

Children's Photos

A SPECIALTY AT

FERGUSON'S

Laub Block Studio.

The Coupon is on Page Three.
Ribbons at the Racket Store.
School program Saturday 7:45 sharp.
Something for nothing at the Racket Store.
Bruce Rogers was a Council Bluffs visitor on Friday.
Fine lamps complete for 25 cents at the Racket Store.
C. L. Voss was a business visitor in Des Moines last week.
Dr. H. C. Simpson was a West Side visitor last Wednesday.
Miss Allie Wilson left on Friday for a visit at the ranch at Ainsworth, Neb.
Chris. Eggers left last week for Rapid City, S. D. where he intends to locate.
Mr. and Mrs. Lane Goodwin were guests at the J. B. Romans home the last of the week.
Harry Wiblehauser left on Saturday for a brief visit with his brother Roy at Manning.
Cheaper than an auctioneer, better than a second hand store, the Review Market Column.
Deaf people can hear whisper with the Aurophone. E. J. Scharear, Optician, Manning, Iowa.
Floyd Lister left last week for Omaha to accept a position on the Black Hills Division of the Northwestern.
Haste or price or at tractiveness may make the first sale, but satisfaction brings the buyer back again. The Racket Store guarantees satisfaction.
August Evers writes us to change his Review to Superior, Wyoming. He has left the employ of the railroad and is now building houses on contract with the Superior Coal Mining Co.
Mrs. Lena Watson and son Forrest are visiting at the home of Mrs. L. D. Lay. Mr. and Mrs. Watson expect to make their home in Omaha in the near future, where Mr. Watson has charge of the golf links.
Mrs. Ed. Phalen, always a welcome visitor to Denison, made a week end visit with her sisters Mrs. Mahoney and Mrs. Johnson. Mrs. Phelan reports her mother Mrs. A. D. Maloney as in excellent health.
The P. E. O's, who had been so beautifully entertained by Mrs. Voss complimentary to Mrs. Woolston enjoyed an all day session with Mrs. Naeve on Friday, making Priscilla rugs which in y olden days used to be called "rag rugs". They are very artistic and meet with a ready sale. Mrs. Naeve who is always a charming hostess made the day a very delightful one and kept "open house" all day.
Baptismal services were held at the First Baptist church last Sunday evening before a large congregation. Mrs. Hildebrandt and daughter Imra and Margaret Pearson received the sacrament of baptism. Rev. C. H. Stull preached an instructive sermon along educational lines calling attention to the work of the teachers and urging that the pupils were also being too rapidly forced by our system of education.

This is Easter Bonnet week.
School program Saturday 7:45 sharp.
Easter novelties at the Racket Store.
We are at your service for a Want Ad Free. Try one.
Harold Laub has been on the sick list the last week.
Mr. Voss made a business trip to Des Moines Thursday.
Over 100 different patterns china plates at the Racket Store.
Rev. Mr. Hosteller preached in the M. E. church Sunday morning.
Mrs. Clark Marshall of Charter Oak visited in Denison over Sunday.
Mrs. Al Dean of Rockwell City is visiting her aunt, Mrs. C. A. Jones.
Miss Bertha Romans expects to spend the spring season in Charter Oak.
Mrs. Della Hart of Sioux City is a guest at the home of Mr. O. M. Criswell.
Mr. and Mrs. Bullock left for Colfax Monday to take baths and the rest cure.
Miss Christine Anderson was an over Sunday guest of Miss Emma Raine.
Mrs. Joe Carson is taking treatment at the hospital and receiving much benefit.
Mr. and Mrs. Voss and Miss Ethel Gulick are planning a trip to California in April.
Mr. E. C. Chamberlain spent Saturday in Omaha attending the automobile show.
Mr. and Mrs. A. Weeks who have both been ill with the gripp are very much improved.
Mrs. Dr. Ashby of Fairmont is visiting her sisters Mesdames Morgan, Conner and Jensen.
Girls Wanted—To try our celebrated Jackson Corset, satisfaction guaranteed at the Racket store.
Mrs. Powell of Glidden, who has been visiting her mother Mrs. Sara Wagoner has returned to her home.
Mrs. Dora VanSteinburgh of Marysville, Mo., is spending a few weeks with her sister Mrs. W. J. McAhren.
Thursday Mrs. R. W. Bamford entertained the Coffee Club in royal style, serving an elegant two course supper.
Mr. Chas. Schelm has been very ill the past week. We regret to say that but little hope is entertained for his recovery.
Mrs. Lally is visiting with friends in Jefferson. Upon her return she expects to make a visit to her daughter Mrs. Clem Mahon.
Mrs. Charles Auracher of Lisbon, Ia., will arrive in Denison about the 1st of April to visit her parents Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Romans.
The only Exclusive High Grade line of Chocolates in the City at the Oxford Cafe. Woodwards—the kind you like. 10-3t
Don't forget to see Dr. Weber, the Eye and Ear Doctor who cures on Saturday, March 30 at Nielson House. Examination free.

