Denison, Iowa.

Mr. J. H. Mahoney and son George spent Sunday in Omaha.

Mrs. Talcott of Dow City was an over Sunday guest in Denison.

Miss Kate Stumaker is enjoying her vacation in Orleans, Neb.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Jones have returned from Des Moines.

Mrs. A. H. Bowen has returned from a pleasant visit to Des Moines.

The Friday club had a pleasant and a profitable meeting, the first of the year.

Mr. L. M. Jones of Charter Oak visited his brother Mr. J. Phil Jones the first of the week.

Mr. Chas. Young returned the first of the week for a brief visit at home. He looks well and prosperous and all are glad to see him.

There will be preaching by the pastor at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning and evening. All evening services will hereafter commence at 7.30 o'clock.

About the most disgusting note in the Portsmouth peace conference was Witt's groveling message to the Czar. Such beastly sycophancy is disgusting to self-respecting Americans.

It is said that the district court has been the scene of some exciting passages at arms this week that in their way would have done credit to the tourneys of old or the arena of ancient Rome.

We acknowledge the courtesy of a request from the Register and Leader of Des Moines for a picture of our "open shop". It is gratifying to know that our big brother keeps an eye on us. The photo has been forwarded.

Mr. Jacob Johnson the new instructor in manual training was very sick at the home of Mr. Geo. Richardson last week, being threatened with typhoid fever. He is now much improved however and able to attend to his school duties.

Mr. Harold Van Winkle returned from the Carroll hospital on Saturday after a successful operation for appendicitis. It is said that his case was a bad one and that but for his splendid physique and habits, he would hardly have recovered. His return is a great source of joy to his parents and friends.

On Monday evening Miss May Cavanaugh of the REVIEW force received a telegram that her sister Mrs. Cal Owens of Pocatello, Idaho was dangerously ill. Miss May and her sister Miss Kate and their mother left for the west on Tuesday to be with their sister. It is our sincere hope that they may find their sister greatly improved and on the road to recovery.

Mr. Warren Romans suffered a relapse on Friday night and after a night of great suffering he was taken to the hospital at Sioux City. At first it was thought that a second operation would have to be performed at once but Warren rallied rapidly and at this writing is about as well as before his relapse. It is hoped now that an operation can be avoided, but Warren will have to take mighty good care of himself for some time to come.

Last week our Mailla correspondence told of the presentation of a beautiful silver communion service to the Methodist church of that city as a memorial of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Saunders. Between the intelligent compositor and the equally intelligent editor a mistake was made which spoiled the meaning of the entire article. We are heartily sorry for the error and our only excuse must be found in the very exceptional conditions under which THE REVIEW is being published at present.

Mrs. J. L. McClellan spent Sunday visiting her son John at Carroll.

Mr. N. Stainiger returned on Saturday from a business visit to Tipton, Ia.

Mrs. John Suhr of West Side visited her friend, Mrs. John Rohwer on Monday.

Miss Margaret Kelly left on Tuesday to spend the week with friends in Panora, Iowa.

Mr. Henry Schelldorf of West Side transacted business at the county seat on Monday.

Mrs. E. H. Smith leaves this week for a visit with friends and relatives in Oregon.

Leslie Gulick visited his friend, George Bowen in Carroll last Saturday and took in the big Ringling show.

Mrs. J. P. Chesney, nee Menagh of De Witt, Nebraska is in Denison this week visiting friends and relatives.

Miss Edna Gilbreath has kindly consented to help with the work at the REVIEW office during the absence of Miss May Cavanaugh.

Mrs. J. B. Romans returned the first of the week from Denver where she was a prominent participant in the W. R. C. National convention.

Mrs. J. J. Bailey and Mr. J. O. Ainsworth were among the Denison Holiness band who attended the camp meeting held at Manila last week.

Mr. U. G. Johnson and Mr. E. W. Pierce went to Council Bluffs on Saturday; presumably to confer with the presiding elder as to Methodist affairs.

The City Federation of Clubs will hold the first meeting of the year in the Carnegie Club room on Saturday afternoon at 2.30 P. M. A full attendance is desired as many matters of much importance will be discussed.

Just received two gross of tooth brushes 10 cents and up at Schumberger's Pharmacy.

Mr. M. M. Bradbury has bought out a grocery and crockery store at Hawarden, Iowa and has already taken possession. Mrs. Bradbury will remain in Denison for about a month longer, when she will join her husband in her new home.

Rev. Dr. E. Miller left on Tuesday afternoon to attend the Methodist conference at Osceola, Iowa. Mrs. Miller will leave on Thursday and will visit in Des Moines. Dr. Miller expects to return to Denison later to complete the removal of his household goods to his new charge.

The Germania Society will give a grand Harvest Ball at the Denison Opera House on Sept. 29.

On Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlin gave a very dainty tea complimentary to Dr. and Mrs. Miller. Lavender astors on a pansy center piece and lavender astors for favors made the table very pretty. Mrs. Chamberlin served a very nice supper. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Kirkup, Dr. and Mrs. Miller, Miss Owens and Miss Meyers.

Mrs. T. J. Kelly and Miss Kate Kelly attended the Ringling Bros. show at Carroll Saturday.

Quite a number of Denison people attended the Ringling Bros. circus at Carroll last Saturday and pronounce the show as being first-class in every particular.

Mrs. Belle Sprecher accompanied her niece Miss Mae Williamson to Philadelphia Thursday night. Mrs. Sprecher will spend the winter months visiting in Philadelphia.

Rev. W. E. Bryce left on Monday morning to attend the presbytery to be held at Auburn in Sac County this week. He will return the latter part of the week and announces that there will be the regular services next Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Cornwell returned last week from Lake Okiboji. They will spend the autumn months in Denison and then we fear will betake themselves to California for the winter. Denison sees altogether too little of these good people.

Mrs. G. W. Heston returned this week from Lake Okiboji and expects to spend the winter in Denison. She reports having had a most enjoyable and profitable season at the lake. She tells us that she would like to sell her desirable residence property in east Denison. It is a beautiful well built house and would make a delightful home.

We are informed that on August 24th, at the M. E. parsonage at Spirit Lake, Iowa, occurred the marriage of Mr. Arthur Anall and Mrs. Mary E. Wahl. Mrs. Wahl is well known here as the daughter of Mrs. G. W. Heston. She is an industrious woman who has shown much of bravery in the battle of life and we wish her every happiness for the future. Mr. Anall is a prosperous young lumber merchant of Concord, Nebraska, and it is at this place that the newly married couple will make their home.

THE REVIEW wishes to acknowledge the courtesy of the Bulletin in allowing this paper the use of its presses this week. This week we have a roof over our heads but the conditions are even more difficult this week than last. It will be two weeks before we can get into fair shape and two months before we can say we are fairly settled in our new office. Thus far we have been particularly fortunate in having fairly favorable weather, no heavy rains, no accidents and that the workmen employed have shown themselves both capable and willing to meet the manifest complications arising from the attempt to build a new building and to occupy the old one at the same time and place. The wrecking of the Review building brought to light a number of the early copies of the REVIEW, of the dates of 1869, 70, 71, 72, and 73. They are very interesting as souvenirs and those lucky enough to be on hand when they were found provided themselves with old copies of Denison's pioneer paper.

AN INFORMAL RECEPTION.

Rev. Dr. E. Miller and Wife Tendered a Reception at The Pierce Home.

The members of the Methodist congregation gave a reception Saturday evening at the Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Pierce home to Rev. Dr. Emory Miller and Mrs. Miller. The gathering was informal and served to show the high esteem in which Dr. Miller and his wife are held by all. During the course of the evening Dr. Miller was presented with a topical Bible in edition de luxe while Mrs. Miller was remembered with a handsome chair and a beautiful souvenir spoon. Mr. U. G. Johnson made the presentation speech and Dr. Miller responded with much feelingly. Light refreshments were served and the evening served to draw the church, its membership and the retiring pastor into still closer fellowship.

ORGANIZE FOR FOOT BALL.

The young men of Denison have noted the appearance of autumn and are busy organizing a foot ball team. There seems to be plenty of good material for a first-class team if the boys will only get out and practice and study the game. The reason that foot ball is the favorite game for the colleges of the country is that in a superlative degree it demands not only strength and fleetness and personal courage, but that it requires more head work, more team work than any other game. No matter how perfect the units of the team may be they cannot succeed unless they work together in unison and with forethought. The proposed line up of the Denison team promises well and we should be glad if Denison were to have a No 1 eleven.

In J. H. Walker, an old Iowa University player, and a good one, they have an excellent coach and if they practice hard and live according to training rules they ought to be the champions of western Iowa.

The proposed line-up is as follows: John Lynch, Center, James Harvey, R. Guard; J. R. McAnelly, L. Guard; T. A. Harvey, R. Tackle; Will Laub, L. Tackle; J. H. Walker, R. End, Joseph Fisher, L. End; Leon Servoss, R. Half; A. J. Larson, L. Half; L. L. Nelson, Quarter Back; George Sprecher, Full Back.

Not all of these players have finally consented to go on the team, but it is hoped that they may and that the eleven may soon commence work.

The Germania society will give a grand Harvest Ball at the Denison Opera House on Sept. 29.

SWEDISH PIONEER DIES.

In the Death of Mr. C. A. Selander, Crawford Loses a Useful, Christian Citizen.

By the death of Mr. C. A. Selander the Swedish-Americans of this county lose one of the best types of the Scandinavian pioneers. A man who was modest, unassuming and retiring but who played his part in life well. Made a success of his undertakings, raised his family in the fear of God and the love of man and gave to them a happy home over which his loving care was the presiding genius.

