Studio in Laub Bldg.

Denison, Iowa.

Mr. J. H. Mahoney was Boone a visitor last week.

Alderman John Schnor spent Monday in Omaha on business.

Mr. and Mrs. P. D. McMahon spent Sunday in Dunlap.

It will be well worth your while to hear Miss Verna May Springate in her selections from "The Leopard's Spots" with the Oaks Quartette at the Opera House the 27th.

Mr. Chas. McWilliams had the index finger of his right hand badly lacerated by a circular saw on last Friday.

Dr. Carr's many friends are glad to see him back looking greatly improved in health. He tells us that he will not enter active practice at this time.

The writings of Eugene Field bear a new meaning when set music and sung by "The Oaks Quartette" and if you are given to "Seein' Things at Night" don't fail to hear the boys in these numbers.

Mr. H. F. Beerman of Route Three was a pleasant Review caller on Friday. After looking over the plant and the big ten page paper, he decided that he would add his name to the Review list.

Mr. Bryce has begun a series of Bible lectures on the Book of Acts at his Thursday evening service at the Presbyterian church. The theme this week is, "A birds-eye view of the Book of Acts."

Preaching by the pastor at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning. Theme, "Dr. Barnardo, the friend of the London waifs." No service at night on account of the Sunday School Institute.

Mr. A. J. Randall went to Des Moines on Sunday to size up a position he has been offered in the Northwestern freight house at Des Moines. If the position suits him he will leave Denison in the near future.

Hon. W. E. Jenison, U. S. Land Commissioner for the state of Wyoming, called upon Denison friends last Friday. Mr. Jenison is an Iowa man, from Jefferson, and he has proven himself to be an able, competent and fearless officer. He is one of the time, blue stripe, a man who never forgets his friends, and in fact is a man of whom Iowa may well be proud.

Mr. J. D. Havens leaves this week for Ida Grove where he will make his home in the future. He tells us that he will not neglect to visit Denison friends often however. Mr. Havens is an old soldier who has struggled against misfortunes that would have overcome many of us, and we wish him success and happiness in his new home.

Rev. Father Andrew Bauman of Chicago is expected here next Sunday for a brief visit with relatives and friends. He comes to Iowa to attend the ceremony at Fort Dodge at which the title of Monsignor will be conferred on Rev. Father B. C. Lenehan. Rev. Father Bauman is the son of Mr. W. J. Bauman of Denison township and he is attaining much prominence in his chosen work.

Mr. J. W. Baker appeared before the council on Monday night, asking that a sidewalk grade be established on Sweet street, south of the Northwestern track and beyond the bridge. Mr. Baker wishes to put in a cement walk in front of his property, and we can but wish others would follow his example, as a cement walk to the cemetery is greatly to be desired. It could hardly be asked that the owners of farm property should do this, but every little helps, and some day the city may be able to complete the improvement.

FOR SALE.

160 acres seven miles east of Denison, two miles west of Vail. Good improvements. Inquire of Kate Connor, Vail, Iowa. 41-44

Hon. J. P. Conner spent Saturday in Boone.

Park 8, Setting of "Mammy's Baby Boy" when dramatized as is done by "The Oaks Quartette" goes home to the hearts of all hearers.

Miss Jessie Goodrich spent Sunday in Dow City.

Talcum Powder 10 cents a box at Schlumberger's pharmacy.

Mr. Geo. Naeve made Minneapolis a business visit this week.

An eight room house with furnace in east Denison. Will give possession at once. Inquire at First National Bank. Nov-1

Mr. Warrie Cohlman left on yesterday morning for a brief Des Moines visit.

Mr. R. A. Romans and Warren are expected home this week from Sioux City.

The Queen Esther Circle met with Miss Meyers Monday night, and held an interesting program.

For Sale—Three houses with four acres of land in Grace Park. Will sell together or separately to suit purchaser. Inquire of Dr. Iseninger. 1-3-13

Mrs. Criswell is still confined to the house with a severe cold, much to the regret of her friends.

The Commercial club is discussing the project of holding a two days barbecue sometime next month.

If you have the "blues" and want to get over it go out and hear "The Oaks Quartette" in "Jen's Vegetable Compound" at the Opera House Oct 27. "It will cure you."

The Womans Club met Monday and entered upon the year's work. Mesdames Burch, Cochran and Caswell read papers on Italy.

The work of tunnelling for the heating plant for the new court house is being rapidly pushed, with A. J. Gary as contractor.

