

Be sure you're right, then go ahead

is a good adage. First of all be sure you feel right at the time you contemplate sitting for your picture—then come right to us. You will find everything right and be happy ever after

W. W. Ferguson,
Photographer

Laub Block

Burch was in the "also ran" class. Easter Post Cards at 3c, 2 for 5 at Johnsons.

Mrs. R. A. Romans spent Tuesday in Omaha.

The Board of Supervisors meet next week.

Tom Taggart of Sioux City, was in Denison, Tuesday.

Mrs. Philbrook goes to Chicago the last of the week.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Otto, March 25th, a boy.

Easter Lilies and plants for Easter week at Johnson's.

S. Ainsworth of Schleswig, spent Tuesday in Denison.

Mr. J. W. Miller spent Sunday at his home in Manning.

F. Heiden made a business trip to South Dakota, Tuesday.

Rev. Gable of Panama came in to see his parents Monday.

C. F. Kuehle made a short trip to Waterloo, on Monday.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Lewis, March 25th, a daughter.

Easter cards and Novelties, a big assortment at Johnson's.

O. W. Wheeler spent Tuesday in Council Bluffs on business.

O. W. Rogers of Dunlap, was a Tuesday visitor in Denison.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bullock left today for Colfax a sojourn.

Mr. Chas. Kemming made Charter Oak a business visit today.

The young ladies are talking a return dance in April or May.

Miss Alice Stevens has been ill the past few days with lagrippe.

Clarence and Walter Bryan of Bell, were Denison callers Saturday.

John Campbell cheered Denison folks with a brief visit today.

C. L. Voss was called to Sioux City on business this morning.

C. M. Jensen of Dunlap, transacted business in Denison on Tuesday.

Miss Jennie Mitchell of Dunlap, spent Tuesday in Denison shopping.

Mrs. R. Shaw Van has been quite ill as the result of ulcerated teeth.

Mr. Herman moved from Pine street to his new residence just completed.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Powell were shopping at the county seat Saturday.

"We are headquarters for Kreso Dip. Schlumberger's Pharmacy, 12-21

Rev. Father Farrelly of Carroll, visited his Denison brothers this week.

Jacob Munn received his last papers as an American citizen at this term of court.

Mrs. L. H. Ostrander of Arthur, is the welcome guest at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Vasser.

The Review wants a good ad. and second man. Good wages and a steady job for the right man. Positively no booze fighter need apply.

Peter Eggers spent Wednesday in Charter Oak. Mr. Eggers has something of interest to say to the farmers in this issue. Those interested should read his advertisement carefully.

M. J. Collins and D. L. Boynton were business callers in Vail, on Wednesday.

Jos. Obenchain made Denison a brief visit between trains yesterday. He is now in the employ of the Illinois Central at Cedar Falls, and reports that he is doing well and enjoying his new home.

Miss M. Alice Dutton has resigned her position in the Review office and Miss Edna Bagge will take her place on the type-setting machine. Miss Dutton is a fine operator and the Review regrets her decision to return to her home at Boone.

Do not forget the lecture to be given at the opera house on Thursday, April 5th, by Rev. Arthur R. Vosburgh of Rochester, New York. The lecturer is a noted one and his address will be of great interest. The lecture is free and will be given under the auspices of the Christian Scientists of Denison who extend a cordial invitation to all.

The district convention of the M. E. ladies home missionary society will be held in Woodbine, Saturday and Sunday next. Mrs. Criswell is District President and will preside over the convention. Mrs. Criswell is an excellent presiding officer and the convention will be sure to be a most profitable one in her capable hands.

Our patrons need not fear that rose bushes delivered through the Review are inferior or will not thrive in this climate. They are grown by a firm that ships 4,000,000 plants each year. Each plant is at least one year old and absolutely healthy. Six choice rosebushes, with a year's subscription to The Weekly Inter Ocean and this paper, will cost only $2.00.

