

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Manilla, Ia, March, '07
To the Readers of The Manilla Republican:

I have this day sold and transferred the subscription list of "The Republican" to the Denison Review. Desiring, for private reasons, to discontinue the publication of the Republican, I make this transfer in order to protect your interests and discharge, in an honorable manner all my obligations to you. To meet them I have accordingly arranged with this paper to carry out all unexpired subscriptions and have also engaged to supply these columns with all the local news of Manilla and vicinity as fully as heretofore published in the Republican. This arrangement ought to be, and I believe, will be satisfactory, as the Review, is I believe, the leading paper of Crawford county, and will not only, by my assistance cover the local field as well as the local paper has done heretofore, but in addition, will give all the news of the county, as well as much other valuable reading matter, in addition, making altogether a much more readable and desirable paper than it is possible to give you direct.

In severing my connection with the Republican in the capacity of direct publisher, which I have filled for nearly eleven years, I wish to thank my patrons for their genial, liberal support in the past, which has enabled me to continue the business for so many years and would still enable me to go on doing a good profitable business. We suspend publication with nothing but good will towards these patrons and have no complaint to make. We started in business with practically nothing and have bought and paid for our plant, kept it up to date, have purchased a commodious office building and furnished a comfortable home, and made a good living and have succeeded in paying for it all; having just this spring made the last payment up on office building and home, which raises the mortgage from the same and places us practically out of debt, we having no other liabilities that are not amply offset by our resources. We are not yet rich, but we believe we have done very well and have nothing to complain of, excepting our narrow field and the fierce competition to which we have been subjected during nearly all the time. We mention these facts not boastfully but to show our readers that we have other than financial reasons for our act, for we were never in better shape, financially, to continue business than we are right at present. We are pained to part with our subscribers who have staid with us and borne with us so long and faithfully and to whom we owe a large share of our success.

What our future plans are, we are unable to state ourselves, but shall remain in Manilla for a time at least, and will be found at the old stand where we will conduct our business along other lines as heretofore and invite all our job work patrons to continue their patronage as we will be in better shape than ever to serve their wants in this line promptly and efficiently, as we will now be able to devote practically all our time and energies towards this branen of our business and make a specialty of it.

Hoping that the change will be fully satisfactory and believing that it will be, I remain.
Yours very respectfully,
M. MORGAN.

CONCERT GREATLY ENJOYED.

Denison Chorus Club Gives Splendid Concert to a Crowded House.

On last Friday evening the Chorus Club gave the first of a series of concerts to be given for the benefit of the Cemetery Association. The opera house was crowded and the program was thoroughly enjoyed throughout. Director B. J. Sibbert added new laurels to his fame as a musician. Perhaps the best number on the program was the ladies quartette which rendered the selection, "Welcome Pretty Primrose Flower," exceptionally well.

The program opened with two splendid numbers by the chorus, "The Miller's Wooing and 'Red Scarf'". Miss Brackney so entertained her auditors that she received a unanimous encore to which she responded with clever impersonation. "The Boatmans Goodnight" was well rendered by the chorus and this was followed by the Ladies Quartette. This number also received an enthusiastic encore and was perhaps the most artistic number of the evening. The members of the quartette were Mrs. Sibbert, who took the solo parts, and Miss Sewell, Miss McAhren and Mrs. Boynton.

Pinsuti's "Spring Song" was the next chorus number and it was given with excellent effect. Miss Garnet Norman fairly excelled herself. Her whistling was as near perfection as we have ever heard and it was the opinion of many that her selections at this concert were the best she has ever given in Denison and that is saying very much. Miss Norman responded to the enthusiastic encore and when still another appearance was demanded she showed the versatility of her talent by giving a very clever reading. This was a revelation even to Miss Norman's many admirers and showed that she can be a success in more than one role. A representative of the Redpath Lyceum Bureau who was present was delighted with her work and she has accepted an engagement with that organization.

