

Special Announcement for the coming year OF INTEREST TO EVERY READER. Our Great Magazine Section

Ever on the lookout for features to maintain the Review's prominence as the Newspaper of Crawford County, we have decided to offer our readers for 1907--a splendid 16-page Illustrated Weekly Magazine. It will be printed on fine paper, be handsomely illustrated, and will contain special articles, stories and general reading matter of the highest class.

NOTE --- Many of our readers are familiar with the Sunday Magazine issued by the Chicago Record Herald. The Review's Magazine Section will be just as handsomely gotten up and will contain just as high grade matter.

Adds One Dollar to Value--Nothing to the Price

During January the Magazine Section will be sent FREE TO EVERY REVIEW SUBSCRIBER.

AFTER JANUARY it will be included ABSOLUTELY FREE to every subscriber so long as his subscription is paid.

If your Review is paid to July 1907, you will get the Magazine Section until that date, then it will stop--to commence again as soon as your subscription is paid. Our only compensation for this great added expense is as an inducement to subscribers to pay promptly.

We are positive that this will be the most attractive feature the Review has ever given the people and that it will be appreciated by all.

Extra-The Farmer's Tribune

This greatest Agricultural paper of the northwest, a 32 page weekly, will be given absolutely free to all advance paying subscribers.

The Review as a Christmas Gift.

Many of our readers have friends and relatives living away. What better Xmas Gift than a year's subscription to the Great Newspaper of Crawford County. It will be a weekly letter from home all the year around, a weekly reminder of the giver, long after toys and gew-gaws are broken and forgotten. In order to enable all of our subscribers to send the Review to their friends as a Christmas Present, we make the following offer:

Good until January 1st, 1907 ONLY

For One Dollar

Any regular subscriber to the Review may have privilege of sending one or more extra subscriptions to friends or relatives for the year 1907 for $1.00; PROVIDING--said extra subscription is not already on our list and that cash accompanies the order. A PRETTY CHRISTMAS CARD will be sent your friend notifying him that the Review is to come to him for a year prepaid with your compliments.

NOTE--The Magazine Section is not included in this offer, but the Farmers' Tribune will be if so requested. Two Dollars added to any of the above offers will also secure the Chicago Daily Tribune for one year.

The Review wishes to thank the people for that generous support which has enabled us to add more than Five Hundred new subscribers during the past year and asks every reader to give these great special offers their immediate attention. We have no graft games to offer. We are not asking any girls' parents to buy pianos or diamond rings for twice their value, but we do present to you the Best Values in Good Reading ever offered to the people of this county. X RESPECTFULLY

The Review Publishing Co. -- Denison, Iowa.