T. J. Kelly announces that he will not remove his shoe store to the Bamford location for the present. The change in his plans was made owing to the fact that Marshall and McAhren decided not to lease his present stand. It is rumored that Bartcher and Schneekloth may move to the Main street store and it is also rumored that Sarachon Sisters are figuring on leasing the Bamford location if Mr. Kelly does not decide to move.

The Annual Encampment of the Department of Iowa G. A. R. will be held at Boone, June 5-6-7. The railroads will give one fare rate for the round trip and as the distance is so short we believe every old veteran in Crawford should attend.

The school exhibit Friday is open to all who may be interested. The regular hours for the exhibit are from 1:30 to 5:30 and from 7:30 to 10. Special arrangements will be made for any whose work prevents them from coming at the regular hours, if they will call up Supt. Fellows. One time is as good as another as there will be no refreshments and no program.

The Bamford stock has been moved across Main Street to the store room formerly occupied by the grocery department of The Boys store. There is a movement on foot by which an arrangement will be made with the creditors to allow Mrs. Bamford to continue the business. So far nearly all the creditors have agreed to this plan and it is to be hoped that it will be carried through.

The few gentlemen who had the temerity to attend the reception given to Mrs. Shaw yesterday were more than repaid for going. No other town in Iowa can produce a better looking, better groomed or more intelligent crop of women than was to be seen at the club rooms. You will notice that the Review makes no limitation as to the size of the town and it is prepared to prove its statement.

That we lead all competitors is proven by our rose bush offer in this issue. Act today. It is for a limited time only.

The Review always leads and never follows. A garden of roses is given free to every subscriber. See offer printed elsewhere.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Barrett of Dunlap, and Mr. Mrs. P. F. Barrett of Ute, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. D. McMahon.

The Boyer river has been on a rampage the forepart of this week. It being so high that several of the bridges was considered by the farmers unsafe.

"Has the present wave of civic and commercial reform gone too far?" will be Mr. Bryce's theme at the Presbyterian church next Sunday night.

As a party worker, as a campaign manager and contributor of time and money, Rex was all right, but Republicans, and perhaps Republicans are apt to be ungrateful.

Miss Lally and Miss Naev expect to go to Notre Dame, Ind., for Easter tide, leaving here about the 13th of April. They will be the guests of Mr. Addis Lally.

A party of twelve young people gathered at the home of Mr. Fred Marshall's north of Denison, on Friday evening. They report having a very enjoyable evening.

Success under modern conditions requires strong effective eyes. Dr. Weber's Treatment and Glasses make them strong. Call at Nielsen House on Saturday, April 7. Examination free.

Don't fail to see the big parade of the William H. West Big Jubilee Minstrels Monday afternoon at 3:30 a parade of 40 people and worth seeing. The performance in the Opera house will begin at 8:30 p. m. Prices 75-50-35-25.

The Annual Encampment of the Department of Iowa G. A. R. will be held at Boone, June 5-6-7. The railroads will give one fare rate for the round trip and as the distance is so short we believe every old veteran in Crawford should attend.

The school exhibit Friday is open to all who may be interested. The regular hours for the exhibit are from 1:30 to 5:30 and from 7:30 to 10. Special arrangements will be made for any whose work prevents them from coming at the regular hours, if they will call up Supt. Fellows. One time is as good as another as there will be no refreshments and no program.

The Bamford stock has been moved across Main Street to the store room formerly occupied by the grocery department of The Boys store. There is a movement on foot by which an arrangement will be made with the creditors to allow Mrs. Bamford to continue the business. So far nearly all the creditors have agreed to this plan and it is to be hoped that it will be carried through.

The few gentlemen who had the temerity to attend the reception given to Mrs. Shaw yesterday were more than repaid for going. No other town in Iowa can produce a better looking, better groomed or more intelligent crop of women than was to be seen at the club rooms. You will notice that the Review makes no limitation as to the size of the town and it is prepared to prove its statement.

That we lead all competitors is proven by our rose bush offer in this issue. Act today. It is for a limited time only.

The Review always leads and never follows. A garden of roses is given free to every subscriber. See offer printed elsewhere.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Barrett of Dunlap, and Mr. Mrs. P. F. Barrett of Ute, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. D. McMahon.

