

Denison's New Hospital.

The Review editor has been invited to discuss a paper on "Creating Advertising" at an editorial meeting to be held at Rockwell City next month.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union met at the McKim Hall Feb. 21, 1907, and effected a very strong and harmonious Union of about fifty regular members, six honorary members.

Hal and Bert Butler have been paroled by Governor Cummins after three years of punishment. We understand they have returned to Crawford county with the firm determination to lead better lives and to become worthy citizens.

What is the use of being hypocrites? Some of our editorial friends are making a great "blow" about holding a convention in spite of the fact that transportation has been cut off.

Theater goers will certainly be pleased to know that P. J. Klinker, Manager of the Opera House has booked "The Holy City" for Friday March 8th. This will be the best entertainment that has been in the Opera House for years and it will surely be worth seeing.

REVIEW'S MARKET LETTER

Furnished by Clay Robinson Co, the Well Known Omaha Firm. South Omaha, Feb. 23rd, 1907.

The run of cattle early in the week was liberal and the trade was a little weaker. After the first two days, however, the market held about steady but is closing up 10 to 15 cents lower than a week ago.

Light weight stockers have held steady to strong throughout the week. Heavy cattle have accumulated in the yards and prices are 10 to 15 cents lower than the opening of the week.

The hog market today was strong, bulk selling at $6.80 to $6.85; top $6.90.

A PLEASANT SURPRISE.

A merry crowd of young people enjoyed a very pleasant surprise party in honor of Miss Maud Quade's birthday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Huffman in Goodrich township last Friday evening.

Marbles at the Racket Store.

On Monday evening of last week, friends and neighbors, to about the number of thirty gathered at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. John Blackman and gave them a very pleasant surprise, it being their third wedding anniversary.

"It was indeed inspiring" said Rev. W. E. Bryce speaking of the Missionary Convention at Omaha "to see a thousand men gathered together from all parts of the country, paying their own expenses for railroad fares and hotel bills, even helping to defray the expense of the convention.

FILLII VETERANORUM.

Sons of Veterans Install Officers with Pomp and Ceremony.

The Son of Veterans installed their officers with a public ceremony on Friday evening which was much enjoyed by all. The solemn ritual of the order was carried through after which Rev. E. T. Thureson delivered an eloquent address on Lincoln and his life.

GREAT MUSICAL TREAT.

Friday Night's Concert Promises to be the Event of the Season.

For several months the pick of Denison's musical talent has been hard at work under the directorship of B. J. Sibbert to perfect a chorus that should be something unique for a city of this size.

Get your seats at once for the great concert on Friday evening.

Denison has the best musical talent of any city of its size in Iowa. Let us show that we appreciate the fact by our attendance at the concert on Friday evening.

VIC DOLLIVER DEAD.

Victor was a man of great brilliancy in his own right. He had hundreds, yes thousands of friends who valued him for his personal worth, his companionship, his marvelous oratory and his genuine, simple, freely-given friendship.

THE WEEK IN SOCIETY.

This has been a busy week for club women and also a most enjoyable one. Monday the Womans club met and enjoyed three fine papers written by Meadames Ley, Kirkup and Cochran.

Tuesday Penelope had a splendid meeting with Mrs. Morgan. Delightful refreshments with white carnations for favors were served by Meadames Morgan, Jensen and Mahoney and the Misses Hart and Cushman.

Thursday Coterie had a gala meeting with Mrs. Dr. Robinson. George Washington's birthday was celebrated in great style with hatched, candied cherries and tiny flags.

The Coffee Club had a very pleasant meeting with Mrs. Young who as usual served a most elegant and much enjoyed supper to the club. The Friday Club also had a full meeting and enjoyed their shakespeare program study very much.

Milton McAhren and Homer Partridge left last week to open their new store at Pierre, South Dakota. They tell us they have secured a fine room in a splendid location, right in the heart of the city.

Something for nothing at the Racket Store.

HARD ON THE EDITOR.

With our foreman, Henry Faul called home a portion of the time by illness in his family, with Miss Kelly who is one of our Simplex operators called home by the illness of her mother and with Mr. Kemp absent from the postoffice on account of illness, the Review editor must not be blamed if he is late with his paper or if it does not contain all the news it might.