Take your doctor's prescriptions to Schlumberger's pharmacy, where it will be compounded with pure fresh drugs, and by careful competent pharmacists.

Dr. W. T. Wright has leased the Welch building on the corner of Broadway and Sweet streets and will occupy it as an office after November 4th. In the meantime he will allow the Hub closing sale to occupy the room until November 4th.

Mr. Fred Soehl announces that he has secured the consent of Dr. W. T. Wright to continue the Hub sale until Nov. 4th. Mr. Soehl is doing well with the sale and hopes by Nov. 4th to have the stock almost completely sold.

Week before last during their opening the Balle-Brodersen Co. kept a partial register of their many guests. The Review man saw the list and was pleased to note that fully two-thirds of the out-of-town visitors were Review subscribers. Verily it pays to advertise.

Mr. G. L. Novotne of Vail found his way into the REVIEW basement last Thursday and shoved his subscription up a notch ahead. Mr. Novotne has long been one of our readers and we are glad that the REVIEW pleases him so well that he wants it to "keep a coming".

By a strange coincidence Mr. Lew 8 Ley and his nephew Mr. Frank Ley both died last week. Both had been afflicted mentally and were in hospitals for the insane for treatment. The condition of each had been hopeless for some time and death comes to them as a happy release from suffering. Mr. Lewis Ley was well known in Denison having lived here a number of years. He was a good man of probity and good character and many friends will remember him with kindness and regard. The REVIEW extends its sympathy to the families of both these men who were thus stricken in the prime of life.

Hon. J. P. Conner spent the first of the week in St. Paul.

For Sale—Thorough bred Duroc Jersey boars, cheap. Frank Woolston.

Rev. Father Cooper of Charter Oak spent Thursday in Denison.

Schlumberger's pharmacy is headquarters for all family receipts.

A club dance will be given at the opera house on Friday evening.

Miss Allie Wilson is recovering from a severe attack of the quinsy.

Miss Theresa Ennis of Charter Oak visited Denison friends on Thursday.

Mr. Chas. Saunders of Manilla transacted business in Denison yesterday.

Mrs. J. A. Barr of Logan was the guest of the Misses Sarachon on Sunday.

Mrs. M. M. McGrath, Mrs. Rob't Moiseed and Miss Johanna Walsh of Vail were Denison shoppers on Tuesday.

Dr. Kemp of the postoffice force is laid up this week with a sore hand which shows signs of blood poisoning.

The REVIEW has been short-handed this week owing to the illness of the foreman, Mr. J. S. Thomas.

The Germania Verein will give a grand ball at the opera house on the evening of Thursday Oct 26, Music by Richard's orchestra.

Mr. Wm. Webb of Leadville, Colorado arrived in Denison and after a brief visit left with Mrs. Webb for a visit with relatives in Canada.

Miss Anna Owens has resigned her position with the Stewart Lumber Co. to take effect this week. It is reported that she has another engagement.

No testimonials are needed concerning the efficiency of "The Oaks Quartette" the experience of Denison observers has been that the boys' best advertisement is that they "make good". People of Crawford county may well be proud that this organization has done such effective work.

Mr. Fischer of Route 5 was a pleasant Denison caller on Tuesday. Mr. Fischer was one of those who won the REVIEW prize for the largest watermelon offered some time ago.

The play "That Little Swede" to be given at the opera house to-night was written by Lawrence Russel well known to the Denison public and to Denison amateurs as the author of "Aberdeen."

There is a project on foot to secure a clock for the new court house. Such a clock would be a very great convenience and we trust that the court house will not be completed without its installation.

Some of our advertisers are taking a lay-off this week on account of the wet weather. It is a mistake because this is just the time when the farmers and their good wives have plenty of time to read the papers from top to bottom.

Mr. Joe Kelly of Carroll visited Denison friends here yesterday. It is rumored that Joe is soon to give up his state of single blessedness and the old Hamburgers are wondering how he will work in double harness. Here's every happiness to him and his.

The social event of the week is to be the Friday Club banquet. Already the "toasters" are beginning to wear that worried look that gives birth to humor and the menu, program and decoration committees are all busy. These annual banquets are perhaps the most pleasant events of Denison's social calendar.

We have heard that there is a bare possibility that Denison can secure the famous Oberlin Glee Club for a concert this winter. This is one of the best musical organizations in the United States and if there is any chance for Denison to secure them there should be no trouble about a guarantee. A brother of Dr. McConaughey is a member of the Oberlin quartette.
