A Home Made Happy by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

About two months ago our baby girl had measles which settled on her lungs and at last resulted in a severe attack of bronchitis. We had two doctors but no relief was obtained. Everybody thought she would die. I went to eight different stores to find a certain remedy which had been recommended to me and failed to get it, when one of the storekeepers insisted that I try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I did so and our baby is alive and well today. Geo. W. Spence, Holly Springs, N. C. For sale by L. E. Blosser.

Christmas was observed in all the churches at this point, beautiful trees were decorated and hung full of many useful as well as handsome presents for big folks, while the little people were pleased to receive dolls, books and toys which all gladden their little hearts.

One incident of interest is the fact that Miss Elsie Sticklebury, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sticklebury is the proud possessor of the finest and largest dolly ever in the town. It is life size being about the same height as the little girl who received it. It was beautifully dressed in silks and satins and presented in a nice new full sized go cart.

We are very glad to note that auditor Edward Theobald has purchased an interest in the Manilla National Bank and January 1st will move back to Manilla where he will act as assistant cashier of that institution. It is with great pride that we welcome Ed. back amongst us as he is the type of business men who are a credit to any town. It is further rumored that the National Bank will rebuild their building, making a two story bank of it, will also make it longer, fitting the additional rooms up for offices and when it is finished it will be as good as any building in the town.

When To Go Home

From the Bluffton, Ind., Banner: "When tried out, go home. When you want consolation, go home. When you want fun, go home. When you want to show others that you have reformed, go home and let your family get acquainted with the fact. When you want to show yourself at your best go home and do the act there. When you feel like being extra liberal go home and practice on your wife and children first. When you want to shine with extra brilliancy go home and light up the whole household." To which we would add, when you have a bad cold go home and take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and a quick cure is certain. For sale by L. E. Blosser Co.