Fine toilet soap at the Racket Store.
Taxes this month. Penalty begins April 1st.
Red Colver Timothy and Bluegrass at WYGANTS 11-2
Time to begin thinking up those April Fool jokes.
Harlan Hubbs writes us that his new address is Johnstown N. Y. Rural route No 1.
Semi porcelain dishes $4.50 per set at the Racket Store.
Townsend Pearson is home from Des Moines college for a brief vacation.
Wanted—Every one who needs a set of dishes to call at the Racket Store.
Attorney W. S. Moore of Manilla was a Denison business visitor on Monday.
The D. A. R. will meet next Monday evening at 7:30 at the Carnegie Club rooms.
Hillas Fox writes us from Clark, S. D. that he cannot get along without the Review any more.
Mrs. Gustav Girard was a Denison visitor on Saturday. She tells us that Mr. Girard is on the sick list.
R. L. Hill reports that his mother is seriously ill. As she is an aged woman any illness is dangerous.
Rev. T. E. Thureson spent last week in Arcadia, Kansas in order to recuperate his health. Rev. Hosteller occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church on Sunday but Rev. Thureson expects to return in time for the services of next week.
The F. H. Club chartered the bus last Wednesday and repaired to the Aug. Moeller home in south Denison. Important business was transacted and a delicious three course lunch was served by the hostess. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Fred Marshall.
There will be a program similar to the one given last year by the grades below the High School on Saturday March 23, beginning at 7:45 sharp. Reserved seats will be on sale Friday morning, but there will be no sale of tickets except at Johnson's store. Admission 25 cents.
Mr. and Mrs. M. Wieland left on yesterday for their new home in Emporia Kansas. They wish the Review to say "good-bye" for them to all the old friends and neighbors. It is our hope, again expressed, that they may find their new home all that they could wish and that their future lives may be happy and prosperous.
Mrs. George Bartholomew, Miss Belle and Mrs. C. F. Kuehne left for Valparaiso, Ind., Friday night, a dispatch being received by them saying that the body of Mr. Bartholomew had reached Seattle and would be forwarded to Valparaiso for the last rites. Services were held Sunday at the home of Mr. Will Bartholomew and the body laid to rest beside his parents. The widow and daughter have the sincere sympathy of all their friends upon the sad journey. Mrs. Kuehne with her sister and niece will return the last of the week.

The Formula we use in our Repair Shop

The very highest grade of material 100 per cent. Knowing how to do it 100 per cent
RESULT: Watches which keep the very finest time.

And while you are talking about watches, you had better come in and see what a fine watch $10.00 or $15.00 will buy. When it comes to a case of fair, square business "that is us" because we are the satisfaction "guaranteed" or "money back" kind

Trade At CHAMBERLIN, The Jeweler That's What Pays.

