has not been finally decided to accept. At any rate their music will be a rare treat. They will appear on both the forenoon and the afternoon programs.

It is to be hoped that "The Oak's" quartette can be persuaded to give Denison a regular concert at some later date.

A DIFFICULT UNDERTAKING

THE REVIEW is about to attempt the difficult undertaking of remaining in its old building and printing its paper regularly while its new building operations proceed.

It is reported that an old colored preacher once laid before his congregation the startling proposition "Dad we builds a few chuch on de site ob de ole chuch dat we uses de bricks ob de ole chuch to buil de new one and dat we occupes de ole chuch until de new one am completed."

This is exactly what THE REVIEW is trying to do and if every thing runs smoothly we think it can be done. The trouble is that the chances are against "everything running smoothly." They seldom do in this world of woe.

This is where the patience of readers will be tested as well as our own. It may be impossible for us to publish as great a newspaper during this period as we have been doing. We may be delayed, we may be forced to omit an issue. We shall do our best to avoid anything of the kind, but if it occurs, please bear in mind when we get safely into our new building with new press, our entire editorial department on one floor and many conveniences we have done out in the past, we shall try to make all up to you.

The new building is one of the first fruits of the incorporation of the REVIEW. The building will be plain, but it will nevertheless be a substantial improvement to the business part of the city, and is expressive of the REVIEW's stability and of its confidence in Denison and its future.

FINE RESIDENCE FOR SALE

Mr. Frank Fee offers his fine residence in Denison for sale. It is a splendidly built house, built by him self for his own use. The location is a good one. Call on him at once. House has bath room, hot water heat, and every modern convenience.

Live Stock Fair.

Horse flesh worth $1.50 a pound will be seen at the Interstate Live Stock Fair association, at Sioux City, September 11-16. Eight draft horses there will be, every one worth $3,000, each team worth $6,000, and the entire 16,000 pounds of horse as good $24,000 in gold.

There will be no more striking feature at the fair than this display, which will consist of the eight finest draft horses owned by Swift & Co., besides ten more, picked from thousands, the possession of the Sioux City Brewing company, the Schloeman Commission company.

President Louis F. Swift, of the big packing firm, has written to Secretary F. L. Wirlich, of the Interstate fair, asking that stall room be reserved for his famous eight Percheron draft horses. Each one of them is a prize winner, each weight 1,800 to 2,000 pounds, each will wear harness worth $500 and they will make their daily parade in all the elegant trappings used by them in the shows all over the world. The draft horses that will be shown by the three Sioux City firms have been selected after the entire west had been scoured and they are bettered only by Swift's. These horses will parade in single rigs, two, three, four and six-horse teams, and in a bunch.

A CANADIAN JOURNEY.

Hon. J. P. Conner returned last week from a short trip of some 4000 miles made in about a week's time. Judge Conner went with a company of investors to Alberta. He returns fairly infatuated with the country which he says is one of the greatest promise. Speaking of Canada he said it would be a mighty nice thing if it belonged to the United States, the trouble being that the Canadians do not care to be annexed. The country visited is entirely beyond the corn belt but small grains of every kind are grown. It is the custom to plant the land to wheat one year and let it lie fallow the next. The every other year crop is big enough however to yield a handsome profit for the two years. The Judge visited Calgary, Medicine Hat, Winnipeg and many others of the northern cities. We suspect that he found the country at its best at this season and that if his trip had been timed in January instead of August the report would not have been so glowing. Nevertheless for those who are able to stand the rigors of the northern winters it must be a land of great possibilities. While in Winnipeg Judge Conner met Louis Roberts, a son of Mr. I. T. Roberts formerly the partner of Mr. T. J. Garrison in Denison. Louis is doing splendidly, making money rapidly has a host of friends and enjoys the best of health.

While Mr. Conner toured the north, Mrs. Conner and Raymond enjoyed the delights of West Bend Wisconsin which they declare to be one of the prettiest cities they have ever visited.

MR. SCRIVER ENJOYS VACATION.

