

One Dozen

of our up-to-date photos will make twelve beautiful Xmas gifts. Better order them to-day at Laub blk. Ferguson's Studio.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bauman, Tuesday Nov. 27, a son.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Wood were Omaha visitors last Saturday.

P. H. Rank was looking after business matters in Arion last Friday.

Born on Thanksgiving morning to Mr. and Mrs. Julius Mahler, a son.

Lane Goodwin of Yankton, S. D. has been a guest at the J. B. Romans home during the past week.

Just received a consignment of Virgin Oil of Pine and Karagon Compound at Schlumberger's Pharmacy.

A crowd of Charter Oak young people drove over to Denison last Sunday to spend the day with friends.

Dr. R. C. Rath of Dunlap stopped off at Denison between trains on his way to his parents home in Ackley, Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. Savery of Woodbine, spent Thanksgiving with their son Wm. Savery, our popular deputy city marshal.

Geo. Newcom, a bright young farmer from near Boyer was in the county capitol Saturday attending to some business matters.

Miss Ella Ryan, Mr. Jake Ryan and Mr. and Mrs. Jessup of Dunlap visited over Thanksgiving day at the P. D. McMahon home.

Marie Neave who is attending Ferry Hall at Lake Forest, spent Thanksgiving with her room mate at the latter's home in Elkader, Iowa.

Miss Nellie Goodnow and Miss Mamie Tubbs of Wall Lake were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Smith over Thanksgiving and Sunday.

R. C. Patterson of Kansas City, a nephew of J. H. Patterson and J. R. Dermont of Omaha spent Thanksgiving at the J. H. Patterson home in Denison.

Nimble fingers make dainty gifts. To prove it visit the Queen Esther bazaar at the Bullock building Dec. 15th. Market day to make Saturday baking light.

Miss Beatrice Lally who has been spending a few days at home, returned Sunday to resume her studies in Omaha. Her father P. E. C. Lally accompanied her on her return trip.

"Queen of The Rockies," which comes to the Opera House next Thursday Dec. 13 is a play replete with incidents that stir, emotion that moves and comedy that compels laughter. Prices 25, 35 and 50 cents.

Mr. Brian Iseminger, of Buck Grove, who has been one of our best barbers for the past few years, spent a few days in Denison last week shaking hands with his numerous friends. Brian is looking well and he says that there is nothing like it.

It is rumored that Otto Faul who is editing a newspaper at Boynton, Oklahoma will be in Denison after the first of the year to edit "Der Democrat," as Mr. Fank Faul, the proprietor and editor will be busy conducting the county clerk's office after January first. After Otto's arrival the Denison baseball enthusiasts ought to arouse the baseball spirit for next year.

High Grade Kerosene and Window Glass at Wygants.

J. H. Tamm transacted business in Omaha last Monday.

W. V. Whaley of Dow City was a business visitor in the city last Tuesday.

Otto Christiansen left Tuesday for a few days visit with the J. L. Warbasse family in Kansas.

Geo. Nicholson of the real estate firm of Nicholson Bros. and Cushman was in Vail on business Monday.

A good hair brush makes a useful and desirable Christmas gift. All prices at Schlumberger's Pharmacy.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Barrett of Dunlap were visitors at the P. D. McMahon home the fore part of the week.

Miss Edna Schultz of the Balle-Brodersen Co. store spent Thanksgiving week with her parents in Morgan township.

C. C. Kemming of the Denison Clothing Co. was in Charter Oak Tuesday looking after his business interests there.

A. J. Grace, Deputy Sheriff of Pottawatomie County visited at the home of his cousin Ira Gillmor, over Monday and Tuesday.

Mr. John Harrison who came home to attend the funeral of his mother, returned last Saturday to resume his medical course in Chicago.

Allard's Novelty store had a big Christmas opening last Saturday. The Wheeler-Hover-Bond Orchestra played afternoon and evening which was greatly enjoyed by those attending.

Geo. Frahm will hold an auction of everything on his farm place one and three fourths miles east of Buck Grove on December 19. Look at the ad in this paper to see what he offers for sale.

No need to pay Expensive Hospital bills and Railroad fare when Dr. Weber, the Eye and Ear Specialist comes here and can cure you at Home, Call Saturday Dec 8 at Nielson House. Examination free.

