

WHILE YOU

are all together, have a Group Photo taken at

W. W. Ferguson, Laub Block Photographer.

"The Doctor" by Ralph Conner for sale at Johnsons.

Dan Scanlan of Vail was a Denison visitor today.

High Grade Kerosene and Window Glass at Wygants.

C. C. Kemming went to Council Bluffs on business yesterday.

Foster Pierce of the Ames College is at home for the holidays.

W. J. McAhren went to Dow City on business on Wednesday.

Mrs. H. L. Ferrill left Friday night for Boone, on business.

Ray Staininger, of Vail visited Denison friends over Sunday.

G. W. Nicholson transacted business in Council Bluffs yesterday.

J. P. Thompson of Smithland transacted business in Denison today.

The Latest Arrival—A carload of Sleepy Eye Flour. Balle Brodersen Co.

Miss Mary Worth of Dow City was a pleasant Denison caller today.

Miss Nell Staininger of Vail was in Denison doing shopping on Tuesday.

Miss Alice Sandberg of Kiron is in Denison on a Christmas shopping tour.

Misses Fanchon Bamford and Ione Romans were Omaha visitors Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Emil Pump went to West Side on Wednesday to visit relatives over Christmas.

FRESH FROM MINNESOTA. A carload of Sleepy Eye Flour. Balle-Brodersen Co.

Chas Bell who has been in Nebraska for the past year is here to visit his family over Christmas.

Five gross of tooth brushes at 10 cents and up from which to select at Schlumberger's Pharmacy.

Mr. Rex Smith and Miss Metta Nielson left on Wednesday for Cedar Rapids to visit his parents over the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Bleakney leave on Saturday for a holiday visit at the home of Mrs. Bleakney's parents at Glenwood, Iowa.

Frank Barta returned to Fairfax, Ia., Saturday after a visit with relatives and Joe Pacht returned with him for a visit there.—Vail Observer.

Carl F. Kuehne and Ed. Theobald were Manilla visitors on Wednesday, arranging for Mr. Theobald's new position in the Manilla National Bank.

R. L. Hill went to Council Bluffs to meet his father and mother who have been visiting at Alma, Neb., with their daughter. They will visit here over Christmas.

The Boyer Valley Poultry Association holds their annual exhibition at Dunlap, Iowa, Dec. 26, 27, 28 and 29. Good cash prizes are offered on Chickens, Ducks, Geese and Turkeys. Geo. D. Holden will judge. Three beautiful cups are also put on different varieties. For premium list address E. R. Cadwell, Cor. Sec'y.—Vail Observer.

Perfumes, Perfumes, Perfumes, at Schlumberger's Pharmacy.

P. W. Harding made St. Joe., Mo, a business visit on Monday.

Kruut Matson of Boyer was a jolly Denison visitor on Wednesday.

Miss Lora Christy will spend her holiday vacation at her home in Onawa.

C. L. Voss, the real estate magnate, is transacting business in Sioux City today.

Mrs. Thos. Fitzpatrick of Denison is a guest at the T. Quirk home—Vail Observer.

Mr. R. A. Romans and Lew Romans went to Omaha, Neb. on business Tuesday.

Lorenz Lorenzen is expected home from Iowa City tonight for the holiday vacation.

John P. Woodruff will arrive tonight from Iowa City, to spend the holidays at home.

Wm. Kroll and his son Louis of Charter Oak transacted business in Denison yesterday.

Masquerade Suits for rent from 50 cents up to Mrs. Pfeiffer's, 319 Broadway, Council Bluffs, Ia. 51-tf.

Bonbons and Chocolates in Bulk and one half, one pound and two pound boxes at U. G. Johnsons & Co.

Imported hair brushes and hand-made combs make acceptable Christmas Gifts. Prices, the most reasonable at Schlumberger's Pharmacy.

Lost—Dec. 11th, on lower road between Denison and Charter Oak, a grey fur robe. Finder notify W. A. Antrim and receive reward 51-1t

Dr. R. O. McConaughy is counting on a visit to Boone on New Years Day for a visit with his brother who is with the Oberlin Glee Club on a concert tour.

