

Hol Every Old Soldier Hol Every Young Soldier Hol Every Body Come Ye to the Anniversary

The 25th anniversary of the organization of John A. Logan Post G. A. R. of Denison will be held in the Opera House on Wednesday evening, Sept. 26th 1906.

Dept. Commander, Chas. A. Clark, of Cedar Rapids will be present and address the audience.

Chaplain Cole of Marshalltown will give the boys a Rousing Camp Fire Talk. Other notables will be in attendance, and the people may expect a grand treat.

Poor street fair weather for Vail and Schleswig.

Mr. and Mrs. P. D. McMahon spent Sunday in Dunlap.

Miss Minnie Mill paid West Side friends a Sunday visit.

Ed. Malony was a business visitor to Wall Lake on Tuesday.

Ask for Heywood's Package Candies. All good dealers. 10-31

P. W. Harding left on Tuesday for a business trip to Butte, Mont.

J. D. Sievers left on Tuesday for a business trip to Regina, Canada.

Mrs. W. D. Luney left on Monday for Chicago to visit her daughter Mrs. Edith Cole.

Miss Ollie Patterson went to Dunlap on Sunday to attend the funeral of a friend.

According to reports John Cook will be the worst beaten man on the democratic ticket.

Mrs. Ross of Minneapolis is the guest of her aunt Mrs. D. L. Boynton this week.

Quite a bunch of candidates attended the street fair at Vail yesterday. They are in Schleswig today.

Miss Marie Næve leaves this week for Lake Forest to take up college work for another year.

R. H. Bloomer, a banker and manufacturer of Council Bluffs transacted business in Denison Tuesday.

B. F. Ells, postmaster of Ells was a pleasant caller on Monday. He tells us that he is kept so busy at Ells that he seldom gets even to Denison any more.

Miss Marie Rath is one of the charming misses who will represent Denison at the State University this year. She left for Iowa City the first of the week.

Mrs. H. V. Failor of Tucson, Arizona is visiting at the Gillmor home. She brings the glad tidings that her husband's health is steadily improving in their southern home.

Choice of dates for sale season are now to be had by booking at once with J. W. Smith the experienced auctioneer and cattle salesman. He agrees to advertise all sales in his Review date column free of charge.

The fact that Andy Lorenzen formed a combination with Shaw Van before the democratic convention and worked with him for the defeat of Richardson is not improving the chances of the son-in-law candidate.

Oscar Ainsworth is authority for the story that on Wednesday he saw a Denison boy herding ducks and carrying them out of the water to prevent their being drowned. There was so much rain that the ducks were water logged.

A little learning is a Dangerous Thing. For particulars see John Code Cook.

Carl Cook of Fairfield, Neb., visited Denison friends last week. He was enroute to Chicago.

Mr. W. A. McHenry and family are expected home next Saturday after their summer at Okoboji.

Right on the heels of Johnstons' letter urging Shaw's friends to bolt, comes the announcement that Shaw will come to Iowa before the close of the campaign to speak for Cummins.

So many changes are reported, so many farms sold during the past year that the sale season is apt to be a brisk one. See Jim Smith the auctioneer at once and get your date fixed and advertised at once.

The democratic committeemen and candidates held a meeting in Denison this week. It is reported that no little discouragement was expressed over the weakness of the ticket and the general apathy among the democrats of the county.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Wheeler and Miss Mary, went to Manning the first of the week to attend the wedding of Ancil Wheeler to Miss Hoffman of that city. Ancil is a fine young man, industrious, capable and honorable and we wish him the utmost happiness in his married life.

Mr. M. F. Merritt was one of the petit jurors to enroll as a Review subscriber this week. Mr. Merritt is an old Harrison County republican who now lives in Boyer township. We trust and believe that he and the Review will soon become good friends and that the friendship will last for many years.

The rumor that one of Denison's rural carriers expects to resign has brought a number of applicants to the postmaster. In this connection we would say that the postmaster has nothing to do with such appointments as they are made under the civil service and upon examination, due notice which is given to all.

We are happy to say that the good old custom of remembering the editor with some of the choice fruits of the year has not fallen entirely into oblivion. Last week Mrs. J. W. Comstock surprised us with a heaping basket of delicious grapes. They were sweeter than any we had been able to buy this year, not only for their own fresh lusciousness but on account of the spirit of friendliness with which they were given. Mr. and Mrs. Comstock now have probably the finest vineyard in the county and this year's crop was a bumper.

D. F. Bryan is attending court his week.

Geo. Menagh was a Dunlap visitor on Tuesday.

Ask your dealer for a liberal free sample of Heywood's Chocolates. Always specify Heywood's when buying Chocolates. 10-31

The more the people think of the republican county ticket the better they like it. There is not a weak spot in it.

You read the Review. So does your neighbor. If you want to sell anything let people know about it through the Review.

Roy Reiter left last week for a visit with his father in Iowa Kansas. His brother Leslie accompanied him as far as Council Bluffs.

Harry White of the Review force was taken seriously ill on Sunday morning. He is now much improved but it will be a week or so before he will be able to be about.

Frank H. Lally has secured a fine position as a teacher in the parochial schools of Chicago and writes that he enjoys his work greatly, but that it is odd to be called "Professor."

