PROGRESS OF THE CAMPAIGN

Our Weekly Republican Letter From Des Moines.

Des Moines, Oct. 24 Special: With the progress of the campaign it becomes evident to all intelligent persons that the political corporations are lined up solidly for the democratic ticket, and recent disclosures by democratic leaders go far to explain the reason. The campaign is under personal direction of C. W. Miller, of Waverly, with W. W. Marsh, of Waterloo, as one of his chief advisers, and it has just been recalled that both of these men, with other leaders in the democratic party of Iowa were delegates to the so-called "Federal Rat" Regulation convention in Chicago a year ago, and helped in the adoption of this declaration:

"We are unalterably opposed to conferring upon the interstate commerce commission, or any other appointive agency, the power to prescribe rates for transportation." P. 132 Report published by Railroads. These new leaders of the democratic party in Iowa are working in co-operation with a committee organized and financed by corporation lobbyists. They worked together last year in the notorious "rump convention" to undo that which had been accomplished in Iowa and at Washington for federal rate regulation. Now they are working together to have Iowa defeat the republican ticket as a rebuke to those who made possible the successful fight under Roosevelt's leadership. They want to dictate who shall go to congress and the senate as they say "back up the president," but really to tie his hands.

In working out their deep laid scheme to have the voters give notice at the polls that Iowa must abandon the position of leadership in the forward movement these democratic corporation allies have sought to enlist the services of at least one republican in each county, not under suspicion of corporation leanings, to lend respectability to their conspiracy; but it is understood that in only a few of the counties have they been able to do so. Republicans, however, will have to be on their guard at the close of the campaign, as their opponents, supplied with funds contributed in large lumps, are both resourceful and shrewd.

Judge Beer By Its True Worth

Progressive Men and Women Consider It a Means to National Temperance.

We have recently published a number of articles on the food value of beer, and we believe that sooner or later beer will be recognized at its true worth, as a food beverage of splendid tonic effect and high nourishing value. Noted men and women of this country are already alive to the situation and besides Miss Phoebe Cousins and Dr. Joseph Feisler of Northwestern University, many others of note give their endorsement to beer as a means to national temperance.

Miss Cousins, for a quarter of a century the most eminent woman suffrage advocate in the West, said in a recent interview: "There never will be a law that will compel prohibition, and the sensible thing for the Women's Christian Temperance Union to do is to aid in the substitution of mild, nourishing drinks like beer, which seldom produces drunkenness. A prominent army officer who served in the Southwest, operated canteens at three different posts. He made the canteens so acceptable to the soldiers, who found beer satisfying their demands, that he actually ran all the low dives of the surrounding neighborhood out of business."

Pabst Beer meets all the demands for a mild, healthful, refreshing beverage such as Miss Cousins suggests. It is made of the exclusive Pabst eight-day malt, choicest hops and pure water. Eight-day malt, which is the only perfect malt, gives Pabst Beer its superior food value and richness. Strong in nourishment the body requires, it is refreshing and satisfying. Perfect in age, purity and strength, absolutely clean and containing only three and one-half per cent of alcohol, Pabst Beer is the ideal temperance beverage. No other is so healthful.

republican campaign, realizing that many democrats are disgusted with the fact that their party has been sold out and they will therefore not vote to sustain the dishonorable alliance, are preparing to put artificial inspiration into many democratic voters by causing to be widely circulated on election day and on the few days preceding the most extravagant claims as to the possibility of party success in Iowa. Having abundant funds at their command and the machinery for reaching many voters they hope thus to prevent the certain falling off of democratic votes.

G. W. Cullison, of Shelby county, who was temporary chairman of the democratic state convention two years ago, has offered his services to the Republican State committee and is on the stump in the speaking campaign. A. W. Maxwell, who two years ago was chairman of the democratic state committee in Iowa, is making speeches under the auspices of the Republican congressional committee.

During the last two weeks of the campaign more than 300 republican speeches will be delivered in Iowa. Three times as many meetings could be had if the committees could supply speakers.

The independent movement among those who voted for Bryan in 1896 and for Roosevelt in 1904 is growing in Iowa. A large club has been formed in Des Moines under the leadership of W. D. Olney, well known in the state as an active Bryan worker. The movement is said to be causing alarm to those who have so recently secured possession of the democratic party machinery.

Defense of the corporations has been undertaken by the democratic state committee, and the committee insists that the Waterloo platform is such that the corporations would be foolish to support Porter and to fight Cummins. But Porter refuses to discuss the issues presented in the Waterloo platform, and whether foolish or not the corporations have attached themselves to the Porter campaign.

The vice president of the United States, two members of the cabinet of President Roosevelt, the speaker of the house of representatives, and several senators and governors from other states, have all been in Iowa, or will be in Iowa, urging the voters to give their support to the whole republican ticket, to vote for the candidates of the republican party and not for the candidates of the opposition, to sustain in the only way possible the cause of true republicanism by voting to have Iowa give an old time republican majority. Not before in many years has there been such general interest throughout the country in the campaign in Iowa. Everywhere republicans are looking to Iowa to give a good account of herself.

Quinsy, Sprains and Swellings Cured.

In November, 1901, I caught cold and had the quinsy. My throat was swollen so I could hardly breathe. I applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and it gave me relief in a short time. In two days I was all right," says Mrs. L. Cousins, Otterburn, Mich. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is a liniment and is especially valuable for sprains and swellings. For sale by W. E. Koeneman, Broadway Druggist.

COLLEGE NOTES.

Six of the students are taking examination for certificates this week.

The library has just received a copy of Dictionary of Altitudes. It contains the altitude above the sea level of almost every city in the United States. We find that Denison at the Chicago & Northwestern depot has 1117 ft. altitude; at the Illinois Central depot 1170 ft.; Deloit 1191 ft.; Charter Oak 1232 ft.

A number of the old students are back to examinations this week. All are teaching but have an ambition to raise their grades.

On Tuesday evening they all visited the literary societies of which they are members.

Mr. Strong will be obliged to be out of school for a couple of weeks for corn picking.