No doubt some of the Denison friends of Mrs. Dawes will be sorry to hear that her brother-in-law with whom she was spending the winter, passed away Feb. 7th, 1907, after a long illness and a final operation at the Presbyterian Hospital.

Edward Burke of Denison, and cousin Michael Noonan, of Denver, Colorado, were visitors at the Thomas Noonan home northwest of this city, Thursday and Friday of last week.

Enameled ware cheap at the Racket Store.

J. J. Carson of Sac City visited relatives in this vicinity last week.

G. V. Jordan of Bell, was a business caller at the county seat Thursday.

Miss Garber and Miss Gertrude Bradbury were in from their schools Friday.

Earl DuBois of Logan, was a guest of his uncle Mr. Shopshire one day last week.

The many friends of Mrs. Wells were pleased when she returned from her visit last week.

Andrew Dannels sprained his ankle last week, and was forced to use crutches for a while.

Miss Maude Dixon returned last week from an extended visit with relatives at Council Bluffs.

Mr. Jas. Davis will rent the Had-enfelt farm south east of town this spring and will move there this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Powell entertained at their home last Friday night. All enjoyed themselves hugely.

Mrs. John Kelly was stricken yesterday with a stroke of partial paralysis. Her condition is serious and it is doubtful if she will recover.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Pilate will move this week to their new home in South Dakota, where they have purchased a tract of land. We wish them success in their new location.

The Baptist ladies had a surprise on Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Beardsley this evening on their wedding anniversary. There are no better people than Mr. and Mrs. Beardsley and we wish them all the joy and happiness that life contains.

Mr. Thos. Bartlett and his son William Bartlett of Vail were in Denison today to secure a wedding license for William, who on tomorrow morning is to be married to Miss Lena Bohm. The ceremony will take place at the Methodist church in Vail, Rev. McCay of West Side officiating. After the ceremony a wedding dinner will be served at the home of the bride's parents north of Vail. The young people will at once go to house-keeping on a farm which they have leased in West Side township. Mr. Bartlett starts married life right by subscribing for the Review. He is a stalwart, manly young man and we believe he will make a success in life and bring happiness to the young bride who is about to give her destiny into his keeping.

It is well enough to talk about reform, in other places, but it is a sad commentary upon us as a city that there is not enough force in the public opinion of our business men to obtain a fair trial of the King Drag system on the streets of Denison. Both of the newspapers have urged it, the Commercial Club has "resolved" business men have talked, but all to no avail. All the effort of all the community has not been able to pound it into the heads of the powers that be that the time to use the King Drag is right after a rain, not the week after, and to get a fair trial of the plan on our streets. What is the use in preaching to farm folks when we cannot seem to be able to make any impression in our own city, what is the use in preaching to farmers to buy at home when our merchants order their calendars abroad with three print-shops in town ready to supply their wants, what is the use—well, what is the use of kicking it, will be the same thing this year.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

Prof. Fellows spoke at the Fort-nightly club at Dunlap on Monday. He goes from there to Chicago to attend the School Superintendents conference.

The girls held their regular debating club meeting Monday night.

Miss Nachtmann is teaching Schubert's serenade in the music department. Clarence Kienle accompanies the piano on the violin. All are delighted with it and are learning it fast.

The boys' debating club meets next Monday night. There will be election of officers. All members are requested to be present.

Arrangements have been made to debate with Vail some time during March, in Denison we have chosen our team and the members are as follows: Roland Philbrook, Oliver Saul and Lydia Belle Kuehnle.

Recognition was not made of Wash-ington's birthday by any special exercises in the High School.

Miss Regan, a teacher in the West Side public schools, visited the High School Friday the 22nd. They had a holiday that day.

The pupils in the Latin play expect to give the play in about three weeks. The costumes and the stage settings are to be in the old Roman style. One of the features of the play is a Latin drill by twelve girls. Miss Barber is putting all her time and effort after school in rehearsing for the play. They expect to make it one of the best plays ever given by the High School.

The following have been absent on account of sickness: Roy Towne, Matthew Hugg, Fred Searl and Gertrude Rhodenbaugh.