Pete Eggers was a Carroll visitor on Wednesday.
A 75 cent butcher knife for 25 cents at the Racket Store.
Leave orders for Easter Lilies or other plants at Johnsons.
Geo. Spottswood of West Side was a Denison caller yesterday.
If you cannot get all the news into twelve pages, use fourteen. That is the Review formula.
Robert Cole expects to locate at Valley Junction, this spring. Another good man to leave Denison.
M. D. Howorth was delayed a week at Pierre on account of floods while removing to his new home in South Dakota.
The Review is now sending out 1200 Magazine Sections to paid ahead subscribers. There is no good reason why every subscriber should not get this splendid feature of the Review.
At its meeting on Monday the Women's club elected the following officers; President Mrs. J. B. Romans, Vice Pres. Mrs. E. T. Cochran, Cor. Sec. Mrs. N. W. Nash, Rec. Sec. Miss Gilmor, Treas. Mrs. E. W. Pierce. Mrs. E. Gulick and Miss Leslie Marshall were elected as delegates to the Federation.
We learn from C. L. Voss that Mr. Shaw will visit Iowa in June, at which time it is expected that business plans for the re-organization of the Bank of Denison will be perfected, and Mr. Shaw will so arrange his affairs that he can devote all of his time to the great New York institution of which he is the head.
Will Marshall left yesterday for a summer's work in South Dakota. Mr. Marshall, E. W. Johnson and the Welton Bros. seem to have struck it rich in our neighboring state. They have done good work and they have prospect of all they can do this summer. Mr. Johnson will leave as soon as his wife recovers sufficiently from a recent illness. We wish the two boys another year of good luck.
The Hover-Wheeler-Bond orchestra gave the first of a series of Saturday night dances on last Saturday night and since the affair turned out to be a success the dances will be continued every Saturday night with the exception of Saturday of this week on account of the Opera House being engaged by the High School. The orchestra intends to use the proceeds of these dances for the purpose of buying uniforms. They are charging but 50 cents admission to these popular dances.

Easter Lilies and Potted Plants at Johnsons.
Red and White Clover, Timothy and Blue grass at WYGANTS. 12-tf
The Coterie Club will meet with Mrs. Simpson on Thursday, March 21.
Wanted—50 men to try our 10 cent steel back curry combs, The Racket Store.
James Dillivan was called to Glidden last week by the sad news of the death of his sister.
The twenty-five club will give their regular dancing party Thursday night of this week.
Mrs. William Cochran is seriously ill with pneumonia. Her many friends are anxiously hoping for her recovery.
Auctioneer J. R. Thede and Claus Peper of Manilla transacted business in Denison on Monday, and made the Review office a pleasant call.
Mrs. G. Schaffer returned last week from a visit to Omaha with her son F. R. Schaffer who has been very ill, but who is now improving.
Dr. L. L. Bond returned on yesterday from a visit with his aged father at Milton, Wisconsin. It is a great pleasure to Dr. Bond that his father still lives and he never fails to make him an annual visitist.
Rob Romans spent Thursday in Omaha visiting the auto show. The Romans family will have a magnificent new car this year, a Pope-Toledo, one of the finest, built to hold seven people. This car is now on exhibition at Omaha and will soon be brought to Denison.

HOLY TRINITY CHURCH.
Sunday next before Easter Palm Sunday. Holy Communion 8 a. m. Sunday School 9:30 a. m. Morning Prayer and sermon 10:30 a. m. Thursday March 28, Maundy Thursday. Holy Eucharist and sermon 9 a. m. Evensong and story of the Cross 7:30 p. m. Friday March 29, Good Friday. Solemn services and sermon. Holy week. All are cordially invited to the services. Our Holy Mother—The Church calls all her devout members every day this week to meditate upon the Lord's sufferings; having collected in her offices most of those portions of scriptures that relate to this tragical subject, increasing their humiliation by the consideration of our Savior.
Arthur Pratt, Rector.

