

Buck Grove

Mrs. George Harvey and daughter Glenn were callers at the county seat Tuesday.

Miss Pearl Bonney went to Charter Oak Tuesday afternoon to resume her duties as teacher after a pleasant Christmas vacation.

Herman Hain and Bert Bicknell went to Denison Tuesday.

Tom White jr. left for Sioux City Tuesday where he has secured a position and will remain there for the present.

The dance at Manilla was largely attended by young folks from here.

Mr. Herman Hains and Miss Lena Buman were united in marriage, Wednesday evening December 27th, 1903, at eleven o'clock. The ceremony took place in Denison at the home of the bride. Mr. Bert Bicknell was groomsmen and Miss Emma Nehis was bridesmaid. The happy couple left the same day for Oxford Junction, to visit relations for a few days, after which they will be at home to their many friends, on the Buman farm south east of town, where they will make their home for the present. This happy event has been expected for some time, but came as a little surprise to many. They are very worthy young people and a host of friends extend congratulations and good wishes to them for a long and happy life.

Kints Marriaville Show has been entertaining our people nearly all week. It has been a long time since there has been any kind of an entertainment in our town, owing to the fact that we had no hall large enough, the show was well attended each night.

Andrew Miller spent Christmas with friends in Manilla.

Roy Slater and Miss Hattie Sewing were Manilla visitors Tuesday.

Mr. Sharp of Manilla, transacted business here Tuesday.

Mrs. Geo. Harvey drew the rug given away at Bonney's Drug store the Saturday before Christmas, Herman Haines and Bert Bicknell officiated at the drawing and number 61 was the lucky number.

Miss Jennie Mitchell has been visiting friends in this vicinity lately.

The watch contest at Hagan and Hinks, was closed Monday. Miss Sallie Duber was the lucky girl she having 117 votes. The votes stood as follows:
Sallie Duber.....117
Jessie Sharp.....114
Mable Bumaster.....528
Laura Stahl.....400
Mrs. A. Anderson.....2
Lydia Frey.....3
Nellie Welch.....11
Miss Berg.....12
Hattie Sewing.....15
There was a majority of 30 votes in of Miss Duber.

Bernice and Sidney Bonney had a party for their young friends last Thursday evening. Nearly every body came, who was invited and all had a good time. Refreshments were served and the happy company wended their way home in the wee small hours.

Sidney Bonney after a weeks visit returned to Denison Saturday.

Bernice Bonney returned to her school at Schleswig Monday after a weeks vacation.

Jim Griffin and Jennie Mitchell drove to Dow City Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Lee Winn is visiting friends at Tipton, Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Iseminger have returned from their Council Bluffs visit.

Mrs. P. J. Welch and Mrs. George Harvey were Denison shoppers Friday.

Miss Mae Hunting of Ute is visiting her friend Miss Glen Harvey.

Mrs. John Kepford and daughter left on New Years day for their home in Ames, Iowa.

There were services at the Catholic church New Year day at this place.

Dan Humphill has returned from his visit to Cedar Rapids.

Ira Chase has been on the sick list for a few days.

Kiron

Jos. T. Edling, now a prominent light in the real-estate sphere in Kansas City, formerly a Kiron boy, spent a couple of days in our midst last week renewing of friendships and again seeing the scenes of childhood days.

Mrs. Julius Johnson is expected home this week from Chicago where she went to visit her daughters, and to see the sights of that interesting city.

Oscar Tellgren and family from Madrid, Iowa, are spending a couple of weeks with their relatives and friends in Kiron.

Mrs. O. E. Clauson and son Leslie, and Mrs. John Cedargreen and Edith Lillieholm visited Schleswig between train hours Tuesday last.

Rev. N. Wicksell of St. Joseph Mo., is spending a few weeks visiting relatives and many friends in and around Kiron—all who are pleased to again meet their former pastor and friend.

On Saturday evening this week at the Kiron hall the Oaks Quartet entertainment will be given and from testimonials from town and individuals who have listened to these singers, this entertainment will be a rare treat for our people. The Womens History club of Kiron has secured this Quartet to give this entertainment and they are to be commended in getting such material that will guarantee an entertainment of first class order. They should receive the support of all in their attempt to secure nothing but the best for our town.

