The advertising that has come to Denison on account of its public-spiritedness has already paid good interest on the investment. Nearly every paper in Iowa has spoken of Denison's new hotel, opera house and hospital.

Last week the stars and stripes floated triumphantly over the dome of the new court house, two hundred feet above the city. It was a pretty sight and gave to all a thrill of patriotism. Long may it wave over a free and enlightened county.

There is talk of a choral society being formed with Mr. Sibbert as leader. This would be of great benefit to the singers and also to the town. Denison has fine musical talent if it could only be got together. Mr. Sibbert is a fine leader and will be able to give us some fine concerts.

A reliable, church-going farmer near Denison is responsible for the statement that last week he started planting in a good-sized field, by the time he had finished the last row the corn was up at the other end of the field. He says he did not waste any time at planting either. It is evident that the corn is wasting no time this year.

Messrs Martin and Driggs of the postal department favored Denison with a visit the past week. They found everything in apple-pie order and were kind enough to compliment the postmaster and his assistants upon the manner in which the office is being conducted. They spoke encouragingly about Denison's prospects for free city delivery.

Carl Jungerman gave away enough ice cream sodas last Saturday to have filled the city stand pipe. It was good too and had the real "come-again" flavor. Mr. Jungerman has placed some handsome fans in his store and intends to make it the coolest place in town this summer. He has also added baking and ice cream making machinery which will more than double the capacity of his plant.

Little Dorothy Bradbury, the two year old daughter of Fred Bradbury, got tired of the scenes of her home life and so took a trip to her aunt's Mrs. Coleman's several blocks distant. It caused the family much anxiety for a while till she was located. Everyone wonders how the little one found the way all by herself.

Tuesday evening at 5 p. m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Smith at Frankfort, N. Y. occurred the wedding of their daughter Miss Rhoda to J. W. Tice of Manilla, Ia. The happy couple left at once for the west. They will make their home at Council Bluffs, where Mr. Tice holds a position as cable splicer on the Independent Telephone Exchange.

One of the Union Pacific motor cars went through Denison on Friday. It was built for a New York Street car company. The car was handsomely furnished. It runs by gasoline power and makes regular passenger time. Denison was favored with a five minute stop. In our opinion it is but a few years until all local trains will be of this style and that this motor car is but the forerunner of the many motor trains that Denison will see in the near future. It is said that J. Pierpont Morgan was.