The Boyer river has been on a rampage the forepart of this week. It being so high that several of the bridges was considered by the farmers unsafe.

"Has the present wave of civic and commercial reform gone too far?" will be Mr. Bryce's theme at the Presbyterian church next Sunday night.

As a party worker, as a campaign manager and contributor of time and money, Rex was all right, but Republicans, and perhaps Republicans are apt to be ungrateful.

Miss Lally and Miss Naev expect to go to Notre Dame, Ind., for Easter tide, leaving here about the 13th of April. They will be the guests of Mr. Addis Lally.

A party of twelve young people gathered at the home of Mr. Fred Marshall's north of Denison, on Friday evening. They report having a very enjoyable evening.

Success under modern conditions requires strong effective eyes. Dr. Weber's Treatment and Glasses make them strong. Call at Nielsen House on Saturday, April 7. Examination free.

Don't fail to see the big parade of the William H. West Big Jubilee Minstrels Monday afternoon at 3:30 a parade of 40 people and worth seeing. The performance in the Opera house will begin at 8:30 p. m. Prices 75-50-35-25.

The Annual Encampment of the Department of Iowa G. A. R. will be held at Boone, June 5-6-7. The railroads will give one fare rate for the round trip and as the distance is so short we believe every old veteran in Crawford should attend.

The school exhibit Friday is open to all who may be interested. The regular hours for the exhibit are from 1:30 to 5:30 and from 7:30 to 10. Special arrangements will be made for any whose work prevents them from coming at the regular hours, if they will call up Supt. Fellows. One time is as good as another as there will be no refreshments and no program.

The Bamford stock has been moved across Main Street to the store room formerly occupied by the grocery department of The Boys store. There is a movement on foot by which an arrangement will be made with the creditors to allow Mrs. Bamford to continue the business. So far nearly all the creditors have agreed to this plan and it is to be hoped that it will be carried through.

The few gentlemen who had the temerity to attend the reception given to Mrs. Shaw yesterday were more than repaid for going. No other town in Iowa can produce a better looking, better groomed or more intelligent crop of women than was to be seen at the club rooms. You will notice that the Review makes no limitation as to the size of the town and it is prepared to prove its statement.

That we lead all competitors is proven by our rose bush offer in this issue. Act today. It is for a limited time only.

The Review always leads and never follows. A garden of roses is given free to every subscriber. See offer printed elsewhere.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Barrett of Dunlap, and Mr. Mrs. P. F. Barrett of Ute, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. D. McMahon.

The Boyer river has been on a rampage the forepart of this week. It being so high that several of the bridges was considered by the farmers unsafe.

"Has the present wave of civic and commercial reform gone too far?" will be Mr. Bryce's theme at the Presbyterian church next Sunday night.

As a party worker, as a campaign manager and contributor of time and money, Rex was all right, but Republicans, and perhaps Republicans are apt to be ungrateful.

Miss Lally and Miss Naev expect to go to Notre Dame, Ind., for Easter tide, leaving here about the 13th of April. They will be the guests of Mr. Addis Lally.

A party of twelve young people gathered at the home of Mr. Fred Marshall's north of Denison, on Friday evening. They report having a very enjoyable evening.

Success under modern conditions requires strong effective eyes. Dr. Weber's Treatment and Glasses make them strong. Call at Nielsen House on Saturday, April 7. Examination free.

Don't fail to see the big parade of the William H. West Big Jubilee Minstrels Monday afternoon at 3:30 a parade of 40 people and worth seeing. The performance in the Opera house will begin at 8:30 p. m. Prices 75-50-35-25.

The Annual Encampment of the Department of Iowa G. A. R. will be held at Boone, June 5-6-7. The railroads will give one fare rate for the round trip and as the distance is so short we believe every old veteran in Crawford should attend.

The school exhibit Friday is open to all who may be interested. The regular hours for the exhibit are from 1:30 to 5:30 and from 7:30 to 10. Special arrangements will be made for any whose work prevents them from coming at the regular hours, if they will call up Supt. Fellows. One time is as good as another as there will be no refreshments and no program.