Simon Larson is advertising his stock and farming tools for sale at public auction on the N. E. Larson farm on Wednesday, January 17, having decided to quit farming.

Banker W. J. Sandberg and Emil Kluckholm drove to Odebolt on Friday evening where business items were looked after.

Charles Nordholm and daughter residing near Battle Creek, spent the latter part of the week visiting the S. A. Nordholm family in town.

Mrs. Robert Anderson is again at home, after several months absence at Omaha, where she had a surgical operation performed for her ankle which had caused her great pain. Her many friends are glad to see her back and that prospects are for a complete restoration.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Schmidt from near Schleswig, drove to Kiron Saturday to trade. We are always pleased to see this sturdy and progressive farmer and his wife come to our town. Miss Mabel Larson of Odebolt, visited several days, the C. G. Carlson family west of town last week.

S. M. Sandstrom and John P. Turin went in to Chicago Saturday with several cars of cattle which they had fattened.

Our restaurant man, Peter Miller and family, visited a couple of days last week with relatives in Harcourt, Iowa.

New Years watch services were held at the Mission and Lutheran churches on Sunday night.

E. E. Clauson had a splendid surprise sprung on him Friday evening at the home of his brother, O. E., when the Sunday school children and neighbors and friends had gathered to spend the evening with him. At 7:30 E. E. was summoned in haste and when entering the house found one hundred awaiting him. A most pleasant evening was spent in social chat. Rev. E. S. Swenson made a short speech, and in behalf of those present presented E. E. a sum of twenty-five dollars to remember the occasion by, also as an appreciation of his work in the Sunday school. Rev. N. Wicksell and John Cedargreen spoke briefly of the occasion, after which refreshments were served. A most pleasant time was enjoyed.

Married, on Thursday, evening Dec. 28, at the home of Aug. Lillieholm's near Denison, Elmer Hoaglund and Mabel Lillieholm in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. Rev. John Axelson from Fremont, Iowa, pronouncing the words that made them man and wife. Miss Ethel Hoaglund presided at the piano, playing the beautiful strains of the wedding march that ushered into the parlor the happy couple and their attendants to have the ceremony performed that untied them as one. The groomsmen were Richard Lillieholm, brother of the bride and Bert Lomer of Kiron, the maids were Edith Lillieholm and Edna Hoaglund. After the ceremony congratulations followed, which were of the heartiest, after which a fine supper was served. A large number of very fine and useful presents were given the royal couple. The groom is too well known in our midst to need any words of introduction, has always been one of the boys respected and jovial, and is one of our successful business men, being an important factor in the Hoaglund Mercantile establishment. The bride is well acquainted in our locality having spent many a day in Kiron and vicinity admired and respected by all, a lady possessing the talents of rule and preside and accomplish the duties of a household. We join in with the many to welcome this couple to our midst and wish for them the best that is possible to be obtained of the blessings of life as they sail down life's stream together. They will soon be at home in the new Hanson residence now nearly completed.

Jackson

Dotliel Brotherson shipped two car loads of cattle to the Chicago market last week.

Mr. George Weed has returned from Chicago. He took in the big stock show and say it was great.

Thomas Brotherson is building a new house on the old Payne farm.

Ten car loads of cattle was shipped out of Herring last Monday to Chicago.

Mr. Vet Treadway is visiting among his friends this week and is having a fine time.

Mr. J. C. Stevensons and wife of Chariton, visited with Mrs. E. J. Gunn during the holidays.

Thomas Brotherson gave a dance at his new house last Saturday night. Henry Dreesen is the happy father of a fine girl that came to his home Thursday night.

Some one went into Mr. Jake Owens' barn last week and took unto himself two cow hides, some furs and some other articles and skipped. Too bad. Some one will run into some buck-shot some of these nights.

Mr. David Waldhlem and wife of Primghar, visited with Mrs. J. N. Gunn on New Years day.

Miss Stokes visited her parents in Carroll during the holidays.

Ed McAndrews barn was burned down on Friday evening, Dec. 29, a party of young folks were there having a good time and it is supposed that a cigar stub was thrown among the hay and caused a fire.