A BANNER LIST.
The Review list at Ells, deserves special notice. We are assured that nearly 75 per cent of the patrons of the office take the Review. But this is not all, no subscription at that office is back of Jan. 1907 and nearly the entire list is paid to 1908.
J. P. Anderson of Ells was a pleasant Denison caller on Monday. He called on the Review and helped to make our Ells list the banner list of the county.
Rev. C. H. Purnmott D. D. State Superintendent of missions for the Presbyterian church visited Rev. Harvey Hosteler here last Thursday and spoke at the Presbyterian church prayer meeting the same evening.
"While the Times Republican has its pets and the Ledger is not one of them, no reader can conscientiously compare its Iowa news service to that of any other Iowa paper to the detriment of the Times Republican" says the Eldora Ledger. "Its news service is the best obtainable and its editorial opinions are lofty in tone and always have an influence for better things."

Save your Cattle AND MONEY by vaccinating with BLACKLEG AIDS The only safe and efficient Blackleg vaccine on the market. For sale by Ph. A. Schlumberger, Pharmacist.

A beautiful line of HATS on display this week At SARACHON SISTERS. on Main St.

Wall Paper! Just received a large new stock. Come and see the new patterns and get our prices before you buy. Bartcher Bros.

Big Line of Easter Post cards at Johnsons.
Wash boilers 98 cents each at the Racket Store.
Mrs. J. J. Carson of Sac City was a Denison visitor last week.
For Sale—Souvenir China at the Racket store.
Services preparatory to the Communion will be held at the Presbyterian church on Thursday and Friday evenings of this week.
Mr. Le Roy Upton and Miss Nina D. Lynde of Cass County, Nebraska were married at the Presbyterian manse on Saturday by the Rev. Wm. E. Bryce.
Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Meeves left last week for Virgil, S. D., where they have purchased a fine farm. They have lived in this county many years and leave none but friends behind them. We wish "Mace" and his wife the best of good fortune in their new home.

Time is Money. You do not have to WAIT on us—We wait on you, and do it in a jiffy. Twenty Four hours a day we are at your service. Lots of times it is mighty handy to be able to get a warm lunch at any old hour. The people appreciate this and it is their patronage which makes such service possible. The Best Noon-Day Dinner is also served at.... The Elite Cafe, Main St. P. C. Marshall, Prop.

1907 = Spring Opening = 1907

TODAY, TOMORROW AND FRIDAY, MARCH 20th TO 22nd.

Our exposition of Spring fashions will reveal the fact that this store's preparations for this season's business have been broad and comprehensive, that our facilities for gathering unusual and beautiful things and appropriately displaying them, are unequalled by any store, soliciting the trade of this community.

Our varied and extensive display of Spring Millinery Styles, showing smartness, style and exclusiveness, will be all attractive and well worth the seeing. The showing of new styles of Cloaks, Suits, Skirts, Waists should be of interest to intending purchasers who desire originality and exclusiveness of design with the assurance of their up-to-dateness. The exhibition of Dry Goods lines, such as Silks, Dress Goods, Laces, Trimmings, Embroideries, Belt and Neckwear Novelties, Wash Goods, Hosiery, etc, should give added reasons for your attendance at OUR OPENING. There isn't anything like it in the way of women's wear stores anywhere near and very few stores in cities many times the size of Denison have anything like a women's wear department to compare with this one of ours, and you will be delighted with what you will find here in everything pertaining to Ladies', Misses', and Children's wearing apparel, from shoes, to the new 1907 Spring bonnet. So come to our Opening with plenty of time at your command to go over the entire floor space; make yourself entirely at home, ask any information you desire regarding prices, varieties and qualities.

Our Infants Wear Section and fancy goods department have complete assortments of this Spring's novelties, attractively displayed, and correctly priced.

The Balle-Brodersen Co.

DENISON, IOWA.