The Bamford stock has been moved across Main Street to the store room formerly occupied by the grocery department of The Boys store. There is a movement on foot by which an arrangement will be made with the creditors to allow Mrs. Bamford to continue the business. So far nearly all the creditors have agreed to this plan and it is to be hoped that it will be carried through.

The few gentlemen who had the temerity to attend the reception given to Mrs. Shaw yesterday were more than repaid for going. No other town in Iowa can produce a better looking, better groomed or more intelligent crop of women than was to be seen at the club rooms. You will notice that the Review makes no limitation as to the size of the town and it is prepared to prove its statement.

That we lead all competitors is proven by our rose bush offer in this issue. Act today. It is for a limited time only.

The Review always leads and never follows. A garden of roses is given free to every subscriber. See offer printed elsewhere.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Barrett of Dunlap, and Mr. Mrs. P. F. Barrett of Ute, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. D. McMahon.

Well, if it had to be a democrat we are glad that it is no worse a man than John Carey.

Alfred Rowher returned Wednesday evening from Ames, where he is attending school, for his spring vacation.

Mr. John Rolls, one of Crawford's old-time citizens, now a resident of Dunlap, made Denison a pleasant call today.

That we lead all competitors is proven by our rose bush offer in this issue. Act today. It is for a limited time only.

The Review always leads and never follows. A garden of roses is given free to every subscriber. See offer printed elsewhere.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Barrett of Dunlap, and Mr. Mrs. P. F. Barrett of Ute, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. D. McMahon.

The Boyer river has been on a rampage the forepart of this week. It being so high that several of the bridges was considered by the farmers unsafe.

"Has the present wave of civic and commercial reform gone too far?" will be Mr. Bryce's theme at the Presbyterian church next Sunday night.

As a party worker, as a campaign manager and contributor of time and money, Rex was all right, but Republicans, and perhaps Republicans are apt to be ungrateful.

Miss Lally and Miss Naev expect to go to Notre Dame, Ind., for Easter tide, leaving here about the 13th of April. They will be the guests of Mr. Addis Lally.

A party of twelve young people gathered at the home of Mr. Fred Marshall's north of Denison, on Friday evening. They report having a very enjoyable evening.

Success under modern conditions requires strong effective eyes. Dr. Weber's Treatment and Glasses make them strong. Call at Nielsen House on Saturday, April 7. Examination free.

Don't fail to see the big parade of the William H. West Big Jubilee Minstrels Monday afternoon at 3:30 a parade of 40 people and worth seeing. The performance in the Opera house will begin at 8:30 p. m. Prices 75-50-35-25.

The Annual Encampment of the Department of Iowa G. A. R. will be held at Boone, June 5-6-7. The railroads will give one fare rate for the round trip and as the distance is so short we believe every old veteran in Crawford should attend.

The school exhibit Friday is open to all who may be interested. The regular hours for the exhibit are from 1:30 to 5:30 and from 7:30 to 10. Special arrangements will be made for any whose work prevents them from coming at the regular hours, if they will call up Supt. Fellows. One time is as good as another as there will be no refreshments and no program.

The Bamford stock has been moved across Main Street to the store room formerly occupied by the grocery department of The Boys store. There is a movement on foot by which an arrangement will be made with the creditors to allow Mrs. Bamford to continue the business. So far nearly all the creditors have agreed to this plan and it is to be hoped that it will be carried through.

The few gentlemen who had the temerity to attend the reception given to Mrs. Shaw yesterday were more than repaid for going. No other town in Iowa can produce a better looking, better groomed or more intelligent crop of women than was to be seen at the club rooms. You will notice that the Review makes no limitation as to the size of the town and it is prepared to prove its statement.

That we lead all competitors is proven by our rose bush offer in this issue. Act today. It is for a limited time only.

The Review always leads and never follows. A garden of roses is given free to every subscriber. See offer printed elsewhere.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Barrett of Dunlap, and Mr. Mrs. P. F. Barrett of Ute, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. D. McMahon.

