A GOOD PROPOSITION

Atlantic Man Makes Proposition to Normal Association.

WILL FURNISH GUARANTEES.

Agrees to Operate College Successfully for Twenty Years Then to Receive Property as Bonus.

The Denison Normal Association has received a proposition which was considered favorably by the directors at a meeting held on Tuesday evening. The proposition comes from an Atlantic man of experience in Normal college work and is as follows; He agrees to run the college, successfully for a period of twenty years without aid of any kind from the citizens. At the end of the twenty year period he agrees to maintain the college for an indefinite period, but at that time, and in consideration of the fact that he has so maintained the college without expense to the citizens, he is to receive a deed to the college buildings and grounds, for college purposes. At present the maintenance of the college is costing the people of Denison not less than $500. per year. It is felt by many that this tax is becoming irksome. The object is to maintain a college in Denison and if this can be accomplished without further cash payments the general sentiment is in favor of some such arrangement. Ample guarantees would be demanded that the agreement be carried out in good faith and if this were not done the property would revert to the association. Very naturally the association would prefer to make a similar arrangement with Prof. Van Ness whose fitness for the position has been amply proven. At the director's meeting a committee was appointed to enter into preliminary arrangements with Prof. Van Ness or any other party, looking to the consumation of such a deal. If the preliminaries are satisfactorily arranged the proposition will then be submitted to the stock-holders for their approval or rejection.

SOMETHING DOING AT LAST

Directors Purchase McAhren Lot On Main Street for Opera House Site.

At last there is something doing which will encourage all those who are interested in having a good opera house built in Denison. On Monday the deal was closed by which the Denison Improvement Co. becomes the owner of the McAhren lot just north of the present opera house building. The consideration was $2100. The lot is 150 feet deep by 50 feet wide and will afford an excellent site for the new building even if the old building is not purchased. The opera house and the dance hall should be under the same management however, as competition would result in loss to both parties. It is proposed by many to erect the new building on the McAhren lot and to leave the Germania as it is for the present. It is argued that a building can be erected much more cheaply on an inside lot and that the corner lots would be good business locations at some future date, while lots north of the opera house would not be so good. The money saved by not having a corner building with two pressed brick fronts could be put into the building in other ways, such as increasing the size or in better interior finish. On the other side it is argued that the opera house will be neither so attractive nor so safe if erected on an inside lot with front entrance only. The Review would not attempt to decide this question. It applauds the directors for the step already taken and would continue to urge that the matter be pushed, that plans be made and bids received this winter. If the work is commenced early in the spring the opera house can very possibly be completed by this time next year and thus be ready for the very cream of the season's business.

TWO ROUNDS WIN.

Ed Baum Has Exciting Go With Young Bull Calf.

HAS A NARROW ESCAPE.

High Blooded Animal Makes Vicious Assaults on Owner Who Now Goes on Crutches.

E. C. Baum had two exciting and disastrous encounters with a young bull calf on his place just west of Denison this week. The calf is not yet a yearling and he was quite a pet of the family. Mr. Baum walked through the feed lot to attend to his work without thought that the calf was vicious. Suddenly the youngster turned and charged him. Baum was down before he knew what had happened, with the enraged calf on top of him doing the goring act in approved Spanish fashion. Ed was able to get out from under, however and ran to the fence which he reached in time to escape a second rush. Later Baum recognized the fact that no April bull calf had a right to keep him out of the feed lot, so he armed himself with a club and walked in. Mr. Bull was waiting for him and came a running. Ed got in one good crack with the club, so good a one that the club broke in his hands and he was again at the bull's mercy.

Baum escaped without serious mutilation and without broken limbs. He managed to get away from the infuriated animal's heels and there was a hot race for a dip tank which stood in the feed lot. Baum reached it first and stayed out of harms way until help came. He was badly bruised by the encounter and is now obliged to go about on crutches. Really he had a very narrow escape and his experience ought to be a warning to others not to put too much confidence in the gentle disposition of a young bull. Ed says he is neither a matador nor a door mat and he objects to being taken for either. Round three came later and the bull calf was subdued for the time being at least. We are not publishing this as if it was a joke on Mr. Baum, but as a warning to others to look a little out.

HARRY WHITE
The popular young printer whose untimely death occurred last week.

