Denison, Iowa

The Daily Tribune offer expires Saturday, Feb. 10th.

Mr. Rudolph Kolls made Mapleton a visit last week.

Mrs. Clark Marshall was a Denison visitor last week.

Hy Mesick of Charter Oak, was a Denisonite on Monday.

J. A. Kral and S. A. Kral of Vail, spent Saturday in Denison.

John Stehlok of West Side, spent Saturday in the county seat.

Mr. Robert Woodruff visited old college friends in Mt. Vernon last week.

Henry Hoeffler of Charter Oak, transacted business in Denison on Saturday.

Mr. R. W. Bamford is moving into the house recently vacated by Mr. Gaswell.

Mr. J. C. Monaghan of Milford, was one of Denison's shoppers on Saturday.

Carsten Christiansen of Arion, has moved to Denison, having purchased the Bossen property.

Col. A. C. Weeks goes to Ute tonight, where he will muster in a new camp of the Sons of Veterans.

Con Houlihan has sold his 160 acre farm in East Boyer township, to Carl Schneider, for a consideration of $70.00 per acre.

The Sons of Veterans are preparing for a big time at this hall tomorrow night. State Commander Gibson, and Mr. Will F. Muse of Mason City, will be present at the installation.

Mr. William Raine has been quite ill the past week but is now slowly improving. Mrs. Jordan returned to her home in Dunlap Saturday after spending the week with Mr. Raine.

The Epworth League had a large and successful social at the home of Mrs. Chas. Voss. A light, snappy program of games, fun and music made the evening a very pleasant one.

Mr. B. Brodersen has a cow named Mau. Last week he went to milk Mau and she landed on him square in the eye. It was a fearful jolt and Mr. Brodersen is wearing his eye in deep mourning.

Howard Balle Fletcher is the latest addition to the population of Elkader, Iowa. He was born Saturday, Feb'y. 3rd, and Julius says he looks just like his uncle. We congratulate the happy parents on their little son.

Dr. L. W. Littig of Iowa City, one of the foremost men of his profession in Iowa, visited Denison on Monday en route for Schleswig, where he was called in consultation over Mrs. Henry Krohnke, who is dangerously ill with spinal meningitis.

Mr. T. J. Garrison accompanied by Miss Helen Carrothers, left Monday for Chicago. Mr. Garrison will make an extensive southern stay, going first to Hot Springs, Ark., Miss Carrothers goes to Philadelphia, where she will make her future home.

Miss Effie Norris was hostess to a number of young ladies on Saturday afternoon. The drive out was much enjoyed and Miss Norris had a most hearty welcome and very fine refreshments for her guests. The affair was one of the most enjoyable affairs of the week.

Won't you be my

Temple Kirkup spent Sunday with Vail friends.

Art Green transacted business in Dunlap on Tuesday.

Mr. J. H. Mahoney visited Boone relatives on Monday.

Mrs. F. L. Hoffman visited in Denison the first of the week.

Review Premium noteheads given free during February only.

John Peper made Bristow, Nebraska, a business visit this week.

The Social Whist club had a pleasant meeting with Miss Bernice Osborne.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Farrelly left on Tuesday for a visit in O'Keene, Oklahoma.

Miss Genevieve Lally is at home sick, which will be regretted by her many friends.

Mrs. Sarah Wagoner went to Omaha Tuesday to visit her daughter, Mrs. Wagoner Thomas.

O. B. Southwell and S. J. Woodruff went to Des Moines on creamery business on Monday.

Remember the Methodist Ladies Aid society Market day sale at the Broadway grocery Saturday.

Mr. B. G. Lyman enjoyed a few days visit this week from his mother whose home is in Council Bluffs.

At a meeting of the Coterie club Mrs. P. D. McMahon and Mrs. Fellows were elected members of the club.

The fancy China is going fast, so act quick, if you want fancy china at nearly half price. W. E. KOENEMAN, Broadway Druggist.

Mrs. Buffington and daughter, Miss Della, left last Saturday for Laurel, Neb., where they will visit friends and relatives for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Strong, and Mr. and Mrs. Will Huffman from northwest of Denison, attended the Hallowell funeral at Dow City, on Wednesday.

The Helper's club celebrated its first anniversary at the home of J. C. Saul on Saturday evening. They had a light supper and all reported having a very pleasant time.

A. D. Wilson is assisting The Boys in getting their new hardware stock into shape. Mr. Wilson is an experienced hardware man and will make the place look finely.

M. V. Miller left on Tuesday for a visit with friends in Marshalltown. Mr. Miller has many friends here who regret that he is not to remain as towerman for the Illinois Central.

Judge Conner by his speech on the rate bill has shown that he is worthy to stand shoulder to shoulder with Senator Dolliver in support of the President's policy and the people's rights.