On Saturday last some of the school boys started a fire on the goose pond to scare out rabbits and burned five or six hay stacks.

West Jackson

Mr. and Mrs. John Pithan and daughter, Elsie, from Charter Oak visited, a few days at the home of Frank Aylward.

Thomas Abbott of near Vail, visited over night Tuesday with Chas. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. John Holland and daughter Loretta, were Vail visitors Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Brogdan spent Tuesday evening with Supervisor Maynard and wife.

Frank Piper of near Vail, is visiting with his sister, Mrs. Andrew Dozark.

R. J. Deiter was a business caller at Vail, Tuesday.

Andrew Dozark and Frank Piper were Vail visitors Thursday.

Among those who attended the Christmas tree in Boyer Wednesday night were: Robert Abbott, James and Joe Dozark, Frank Piper, George Maynard, Hattie Brogdan and the Misses Sadie Newton, Mildred, Ila and Lilly Frederickson, Mary Dozark and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brogdan and Mr. and Mrs. A. Frederickson.

Ed. Leisis' mother spent the holidays with Ed. and Jake.

Miss Marie Christiansen was in Boyer, Wednesday.

Mr. Charles Richardson and Miss Lizzie Brogdan were Boyer visitors Thursday.

Anton Ahrenkiel was in Herring, Thursday.

Ed. Duffey was a business caller at Vail, Wednesday.

Mart Dugan and John Ryan are bailing hay for Anton Christiansen this week.

Anton Christiansen went to South Dakota, Thursday to look at land.

Mr. and Mrs. Swanson of Odebolt, and his sister from Michigan, spent Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Richardson.

R. J. Riley was a business caller at Denison, Friday.

Wm. Kimes and Jim Abbott were business callers at Boyer, Friday.

John McCullough attended a meeting of the Board of Trustees at the Central school house on Wednesday night.

Miss Rose Monaghan spent Sunday and New Years at her home in Milford township, and went to Omaha Saturday.

Anton Christiansen went to Dunlap Tuesday, returning Wednesday.

Charles Johnson and Robert Abbott were business visitors at Vail, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dozark were Vail visitors, Friday.

Ralph Hannah who is attending college at Cedar Rapids, is spending the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hannah.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Richardson were business callers at Vail, Saturday.

Mrs. Katie Dozark spent Thursday with Mrs. Marie Ahrenkiel.

Miss Rachel Riley spent the last of the week with her sister Lou, who is teaching near Vail. They went to Denison Saturday to visit with relatives, returning home Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Slegel of near Vail, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dozark.

Mattie and Frankie Brogdan and sister Agnes visited in Vail over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Christiansen and Miss Emma Baak from Ricketts, are visiting with relatives in our vicinity this week.

George Schwany was in Herring, Saturday.

Miss Ida Trueller of Council Bluffs, is visiting with her sister, Mrs. D. Benton.

Arthur and Denis Wickwire returned Monday to their home near Charter Oak, accompanied by their cousins, Pearl and Fay Abott.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Aylward spent Sunday with her sister, Miss Mray Ann Dougan.

R. J. Deiter and children attended church in West Side New Years day.

Frank Day of Milford, spent Sunday with R. J. Riley.

Miss Kate Slechta of Milford, visited last week with Mrs. D. Benton.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hannah and Mrs. Ahrenkiel and son Anton attended church in Vail, Sunday.

Mrs. Marie Ahrenkiel and children spent New Years day at the Rapsen home.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Dozark spent Saturday with her mother, Mrs. Piper of Milford.

Leonard Deiter of near Vail, is visiting a few days at the home of his uncle, R. J. Deiter.

Those who attended the New Years ball at Vail were the Mr. Jim Abbott, Joe Dozark, Aaron White, Francis Holland and Harry Riley and the Misses Lou White, Marie Dozark, Jennie Riley and Katie Holland.

For coughs and colds no remedy is equal to Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. It is different from all others—better, because it expels all colds from the system by acting as a cathartic on the bowels. Affords immediate relief in Croup, Coughs, Cold, Whooping Cough, etc. Children love it. Sold by Lamborn Drug Co.

