

Buck Grove

The wedding bells have rung and the long expected marriage took place Wednesday, February 28th, 1906, when Mr. Hilly Newman of Arion, wedded Miss Saka Carpenter, one of Buck Grove fairest daughters. Both these young people are well known here, as Hilly has lived here for years and Miss Saka grew to womanhood here in our midst and has been one of Crawford county's most successful teachers. The ceremony took place at the home of Mrs. George Carpenter and was witnessed by only the nearest relatives. At 11:00 Rev. McCormick of Moorhead, pronounced the solemn words which united this worthy couple. After a sumptuous wedding feast the happy couple started on their long journey together. They will visit relatives in Nebraska and friends in Sioux City, before settling down in their cosy home which Hilly has prepared for himself and bride at Arion, where he is engaged in business. Our good wishes follow them into their new life. We trust that they may see many years of success and happiness.

The little son of Patrick Burke is quite sick at this writing.

Messrs. Earl Hemphill and Roy Moffitt with the Misses Laura Moffitt, and Mabel Brewster took a pleasant drive to Defiance, Friday, and brought Vernie Moffitt and T. Hemphill, home to spend Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Will Moffitt and family are now citizens of Buck Grove and are cosily settled in rooms over R. J. Moffitt's store.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Peterson have moved to town and are occupying the Bicknell residence.

John Green and family moved last Thursday onto a farm about half a mile south of town.

Mr. Jack Mullen and family from north of Denison have moved on to their farm about two miles south of Buck Grove, which they recently purchased from Andrew Peterson.

Mrs. Lee Winn is enjoying a visit from her brother, Ben Rice, of Milton, Ia. He is on his way to Kansas.

Mrs. Ira Chase who has been seriously ill with pneumonia, is reported somewhat better.

The many friends of Mrs. Alvin Williams were very much shocked to hear of her death. She has been on a visit to relatives in Indiana and was on the eve of her departure home when she was taken seriously ill with pneumonia. Her husband hurried to her bedside, and after his arrival she began to improve, but again took a relapse and died. Her husband and children have the sympathy of all in their bereavement.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Cruise and son Bert arrived from Greene county, Wednesday are pleasantly located in the Olson house east of town.

On Monday afternoon at the M. E. church occurred the funeral of a little two year old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Killeen, who live south west of West Side. The child was taken sick with membranous croup and although everything that human hands could do was done to relieve the little sufferer, he died on Saturday morning. The sorrowing family have our deepest sympathy in their great bereavement.

The Teacher's meeting held at Germania hall last Saturday afternoon proved very interesting. On account of the inclemency of the weather there were not as many strangers in attendance as was expected, but the West Side people turned out well. The program was good and the singing consisting of a duet by Mrs. Barr and Miss Barr, and a quartet by Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Wagner, Mrs. Gary and Mr. Barr very much appreciated by all.

REVIEW'S MARKET LETTER.

Furnished by Clay Robinson Co, the Well Known Omaha Firm.

South Omaha, March 6, 1906.

The run of cattle the past week has been moderate, and the quality as a rule only fair. Early last week the market was inclined to be draggy, but Wednesday's trade was strong and active with a substantial advance. The market on steers closed a little weaker than the best time during the week, but fully steady with the close of the previous week. So far this week the trade has been strong and fully steady today's advance on steers of fully a dime. The good to choice steers with flesh and quality are quotable now at $5.00 to $5.50; fair to good $4.75 to $5.00; common $4.50 to $4.75. The cow market closed rather weak last Friday and 10 to 15c lower for the week. So far prices have held just about steady this week. Choice heifers are quotable at $4.25 to $4.50; choice cows $3.85 to $4.25; good cow $3.40 to $3.685; fair cows $3.00 to $3.35; canners and cutters $2.00 to $3.00. Veal calves, stags, etc. have changed but little during the past week, and everything of this sort is selling readily enough.

The supply of stockers and feeders has been very fair this week, the demand has also been quite strong, and the trade has held in active condition generally. Prices are fully steady with a week ago, more especially for the heavy flesh steers suitable for feeding purposes. Good to choice heavy feeders are quotable at $4.50 to $4.75; fair to good $4.00 to $4.40 fair to good $3.75 to $4.00.

The hog market has generally been strong with a higher tendency, although prices are about a nickle lower today. The bulk sold at $6.17 1/2 to $6.22 1/2 with top at $6.30, which prices are 15 to 20c higher than one week ago. Indications favor a good hog trade during the spring, but believe where hogs are finished it is advisable to let them come along.

At a recent dinner party the present day Lyceum was being discussed, when Dr. Frank Gunsaulus said, "There are three really great lecturers on the platform today, Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, Dr. Thos. E. Green and Dr. Russel H. Conwell."