Miss Carrie Jacobsen, was called to her home in Charter Oak last Friday on account of the sickness of her brother, Arthur Jacobsen who underwent a successful operation in the hospital at Sioux City.

The Royal Highlanders expect to have a huge blow out Friday night when they expect to use their new paraphernalia also work five new candidates. They want all the Highlanders to be sure and attend.

The latest addition to the Balle-Brodersen Co. sales force is George Albert, of Manning, Iowa. Mr. Albert is a young German who has had six years experience in handling groceries and is a valuable addition to the big store.

The scenic investiture and equipment of "Queen of The Rockies" which comes to the Opera House next Thursday Dec. 13 is a most elaborate and complete nature. The fight between man and bear in the Canyon, and the lynching being particularly realistic.

Mrs. Rev. J. P. Clyde who has been visiting with her sister Mrs. E. W. Fellows, left for her home in Watertown, S. D. Tuesday.

The Twenty-five club gave another one of their popular club dances Wednesday night of last week. The music was excellent and every body reports having a big time.

Profs. E. W. Fellows and Chas. Humreys attended a meeting of the high school superintendents and principals of the State at Ames on Friday and Saturday of last week.

There were no Sunday services in the Baptist Church last Sunday on account of Rev. Stull being called to the bedside of his wife's mother in Illinois, who is reported very sick.

Our congenial friend, S. G. Wright dropped in from Western Nebraska to eat Thanksgiving turkey with his wife. He left again Saturday to complete his regular tour as traveling salesman for this season.

J. P. Jones left Tuesday for Artesion and Redfield, S. D. with some land seekers. Mr. Jones says that South Dakota is on the boom and that a man cannot miss it by investing in South Dakota land.

The Germania Verein gave their annual Thanksgiving Ball Thanksgiving evening. On account of the inclemency of the weather the attendance was light, but a good social time was enjoyed by all.

Mr. R. S. Utter of Long Island, Kansas, who is studying watch making and engraving at the Omaha Watch Making Institute, will help Mr. E. C. Chamberlain in his jewelry store during the month of December.

Walter Lamborn, our popular druggist has greatly improved the inside of his store by putting in some brand new plate glass show cases and making room for the large stock of fine Christmas presents which has just arrived.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Rose will be pleased to know of the marriage of their daughter Orrie Rose to Mr. Wallace Weigel of Omaha on Thanksgiving day in Omaha. They will be at home at 1115 William, St. Omaha.

P. C. Marshall and Chas. Bollen were in Logan last Friday night attending the silver anniversary of the founding of the Masonic Lodge of that place. About 150 out of town members and several of the Masonic Grand Lodge officers were also in attendance and our boys say that they enjoyed a good time.

The musical comedy "My Wife's Family" was at the Opera House last Friday and played to one of the largest houses of the season. The play was a comedy from start to finish and was well liked by some and disliked by others. Those who like comedy enjoyed it because this was a company of good actors and fun makers.

Mr. F. W. Meyers, the editor of this paper is taking a much needed vacation this week and is enjoying himself with his wife and son in the Sunny South. They expect to stay about one week in the historic old city of New Orleans and on their return will stop off at the beautiful up-to-date city of Memphis, and will also visit St. Louis, the late World's Fair city. Mr. Meyers expects to return Sunday.

Last week two of Crawford county's inhabitants were sent to the hospital for inebriates at Knoxville. Peter Mumm of West Side and Sam Broadus of Denison the other. Jackson Broadus filed the information against Sam Broadus and Sam consented to go and consequently there was no contest. It is hoped that the treatment at the hospital will make men out of both and that they will return home and lead a good moral life.

Miss Alvina Schroeder, of Omaha, spent Thanksgiving in Denison with relatives.

Miss Katharine Servoss opened up her winter term of school in the Fitzpatrick district.

Miss Clara McCarthy is out of school this week as she is suffering from a severe cold.

Dame rumor has it that one of Denison's prominent society ladies will be married the latter part of this month.

A brother of Miss Myrtle Culmer from Duluth, Minn. and her mother from Nebraska, spent Sunday with her at the Young home.

