George Harvey has been on the sick list for a few days but is again able to be out.

Hilly Newman was a visitor in this community Friday evening.

Grace Pence of Sioux City is visiting here a few days.

Ed. Confield of Sioux City is visiting at Tom Noonan's this week.

Mike McCabe living south of here sold his farm a short time ago and bought two hundred acres near Neola.

James O'Meara spent Sunday in the country at the Tom Noonan home.

Mr. Greder sr. had a calf killed on the railroad track last Friday.

Miss Berg of Glidden visited Veva Flansberg for a few days last week. Miss Berg expressed her self as well pleased with our little town and the people she met.

The M. E. church held a choir meeting at Mrs. Beutels last Friday.

There will be services at the Catholic church next Sunday at nine o'clock.

Mrs. Will Moffitt entertained a few friends Thanksgiving evening. Mesdames Bentel, Fowler and McManien with their husbands.

Mrs. Charles Chase is enjoying a visit from her brother a few days.

Fred Albert and Teva Schroeder were under the doctors care last week.

The sound of the corn sheller is heard in the land. Mr. Murrick has been busy at that work this week and some people are glad to have cobs to burn.

Jas. Hains raffled off a lot of geese here Wednesday so lots of folks had geese instead of turkey Thanksgiving.

William Smith's team ran away with him on his way home from Dow City, one day last week. He was thrown out and hurt somewhat, but luckily, not seriously, and is again all right.

Jay and Ornie Bicknell of Sioux City were at manilla Thursday night to the dance and then came down here on Friday for a couple of days, the boys are looking fine as if railroad agreed with them.

John Duff arrived home Tuesday after several months stay at Clarinda, where he has been under treatment for his health. He seems to have entirely recovered and his physicians pronounced him cured, which is grand good news for his wife and family and host of friends.

Last Saturday morning little Tommy O'Meara who lives with his grandparents, south of here in Shelby county set fire to a straw stack and then seeing what he had done climed up on top of it and hid his face. His grandmother happened to see his foot as he moved it, and succeeded in getting the little fellow out uninjured, but luckily no further damage was done.

Manley L. Pence of Sioux City was married to Miss Melissa E. Bicknell of Hills, North Dakota, at four o'clock Thursday afternoon at the home of E. E. Chardwick 1101 Court street, by Rev. R. F. Chipperfield. Mr. Pence is a brakeman on the Milwaukee railroad. They will live in Sioux City. This notice appeared in the Sioux City Journal. These young people are well and favorably known in this vicinity having lived here their host of friends here wish them all joy and happiness in their new relation. Mr. and Mrs. Pence stepped off the train here they were greeted with a shower of rice, but Manly was equal to the occasion and treated the crowd to cigars and the happy couple went their way in peace. They are spending a few days with Erastus Thew and wife, grandparents of the bride.