Vail

Mr. C. E. McAlpin of Wall Lake, spent New Years day with relatives in Vail.

Charles Considering of Omaha, has been visiting in Vail a few days the first of the week.

Chas. Breen returned from a three weeks visit in Chicago, and other parts in Illinois.

Mr. John Lyons, Vess Lyons and Steve Cayre of Wall Lake, were in attendance at the New Years ball here Monday evening.

Mr. Peter Monaghan now operator at Boone, Iowa, spent New Years day at his home here.

Mrs. Van Vleet and daughter are spending a few days with relatives in town.

Mr. James Gaffey of Kansas City, is visiting with his mother and other relatives and friends here at present.

Ed Sheridan left for Des Moines Tuesday p. m. after spending the holidays at the home of his father a few miles north of town.

Claude and Hazel Mahan left for Missouri Monday evening.

There was a dance given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. McAndrews north of Vail Friday evening and as the young folks were just at supper it was noticed that McAndrews barn was on fire and they had to work hard to save all the horses but the barn was destroyed.

The prizes given away by Mr. Ben Olson on December 31st at his grocery store was won by Miss Selma Whillin who had the largest number of votes on the lamp and Mary Chapman won the large doll.

The moving picture show by Prof. Ringer was given in the opera house Tuesday evening, Jan. 2nd, as advertised.

There was a New Years ball given at the opera house Monday evening that was a grand success both financially and socially.

Mr. Johnnie Harrington returned Tuesday to his school duties at Omaha after spending his vacation at the home of his parents.

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve
For Piles, Burns, Sores.

FOR SALE
Cockerels
A Number of Black Langshans
and a few
Buff Orphingtons

at reasonable price. Now is the best time to get your next season's breeders. Call on or address

Chas. G. A. Johnson,
RFD No. 2, Box No. 26, Kiron, Iowa

Denison
Mill and Elevator Co.
Luney Bros. Old Stand

We wish to announce to our customers and to those that would become our customers, that we are PRACTICAL MILLERS, and our mill is equipped for doing as good work as any mill in this part of the country and that we intend doing both CUSTOM and MERCHANT MILLING, and we always have on hand a full line of mill products.

We most respectfully solicit your patronage when you wish either to Sell, Exchange or Buy.

Come and see us any time you need anything in our line.

We Will Try to Please You.

Yours Respectfully,
Wm. H. Rule, Manager,
Denison, Iowa.

Fine Fresh Meats Delivered Promptly to Any Part
Of the City.

Moeller Bros.

Call Them Up On Either Phone. Denison, Iowa.

SEE HERE!

WE have on hand a nice lot of Fence Posts and Poles. Also small Piling, Hog Wire Fence, a car of the very best cement on the market, all kinds of shingles and building materials at bed rock prices.

Call and see us before purchasing elsewhere. At the old Stone & Temple stand.

W. R. TEMPLE CO.

January Sacrifices

Low prices prevail throughout our entire stock during the month. Now is your chance to get the best of goods cheaper than ever.

Jewelry, Musical Instruments
China and Silverware ever brought to Denison

Among the Bargains

We Would Call Especial Attention to the Following

Tuft's Silverware Better than Sterling, in beautiful and artistic designs. Something special—Silverwear in sets and special pieces for the table, Silver and Ebony Toilet Sets; beautiful China, handsome Plates, Auzerian and Rozane Vases, Japanese ware, Jardinieres, Mirrors and Triple Mirrors, fine Hand Bags, Music Rolls, Eastman Kodaks, Parker Fountain Pens, handsome Albums, fancy Stationery, Victor and Edison Talking Machines, a magnificent line of Cut Glass.

Central Burner Parlor Lamps Light like electricity; a new invention; prices from $2.75 to $8.00

Diamonds, Diamonds, Diamonds A beautiful selection of choice gems of the first water.

Pianos, Organs, Guitars and all manner of small musical instruments.

WATCHES in all styles, makes and prices. Clocks in greatest variety.

We invite an inspection of this wonderful stock, and our guarantee goes with every article sold

P. S.—We have a beautiful line of handsome Framed Pictures on which we are making very close prices. Call and see them.

J. L. Warbasse
MAIN STREET, DENISON