The male chorus gave an excellent rendition of "Massa's in the Col' Col' Groun" with imitation banjo accompaniment. The selection was first class and received a hearty encore. The closing number "Good-night, Good night, Beloved" was the best of the chorus selections. It was given "par excellence" and was a fitting close of a delightful evening. The chorus club promises to give another concert in the early part of April and we are sure that they will be greeted by another large audience. The receipts of the evening were about $90, and the cemetery fund is richer by about $50. Denison has much excellent music talent and Mr. Sibbert has the faculty of bringing the best of it out.

DEATH OF MRS ELLEN DAVIS

Aged Mother Of Mrs Ley And Mrs Chris Kemming Passes Away After Brief Illness.

On Friday evening March 1st, occurred the death of Mrs. Ellen Davis. Mrs. Davis had been ill but a short time and had arrived in Denison the week previous from a visit with her son in Green River, Wyoming. She seemed to know that the end was approaching and it was her one desire to return to Denison to see her beloved daughters once more and to die surrounded by their love. Brief funeral services were held at the home of Mrs. Lottie D. Ley on Sunday afternoon by Rev. T. E. Thureson. The body was then conveyed to her old home at Chariton, Iowa for interment.

Mrs. Davis was well known and much beloved by Denison people as her visits to her daughters had been frequent and prolonged. She was a bright, helpful, motherly woman and she made friends wherever she went.

Mrs. Davis was in her 73rd year. She was born in Indiana and had been a widow for many years. Her surviving children are Elmer Davis, of Valley City, S. D. Frank Davis, of Ottumwa, Ia, Lee Davis of Green River, Wyo. and Mrs. Lottie D. Ley and Mrs. Ola Kemming of Denison. Three children, Charles, Jess and Rufus preceded their mother to the grave. Mrs. Davis also leaves two sisters and two brothers to mourn her loss. The many Denison friends feel heart-felt sympathy with the loved ones in their great bereavement.

TO OUR MANILLA READERS.

As will be noted above the Review has arranged to fulfill all subscriptions to the Manilla Republican, the publication of which has been suspended. All advance paid subscriptions will be credited on the Review so that no subscriber will lose a penny. It may require a few days to arrange all these credits properly and we would ask the patience of our new readers in this connection. The Review has made arrangements with Mr. Morgan to act as Department Editor for the Review for the present at least. It will be his effort as well as ours to give just as much local Manilla News as a local paper, so that the subscribers will suffer no loss in Manilla news and will gain the large general county news service given by the Review. We would welcome our new readers to the Review list. We will do our best to please them and ask for the paper at least a careful consideration and a fair trial on its merits. The Review is printed on Tuesday evening and will reach Manilla each Wednesday morning. It will be the first paper containing the news of Manilla and of the county. This change will largely increase the Review list, in the southern part of the county. We believe that a city of the size of Manilla can well support a local newspaper and that, without interfering with the circulation of a county paper such as the Review. The columns of our Manilla local news will be free from personalities and will give the news in an unprejudiced way. Again we would welcome our new readers. We believe they will like the Review if they will open their homes and hearts to it for a short time. We also believe that it will be for the benefit of the local merchants and business men of Manilla that there should be but one paper published in the city. At the same time we would call attention of Manilla merchants to the fact that the Review and Republican lists combined will be larger than either has been separately and that the Review will furnish an excellent advertising medium at very reasonable rates.

Respectfully,
The Review Publishing Co.

Misses Emma Neilsen, Fern Richardson, Marian Johnson, Harriet Ellison, Alice Brummer, Marie Servoss, Ethel Shuetz, Myrtle Rank, Hazel Shirk, Ina Hollaran, Helen Vanderwall and Jessie Gilbert gathered at the home of Conductor Clark on Wednesday evening Feb. 26, directly after school, in honor of a surprise on their daughter Miss Frances Clark. After much laughter, music, games and a hearty supper all adjourned to their homes at 8 sharp.

