

DEATH OF A PIONEER

William Mundt Succumbs After But a Brief Illness.

DENISON PAYS HIM HONOR.

Stores Closed During Funeral: Large Numbers Attend Obsequies In Respect to His Memory

Denison is in mourning for the death of a pioneer citizen. A man who claimed little of his friends and neighbors, but who gave much. A simple, quiet, generous man, kind-hearted, self-effacing but always just and true to his friends. And his friends were many. No one has aught but kind words to say of him, and these words come from the bottom of the heart.

William Mundt, who has long been a familiar figure on our streets, whose name is familiar to everyone, whose honesty and integrity has never been questioned, passed away at his home after but a brief illness. Funeral services were held at the Lutheran church on Wednesday afternoon and the business houses of the city were closed in honor to his memory. Large numbers of our people attended the obsequies and every one felt that a good friend had parted.

William Mundt was born May 19th, 1837 in Husum, Hanover, Germany. He came to this country in 1865 and first settled in Garnavilla, Clayton county, Iowa. On March 7th, 1868 he was married to Miss Fredericka Voss. Together they came to Crawford county in 1870. They prospered. Mr. Mundt became known as one of the most prosperous farmers of the county. His name was synonymous with good citizenship and kindness and enterprise. About twelve years ago they moved from East Boyer township to Denison. Mr. Mundt had sufficient to provide for all his wants, but idleness did not content him and he became known as a buyer of hogs and cattle.

What is more he became known as an honest buyer. The farmers had confidence in him, he was one of themselves, and he never betrayed that confidence. Seven children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Mundt of whom three survive. W. F. Mundt, L. H. Mundt and Mrs. William Plage. He also leaves a brother Diederich Mundt and a sister Mrs. Marie Doering of Staplehurst, Neb., and eight grandchildren. The Review but voices the sentiment of the community when it expresses its sympathy with the loving wife and the sons and daughter and descendants who mourn his death to-day. In his quiet way he was our friend. We believe he was the friend of every man he knew. He was typical of the best that Germany has given to America and no one can deny but that "Der Vaterland" has contributed greatly to the splendid position which our country holds to-day. We believe that Mr. Mundt deserves all that can be said of him and we congratulate his children and his loved ones upon his honest, faithful, kindly life.

DEATH OF MRS. RODINE

Mother of Mrs. P. W. Weberg Passes Away. Funeral To-Morrow

Mrs. Ingrid Rodine, mother of Mrs. P. W. Weberg, and a well known pioneer woman of this county died at the home of her daughter on Tuesday Feb. 11th.

Death was caused by the infirmities of age and she died at peace with her God and with all the world. She was known and loved by many in this county, especially by those of her own nationality who live near Kiron where her active days in this country were spent.

Mrs. Rodine was born in Hoksrum

Oland, Sweden, Dec. 11th, 1826. Her maiden name was Ingrid Earlandson. In 1869 she came to this country and soon after was married to Mr. Rodine whose death occurred about two years ago.

They were married in Sept. 1869 and the next year came to Crawford county to live. Mrs. Rodine became converted and a church member while at Boone and she and her husband were charter members of the Baptist church at Kiron. Mrs. P. W. Weberg is her only daughter. Mrs. Rodine lead a quiet, faithful, Christian life. Those of her old friends and neighbors who knew her best, know that she always tried to do her duty and that she was faithful, helpful and kind. Funeral services will take place at the home of her daughter in south Denison to-morrow morning at 8:30 a. m. and interment will be made by the side of her beloved husband in the cemetery at Kiron. We can but express our sincere sympathy for her daughter and the many loved ones and friends whom she leaves to mourn her loss.

A SPLENDID LECTURE.

Rev. A. A. Lambert of Chicago will deliver his celebrated lecture "Woman in Society" on Sunday evening Feb. 24th, at St. Rose of Lima Church. Admission 25 cents. Reserved seats 35 cents. Every body should hear this lecture. "It was the best lecture ever delivered here" so says one newspaper. "It is most instructive," says another. "It was a real treat and placed woman where she belongs, the queen of the home, whoever heard it will learn to respect and honor women as they deserve as everything said is true to life. It should be delivered everywhere."

WILL BECOME A NURSE.

Miss Elizabeth Patterson left this morning for Baltimore where she will take a three years course of study in the School for Nurses, in the John Hopkins University. Mr. J. H. Patterson accompanied his daughter as far as Chicago.

