

THE KIRON REVIEW.

E. E. CLAUSON, Department Editor.

NOTE—Mr. Clauson is empowered to accept for subscriptions or to receive advertisements to be inserted in this column.

Albert Youngberg returned on Wednesday morning from his trip to Chicago, going in with fatted cattle. Agnes Sjogren after a week's stay at Odebolt was compelled to give up her work, owing to sickness and returned home on Tuesday last.

The Andy Ward sale last Wednesday drew a large gathering and high prices were received for his property put up for sale. A better season for sales has never been known in this locality, everything selling for good figures.

Geo. Allen and wife left last week for Fostoria, Iowa where they will spend the remainder of the winter. In the spring their plan is to locate in Dakota. They disposed of their stock and farming machinery to parties in the neighborhood.

Considerable ice has been shipped into Kiron of late from Lake View. We are told that the quality of the ice this year is better by far than last year's crop.

Mrs. August Hansohn is able to be up and about the house which is most pleasing news to her many friends and neighbors.

John Svard came down from Galva on Thursday to attend the Anderson and Erickson wedding and to remain for a couple of weeks visiting relatives.

Rev. Frank Lavene went to Storm Lake on Monday to assist in the arrangements for the Quarterly State Conference of the Mission Church, which is to be held at Center Grove Iowa next month. He expected to visit Cherokee and Alta before returning.

Rev. Oscar Dahlberg, pastor of the Free Mission Church at Madrid, Iowa, will preach at the Mission Church next Sunday morning and evening.

G. A. Norelius, our wide awake merchant spent the first of the week at Omaha selecting goods for the spring trade and we will vouch for it that he secured the latest and best to be had. Kiron has a class of merchants that knows how to buy dependable goods and sell them at lowest possible prices.

In the view of the approaching departure of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Lundgren for South Dakota, about seventy-five of their friends and neighbors gathered at their home last Wednesday evening for a farewell visit. The pleasure of the occasion was somewhat tinged with sadness by the thought of the parting so soon to come though all endeavored to banish the thought and enjoy the evening in full measure. The ladies of the party had come with well filled lunch baskets and a lunch was enjoyed by all. Some beautiful silverware was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Lundgren as a memento of the occasion and as a token of good will.

Maurice Sjogren was the subject of a complete surprise on Wednesday evening while along assisting the surprise tendered to Mr. and Mrs. Victor Lundgren. In the course of the evening Rev. J. Sedarstrom presented him with a purse of money in behalf of the Baptist church, as an appreciation of his good work in the choir.

Gust Hammerstrom shipped one car of cattle to Chicago Monday evening. He went in with the shipment.

The postal department announces that after March 1st, 1 cent stamp books will be issued by the department similar to the 2 cent stamp books which have become so popular.

Louie Gronau who spent a week in Harlin county, Nebraska, returned home on Thursday last. He went to inspect the lands and future prospect of the southwestern portion of Nebraska with a view of purchasing. Although he did not invest while there, he may possibly do so in the near future, as he was well satisfied with the country.

N. P. Swanson went to Chicago on Tuesday evening last week with three cars of cattle and one of hogs. The market condition was not very satisfactory, when he reached it with his stock.

John Samuelson arrived from Arnold, Nebraska on Saturday for a short visit with his father John B. Samuelson and brother B. A. Samuelson residing a few miles north of Kiron. His friends were pleased to meet him and to learn that he is faring well in his eastern home.

While in Kiron on Thursday last Will Schroeder of Schleswig saw the fine span of mules on our streets belonging to Gust Brown near Boyer. The owner was hunted up and in a short while the deal was consummated which made Will the owner of the mules, which took $405. of his money. Going home in the evening and when entering the town of Schleswig the mules started to run away, upsetting the buggy, the occupants being dumped out without sustaining any injuries. The mules were found the next morning at the Fred Petersens place northeast of Schleswig none the worse for their rapid whirl.

The troubles aired in the justice court at Kiron on Thursday last between parties residing near Boyer terminated in the affecting of a settlement, the defendant paying the demands of the plaintiff, thus ending the serious and unpleasant affair. Quite a number of Boyerites who were interested in both parties came up to Kiron to see the final outcome.

Druggist Walters has installed a new gasoline light plant in his drug store which is as perfect and handy as any we have seen. It is most simple to manipulate and gives an abundance of light. Court believes in having everything up to date and doing things right and is enjoying the result of his principles put in practice. By the way Kiron readers should not overlook what he has to say in his advertisement in these columns as it will be to their interest. Chas. Nelson spent the latter part of the week visiting the Clauson families and looking after business connected with the Peter Nelson estate. While here he rented the Nelson farm for the season to Parley Spence. He returned to his home at Omaha on Saturday afternoon.

The Mission Sewing Circle was entertained on Thursday afternoon at the pleasant home of G. A. Norelius and on Friday afternoon the Baptist sewing circle meet at the parsonage with Rev. J. Sedarstrom. There was a good attendance at both gatherings.

Henry Wieck son of Mr. and Mrs. Detlef Wieck former residents in this locality many years ago, now residing at Schleswig, died on Saturday evening near Schleswig of heart disease. Henry had a number of acquaintances here who will be saddened to learn of his untimely death and who sympathize with his young wife and parents. The funeral took place Monday afternoon, the remains were laid to rest in the Nissen cemetery.

The Northwestern officials on the Des Moines and Sioux City branch took their section men to Sioux City on Friday last in a special car and treated them to a fine dinner in the depot restaurant. On the return trip in the evening each section boss was requested to ride on the engine as it traveled over his particular section.

Rev. A. Blackman spent Saturday and Sunday in Kiron in the interest of the Baptist College institution located at Sac City. He preached at the Baptist church on Sunday morning and evening.

The little son of Willie Nelson who has been ill a long time is reported as not improving. His sickness seems to baffle the attending doctor, at times he is apparently well and at other times he has high fever.

Quite a number of horses have changed hands in this locality the past week prices soaring way up.

Our fat restaurant is mourning the loss of the family cow who ceased to exist some time during the night between Saturday and Sunday. On Saturday evening when Pete milked her he did not notice anything wrong with her and was greatly surprised on Sunday morning when he went to milk to find her dead.

C. J. Johnson has been compelled to remain in the house nursing a sore leg given him on Thursday morning by having a cow slip and fall on him.
