from the Daguerreotype to the present day dry plate has simplified the process, but still the essential factor towards artistic execution is the man behind the camera.

We are informed that the youngsters of Denison have an increasing fondness for playing about the railroad tracks, catching onto the cars and running in front of engines to show their bravery. Some day some fond parent will find his boy all along the track and then the railroad company will be blamed for the parent's carelessness. An ounce of prevention along this line may save an immense lot of heart-ache later on. Keep the boys away from the tracks. They are dangerous at all times. Especially is this true of the double track road where ones attention may be called one way only to meet death from the rear. During the vacation season is the time when the boys are most apt to be playing about the tracks and parents are warned to keep their boys away.

KITCHEN SHOWER

As a prenuptial attention to Miss Lally a kitchen shower was tendered her by about twenty-five young ladies on Friday last. The affair was a complete surprise on Miss Lally and was most successfully carried out by Miss Beatrice Lally and Miss Hazel Laub. The hall was decorated in red hearts and the flowers in the hall and parlors were the mock orange blossoms. After Miss Lally had been most delightfully surprised the party resolved itself into a hunt of a thimble, penny and ring hidden in the parlors. Miss Junia Romans found the ring, Miss Barber the thimble and Miss Stoner the penny.

After this the party went to the beautiful lawn where the bride to be was blind folded and a number of forecasts of fortune were made.

Two course refreshments were served in the dining room, with carnations as the decorations. The bride's chair was trimmed with flowers and white ribbon. The favors were very clever cards done in black and white. The refreshments which were very nice were served by the Misses Lally, Laub and Patterson.

After supper a large clothes basket filled with the kitchen gifts was taken to Miss Lally, she opening the packages and reading the verses which went with each package. Much good advice and hearty congratulation mingled.

The grand piano was next surrounded and music filled the closing hour. It was a very delightful afternoon in every way and made very clear the popularity of Miss Lally among her many friends.

The Storekeeping which in this community and beyond it has become to be known as peculiarly characteristic of the Balle-Brodersen Co's store is the result of certain simple, straightforward principles carried out in an earnest and thorough way. The foundation is our determination to give to Denison and Crawford County The Best We Can Do and to make that best increasingly better as fast as possible.

Every merchant will tell you his goods are best and his prices lowest. Naturally that does not make them so. It is The Public that always decides and the way a store's business grows is a pretty good index of the sort of a store it is.

The fact that the merchandise here is good and the prices right is proved every day. not by our say-so, but by Your Say-So, by the fact that here in Denison is a store already one of the greatest of its kind in this territory and still growing faster, probably, than any other store of its kind in this part of the country.

The new summer goods tell their own story of excellence. You will find what you want here. You will often find that the goods which interest you most are exclusive. And your own good judgment will tell you pretty well whether The Balle-Brodersen Co.'s prices are not as we say---the lowest for goods of equally high grade.
