Judge Conner has been invited by the Republican State Central Committee of Maine to take the stump in that state for two weeks prior to the annual election which occurs on the 10th of September. His successful campaign in that state two years ago, principally in Congressman Littlefield's district, accounts for the invitation this year. He is unable to say whether he will accept the invitation or not.

The mention of Mr. U. G. Johnson's name as the republican candidate for county treasurer has met with a flattering reception from different parts of the county. Mr. Johnson is a business man of highest repute, trustworthy, sincere and honest. He has for years, in a quiet but effective way, been one of the best workers the party has had in the county. We well remember Mayor Carey's expression that U. G. Johnson was one of the best men Denison has ever had on its city council. The Review does not wish to "head off" any good republican who may wish to become a candidate for this office, but up-to-date it has heard of no one else looking for this place on the ticket and thinks the suggestion of Mr. Johnson's name an excellent one.

Dr. Emma Johnstone, Osteopathic Physician, successor to Dr. Earl McLaren. Office and residence at the home of Mr. E. O. Theim. C. C. Telephone No. 236.