Good-bye for a week dear readers. We will be back before we have been missed. That is a cinch. We are not going to try to solve the "Southern problem" in a single week but if we find things worth seeing we shall try to tell you about them and thus share our pleasure with you. We have always wished to go to New Orleans, that quaint old city, so much of it foreign to the United States. We shall try not to be didactic, but to give some pictures of the life just as we see it. The Illinois Central offers splendid train service to the Southern States. Leaving here at eight o'clock Wednesday evening we will have a two hours stop in Chicago and expect to reach the Crescent city at 10 o'clock Friday morning, a very quick trip for the 1400 miles that must be traveled. This will make 36 hours of continuous going, or at the rate of about 40 miles an hour.

We have already had lots of fun out of the trip, and when we get back we should be able to answer that old lyceum problem, "Which is better, anticipation or realization?"

E. O. Thiem left on Wednesday to attend the great chicken show at Cedar Rapids.

The Gulicks, root and branch, will take Thanksgiving dinner with Mother Gulick and Mrs. Martin tomorrow. We wish we were a "branch" to say the least.

DEATHS ADDENS HOME

Death of Mrs. L. L. Bond Brings Sorrow to Many.

SHE WAS LONG AN INVALID.

Death Comes as Relief From Pain. Funeral Services Largely Attended

The death of Mrs. L. L. Bond was an event, which though expected caused the greatest sorrow to the relatives and many friends who had hoped against hope for many months for her recovery. She was a noble Christian woman, an affectionate mother, faithful wife and kind and loving friend. Her illness extended over more than a year and it was as relief from suffering that death came to her.

The funeral services held on Sunday afternoon at the First Methodist church were largely attended. The members of the Eastern Star attended in a body and many friends from West Side were present. Rev. W. E. Bryce preached a beautiful and touching sermon and the choir sang the hymns which Mrs. Bond had herself selected.

The Review can but express the universal grief felt by the death of this good woman and the sympathy which the community feels for her loved ones.

Fanny L. Hudson was born in Lincolnshire, England, Oct. 2, 1849. At the age of two years and a half she came to this country with her parents, settled at Westfield N. Y., where Fanny was educated, and taught school until March 18, 1873, when she was united in marriage to Capt. W. O. Harrison and moved to Detroit, Mich. One son John Hudson Harrison was born to this union. In the year 1877 Capt. Hudson was washed from the deck of his steamer and drowned. In August 1880 she and her son John moved to Clinton County Iowa where she lived with her parents until June 29, 1882 when she was married to Dr. L. L. Bond and came to West Side, Crawford County to live. In 1899 she removed to Denison with her husband, where she resided until her death. For many years she has been a faithful member of the Methodist church, and expressed a desire that her funeral service be conducted in this church. She has selected 'Jesus Lover of My Soul' as her favorite hymn.

EIGHTY YEARS YOUNG.

On Monday Mrs. Moothart was eighty years young. Her daughters had a surprise arranged for her and about twenty-five friends were gathered to pay a tribute of love and congratulations to Mrs. Moothart, whose beautiful life in our midst has been such a power for good.

The rooms were fragrant with roses carnations and chrysanthemums, the gifts of friends. A great many other gifts were also presented. A tray supper of two courses was served by the Misses Kelly, Gulick and Stevens.

The company were favored with some music by Mrs. Lou Gulick Martin. Mrs. Moothart has been greatly blessed in her children as they are in her and it is the hope of all her friends that the next birthdays be as happy as those of the past.

CHRISTMAS FOR THE CLUB ROOM.

Mrs. B. Brodersen has presented the club room with an elegant and massive pair of candle sticks and candelabra in German brass. Mrs. Brodersen's public spirit in presenting these beautiful gifts is greatly appreciated by the club members and all those interested in making the club room attractive.

Miss Beatrice Lally returned home today from her academy work in Omaha to spend Thanksgiving.

Mrs. M. Adolphson returned home on Saturday from Cedar Rapids, where she has been visiting relatives for the past three weeks.

Dr. B. F. Philbrook left today to join the chicken enthusiasts at the big show at Cedar Rapids. He has several entries, as has Mr. Thiem and we hope that both will be successful in landing the ribbons.