L. L. Osterlund came to market one day last week with sixteen good hogs weighing 450 pounds each, and his check was an even $400. Pretty good don't you think?—Vail Observer

The white swan that A. W. Miller captured on the Boyer river near Denison last week was sent here to W. W. Watson to be mounted. It measures seven feet from tip to tip of its wings and is probably the only one ever captured in the county.—Vail Observer.

Chester Lyman made Denison friends a brief visit yesterday. He is now conductor on a dining car on the Rock Mountain Limited running from Council Bluffs to Denver on the Rock Island. He enjoys his work greatly. His home is at Council Bluffs. His many Denison friends were rejoiced to give him the "glad hand."

Among our new subscribers is W. A. Duncan of Sullivan, Ill. In re-mitting Mr. Duncan says. "It will seem like a treat to get the Review again for I read it for 21 years, with out a miss. I subscribed for the Review in Dec. 1874 to our old friend G. C. Lawson and was well acquainted for a number of years with your father whom I very much admired. Your Respectfully, W. A. Duncan."

Souvenir books of Denison Views just in at Johnsons.

Mrs. John Rollins, Sr., left on Sunday for Chicago to visit her daughter.

On Monday, Archie Matthews and wife left for Sayre, Okla., to visit. They may decide to locate there.

Farms for Rent—One of 80 acres and one of 120 acres. Inquire of Mrs. G. Schafer 50-tf

For Rent—Eight room house with barn and basement. Inquire of Dwight Partridge. 47-tf

While planning for your fun do not forget the Christmas Ball at the opera house Tuesday, Dec. 25th.

If you wish a box of good Christmas cigars for your money, go to Schumberger's Pharmacy.

The human telephone for the deaf, the latest hearing device. B. J. Shaerer, Optician, Menning, Iowa.

Miss Katie Kraemer of Charter Oak accompanied by her brother Andrew Kraemer were doing some Christmas shopping Tuesday.

Strange but true, the firms that have done the most advertising this year are the ones that are feeling the best about their Christmas trade.

Mrs. L. E. Hammond of Dow City was calling on friends in this city last week. She expects to leave for Los Angeles to spend several months.

J. L. Riggelman of Deloit called on us yesterday and took advantage of our Christmas Gift rate to send the Review to a friend in Minnesota.

R. H. Childers of Milford township was a pleasant Review caller on Wednesday. He will get The Farmers Tribune with his Review this year.

Mrs. Robt. Grason of Boynton, I. T. visited friends in this city a few days last week. Her mother Mrs. McCord will accompany her home to spend the winter.

Pete Griffin was lucky enough to win the buggy raffled by Maxwell and Wilroth. He paid 36 cents for his ticket and sold the buggy back to the firm for $40.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Howarth anticipate celebrating their twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedded life on the 28th. We hope they may live to enjoy many more anniversaries.

For Sale—Two Duroc Jersey Boars, eligible for service. Also choice Barred Plymouth Rock and Brown Leghorn Cockerels. E. C. Baum, Lenfeldt Farm. 50-2t

Chas. Young is at home for the holidays. He has his headquarters at Sioux City and travels through South Dakota, Wyoming and Nebraska. He enjoys his work and looks exceedingly well and prosperous.

The Pound building, formerly occupied by Dr. J. A. Thomson, is being put into first class shape and will soon be used by Dr. L. E. Moseled as a dental office. Dr. Glynn will occupy Dr. Moseled's present quarters.—Vail Observer.

Among Denison's visitor from Vail the past week were Thos. Coates, C. H. White, J. P. Fitch, P. O'Driscoll, Jno. McCormick Jr., Ben Crampton, J. W. Gould, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Kral, Mrs. Staininger, Miss Grace Long and Miss Johanna Walsh.

We are informed that County Auditor Ed. Theobald has accepted a position with the Manilla Nat'l. Bank Mr. Theobald is a splendid gentleman and has made hundreds of friends during his term of office and the Manilla National is fortunate in securing his services. There is one thing about it, you will not find any of the republican ex-officials sitting around holding their thumbs waiting for another chance to run for office. They are good men who will easily find something to do.

A new stock of the latest Books for sale at Johnsons.

Zeph Fienhold shipped a car of cattle to Chicago Saturday.

Jas. Spence and wife were shopping in this city Thursday.