"If a man wants a week to himself, where business can't touch him, where he can't even get a newspaper, where the sound of the choo choo cars is unknown, he should go where I was last week," quoth W. J. Scriver on his return from a vacation on the shores of Lake Superior. "There are scores of beautiful wooded islands, the deep lake fishing is superb and one can enjoy complete rest. Lake Superior is a beautiful body of water, so deep and cold that it is said that if a body once sinks it never rises to the surface. In many places the lake is more than 1000 feet deep. I was sea-sick on the boat, but got over it pretty quick and now I feel like working harder than ever." Mrs. Scriver caught an eight pound trout. How is that for fishing.

A MASQUERADE.

On Saturday night Miss Lydia Belle Kuehnle gave a large masquerade party in honor of the bevy of pretty cousins who are visiting her.

The children were dressed in very fetching costumes and made a most charming picture. Flower girls, two little girls in blue, Japanese, old fashioned gowns, every manner of dress and style were represented. Two charming maids proved to be Bernard Bamford and Rowland Philbrook. Their make up was perfect and they were the belles of the evening.

The wide veranda was the scene of the gaiety and after the unmasking some excellent guessing games were played. Very elegant refreshments were served and the masquerade passed into history at a late hour as a most successful party.

Had it not been for the rain on Thursday the number would have been much greater. Recorder Houlihan showed himself to be a loyal Oakiite by canvassing Denison to get up a good crowd.

THE CHARTER OAK CARNIVAL.

Failure of Several Attractions to Live up to Contracts Causes Grief For Promoters.

Charter Oak had a lively carnival week and a general good time in spite of the fact that several of their chief attractions failed to show up. The business men back of the carnival were greatly enraged and vow that if they ever make another contract a forfeit must be put up. The attendance was good and the crowd made lots of fun for itself. The balloon ascensions were first-class and the ball games were interesting.

The failure of some of the attractions was not in any sense the fault of the business men, and they are not to be blamed, but to be commiserated.

Denison Day attracted nearly a hundred from the county seat and all report having had a good time and a fine visit. Here's better luck to the Oak next year.

DOW CITY VS DELOIT.

Free Base Ball Game Arranged for Afternoon of Old Settlers' Picnic. Both Teams Out for Blood.

Arrangements have been made for a free ball game to be played tomorrow afternoon between the Deloit Man-eaters and the Dow City Devastators. Deloit uttered its challenge last week. Dow City now replies that Deloit is an antediluvian moss back, that should content itself with one-old-cat or croquet, but that if Deloit really would like to have its hide taken off, hung up to dry, and otherwise treated with contempt, Dow City will accommodate it. Accordingly, the two nines will meet tomorrow, with Denison as host and umpire.

Both managers agree to play only home men. No purse is offered, but the game is for glory with a big "G," and either Deloit or Dow City will have to walk home. The game will be an exciting one, and at the price of admission, free to all, there should be a large crowd present.

Mrs. W. D. Fans of Webster City is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Staley.

Mrs. J. P. Jones entertained on Wednesday afternoon as a compliment to her sister Miss Clara of Cedar Rapids and her friend Mrs. Hughes. The ladies had fancy work and this with the fascinating ways of Babies Gebert and Barber lent wings to the afternoon. Mesdames Barber and Jones played as did Miss Clara who seemed to have inherited her aunt Mrs. Jones' musical talent. Mrs. Jones served very elegant refreshments at small tables, assisted by her nephew and niece. Miss Clara and Miss Hughes the guests of honor are very delightful ladies to meet.

Wanted girl millinery trade. Balle-Brodersen Co.

Miss Anna Schumaker leaves this week for Chicago with instructions from the Balle-Brodersen Co. not only to learn all about the newest styles herself but to engage the best trimmer she can find as head trimmer for the department of which Miss Schumaker has charge. Miss Stormont who made such a favorable impression here during the spring season will also be with the firm. Not only will the present helpers be retained but the firm advertises for six additional apprentice girls. It is the intention of the Balle-Brodersen Co. to double the millinery department and to make it the largest and best in western Iowa, prepared not only to supply the ladies of Denison but the ladies of all the surrounding towns. In other words they intend to make it as much a sign of elegance and good taste to say that a hat came from the Balle-Brodersen Co. as to say that a gown came from Par-ee.