A SWORN STATEMENT.

STATE OF IOWA
Crawford County,
To Whom It May Concern:

I have decided to make the foregoing statement: Whereas, I have been told that Elder Morphy, our late pastor, told to my informant that I had made to him certain statements with reference to Mr. Bateson's cause for leaving this field, and that statement was utterly false, now

I further state that there was never a word between Elder Morphy and myself about Mr. Bateson's pastorate or the circumstances of his leaving this field.

And further, I have offered Ten Dollars on receiving any statement from Elder Morphy confirming the above statement.

J. M. POTTER.

Subscribed and sworn to before me by J. M. Potter, this 14th day of February, 1907.

E. GULICK, N. P.

The above is made wholly in defence of Elder George Morphy, after four years of intimate acquaintance with him I esteem him second to no man as a Christian gentleman.

J. M. POTTER.

Yes, There are Others

In fact, we do not claim to be the whole show, but we can sell you goods as cheap and repair your watch, clock or jewelry better than any one else in Crawford County.

A WASHINGTON WEDDING.

A very pretty home wedding occurred last Wednesday at high noon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Sherman where their daughter Sarah F. and Mr. Benson Smith were united in the holy bonds of wedlock. Rev. M. A. Gable officiating, the ring service being used. Only immediate friends and relatives were present. Shortly after the last guest arrived the bride and groom marched into the parlor to the strains of the wedding march played by the bride's sister Helen, and took their places under a beautiful arch, where the marriage was solemnized. Following the congratulations a fine three course luncheon was served. The bride wore a princess dress of dove colored lansdown, while the groom wore the conventional black. The bride has grown to young womanhood in this community and is esteemed and honored by all who know her. The groom is a prosperous farmer in Union township Crawford county, and has a host of friends. They received many useful and valuable presents. They left for their future home, on the groom's farm two miles east of Dow City' in the afternoon amid showers and old shoes thrown by the sisters, brothers and cousins.

C. L. Voss has received a picture of the building in which the offices of the Carnegie Trust Co. are soon to be located. The company will occupy half of the first floor of the magnificent office building next to the old Trinity church on Broadway. One of the last acts of Secretary Shaw while in office, was to remember the Carnegie Library of Denison with a complete set of "The Record of the Civil War". He also sent some photographs which will be cherished by Denison people. One is a photograph of Secretary Shaw signing the check for forty million dollars in payment for the right of way for the Panama canal, another is of President Roosevelt and his cabinet, while another is older, and shows Gov. Shaw and the Executive council at Des Moines.

ADVERTISED LETTERS.

The Penelope Club met with Mrs. F. W. Meyers Tuesday afternoon.

Architect E. L. Barber left yesterday for a business visit to Muskogee, Oklahoma.

Louie Osterlund, of Milford township was a pleasant Denison visitor on Tuesday.

J. H. Gable and Chas. Tabor went to Omaha to-day to see Olga Nethersole in "Sappho."

Supervisor Molter was in Denison his week making "the ghost" walk at the court house.

We regret to learn that Mrs. Kevan, mother of Mrs. P. W. Harding was stricken with paralysis last week and that she is now in a critical condition.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Smith west of town were married 20 years last Saturday. Their friends hope they may live to celebrate many more twenties.

Mrs. Shopshire's mother is still quite ill. Mrs. Du Bois is here to assist in caring for her. Her many friends hope she may soon regain her usual health.

Henry Wehlage is about to join the exodus to South Dakota. He leaves for Artesian on Thursday and his family will follow in the course of a week. We trust that the best of good fortune will await them in their new home.

On last week the new fire alarm system was given a trial. Although notice had been posted in the post-office, many failed to see it and "came a running" when the bell commenced to ring. The system was found to be in good working order and was accepted. We hope it will be a long time before there is use for it in earnest.
