The Denison delegates to the W. O. W. Head Camp did not meet with success in their efforts to land a delegateship for Denison. The Omaha organization had the thing cut and dried as usual and their henchmen will be sent to the Sovereign Camp to examine into their own accounts and regulate themselves. The editor is a member of the Woodmen of the World and has no reason to believe that it is not conducted as well as any other similar organization, but it is nevertheless surprising that the delegates will be such chumps as to send the hirelings of the central organization to act for them at the Sovereign Camp. No man who is in the employ of the headquarters should be allowed to act as one of the makers of any fraternity. Mr. Walker was too independent for the ring and so were all others but the ring candidates. It looks to us as if the "Big Stick" was needed as much in our fraternities as in our National government.
