FOR A POPULAR LOAN.

When the hotel and opera house projects were inaugurated it was the plan to sell as much as possible and to secure the balance of the needed funds through a loan. It now develops that about thirty thousand dollars will be needed to carry through the projects. $20,000 for the hotel and $10,000 for the opera house. The security would be first mortgage bonds of the Denison Improvement Co. and would have back of them property that would cost from seventy to seventy-five thousand dollars. If this would be good security for a loan company why would it not be good security for Denison investors? We have had people come to us within the past two months inquiring where they could loan money to advantage, claiming that they had idle money of which they wished to make use. There is much such money in Denison and we see no reason why a six percent loan backed by ample security would not be a good investment. It would keep the interest money at home instead of sending it abroad, and if, as may always happen, the property should revert to the holders of the mortgage, it would still be in the hands of Denison people. We believe that if this matter were properly pushed the funds could be secured and the loan placed without going out-side of Denison and without calling on the banks to take the loan. Why not try it? If it is a good investment for outsiders it is a good investment for Denison people who have idle money or money that is not drawing more than four or five per cent.

THE OPERA HOUSE.

It is our sincere hope that the new opera house may be built on the site now occupied by the old building. If, as is contemplated the basemen of the new building is made into a dance hall there will be no need for the old building. In that event it could either be sold, for, one well-informed man tells us, a sum approximating $1000, or it could be torn down and the lumber and the stone used in the construction of the new building. In this way instead of there being an added expense arising from using the old site, there would be an actual saving of $1000. A handsome opera house built on the corner will be a thing of beauty and a distinct addition to Denison. An opera house built on inside lots will contribute little or nothing to the city's appearance.

WEDDING IN PARADISE.

Married—On March 27th a pretty home wedding took place at the residence of the bride's mother Mrs. H. M. Duncan of Paradise township when her daughter Hattie was united in marriage to Wm. F. Hoffman, Rev. Freese of Denison officiating in the presence of about thirty guests. The bride was tastefully attired in brown silk and carried a bouquet of brides roses. The groom in conventional black with Jennie Duncan sister, of the bride, as maid of honor and Chas. Adams, cousin of the groom, as best man. A nice four course dinner was served under the supervision of Mrs. B. Vollertsen of Charter Oak, a sister of the bride, and no comments are necessary when one knows her ability in that line. Garnet Vollertsen and Miss Mollie Adams of Charter Oak served the tables. A fine variety of lovely flowers were sent for the occasion by the groom's brother of Chicago. Hattie is the third daughter of J. P. and Mrs. H. M. Duncan and is a Crawford County girl, one of its best type, of sweet and winning manner and has a host of friends. The groom formerly of Chicago, but residing in Crawford county for the past few years, is an industrious young man and has made many friends since his residence here.

The young couple are held in high esteem as was proven by the many useful and handsome presents given them. Mrs. Huffman, mother of the groom, arrived from Chicago to be present at the ceremony. With many hearty good wishes for the happiness and prosperity to Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman the company dispersed. The young folks went to housekeeping on the Marion Cole place near Dow City where the home was ready and waiting for the occupants. They are now at home to their many friends.

NOTHING IN PARTICULAR.

The editor sits himself down to his type-writer. Copy must be produced. The hungry type-setting machine is at work. One hears the grinding of machinery, the whirring of wheels, and knows that the inevitable cry for copy is at hand. What a friend the type-writer is. It used to be that inspiration came only when one had pencil in hand and a fresh sheet of paper before him, now the keys of the type-writer seem to invite thought. It is a poor old type-writer, and it mis-spells fearfully, but we have wept over it and raged over it and laughed over it, until it seems to have become a part of us. Some times it lags along, slowly, painfully, grinding out the padding of a newspaper, sometimes it clicks merrily, telling that John Doe went to Vail yesterday, and does not have a thought in its head. Sometimes it rushes and rages as if possessed of forty demons, struggling to relieve us of some epoch making thought. It has come to be a part of us and is one of our dearest friends and companions. While not exactly a silent partner, it is nevertheless a good listener and enters into every mood with us. It is a kindly critic and except on those memorable occasions when it slips a cog and we write on the same line twice, it is not a "nagger".