Carl Alfred Selander was born in Wester Goetland, Sweden, Oct. 27, 1851. He worked at various employments in his native land and then responded to the call of the West and as a young man of twenty-two he came to America. He first settled at Princeton, Ill., where for eight years he worked for others, saving something each year until he was able to buy a farm of his own in Milford township of this county. In 1880 when he had purchased his farm and had made arrangements for the home that was to be his, he married the woman of his choice, Miss Tillie Johnson of Princeton and the young couple came to Crawford to work out their life problem together. For twenty-three years they lived and worked in Milford township. Six children were born to them, Grace, Belle, George, Hugo, Victor and Ruth, all of whom survive their father and were with him in his last hours. About three years ago the family moved to Denison, the father conducting the business of the farm and the sons and daughters doing the work, a happy, loving, industrious family.

The years of toil told on Mr. Selander's constitution, however, and for a number of years he suffered greatly with the asthma. About three weeks ago he was taken ill with stomach trouble. After an illness of a week he apparently recovered and was up and about his usual business. In another week he suffered a relapse, however, and on Thursday, September 7th, he died.

The funeral services were held at the home on Saturday afternoon, Rev. Axelsson of Omaha, and Rev. Swanson of Kirron, officiating, and were attended by a large number of friends and neighbors. Interment was made in Oakland cemetery.

Mr. Selander was a Christian, and his Christian experience was one of the greatest comforts of his life, just as today it is the greatest solace of his loved ones, for they have perfect faith that he is now with God, enjoying the reward vouchsafed to all who serve Him with true hearts.

Mr. Selander was a good citizen, industrious, prudent, honest, intelligent, kindly and lovable. In his death the community suffers a great loss and we can but extend our most sincere sympathy to his loving wife and children in their deep grief.

A SURPRISE PARTY

On Friday evening Mrs. M. E. Jones invited the Misses Stevens, Kelly, Raine and Meyers and Mrs. Randall to her home to celebrate the seventy fifth birthday of Mrs. Mary Jones.

It is needless to say that Mrs. Jones was the youngest one present and that the influence of her sweet presence was felt, as it has been all her life—seventy-five years of unselfishness and helpfulness, brings the reward, the love and esteem in which Mrs. Jones is held cannot be measured in words.

The home and table were beautifully decorated with flowers and a very nice supper was enjoyed.

All the guests joined in hearty congratulations to the honored guest, whose birthdays will always be fete days to those who know her.

MORE HONORS.

CROP BULLETIN.

Official Report of Iowa Climate and Crop Service, Week Ending Sept. 4.

The week ending the morning of the 11th was somewhat cooler than usual, with an excess of cloudiness. The rainfall was generally below normal except in portions of the west central and southwest districts. The week closed with warmer weather and ample sunshine, giving promise of conditions more favorable for ripening corn and other immature crops. The corn crop has made very good advancement and the product will be better because of the slower growth, providing normal weather continues through the balance of the month. Reports indicate that fully 80 per cent of the crop will be practically safe by the 25th, though a frostless September is very desirable for the normal ripening of the whole crop. Some progress has been made in cutting in the districts where the valuable corn fodder is utilized. About the usual amount of damage has been suffered from windstorms, hail, poor seed and root worm but there will be a very handsome amount left at the harvest. Pastures have been kept green and growing by damp weather. Late potato crop is not as good as the early planting. All reports as to the apples are quite unsatisfactory. Fall plowing is in progress, and the area of winter wheat will be increased somewhat.

The Lowest Chicago Price on a Piano.

Everyone in Chicago knows that the way to secure a piano at the lowest price is to telephone, write or call on Lyon & Healy. This firm exhibits the largest and most varied stock of pianos in the world. Over 1,000 instruments are displayed side by side under their roof. All of these pianos are sold at low, fixed prices, which are the same to everyone. The foundation stone of Lyon & Healy's success is to have every piano they sell act as a missionary, that is, be instrumental in selling many other pianos for them.

Lyon & Healy now offer to ship pianos to persons at a distance at precisely the same prices they ask for the goods in Chicago. Furthermore they make a specialty of selecting instruments for persons at a distance. Skilled pianists go over the stock and pick out exactly the tone quality the correspondent desires. This plan works so well that Lyon & Healy's shipments to the country are now very large.

The advantage of buying a piano from the great Chicago music house is self-evident. There is nothing to equal the pianos that Lyon & Healy offer at $150 and upwards. In the twenty great makes that Lyon & Healy sell you will, of course, find Steinways, Webbers, Krakauers, Washburns, and, in fact, all the most desirable instruments of the day. Write for their new and very beautiful catalogue entitled "A Piano Book" Address Lyon & Healy at 10 Adams street, Chicago.