Jim Maloy of West Side was in Denison the early part of the week and purchased one of Frank Leshner's thoroughbred Poland China hogs.

Already public curiosity has been aroused to a considerable extent in the coming of C. F. Rhodes' "Queen of The Rockies" at the Opera House next Thursday, Dec. 13. Popular prices.

Funeral Flowers
OF ALL KINDS.

Furnished on Shortest notice. Designs of all kinds made to order.

We have added an extensive line of Ribbons in all the latest shades and arrange your Bouquets for you.

Bartcher Brothers,
Wholesale and Retail CUT FLOWERS.
We have Five Agencies.
Both Phones.

When selecting Christmas gifts, do not forget the freshly boxed perfumes at Schlumberger's Pharmacy.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fletcher and baby boy are expected next week to remain over the holidays at the A. C. Balle home.

Bridge Whist is just becoming popular in Denison and the Commercial Club members are playing the game constantly in their commodious club rooms.

Miss Ollie Hildebrandt was sick during the early part of the week and was compelled to leave her millinery work in the Balle-Brodersen store for several days.

About fifteen Dow City people attended the theatre at Denison last Friday evening, among whom were Prof. Kies, J. E. Doser, W. E. Fishel, Willis Wiggins, Gene Wiggins, Dr. Frank Evans and others.

Here's where we make it hot for you.

Certainly we do, hot bread, hot biscuit, hot pastry and hot doughnuts. Very moderate prices, suitable to the kind of wares you buy.

Candy
a great Christmas stock to select from. Taffey of the good old home made kind.

Cigars
only the best brands kept in stock.

Fruit
very cheap—try us and be satisfied, we guarantee it.

RESPECTFULLY
JACOBSEN, Prop.
Denison, Iowa.

Mrs. Dora Green has returned from a long visit and is again with her niece Mrs. Sears McHenry.

Queen Esther Circle wishes all its friends to attend their Christmas bazaar to be given Dec. 15th at the Bullock building. Market day goes with it.

Mrs. R. E. Grason of Boynton, Oklahoma is visiting at the home of her parents in Paradise township. Her husband is now a prosperous attorney at Boynton Okla.

Mrs. Faith Norris and children, of Omaha, have been visiting over Thanksgiving and Sunday at the homes of Mrs. Tom Morris and Mrs. Margaret Lochmiller.

Probably the most substantial success of the generation in the line of Melo-Drama is C. F. Rhodes' "Queen of The Rockies" which comes to the Opera House next Thursday Dec. 13. Popular prices.

Miss Garnett Norman last Friday evening took part in an entertainment given at Council Bluffs by the Western Iowa Vaudeville Co., Miss Norman made quite a hit with her whistling performance and is fast making a great reputation for herself as a great whistler.

Temple Kirkup who is studying civil engineering and Lenzen Moeller who is studying electrical engineering at the Nebraska University at Lincoln, spent Thanksgiving with their parents. These two young men are hustlers and they will yet be heard from.

DID YOU SAY FLOWERS?

Why certainly. We have Pink, White and Yellow Chrysanthemums—Red, Pink, White and Yellow Roses. The beautiful new dark Red Richmond Rose and Red, Pink and White Carnations and Violets. A charming display—fresh and pretty—which will you have.

Bartcher Brothers,
Wholesale and Retail CUT FLOWERS.
Both Phones.

Mrs. R. A. Romans accompanied by her daughter Mrs. C. E. Auracher and baby of Lisbon, Iowa, returned home last Sunday after an absence of about one month.

The Lamborn Drug Co. have issued something new in the line of a souvenir letter which contains ten views of Denison business streets and public buildings. It makes a fine souvenir to send to your friends.

Mrs. Herman Schultz of Morgan township is in the hospital at Sioux City, where she underwent a serious operation. Latest reports are that she is on the road to recovery.

Joe Monaghan of Vail was in the city Monday and he says that he is practicing hard every day on a typewriter so that he will be in good shape to use the book typewriter in the County Clerk's office after January first.

Miss Ora Carr, the popular trimmer of the Sarachon Sisters Millinery store left for her home in Shenandoah last week. Miss Carr has been so well liked in her profession that the Sarachon Sisters have seen fit to employ her for four consecutive seasons and her many friends will be glad to see her with us again next spring.