The Boyer river has been on a rampage the forepart of this week. It being so high that several of the bridges was considered by the farmers unsafe.

"Has the present wave of civic and commercial reform gone too far?" will be Mr. Bryce's theme at the Presbyterian church next Sunday night.

As a party worker, as a campaign manager and contributor of time and money, Rex was all right, but Republicans, and perhaps Republicans are apt to be ungrateful.

Miss Lally and Miss Naev expect to go to Notre Dame, Ind., for Easter tide, leaving here about the 13th of April. They will be the guests of Mr. Addis Lally.

A party of twelve young people gathered at the home of Mr. Fred Marshall's north of Denison, on Friday evening. They report having a very enjoyable evening.

Success under modern conditions requires strong effective eyes. Dr. Weber's Treatment and Glasses make them strong. Call at Nielsen House on Saturday, April 7. Examination free.

Don't fail to see the big parade of the William H. West Big Jubilee Minstrels Monday afternoon at 3:30 a parade of 40 people and worth seeing. The performance in the Opera house will begin at 8:30 p. m. Prices 75-50-35-25.

The Annual Encampment of the Department of Iowa G. A. R. will be held at Boone, June 5-6-7. The railroads will give one fare rate for the round trip and as the distance is so short we believe every old veteran in Crawford should attend.

The school exhibit Friday is open to all who may be interested. The regular hours for the exhibit are from 1:30 to 5:30 and from 7:30 to 10. Special arrangements will be made for any whose work prevents them from coming at the regular hours, if they will call up Supt. Fellows. One time is as good as another as there will be no refreshments and no program.

The Bamford stock has been moved across Main Street to the store room formerly occupied by the grocery department of The Boys store. There is a movement on foot by which an arrangement will be made with the creditors to allow Mrs. Bamford to continue the business. So far nearly all the creditors have agreed to this plan and it is to be hoped that it will be carried through.

The few gentlemen who had the temerity to attend the reception given to Mrs. Shaw yesterday were more than repaid for going. No other town in Iowa can produce a better looking, better groomed or more intelligent crop of women than was to be seen at the club rooms. You will notice that the Review makes no limitation as to the size of the town and it is prepared to prove its statement.

That we lead all competitors is proven by our rose bush offer in this issue. Act today. It is for a limited time only.

The Review always leads and never follows. A garden of roses is given free to every subscriber. See offer printed elsewhere.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Barrett of Dunlap, and Mr. Mrs. P. F. Barrett of Ute, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. D. McMahon.

The Boyer river has been on a rampage the forepart of this week. It being so high that several of the bridges was considered by the farmers unsafe.

"Has the present wave of civic and commercial reform gone too far?" will be Mr. Bryce's theme at the Presbyterian church next Sunday night.

As a party worker, as a campaign manager and contributor of time and money, Rex was all right, but Republicans, and perhaps Republicans are apt to be ungrateful.

Miss Lally and Miss Naev expect to go to Notre Dame, Ind., for Easter tide, leaving here about the 13th of April. They will be the guests of Mr. Addis Lally.

A party of twelve young people gathered at the home of Mr. Fred Marshall's north of Denison, on Friday evening. They report having a very enjoyable evening.

Success under modern conditions requires strong effective eyes. Dr. Weber's Treatment and Glasses make them strong. Call at Nielsen House on Saturday, April 7. Examination free.

Don't fail to see the big parade of the William H. West Big Jubilee Minstrels Monday afternoon at 3:30 a parade of 40 people and worth seeing. The performance in the Opera house will begin at 8:30 p. m. Prices 75-50-35-25.

The Annual Encampment of the Department of Iowa G. A. R. will be held at Boone, June 5-6-7. The railroads will give one fare rate for the round trip and as the distance is so short we believe every old veteran in Crawford should attend.

The school exhibit Friday is open to all who may be interested. The regular hours for the exhibit are from 1:30 to 5:30 and from 7:30 to 10. Special arrangements will be made for any whose work prevents them from coming at the regular hours, if they will call up Supt. Fellows. One time is as good as another as there will be no refreshments and no program.