Miss Patterson is a very bright, attractive and capable young lady, who will be greatly missed by our young people. In entering upon this work she has shown a serious purpose in life which is highly commendable and we wish her the utmost success.

NOTICE TO LECTURE COURSE SUBSCRIBERS.

In order to allow Prof. Robertson to make a trip to South America in March the lecture course committee has accepted Feb. 26 for his lecture here instead of March 21, as printed on the tickets. Reserved seats on sale Monday Feb. 25th.

A. J. Bond was a Tuesday visitor in Vail.

A fine line of English and domestic dinner ware at the Racket store.

We are requested to announce that services will be held at the German Lutheran church at Buck Grove next Sunday at the usual hour.

Mr. Chris Eggers of Denison and Miss Mildred Mercer of Ida Grove were married yesterday afternoon at the home of Mr. Thos. Ransom, Rev. Bryce officiating. The Review extends congratulations to this worthy young couple and wishes the m every happiness.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Ferguson entertained at whist Tuesday evening in a very novel and entertaining way. Each table had different kind of whist and this novelty proved to be a very pleasant departure. Jonquils were in used in decorating the rooms and elegant refreshments were served. Mrs. Paul Aylesworth captured the prize. The party was a very delightful one and reflected much credit upon the hosts.

READERS TAKE NOTICE.

The Review Will Change its Publication Day Next Week.

Hereafter the Review will be printed on Tuesday evening and circulated throughout the county on Wednesday morning. The date will be that of Wednesday of each week. This is the old publication day for the Review for many years and we are simply going back to the old system. The reasons for the change are these: we believe that by having its weekly papers printed on different days the people will have better news service. Necessarily the news is much the same for both papers and when the two are published simultaneously both lose interest to their readers. We have chosen to print earlier in the week for the reason that nearly all weekly publications are issued on Thursday or Friday and the average man gets an arm full of papers on these days. We believe the people will better appreciate a paper that comes to them when they have not so many on their hands. Further, the merchants advertise largely for the Saturday trade, by reaching the people early in the week the merchants will get quicker and better returns. The Review will hereafter be the first paper in the week for the whole county. It will have a clear field for the news of Saturday, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. We have made arrangements with our correspondents so that their excellent service will be unimpaired and we would ask our advertisers and others interested to bear the change date in mind. Hereafter we will print on Tuesday evening and the Review will be dated Wednesday.

NOTICE TO CUSTOMERS.

We, the undersigned merchants of Denison, Iowa, herewith agree, each with the other and all the others, to observe the following closing hours beginning Monday Feb. 25, '07 Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday evenings at 6:30 P. M. Wednesday evenings at 8:00 P. M. Saturday's, celebration days, circus days, holiday eves and ten days before Xmas each merchant may close at such hours as will suit his own convenience.

Court adjourned for the term Wednesday evening.

HARD TIMES FOR THE M. E. CHOIR.

We do not believe thirty-five people ever had a better time in their lives than the ones who gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Chamberlin Tuesday night for a Hard Time party. If the roof had not been well nailed on, the peals and screams of laughter that filled the whole evening would have wafted the roof down the Boyer. Garrets ragsbags, and old boxes had been ransacked to provide costumes suitable for the evening and as each guest arrived and confronted their tough looking host and quaint old fashioned hostess the fun began and held full sway. It was a case of the beggars are coming to town as each comical and clever make-up appeared. Strings were all the rage instead of buttons among the gentlemen and Prof. Van Ness made a great hit with a pair of suspenders worn as a belt over a dressing gown of the vintage of 49. Wid McAhren's glad rags would make the King of the Hobos weep with envy and U. G. Johnson and Mr. Chamberlin would have been run in by Lou Baer the minute he put his eyes on them. The ladies had some hats that beat the band and one guest had a red table cloth for a shawl that was greeted with much applause. Mrs. Boyle and Miss Allie Sewell sang solos that were much enjoyed. Miss Lillie Raine played a brilliant solo and Mr. and Mrs. Sibbert gave a duet that was very lovely. A game then followed. Mrs. Boyle winning the prize, a tin spoon.

Supper was then served, the napkins being made of squares of the funnypapers and the refreshments being hard time as to the first course and exceedingly dainty in the second. Mrs. Kirkup and the Misses Raine and Meyers assisted Mrs. Chamberlin in serving.