Isaac Hird of Manilla was a welcome Denison visitor yesterday.

Lottie Bixler of Paradise was a Denison purchaser on Saturday last.

Mrs. R. A. Romans and Miss Marion Scriver made Omaha a visit on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Kelly spent Sunday at Carroll with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kelly.

The Misses Haley and Mr. Bartley Haley of Kenwood, were Denison callers Tuesday.

Be sure and come in and inspect our Perfumes before buying elsewhere. Schlumberger's Pharmacy.

Funeral Flowers
OF ALL KINDS.

Furnished on Shortest notice. Designs of all kinds made to order. We have added an extensive line of Ribbons in all the latest shades and arrange your Bouquets for you.

Bartcher Brothers,
Wholesale and Retail CUT FLOWERS.
We have Five Agencies.
Both Phones.

Mrs. T. C. Dobson drove down from Deloit on Saturday to do some shopping.

Norman Smith and mother were business visitors at the county seat Saturday.

Mrs. Blume, Sr. of Dow City has been ill and her friends hope she may soon recover.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Sweet of Willow township were Denison traders on Wednesday.

Mrs. Binnal of Dow City took advantage of the Christmas bargains in this city Saturday.

Miss Maggie Sharp and Mr. Geo. Sharp of Dow City were callers at the county seat Tuesday.

J. J. Bailey and his son Wallace returned this week from a month's visit with relatives in Wisconsin.

Mr. Walker, Chef of the Merchant's Hotel left on Monday evening for a brief vacation visit in Council Bluffs and Omaha.

Here's where we make it hot for you.

Certainly we do, hot bread, hot biscuit, hot pastry and hot doughnuts. Very moderate prices, suitable to the kind of wares you buy.

Candy
a great Christmas stock to select from. Taffey of the good old home made kind.

Cigars
only the best brands kept in stock.

Fruit
very cheap—try us and be satisfied, we guarantee it.

RESPECTFULLY
JACOBSEN, Prop.
Denison, Iowa.

Here's to Santa Claus, the jolliest saint on the calendar.

Miss Grace Meyers made Omaha a brief visit on Tuesday.

A splendid stock of candies and Boxes and Bulk at Johnsons.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Fishel of Dow City visited Denison friends today.

The best bread bread is sired by Sleepy Eye, out of Minnesota. A fresh car load today. Balle-Brodersen Co.

Why bother with sending your Review to friends each week when you can present them with a year's subscription for $1.00?

J. W. Gould one of Vail's faithful and efficient mail carriers, took a day off on Tuesday and visited Denison relatives.

N. W. Nash is now nicely settled on his new place just east of Denison. Together with his son Hugh, he will work the place and also keep up his work as carrier.

A nice, clean and interesting entertainment for both young and old will be that of "Prof. Laurant" the famous magician and illusionist at the Opera House Saturday night December 22.

Mr. Thomas and sister Miss Alvine of Chicago, were called to Denison last week by the death of Mrs. Herman Schultz. Miss Alvine is a sister of Mrs. Schultz. They returned to their Chicago home on Monday.

DID YOU SAY FLOWERS?

Why certainly. We have Pink, White and Yellow Chrysanthemums—Red, Pink, White and Yellow Roses. The beautiful new dark Red Richmond Rose and Red, Pink and White Carnations and Violets. A charming display—fresh and pretty—which will you have.

Bartcher Brothers,
Wholesale and Retail CUT FLOWERS.
Both Phones.

Miss Hilda Brodersen is expected home this evening from Iowa City to spend the Christmas tide.

Mrs. Ben Bartcher will entertain her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Angtead, and her brother, H. J. Angtead and wife of Council Bluffs as Christmas guests.

S. S. club had a splendid meeting, every member being present but two, and six guests. A very nice chicken pie supper was served, Miss Iva Smith having charge of the supper and is Orpha Marshall the program. The S. S. guest night will be given at the club room Jan. 15th.

Swan Eckberg and family expect to leave on Friday for their new home near Davenport Iowa, where Mr. Eckberg will farm the coming year. Mr. Eckberg has proven himself an industrious and intelligent citizen and his many friends wish him success and happiness in his new home.

