

THE ARION ANSWER.

MRS. W. B. EVANS, Department Editor.

Mrs. Carpenter who has been staying with her daughter Mrs. Newman returned to her home in Buck Grove Saturday.

Lou Howorth was called to Denison early Friday morning having learned of the death of her niece. Miss Davis took charge of both rooms for the day.

Mrs. A. J. Mackey entertained the Friday club Friday afternoon. A two course lunch was served and the ladies spent the afternoon pleasantly; most of them took their fancy work. Mrs. Mackey was assisted in serving lunch by her daughter. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Maxey.

A masquerade ball was given in the Arion hall Friday evening; some costumes were very amusing; the young people enjoyed it very much.

M. Fritz is moving from the Griffin farm, to a farm four miles north of here. Mr. Fritz took first prize on corn at the fair here last fall.

Jas. Turner's who were quarantined for scarlet fever are now released.

J. U. Wise returned from Council Bluffs Tuesday. They will board here during the spring and then Mrs. Wise will visit her daughter Mrs. Seemann who is living in Colorado.

Mr. Stillson had the misfortune to step on a rusty nail. He was near a physician who attended to it at once. There will probably be no danger of blood poison.

L. C. Butler returned from Nebraska Saturday.

Mail Carrier Milton Doidge is very sick with measles.

Asa Talcott is seriously sick with measles.

Mr. Lyan of Manila was here on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Talcott received news Saturday morning that their little grandson Martin Beech of Omaha son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Beech had died Friday March 15th and the remains were brought to the home of the grand parents near Arion Saturday evening. Sunday afternoon a short service was held and the little one laid away in the Dow City cemetery. The deceased was nearly three years old and died from effects of measles followed by pneumonia.

The Ladies Aid Society of the M. E. church, the employees of the American Express Co., the Ladies Prayer Circle of Omaha and many other friends sent beautiful floral offerings. The bereaved parents and other relatives have the sympathy of all.

The people were saddened here Saturday morning when it was learned that little Verlin Rose died at 10 o'clock a. m. He was about two and one-half years old and was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Clyde Rose. He was a very bright and loving child had never been strong and healthy. He was a ray of sunshine in the home. Those who have had a similar loss know how their hearts are bleeding and torn and a wound has been made that can only be healed by God, and may they look to him for comfort. The remains were tenderly laid away by the side of his baby sister in the Denison cemetery.

The music and literary entertainment given in the hall last Saturday evening was a success and was very much enjoyed by all present. The hall was well filled and each number on the program given was heartily encored. It was given under the auspices of the young people's class of the Sunday School who are very grateful to the Ladies Quartette of Denison, also Miss Strahn, and to the Dow City Orchestra and all others who took part, and made up one of the best evening entertainments ever given here.

John Eggers lost a valuable cow. I. A. Maines of Charter Oak changed cars here for Council Bluffs where he will be on the jury for the federal court.

N. F. Stillson moved his blacksmith shop on the lot south of the printing office, which is a good location for Mr. Stillson, owing to the amount of work, which is more than Mr. Stillson can do. The Booster club have advertised for another blacksmith. We hope he will be able to find another suitable lot on which to put his shop as it was a difficult matter for Mr. Stillson to decide on a suitable place on which to locate.

Fred Eggers of Denison was here Thursday.

Chas Robertson of Charter Oak came from Denison and remained over night and took the early morning train for his home.

Misses Davis and Howorth went to Buck Grove Thursday evening.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Stratford Coal Co., the place for business was changed from Sioux City to Arion. F. A. Maurer is the secretary of the Company and is well and favorably known here.

Mrs. Joe McColl attended prayer meeting in Arion Wednesday.

Mrs. Hudson Down went to Omaha Wednesday where she will visit her brother Mr. Acher.

Gertrude Talcott has recently accepted the position as night operator in the Arion Telephone Co's. office.

Ricketts.

Mrs. Julius Christiansen and two sons left on the train Tuesday for a visit with friends at Denison.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Johnson of Kiron visited at the Hoffman home between trains Tuesday.

Mrs. L. C. Goodrich came down from Kiron Tuesday morning to help celebrate the birthday of her mother, Mrs. John Hoffman.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Jacobson drove to Charter Oak Monday afternoon to see the former's sister who has been quite sick the last week.