The judges of the array of beauty and fashion were Mr. Kirkup, the Misses Raine and Meyers. The guests filed past the judges stand to a lively march played by Miss Lillie Raine. Miss Annie Petersen who had the funniest costume ever worn by anyone had the first prize, a stick of candy, and Mr. Johnson two wienerwurst as second prize. Mr. Kirkup presenting the prizes. It was nearly twelve even by Barney Sibbert's turnip when the party broke up after an evening of unalloyed fun that has rarely if ever been surpassed in Denison.

A. J. Larson spent Wednesday in Logan.

Toilet sets of all descriptions, cheap at the Racket Store.

H. A. Carpenter was an Omaha visitor the first of the week. Harry is a hard worker and takes but few vacations so that he had one coming.

A GREAT CONVENTION.

It is not anything unusual to hear of women's meetings in the interest of Christian Missions, but a missionary convention of men only is quite out of the ordinary. Such a convention will be held in Omaha next week, beginning Tuesday night and continuing through Wednesday and Thursday. The convention will be held in the large Auditorium, seating some seven thousand persons. Delegates will be present from fifteen states and it will probably be the largest missionary convention ever held in the West. It is under the auspices of the Presbyterian church, and its object is to awaken a larger enthusiasm and secure a more efficient organization along lines of missionary effort on the part of the men of that church. On the program are the names of a number of the leading men of that denomination, among them Dr. Hunter Corbett, Dr. Ira Landrith, Robert E. Speer, Dr. A. W. Halsey, Moffett and Gale of Korea, Wherry and Lucas of India, Jordan of Persia, and many other choice men who have been making history in all parts of the world. Mr. John Wanamaker is expected to be present, and Mr. W. J. Bryan is trying to adjust his dates so as to make at least one address. All who can should take advantage of the opportunity of attending this convention. A special rate of one fare and a third, plus twenty-five cents for the round trip on the certificate plan can be secured on the railroads.

Albert Schelm of Ainsworth, Neb., has been spending this week at the home of his father Mr. Charles Schelm who has been ill recently with the asthma. We are glad to note that he is now improving.

It seems that conditions in Montana are not as reported in an article which the Review re-published last week. Space forbids in this issue, but next week we shall publish an interview with Byron Schwartz on this subject which we believe will be of interest to many. We are glad indeed to know that our Montana friends have suffered no severe losses.

FOR SALE.

Golden Oak folding bed, extension table, refrigerator, cane chairs, student tables, Monitor steel range, lounge. For information inquire afternoons. Mrs. Geo. W. Heston. 7-1t

Mrs. Herman Baak of Ricketts has been a Denison visitor this week.

Mrs. Ben Talcott spent a part of last week in Denison visiting her father and many friends.

Dr. Gardner, the veteran physician of Manilla, brightened the streets of Denison with his presence on Tuesday.

It is reported that the Choral Union is making fine progress with its rehearsals and that the concert which will be given sometime in March will be the finest Denison has ever had.

We are glad to note that Mrs. S. S. Wilkinson is so far improved that on Tuesday the services of the trained nurse, Mrs. Drebert, were no longer thought necessary and she returned to her home in Omaha.

The foreign missionary society held a program and lunch at the home of Mrs. R. A. Romans. The hostess furnished all of the refreshments for the afternoon and the ladies made a very tidy sum for their treasury.

The W. R. C. gave one of their popular thimble bees at the home of Mrs. C. Green on Thursday. The ladies enjoyed a large attendance and a very pleasant afternoon. Mrs. Green's cordial welcome was greatly enjoyed by the ladies of the corps who also served an excellent lunch.

Quite the jolliest dancing party of the season was the masquerade given last Thursday evening by the Twenty-five Club. The costumes were varied from the richest to the excruciatingly funny. The fortunate club members declare that it was the best dance Denison has had for years.

The S. S. club had a very pleasant meeting Tuesday night. Mrs. Bell, Miss Stormont and Miss Lena Hart were the out of town guests. Miss Anna Schumaker had charge of the supper, which was a very nice one. Miss Jessie Goodrich presented each member of the club with a valentine.

E. S. Miles has completed a deal by which he becomes owner of a fine tract of land near Dunlap. He expects to move his new home about March 1st. The land is well located and he expects to give almost his entire attention to bee culture. He has made a great success in this line and his honey has more than a local reputation. Mr. Miles and his family have been among our best citizens, straight-forward, upright and honest. We are loath to have them leave Denison, but wish them the best of good fortune in their new home.
