

THE KIRON REVIEW.

E. E. CLAUSON, Department Editor.

NOTE—Mr. Clauson is empowered to receipt for subscriptions or to receive advertisements to be inserted in this column.

Again we are called upon to chronicle the passing away of another old settler, who has resided in this locality and mingled with us for the past twenty-five years. The summons this time, to leave this shore of time and pass over into eternity was given to the old-time neighbor, citizen and friend Carl J. Larson. The news of his death was a shock to the entire community, as very few had learned of his illness preceding his death, which occurred on Thursday evening April 18th. He had enjoyed good health up to the few hours illness which terminated in his death, and two days prior to his death he spent a few hours in town attending to some trading. Mr. Larson was born in Kalmarsan Sweden, May 15, 1836, and together with his family moved to this country, locating in Kiron, where their home has been since the year 1882. In the year 1861, he was married to his faithful wife who now is left to deeply mourn and miss him. This happy union has been blessed with nine children of which two have been called to the home beyond. The other children are respected residents in this locality. Charles, John, Otto, Erick, Alfred, Mrs. John Headstrom and Mrs. Gus. Larson. He had reached a ripe age of seventy years, eleven months and three days. He was a respected and honored citizen and by his honest, quiet true life and amiable ways, had won the confidence of his neighbors and friends and we have not known an enemy to him. By his upright dealings and example, he still lives and will continue to live in the memory of his family and entire community for many years to come; a most true and devoted husband and a kind father who led and reared his children to become honorable and respected citizens. The funeral services were held on Sunday afternoon from the Baptist church of which he was a respected member. The church was thronged with neighbors and friends who came out to pay their tribute to their pioneer neighbor and friend and to take a last look on the face which they had met so many times during the past twenty-five years. The funeral rites were conducted by Rev. J. Soderstrom pastor of the Baptist church, assisted in the speaking service by Rev. C. Forsell of Council Bluffs. Rev. T. A. Berglund of Arthur and Rev. Frank Lavine of Kiron, Rev. E. P. Lavine from Beaver City, Neb., and F. L. Johnson of this locality. After the close of the service and the large audience filed by the coffin for a last view of the remains, the long procession formed that followed the remains to their last resting place in the Kiron cemetery. Thus another pioneer has left, a loyal citizen gone, another family circle broken on earth which it is to be hoped will be reunited in the blessed home above which he now has reached, a good neighbor passed away, a father and husband who will be sorely missed. Beside his sorrowing wife and children he leaves 32 grand children, one brother and sister, and other relatives and a long chain of friends to mourn and miss him. That we sincerely condole with the bereaved ones and commend them for consolation to Him who orders all things for the best. The pall bearers were his pioneer friends John Erickson, C. E. Engberg, Peter Johnston, I. Michaelson, P. M. Sojogren and C. F. Clauson. He is gone but not by any means forgotten.

Rev. C. Forsell, pastor at the Baptist church in Council Bluffs visited Kiron the latter part of the week, preaching at the Baptist church Sunday morning and at Arthur in the evening. Victor Linman and family of Arthur spent Sunday with their Kiron relatives. O. Gardner and wife drove to Deloit Sunday morning, spending the day with relatives. A pleasant surprise was arranged for Nellie Moline last Saturday evening, in commemoration of her twentieth birthday. A number of Nellie's friends had been invited, all unknown to her, to spend the evening with her, and as they came in a body it proved a complete surprise. Social chat and games and refreshments filled the hours fully. A. G. Sjogren in behalf of the company, presented her with a fine watch chain and waist.

Axel Larson and Olof Meleen and families and Tilda Larson of Odebolt attended the funeral of their uncle on Sunday afternoon.

The past week has been rather an eventful one in the matter of run-aways, there being three, and while the teams that participated were bruised up yet none were seriously injured.