"Prof Laurant" the magician and illusionist, and Company, presenting a superb entertainment of original mystical creations will appear at the Opera House Saturday night Dec. 22. This magnificent attraction is one of the finest of its kind ever offered the Denison people and an evening spent with Prof. Laurant will prove most enchanting. Prices 25, 35 and 50 cents.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kepford gave an oyster supper and party last Wednesday evening in honor of their nephew Mr. Albert Polzein as a farewell before leaving for Janesville, Wis., where he goes to enter the school of telegraphy. Albert is a great favorite among the young people of Buck Grove and will be missed very much, and all join in wishing him a safe journey and a successful school year.

Coming Attractions.

Dec. 22—"Laurant" Magician.
Dec. 25—Annual Christmas Ball

Mrs. Pugh of Vail was a Denison visitor yesterday.

J. R. Brockelsby of Vail was a pleasant Denison caller today.

Mrs. L. A. Vore and daughter paid Denison a shopping visit on Wednesday.

Sears McHenry and family are counting on spending Christmas Day in Logan.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus. Rabe of Charter Oak were among Denison's many visitors on Wednesday.

Mrs. F. W. Meyers expects a visit next week from her sister Miss Ede T. Louis of Iowa City.

Miss Mollie Foley returned on Monday to her home at Clinton, Ia. after a pleasant visit with her cousin Miss Stacy Denahy.

Miss Stacy Denahy is looking forward with pleasure to a visit next week from her niece Miss Regina Dolle of Jackson, Minn., and from her brother E.W. Denahy of Chicago.

No. 1 Minnesota Hard. That is the wheat Sleepy Eye Flour is made from. A fresh car load now on hand at The Balle-Brodersen Co.

HAND PAINTED CHINA. Done by Alys Knaul, a well selected line. If anything special is wanted leave your order at once and we will do it for you. Come to see what we have on hand.

R. Knaul.

OSTEOPATHY. Dr. Emma Johnstone, Osteopathic Physician, Denison, Iowa. Office and residence at the home of Mr. E. O. Thiem, C. C. Phone No. 236. 49-tf

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE. Having sold my drug business to Mr. L. E. Blosser I would request all those knowing themselves indebted to me to call on me at the drug store and make prompt settlement.

W. E. Koenehan.

BE SURE AND SEE JESS Before making arrangements for your sale be sure and see the veteran auctioneer W. J. McAhren. 77-tf

Boars and Bulls. POLAND-CHINAS-SHORT-HORNS. TOM NORRIS. 1/2 mile west of Denison. C. C. Phone 31A 38-tf

Fresh from the factory—a large assortment of Funk's the best Chocolates that come to town, in fancy gift boxes and packages of all styles, and at all prices.

Now is the time to select and have it laid aside for you. One of those fine packages of Perfumes, or a box of Beautiful Stationery, a PARKER Lucky Curve Fountain Pen, a Card Case or Pocket Book, ladies or gents, Hair Brushes or Combs of the finest quality.

For Mere Man—Meershaum and Biar Case Pipes and Cigars in small boxes suitable for a gift.

See our Souvenir Letters, Xmas Cards and Xmas Post Cards. They will please you and make nice little remembrances.

In fact we are headquarters for practical Xmas gifts. Next door to Postoffice

Lamborn Drug Co.

THE LAST CALL

Christmas Will Soon Be Here.....

THERE is no time like the present for Christmas shopping when our stocks are complete and you run no risk of disappointment from depleted assortments. It costs no more to buy now, and there's much satisfaction in knowing that you are getting first and best choice of new things. Beginning Monday, Dec. 10th, we'll remain open evenings until 9:00 o'clock, so as to give all an opportunity to visit this store if you are unable to come during the day.

What Shall I Give For Christmas? This very pertinent question is answered comprehensively, suggestively if you will but visit our store, and gifts for every member of the family—father, mother, sister, brother, relatives, friends or sweethearts, will suggest themselves. Your time here will be spent pleasantly and purchases made here will result only in economy and satisfaction.

Everything new, fresh, reasonable merchandise, and, best of all, you will not only find our merchandise that of quality, but you will also find our prices are strictly the lowest.

The Balle-Brodersen Co.

DENISON, IOWA.
CRAWFORD COUNTY'S GREAT CHRISTMAS STORE.