Mrs. Lou Kreyborg was a Ute caller between trains Wednesday.

Ludwig Reimer left town Tuesday for New York and from there he will sail for Germany, expecting to regain his health which has not been the best for some time. His friends are hopeful for an improvement in his condition.

Miss Anna Hintze came home from Kiron Monday evening for a short visit.

Soldier township is coming to the front in offering good wages for their teachers. At the last meeting the compensation per month was fixed as follows: First and second grades to receive the same, $37 for summer and $40 for winter; third grade, $35 for summer and $37 for winter.

Clint Seiford drove to Schleswig Friday on business.

Mrs. John Hoffman came home Sunday from Charter Oak where she had been visiting friends for a few days.

I. B. Goodrich spent Monday at the home of his parents in Denison.

August Baak and wife drove to Denison Saturday evening and spent Sunday with the lady's aunt, Mrs. Tebbe.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Vollerson visited with relatives near Denison Saturday and Sunday.

Eugene Crandall was in Omaha on Thursday.

Sears Nelson went to Denison Thursday evening.

One of Mr. and Mrs. A. Birkhofer's little girls fell from a buggy while in town Thursday morning. The horse stepped back, running the buggy over her. There were no bones broken but the little one was badly bruised.

The orchestra played several selections for the High School Friday morning which were greatly appreciated.

Mrs. Clair Butterworth and Miss Newman entertained the Priscilla ladies and their husbands last Tuesday evening. A dainty luncheon was served at 6:30 followed by an evening of music and games.

Mrs. Minnie Giss finished a winter term of school in Soldier township on Friday and returned to her home at Denison Saturday.

The last number of the season's Lecture Course was a lecture given by Thos. Brooks Fletcher last Friday evening. The lecture was well attended and was very interesting and instructive. The season's course has been a decided success, as each number gave entire satisfaction.

The youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Beach died at their home in Omaha and the remains were brought here Saturday evening. On account of the illness of Mrs. Beach's brother, Asa Talcott, no funeral services were held at the house. A short service was held at cemetery Sunday, when the little one was laid to rest. The parents have the sympathy of their many friends here.

Ida Davis, Alma Riddle, Bernice Alexander, Mrs. Robinson, Neva Crandall Agnes and Helen Goddard Mildred Wiggins, Allie Sharp, the Misses Godman and Mr. Kies attended the teachers meeting in Denison Saturday.

Mr. Neal a returned missionary from China occupied the pulpit at the M. E. Church Sunday morning.

Jennie Rae went to Red Oak last Friday to visit her sister Mrs. Replogle.

Quick sales and small profits will always be our motto. Nelson Bros.

Will You Need a New Harness this Spring?

Come and look over our immense line of harness, and you will find our prices the very lowest. Bring in your harness to be oiled and repaired in time. Remember, we guarantee every strap and we put out nothing but hand-made harness.

We Guarantee to Please You.

NELSON BROS.,
Dow City, Iowa.

Vail

Mrs. D. O'Leary and children of South Omaha, are visiting relatives here.

Miss Rose Monahan was a passenger west Wednesday.

Mrs. Lyman and daughter, Mrs. Hooke, also Miss Lovetta Monahan made a business trip to Omaha last week.

Miss Agnes Mitchell spent Saturday in Denison with her friends, the Misses Clark.

Ray Staininger of West Side, spent a couple of days at home last week.

Miss Mae Hickey was a Denison caller last Friday.

Here are the names of some who shipped stock to Chicago Saturday night: B. McAndrews, 3 loads of cattle; A. J. Barrow, 2 of cattle and one of hogs; Hoffman and Adams, 3 cars of hogs and Mrs. Gallagher, 2 cars of cattle.

Frank Lewis of Omaha, was here on business the first of the week.

Miss Bessie Welsh and Myrtle Fitz gibbons were Denison callers Saturday.

Another very successful box social was held by Miss Anna Murtaugh at her school in West Side Township on Friday night. A splendid program was rendered and everyone present reports it a success both socially and financially.

Geo. Downey left Tuesday for Oklahoma to look after a claim he has down there. George is one of our enterprising young farmers and the best wishes of his many friends go with him.

