Mrs. Wm. Strahan suffered from a severe attack of heart trouble last week. We are more than pleased to learn that she is now convalescing rapidly.

The only way to get rid of the dandelion pest is to fine every man who allows a dandelion to go to seed on his premises. Such an ordinance would bring results.

Prof. Geo. B. Jackson of Mason City who will speak here on Memorial Day is said to be a man of unusual eloquence and thoughtfulness. His address will be a treat for all.

Mrs. E. Gulick left on Tuesday for Clinton to which place she was called by the news that her mother, Mrs. Dunn, was quite ill. Mrs. Dunn is well known and dearly beloved here and her many friends sincerely hope for her speedy recovery.

Your attention is now called to the advertisement of the German-American Coffee Company. The excellent coffee which this company sells is being served free to all this week at The Boys store. We have tried it and it is fine. Get a cup.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mundt left on Tuesday for a visit with Ernest Riepen and family at Westphalia, Kansas. They will be gone several weeks and will doubtless have the best kind of a time. Mr. Mundt carried with him the best wishes of many friends to be delivered to Mr. Riepen.

In this issue we print the complete novelette "The Gift of the Emperor," one of the famous Raffles stories. Raffles has made a distinct place for himself in modern literature. The stories are exciting and full of interest. The Review is the only paper in the county that makes a specialty of high grade literature.

Fresh cut flowers always on hand at Bartcher & Schneckloth's.

John A. Logan Post.

The food laws of this state require the special labeling of baking powder. Calumet Baking Powder complies with the law of this state. The consumer in using Calumet gets a high grade powder of rare merit and one that is recommended by leading physicians and chemists because it leaves no injurious substance in the food. Where health and economy are an object, Calumet should always be used.

A cake walk with all the frills and burnt cork that go with it was held at the home of Miss Edith Staley on Friday night. If there was any kind of fun the girls didn't have they haven't found it out yet. It was hard to decide who looked the best or perhaps it would be nearer true to say who looked the worst. Miss Christie took the cake with Miss Addie Luney a close second. Mr. Ferguson "took" the group after they had enjoyed a very nice lunch. This club believe in having a good time and having it now and they certainly have some very bright ideas, about entertainment.
