Everett Kemp, the second member on the lecture course, gave his entertainment Tuesday night at the opera house. Mr. Kemp is an elocutionist of known ability and his selections were favorably received by everyone.

Mabel Powers, the little five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Powers, was taken sick Friday evening with membranous croup. Dr. Adams of Vail and Dr. Patterson of West Side were called and everything was done to help her, but death came in twenty-four hours. The funeral took place from St. Ann's church Monday morning. Rev. Father Noonan officiating. The sorrowing relatives have the sympathy of all their neighbors and friends.

At St. John's church, Vail, Iowa, last Wednesday, was solemnized the marriage of Miss Maud Abbott, a well known young lady here, and Mr. Steve Slechta. The bride was attended by Miss Bertha Kotas of Glidden, Iowa, as bridesmaid, while Charles Pachta officiated as best man. As the bridal party entered the church Miss Evaline Fitch rendered the wedding march. The ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. Arthur Pratt, at 9 o'clock in the morning and was witnessed by a large company of the relatives and friends of the contracting parties. After the ceremony the wedding party was driven to the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Abbott, where a wedding dinner was served and a reception was tendered the bride and groom. Mr. and Mrs. Slechta received many handsome presents. They gave a dance in the opera house in the evening to which many friends were invited to enjoy themselves. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abbott and has a wide circle of friends. The groom is the son of Mrs. A. Slechta and is a steady, industrious young man. The young couple expect to go housekeeping on the groom's farm a few miles north of Vail. They have the best wishes of a host of friends.

C. A. Saunders refused $5000.00 for his famous, 18 month's white calf last week, the parties who are trying to buy the animal are Illinois millionaires and the fact goes to show that Iowa puts up the best stock in the world and Manilla may be proud that the Greeley Stock farm is a valuable addition to this raising.

Holloway's night passed off with the usual amount of deprecation, from the boys and girls having a good time. Nothing serious took place with the exception of one instance where some one stretched wire knee high across the highway just at the railroad north of the depot. It is our opinion that any person who does those tricks should be sent to a place where he should be forced to think for himself.