Addis Lally leaves this week for Harvard University where he will take the course in law. Addis has shown himself to be a fine student and we predict a brilliant record for him at Harvard.

R. H. Sweet, republican candidate for supervisor was a member of the grand jury at this term of court. He made many new acquaintances while in Denison and all who met him praise him as a fine appearing, sensible business man. He will make a fine supervisor.

There is but one thing that can beat Ed. Theobald for auditor, and that is over confidence on the part of his friends. That is what beat Mike Collins two years ago. This year the case seems so plain that Theobald's friends are sure of his election. Every one knows he should be re-elected, but over confidence might beat him.

Hon. J. P. Conner returned this morning from the Culver Military Institute where he went with his son Raymond to install him in that excellent school. Raymond has done some excellent local work on the Review this summer and he is a bright and industrious boy. We are sure that he will like the work at Culver and make a success of it.

CARD OF THANKS.
We wish to extend through the Review our sincere gratitude to our neighbors and friends for their assistance and sympathy during the sickness and death of our beloved husband and father.
Mrs. Mary J. Barrett and Children.

All Heywood's Candies are pure. Buy them for your children. 10-31

See Charles Frost the famous female impersonator in the H. & H. Minstrel' at the Opera House Monday Sept. 24.

Review locals have put ten times as much money into the pockets of the advertisers as they have into the pockets of the editor.

Mr. A. P. Taylor of Munsey, Pa. is her guest of his sister Mrs. Robert Craft, he will visit relatives in Dunlap and Sioux City before returning to his home.

It will be a bunch of fun to see the great "H. & H. Minstrel Show" at the opera House Monday Sept. 24. They carry 20 people and they have some of the best comedians in the country.

C. E. Parish brought us a couple of delicious home grown apples this week, either one of which would make a hearty meal for any man. Mr. Parish is certainly showing what Crawford can do in the apple line.

Miss Luella Cole left on Saturday for Olweh where she has an excellent position in the public schools. Miss Cole is a first class teacher and will doubtless make a success of her work. The Review is to keep her posted on Denison affairs during her absence.

Some folks would get mad if you called them Windy Jim, but J. W. Smith the expert auctioneer doesn't mind it a bit. He knows that the title comes from his ability to make a sale go as if a Kansas cyclone had struck it. Jim is a hummer, no two ways about that.

Once upon a time the sheriff was obliged to serve a bench warrant to secure the attendance of a certain juror. His bill was $2.50. The bill went before the board and was about to be paid when a certain smart aleck member who thought he was a lawyer began to display his wisdom (?) He said the bill should be 50 cents only. He argued and fought and delayed the business of the board for an entire day. Finally it was found that the Sheriff was right and the bill was allowed. It cost the county $3.00 a day for five supervisors, $15.00 to get this bill paid, all on account of a smart aleck who thought he was a lawyer.

C. Gronau left on Tuesday for Medina, N. D. on land business.

Mrs. J. B. Davis left on Tuesday for a visit in Sherwood., N. D.

John Malony started this week for Iowa City where he will enter the University.

Don't miss the millinery opening Friday and Saturday at Sarachon Sisters.

It Goes Farther—A Review ad reaches more people than any other ad in Crawford county.

Three two cent stamps will get you two of the handsome souvenir post cards of Crawford's new court house.

You will have a full two and one half hours laugh if you take in the great "H. & H. Minstrel Show" at the opera House Monday Sept. 24.

The only engraving of the new court house, made from an actual photograph is used on the Review's souvenir post cards. They sell two for a nickel, or by post two for six cents.

National politics is now resolved into a joint debate between Shaw and Bryan with Shaw getting the best of every round. Bryan's balloon has mighty little show against the Shaw buzz-saw.

E. J. Gunn of Jackson township called on us this week, being in Denison as a juror. He brings the encouraging news that the crop of republicans in Jackson is as promising as the corn crop.

Miss Mary Bryce who has spending the past year with her brother, Rev. W. E. Bryce returned on Tuesday to her home at Indianapolis. Miss Bryce is a woman of many attainments and wide knowledge. Her stay here has been greatly enjoyed not only by her relatives but by her many friends and acquaintances.

Why We Should Fill Your Prescription

We are doing good prescription business, which is a reason why we should do more. This is a store that carries a full stock of prescription drugs and one where we use what the doctor writes for and not a cheaper substitute.

Here, your prescriptions will also be compounded by

Those post cards of the new court house are beauties. You ought to send some to your friends right away. They are two for a nickel, or sent postpaid two for six cents.

If you are thinking of having a sale let the Review figure on your sale bills and advertising. The Review is the most effective means of reaching farmers of Crawford county.

Among the Iowa City students to leave for the University the first of the week were Carl Richardson, Roy Towne, Hilda Brodersen, Winifred Randall, John Woodruff and Lorenz Lorenzen.

Lending a helping hand to Crawford county republicans in any laudable ambition has always been one of the important missions of the Review. That is one part of The Reviews' record that no man can impeach.

Mrs. Harry Fink of Klamouth Falls, Oregon visited with her father-in-law Mr. E. Fink this week and is now visiting her father Mr. S. A. Conquist north of Kiron. Mrs. Fink brings her children with her and has sold her household goods and may decide to remain in Iowa. She still retains her large real estate interests in Oregon.