The Bamford stock has been moved across Main Street to the store room formerly occupied by the grocery department of The Boys store. There is a movement on foot by which an arrangement will be made with the creditors to allow Mrs. Bamford to continue the business. So far nearly all the creditors have agreed to this plan and it is to be hoped that it will be carried through.

The few gentlemen who had the temerity to attend the reception given to Mrs. Shaw yesterday were more than repaid for going. No other town in Iowa can produce a better looking, better groomed or more intelligent crop of women than was to be seen at the club rooms. You will notice that the Review makes no limitation as to the size of the town and it is prepared to prove its statement.

That we lead all competitors is proven by our rose bush offer in this issue. Act today. It is for a limited time only.

The Review always leads and never follows. A garden of roses is given free to every subscriber. See offer printed elsewhere.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Barrett of Dunlap, and Mr. Mrs. P. F. Barrett of Ute, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. D. McMahon.

The Boyer river has been on a rampage the forepart of this week. It being so high that several of the bridges was considered by the farmers unsafe.

"Has the present wave of civic and commercial reform gone too far?" will be Mr. Bryce's theme at the Presbyterian church next Sunday night.

As a party worker, as a campaign manager and contributor of time and money, Rex was all right, but Republicans, and perhaps Republicans are apt to be ungrateful.

Miss Lally and Miss Naev expect to go to Notre Dame, Ind., for Easter tide, leaving here about the 13th of April. They will be the guests of Mr. Addis Lally.

A party of twelve young people gathered at the home of Mr. Fred Marshall's north of Denison, on Friday evening. They report having a very enjoyable evening.

Success under modern conditions requires strong effective eyes. Dr. Weber's Treatment and Glasses make them strong. Call at Nielsen House on Saturday, April 7. Examination free.

Don't fail to see the big parade of the William H. West Big Jubilee Minstrels Monday afternoon at 3:30 a parade of 40 people and worth seeing. The performance in the Opera house will begin at 8:30 p. m. Prices 75-50-35-25.

The Annual Encampment of the Department of Iowa G. A. R. will be held at Boone, June 5-6-7. The railroads will give one fare rate for the round trip and as the distance is so short we believe every old veteran in Crawford should attend.

The school exhibit Friday is open to all who may be interested. The regular hours for the exhibit are from 1:30 to 5:30 and from 7:30 to 10. Special arrangements will be made for any whose work prevents them from coming at the regular hours, if they will call up Supt. Fellows. One time is as good as another as there will be no refreshments and no program.

The Bamford stock has been moved across Main Street to the store room formerly occupied by the grocery department of The Boys store. There is a movement on foot by which an arrangement will be made with the creditors to allow Mrs. Bamford to continue the business. So far nearly all the creditors have agreed to this plan and it is to be hoped that it will be carried through.

April Fool. Watch out for him. Ellsworth McNeal, now of Deloit, paid Denison a visit the first of the week.

Fine assortment of Easter Novelties at Johnson's.

J. P. Duncan has returned from an extended visit with relatives in Illinois.

Mrs. George Knight is visiting at the home of her father, Mr. M. N. Smith.

J. Henderson of Buck Grove, was a shopper at the county seat on Saturday.

Rev. Mrs. Gauger who has been quite ill for a week or more is improving.

Mr. Ben Bartcher is moving into the Van Tuil cottage vacated by Frank Nelson.

Mrs. Moothart who has been suffering from the result of a fall is improving.

Dr. H. F. Brandt of Chicago, is visiting his brother this week, Dr. G. C. Brandt.

Mr. and Mrs. B. N. McCord of Kenwood, were Denison visitors on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Barret of Dunlap, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. P. D. McMahon.

Ladies' attention! The rose bush offer in this issue of the Review is for your benefit.

Lawrence Devitt of Boone, is visiting at the home of his cousin, Mrs. P. D. McMahon.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. C. Shives of Milford township,