Geo. Conway an employee of the Northwestern Stove Repair Co., of Chicago visited the early part of the week with his cousin W. R. Fitzpatrick at the old homestead. Mr. Fitzpatrick leaves Saturday for Wonder, Nevada where he expects to so arrange his business affairs that he can attend to his duties as representative when the State Legislature of Nevada convenes in January.

Coming Attractions.
Dec. 13—"Queen of the Rockies"
Dec. 24—"The Triumph of Betty"
Dec. 25—Annual Christmas Ball

Mr. Will Rhodenbaugh is expected home for Christmas.

Mrs. G. U. Johnson and Mrs. Woodruff went to Dow City Sunday.

Miss Ridge of Perry, was an over Sunday guest of Miss Abbie McHenry.

Miss Lillie Raine spent Thanksgiving with her sister Edna at Simpson college.

Mrs. E. Gutick and Mrs. Martin were among the many who went to Dow City Sunday.

Mrs. Sewell is expected home from her visit with a sister in Manchester, Iowa, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Martin and family of Spencer, Ia., were the over Sunday guests of Mr. I. Austin.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Jones and Mrs. Sarah Wagoner spent Thanksgiving day with Mrs. Dean in Rockwell City.

Nearly forty went to Dow City from Denison on Sunday to attend the last services held for Mrs. Howorth and Mrs. Dow.

Attorney P. W. Harding is expected home from his stay in Blackfoot Idaho, where he has conducted a land litigation case.

Miss Kate Sillitoe will be with the racket store during the Christmas rush. Miss Sillitoe makes an excellent clerk and will be very popular with the patrons.

Mr. O. W. Wheeler who has been greatly afflicted with rheumatism during the past three weeks, left Sunday for Colfax where he will take a course of treatment. We all sincerely hope that he may be greatly benefited and that he will soon return well and sound.

Mr. Frank Fee of Muskogee, Oklahoma, has been in Denison the past week shaking hands with his numerous friends and tells us that he likes Muskogee and that he is doing a big business in the building line and the town is booming all the time. He states that the O'Hares, McAlpina, Jerome Quigley and Mike Curduff are all doing well. He relates that twins lately arrived at the home of Mike Curduff, a girl and a boy.

Boars and Bulls. POLAND-CHINAS-SHORT-HORNS.
TOM NORRIS,
1/4 mile west of Denison. C. C. Phone 31A 3817

A Splendid Assortment.

We take pleasure in announcing that we are daily receiving and placing on display our splendid line of useful and practical Xmas gifts, among which you will find

High grade stationery, an elegant assortment of Perfumes, fine line of Bill books, Card cases, Hand bags and Pocket books, an extra good grade of Hair brushes and Combs in individual boxes, Meer-shaun and Briar pipes, Funke's chocolates, always on hand.

The beauty and prices of all these goods will greatly surprise you, and this fine line will enable our customers to choose a useful as well as a practical gift.

Come early make your selections and have them laid aside for you.....YOURS TO PLEASE

Lamborn Drug Co.

Christmas Will Soon Be Here.....

THERE is no time like the present for Christmas shopping when our stocks are complete and you run no risk of disappointment from depleted assortments. It costs no more to buy now, and there's much satisfaction in knowing that you are getting first and best choice of new things. Beginning Monday, Dec. 11th, we'll remain open evenings until 9:00 o'clock, so as to give all an opportunity to visit this store if you are unable to come during the day.

What Shall I Give For Christmas? This very pertinent question is answered comprehensively, suggestively if you will but visit our store, taking time to look at things at your leisure. Visit every section of the Great small city store, and gifts for every member of the family—father, mother, sister, brother, relatives, friends or sweethearts, will suggest themselves. Your time here will be spent pleasantly and purchases made here will result only in economy and satisfaction.

Everything new, fresh, reasonable merchandise, and, best of all, you will not only find our merchandise that of quality, but you will also find our prices are strictly the lowest.

The Balle-Brodersen Co.
DENISON, IOWA.
CRAWFORD COUNTY'S GREAT CHRISTMAS STORE.