The Vail high school literary society gave a very interesting program in the high school room Thursday.

Mr. G. H. Ehlers and wife of Verdi, Minn., were visitors at the G. L. Dieter home Monday.

Mrs. Thos. Ryan is numbered among the sick this week.

Mr. Pat Keane of Scranton visited in Vail the first of the week.

Mrs. P. McNamara arrived here from New York Tuesday.

John Hickey is in the eastern part of the state on business.

Mrs. M. J. Keane and Mrs. Devine visited in Denison a couple of days last week.

Ed McCracken of Scranton attended the funeral of Dan Leitner here Tuesday.

At the school election held here Monday Joe Kral was elected to succeed Adam Short.

Mrs. Ed Levine of Sioux City is here visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. G. E. Dingman.

G. L. Dieter was unable to attend to business Wednesday on account of sickness.

A good many of our teachers attended the teachers meeting held in Denison Friday and Saturday and report a splendid meeting.

T. J. Hoffman and wife have returned from Woodbine and report Mr. Hoffman's brother much better.

Mr. and Mrs. Lew Kerrigan of Jackson township mourn the loss of their infant child who was buried here in St. Ann's cemetery Tuesday. The parents have the sympathy of their many friends here.

Mr. Starek and daughter, Miss Millie, were Omaha visitors last week.

R. J. Dieter was a passenger east Sunday.

Misses Doma and Olga Levine of Madrid, Iowa, are visitors at the B. Wahlin home.

Miss Maggie Gronemeyer is visiting her sister, Mrs. Nick Thies, of Odeboit this week.

Miss Mary Welch of Armour, S. D., is visiting friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Meyers are mourning the loss of their two months old babe who was buried Saturday.

Miss Cathy Dobler, who is teaching in the Chapman district in East Boyer

Spring Goods!

IT is our pleasure to announce that our large stock of Spring Clothing is now coming in. We bought with great care and at close prices, and we believe we have just what you want, and can sell at very close prices. We would appreciate a visit of inspection, whether you buy or not.

YOURS TRULY

Huettmann Bros.
The Old Hub Corner
Denison, Iowa.

The Stewart Lumber Co.

WITH A

Full Line of Implements

EVERYTHING GUARANTEED

township, held a box social and entertainment at her school last Friday night. The house was packed and a good time in general was had by all present. Miss Dobler is one of our most successful teachers.

William Beck and Late Wright have returned to Vail from their trip to Alabama.

Joe Kral and wife left Wednesday for Moreland, Iowa, where they went to see Mrs. Kral's father who is very ill.

Miss Bowie of Pisgah, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. G. E. Dingman.

Jas. McAndrews and daughter, Miss Clara, spent a couple of days in Des Moines last week.

Joseph Cranny of Harlan visited at the parental home last week.

John Jones of Denison was a Vail caller Sunday.

Pat Lane of Denison made a business trip here Saturday.

Ed McVeigh returned Friday from

Nebraska where he was looking up a land deal.

Mrs. Ed Hannan visited friends in Charter Oak last week.

The many friends of Bennie White were pleased to see him step off the train Monday morning from Sioux City where he has been in the hospital for some time. He is looking and feeling a great deal better.

Mrs. Wm. Devine left Monday morning for Marshalltown where she will visit relatives a few weeks.

Mrs. John Knowles spent Friday with Denison friends.

Miss Bess O'Connell spent last week with relatives in Omaha.

Walter McAndrews has given up his college work in Denison and will soon begin farm work.

For Rent—The east seven room flat across from McKim Hall. Inquire of E. O. Theim. C. C. Phone 263 6-ft.

$500 REWARD.

For any case of rheumatism which cannot be cured with Dr. Drummond's Lightning Remedies, internal and external, relieves at once, cure guaranteed. Restores stiff joints drawn cords and hardened muscles. If your druggist has not got it do not take anything else. Send description of your case, take the agency and secure treatment free. Drummond Medicine Co.

Notice to Lecture Course Subscribers
There will be an extra number on the lecture course, Friday, March 23. This will be one of the best numbers of the course. There will be no charge to those who present their lecture course tickets except the ten cents for reserved seats. Look for advertisement in next issue.

Committee.