Quite a number of the old plank sidewalks are in a dilapidated condition and the sidewalk committee should be getting busy in seeing to their repair before the town is called upon to face some damage suits.

Middle some neighbors for the sake of the filthy lucre, have placed themselves in a notorious and disgraceful position, and if it should be on the quiet it has leaked out.

Swan Mauritz went to Denison Friday noon on a business trip, returning home Saturday morning.

An item we unintentionally omitted last week was the return on Sunday night of P. E. Nordell from Southern Colorado where he is selling lands.

Undoubtedly he will find a good many changes taken place as it is a number of years ago since he resided there. J. B. Høiten and wife of Schleswig Sunday at the home of C. C. Walters.

Ye Scribe returned on Sunday night from a several days' business trip up in Holt and Boyd counties, Nebraska. We found Chris Henkel and family fairly well and contented near Emmet. Also met Artie Larson and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith, former Kironites, now located in Spencer and seemingly enjoying their new home. The lands in the northern part of Holt county are not worth the taxes that are being paid on them. Nothing will grow on them and the grass is so poor that it would require some fourteen acres to pasture a cow. In Boyd county the land is better, some farms are very good. John Larson and family, located on a farm five miles north of Bristow, are prospering but have a longing spot in their hearts for good old Iowa.

Upon I. A. Goff's arrival at Fort Robinson, Nebraska to investigate the position offered him by the railroad company he became perfectly satisfied and accepted the offer made him, and entered upon his new work at once. This is exceedingly regretted by this locality as Mr. Goff was the best agent who ever held the job in Kiron. He was always courteous, competent and to be reiled upon, and attending strictly to business. We are sorry to lose him and his pleasant wife from our town.

John Eckblad visited friends in Sioux City on Sunday last.

There was quite an exciting runaway Saturday about 12:30 P. M. A team of Pete Jepsen's with a load of straw, started right down the track to meet the noon train. And they nearly met, just a few feet apart the horses shied and fell down the embankment. The train had stopped as soon as possible but the team didn't think of stopping. They were not injured at all, but it might have been a serious affair.

Rest is the great restorer. We tire our muscles by exercise and then rest to restore them; yet a great many of us do not stop to think how little rest we give to our stomachs. As a usual thing no part of our bodies is so generally overworked as our digestive organs. A tired and overworked stomach will give signs of distress to which we pay no heed until at last Dyspepsia takes hold. Indigestion is just a warning, and if we heed the warning we can easily avoid further consequences. KODOL is a most thorough stomach relief. It digests what you eat and gives the stomach the needed rest and greatly assists in restoring it to its normal activity and usefulness. KODOL is sold here by Lamborn Drug Co.

If your dealer hasn't it, the Balle-Brodersen Co. has.
