Two course refreshments were served making an exceedingly pleasant close to a pleasant evening.

One of the most enjoyable parties held for some time was the one given at the home of Mr. Hoffman in Goodrich township on Friday evening last week by the Misses Maude Quade and Lydia Biggs. A large number of young people turned out for the occasion and the evening was spent in playing various games and the having of a general good time. Mrs. Hoffman the young hostesses prepared an elegant midnight lunch which was thoroughly enjoyed.

School opened again Monday. The vacation brought about one change that was not welcome, but fullness of time will no doubt make it all right. During her vacation Miss Kinyon was taken very sick and it was necessary for her to resign her position in the fourth room. Several applications were received for the place, and from them the board engaged Miss Myrtle McAhren, of Denison. Miss McAhren is a good teacher—one of the county's best—and will no doubt make good, but it is with ill pleasure that we hear of the misfortune to Miss Kinyon.—Charter Oak Times.

SAD NEWS FOR MANY.

Death of William Marshall Sr. Occurred at Omaha To-day.

We learn this morning the sad news of the death of that well-beloved old pioneer of Crawford county, Mr. William Marshall, Sr. His death occurred at the home of his daughter Mrs. J. V. Patterson at Omaha at an early hour this morning. Mr. Fred Marshall and Mr. P. C. Marshall went to Omaha to-day and will accompany the remains to Denison. Funeral services will take place tomorrow, Friday, afternoon at three o'clock at the Presbyterian Church. Rev. W. E. Bryce officiating. The services will be in charge of the Masonic order of which deceased was a member of high rank. We reserve all comment on the death of the good man until our next issue, except that we would extend our sincere condolences to his sorrowing relatives and friends.

We learn with regret that Mrs. C. A. Jones is suffering from an attack of nervous prostration.

Miss Stacy Denahy leaves on Saturday for Carroll where she has accepted a position as stenographer.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat. Heffernan were pleasantly surprised on Tuesday evening by a number of their friends who went to their home to spend the evening. They were presented with a set of silver knives and forks as a remembrance of their Denison friends. Mr. and Mrs. Heffernan and family go to South Dakota where they will make their future home.

Hon. Carl F. Kuehne delivered the principal address at a Pythian banquet given at Waterloo last week. This was Mr. Kuehne's first formal speech in Waterloo since he left there as a boy and he was given a warm welcome. The Waterloo papers speak most highly of his address and devote much space to a synopsis of his remarks. It must indeed have been a pleasure to Mr. Kuehne to go to the city of his boyhood under such auspicious circumstances and it must have been a pleasure to his old friends to note the success he has attained.

ARRAIGNED FOR MURDER

tracks were plainly visible in the frosty blue grass. That there were the tracks of two vehicles.

ED WATKE testified that he lived near scene of murder, that out of curiosity he went to pasture and there found four cartridges he exhibited the cartridge and identified them. Said they were 32 caliber and looked as if they had been in a gun for a long time. He was asked to fit the shells into the chambers of a revolver shown him. This he did and said they fitted "about as good as you will get." Said he brought one cartridge to town and gave to John Schnoor who gave it to Mr. Klinker. On Saturday he returned to the pasture and got the remaining shells and gave them to Mr. Klinker. He identified the shells exhibited as the ones he had found.

SHERIFF MEEHAN was sworn and was asked concerning a conversation he had had with Hassan in the presence of Klinker. Attorney for defense asked if Hassan had first been warned that what he might say would be used against him. The Sheriff said he did not know that he was. Whereupon defendant objected and Meehan was not allowed to answer. The same objection was made and sustained regarding some article which the sheriff was asked if he had taken from him.

MR. KLINKER took the stand and testified that the revolver exhibited was one which he and Constable McAhren had found in Joe Hassan's wagon at Laub's barn. He said the chamber's were empty. The hearing then adjourned until 1.30.

Thursday Afternoon.

Dr. C. G. Brandt testified that he removed the bullets from body of murdered man and identified bullets exhibited. He also swore that while Nawill's skull was crushed the scalp was not broken.

The bullets were placed in evidence.

A. A. PETERSON of Odebolt swore that he was visiting at the Johnson home in Stockholm on the Sunday after the crime. There he saw the Hassans removing and re-packing goods from a satchel to the wagon and vice versa. He also testified that he saw Jos. Hassan burn some papers in the stove. Did not know the character of the papers, thought they were white and brown, might have been pasteboard boxes.

PRUDENCE ELLS testified that she saw Solomon Hassan get on an Illinois Central train at Ellis and that he came on the same train to Denison that she did and reached here about seven p. m. Saturday.

J. H. MAHONEY, Agent for the Northwestern swore that no goods were delivered to Jos. Hassan on the Saturday evening in question and that no goods were received or delivered to him for several days prior to that time.

E. F. TUCKER, re-called, told of the fact that the horse-shoes taken from Jos. Hassan's team fitted the tracks found in the pasture. He corroborated the testimony of John Cook.

FRANK SMITH testified that Jos. Hassan was in the Elite lunch room on Saturday with two men whom he took to be farmers, did not look like men of his race. In the morning he was in with another Syrian.

The Defense Scores.

RICHARD JOHNSTON was put upon the stand and swore that at the order of Justice Rollins, he had gone with J. H. Walker to the Johnson home in Stockholm township and found a wrench in the wagon box. Said he tried it on the wheels and it fitted.

J. H. Walker corroborated this testimony.

This closed the evidence.

On behalf of defendants Mr. Lally made an eloquent and forceful plea.

Particularly did he urge that there was not sufficient evidence to connect Sol Hassan with the crime. Mr. Klinker and Mr. Sims reviewed the evidence and Mr. Lally again submitted his motion to dismiss Sol Hassan. The motion was over-ruled and both defendants were bound over to await the action of the Grand Jury and the bond of each was fixed at $10,000. The prisoners were remanded to jail until the next term of court as no bond was furnished.

MRS. FAMILTON LEFT A WILL.

We learn that the estate of Mrs. Wm. Familton will amount to about $13,000.00. According to a will made last July, about half of the estate is left to Miss Anna DeWolf, the loving niece who cared for her during her long illness. The remainder of the estate is divided among numerous heirs, Mr. Geo. DeWolf and Mrs. A. L. Strong being well remembered. Rev. H. Hostetler of Marshalltown is the administrator.

NO ROOM FOR BRAG.

While we do not wish to say anything which would give rise to the thought that we do not have confidence in Denison as a law-abiding community we do wish to say the frequent boasts, that, while Denison has been the scene of a murder no attempt at lynching has been made, while at Charles City, another Iowa town the murderer was hanged, does not appeal to us as anything to brag about. Suppose that instead of the victim being a Syrian peddler without friends or acquaintances the victim had been one of the prominent citizens of the town, or some helpless woman or child? We are not sure that the people would not have risen and made short shift of the murderers. We would gladly believe that Denison has due respect for law but do not let us brag too much until the real test comes.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to extend our sincere thanks to the friends of Deloit and vicinity who so kindly assisted us in the burial of our little son. Mr. and Mrs. John Justice.