It is now said that Harriman has obtained a controlling interest in the Illinois Central and that that road and the Union Pacific are soon to be merged under the name of the Illinois Central. This will be a hard blow to the Northwestern and other Iowa trunk lines and may perhaps result in the building of another line to the coast.

Mr. Aug. Theodorf died at his home in Denison on Wednesday, Jan. 21st, of heart failure. He was in his 71st year and was a well known and respected citizen. He leaves a wife and two sons. The funeral service took place at the home on Saturday at 1:30 p. m.

Mr. Bryce returned from his visit in Shelbyville and Danville, Ky. on Saturday. Mr. Bryce reports his wife and children as being very well. Mr. Bryce preached in his own church in Shelbyville, while away and all the other churches of the city paid him the compliment of closing and attending his service.

"A Comparison of the lives of Marshall Field and Charles T. Yerkes," will be the theme of Mr. Bryce's sermon next Sunday night at the Presbyterian church. The morning theme will be "Christian Altruism," and a full attendance of the congregation is requested as a special matter bearing on the welfare of the church will be presented.

Supervisors Schroeder, Molter and Maynard, made the Review an unofficial call on Friday and inspected the Review plant and building from top to bottom. While the majority of the board is of opposite political faith we are glad to say the personal relations between members and the editor have always been most cordial and friendly.

Mrs. Voss entertained Penelope on Tuesday, the members having a delightful meeting in her beautiful home. Mrs. Voss' supper was served in two courses and contained a number of surprises to both the eye and palate. Pink and white carnations added their spicy beauty to the room and a game of "pies that are never eaten" gave zest as a last course.

Mr. G. F. Lochmiller is back from North Dakota for a brief business visit. "Jud" is fairly in love with his new home and believes that North Dakota that a great future. He reports the Crawford county people in his vicinity as being both prosperous and happy. On his return he expects to go to farming, and he expects this years crop to yield as much as the cost of the land.

Mrs. A. G. Martyn was taken to Des Moines on Saturday upon the advice of her physician to consult a specialist with reference to her eye so severely injured by the recent accident. Her many friends will be pained to learn that the vision of the eye has been destroyed, resulting in its consequent blindness. There will no doubt be before her many hours of suffering before the healing process. She is in a darkened room at present.

The two recitals given by the pupils of Miss Lillie Raine were greeted with large and interested audiences. Miss Raine is doing fine work as a teacher and her pupils do her good credit. Her class is a large one but she seems to do full justice to each pupil. Miss Palmer and Miss Lally assisted Miss Raine and added much to the interest and brilliancy of the evening. Miss Lally's playing delighted all her hearers. Miss Palmer is a charming reader, producing her effect without effort or stageiness.

On Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Pierce entertained the officers of the M. E. Sunday school numbering about forty. Mrs. Pierce served a two course lap supper and was assisted in this pleasant duty by the Misses Marshall, Goodrich, Van Ness and Hart. Mrs. Pierce's refreshments were very nice and the visit and friendliness of the evening were most marked. Mrs. J. B. Roman gave a very amusing reading concerning Mrs. Casey. The M. E. Sunday school is a vital living force and the close touch maintained by the teachers and scholars as well as the interest taken by Superintendent Pierce have much to do with this flourishing condition.

The Pending Question:

What Do the Denison People Want?

- "Living Bakeries,"
- "Living Prices,"
- "Pound Loaf Makes The Biggest Slices,"
- "Where to Get Them,"
- "They All Know,"
- "On the Corner,"
- "Just Below."

It is on the Corner of Broadway and Sweet Street. There this demand for Dainty, Delicate and Delicious Bakery Goods will be fully met by the Parlor Baker, and that is what the Denison people want.

The special revival services at the Baptist church are quite well attended. The meetings commenced a week ago under the leadership of the pastor and good seems to be resulting. They are to continue for some nights, and the interest seems to be on the increase.

Martin H. Barrett of Dunlap, has purchased the Peters property just east of the McMahon residence and will make Denison his future home. Mr. Barrett is one of Dunlap's leading citizens and we welcome him to Denison.

Married, at Grand Junction, Iowa, on the evening of Feb. 1st, 1906, at the residence of the bride's parents, Clyde M. Cochran and Miss Theresa M. Balzke, Rev. A. G. Martyn of Denison, officiating. The young people are well known and have many friends in Denison. The bride has made her home for several years past in Iowa City, and Denison. In the art of a fashionable modiste she attained rare skill and success. By her vivacious geniality and lady-like bearing as well as genuine excellence of character, she has won the respect and esteem of all with whom she came in contact. The groom is a Denison boy to the manor born, reared, and educated here, and has forged to the front by his personal effort and ambition. He is now a Chief clerk in the Railway service of the "Illinois Central," and is destined to climb the ladder of promotion by fidelity and industry. The young wedded couple will make their home in Council Bluffs. The Review joins their many friends in congratulations and well wishes for a happy matrimonial life.