Speaking of "nagging," we can forgive the greater evils of life, we can forgive those who have done us great wrong, but it calls for all the Christianity a man has in him to forgive the "nagger". Nagging makes more unhappy homes than alcohol. It is not a strictly feminine accomplishment as some would have us think. Some of the worst naggers and some of the worst gossips we have ever known, were men. A woman gossip is ban enough, but a man gossip is a hundred times worse. We know men who might have been great if they had not had this gossiping habit fastened upon them. Don't go home and "nag" your wife. She has been working enough sight harder than you have all day, even on your harshest day.

If your wife is a "nagger" your only real remedy is suicide. Do it at once, delay is dangerous.

To descend to matters of minor importance, we hope the President will not be swerved from his course by the importunities of the railroad magnates. The President has asked of the people only such legislation as has been right and fair and due after all the years of railroad oppression. We meet the same thing daily in the newspaper business when people commit offenses and then come to beg off from publicity. There is a man in Denison, who either through himself or his family has been to us three times begging that the fact that he was drunk and disorderly be not published. He has promised reform and has even gone to the length of promising to pay his subscription, but up-to-date we have seen neither the color of his coin or any other sign of reformation.

"The devil was sick
The devil a monk would be,
The devil was well,
The devil a monk was he."

That is the way with the railroads. Through rebates, discriminations, petty grafts, watered stock and fraudulent bond issues, they have been robbing the people for years. When called to account the proudest of them will crawl and cringe and promise better things if they are only let alone. You might as well allow any other burglar to reform himself. The furies in Wall Street have not caused panic throughout the country and they will not so long as the United States is producing those things which the world must have.

The railroad magnate has been so used to getting from ten to twenty percent on his investment that it is hard for him to come down to earth. There is plenty of money for investment at lower rates however and the railroads need not be crippled for want of funds even though they are compelled to deal honestly. It is true that the railroads are doing no more and no less than ninety-nine percent of the business men of the country. Almost any merchant will give a rebate of some kind, to the large customer. If the railroads had received and asked no greater rights than the man in private business we could, perhaps, find no fault with them. But this is not the case. They received enormous grants of public lands, taxes were voted them, they have the right of Eminent Domain, and from the nature of things they have a monopoly of the business of the people. These facts give the people rights which they do not have over the private individual. The people are partners with the railroads and they have a right to call for a strict accounting. We can well understand what a bug-bear of panic and adversity the railroads have conjured up to frighten the President, but so long as he asks only that which is right and just and fair, we do not believe there is any necessity for him to change his attitude.

A Woman Tells How to Relieve Rheumatic Pains.

I have been a very great sufferer from the dreadful disease, rheumatism for a number of years. I have tried many medicines but never got much relief from any of them until two years ago, when I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm I found relief before I had used all of one bottle, but kept on applying it and soon felt like a different woman. Through my advice many of my friends have tried it and can tell you how wonderfully it has worked.—Mrs. Sarah A. Cole, 140 S. New St., Dover, Del. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is a liniment. The relief from pain which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. It makes rest and sleep possible. For sale by L. E. Blosser, Broadway Druggist.

Rest is the great restorer. We tire our muscles by exercise and then rest to restore them; yet a great many of us do not stop to think how little rest we give to our stomachs. As a usual thing no part of our bodies is so generally overworked as our digestive organs. A tired and overworked stomach will give signs of distress to which we pay no heed until at last Dyspepsia takes hold. Indigestion is just a warning, and if we heed the warning we can easily avoid further consequences. KODOL is a most thorough stomach relief. It digests what you eat and gives the stomach the needed rest and greatly assists in restoring it to its normal activity and usefulness. KODOL is sold here by Lamborn Drug Co.

Chapter XVI, section 12, prohibits such nuisance and the penalty provided by the ordinance is not less than one dollar nor more than $100 for each offense, the offender to stand committed to jail until such fine is paid. Parents are especially warned to prevent their boys discharging pistols and rifles in the city limits, under penalty of the law.

Special low rates are in effect the first and third Tuesday of each month to all South Dakota stations on the North-Western Line. It will pay you to investigate.