The water works is being put in very fast and will soon be completed. Most of the pipes have been laid. The work at the well came to a standstill last week owing to the amount of water which could not be pumped out with the pump used, as fast as it poured in. The contractors figured on twenty men to work, but could only secure seven sturdy Swedes who they claim have rushed the work nearly as fast and better than many crews of twice that number, whom they have had working for them.

E. W. Paulsen and George Swede returned Monday from a business trip to Sioux City. Mr. Swede intends to go to Dakota this week.

S. E. Cronquist returned on Wednesday from his visit at Moline, Ill., and was accompanied by a nephew who recently came across the waters to see and make this great country his home. Mr. Cronquist met Harvey Williams, a former Kiron boy now located in Moline and is a prominent and successful attorney.

C. A. Dolk has laid several cement walks the past week.

Ex-assessor Harry Johnson spent Tuesday last discharging the last act in that official capacity.

Irwin Larson the son of Andrew Larson was seriously kicked on Tuesday morning by a horse, while feeding the same. His jaw bone was broken and a number of teeth jarred loose. At present writing, under medical attendance he is getting along nicely.

Aug Linman spent the past week in Chicago attending to business and visiting friends.

The Tom Petersen 240 acre farm seven miles northwest of town was sold last week to Bugge Brothers of Odebolt for $110 per acre.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hoaglund, Sr., have been on the sick list the past week. Mrs. Hoaglund has been very sick but is somewhat better at present writing.

NO SHOOTING IN CITY.

Attention is hereby called to the city ordinance forbidding the discharging of firearms in the city limits. Chapter XVI, section 12, prohibits such nuisance and the penalty provided by the ordinance is not less than one dollar nor more than $100 for each offense, the offender to stand committed to jail until such fine is paid. Parents are especially warned to prevent their boys discharging pistols and rifles in the city limits, under penalty of the law.

W. C. Rollins, Acting Mayor.

The Wuesleau Brothhood served a banquet in the City Hall on the evening of April 16, at which forty-nine invited guests were present, each member inviting his own guest. The decorations were elaborate and beautiful. Rev. Robbins acted as toast master. Toasts were given by Messrs. Theo. Drake, D. A. Waterhouse, Prof. M. H. Hoffman, J. W. Bean and D. L. Kemp.

"Improved Viking" suits for boys should mean much to mothers, as they are made in a manner to withstand the hard wear and tear a boy ordinarily gives his clothes. They combine style and durability in a most pleasing manner.

The illustrations above will give you some idea of the individuality these suits possess. "Viking" suits are labeled. We guarantee them.

THE ARION ANSWER.

MRS. W. B. EVANS, Department Editor.

Rhea Cummings entertained a young ladies club Tuesday evening. Several attended from Dow City and it was an evening of enjoyment. Rhea proved herself to be a pleasant entertainer and an excellent two course lunch was served.

The Arion mill ceased to run for two days last week, however, not on account of prospects of change in the administration, but because of some improvements that were being made. Jennie Burke visited with Arion friends last week and returned to her home in Dunlap Tuesday.

The friends of Roy Town who is a student at Iowa City regret to learn that he is quite sick.

Mrs. Henry Doidge returned Sunday evening from Portland, Oregon where she has been for sometime visiting with her parents.

J. B. Glassburner and wife met Miss Allan here Monday. Miss Allan is a returned missionary from China and had been in the work with Miss Mammie Glassburner in the foreign field. Miss Allan will spend a few days at the Glassburner home. She will work in Iowa this summer and will return to China in the early fall.

The friends of Mrs. P. Hildebrandt were saddened to learn of her death. She resided near here for several years, and those who knew her know that the loss has been great to her family as she was a devoted wife and mother.

Mrs. Wm. Wilson of Charter Oak spent several days visiting with her sister, Mrs. Mackey.

The Misses Maud and Leona Quade of Denison visited Arion friends over Sunday.

Mr. Stilson, Edward Wigg and Rev. Grigsby attended the Sunday school convention last Sunday. Geo. Fern and wife are the proud possessors of a little son born April 6. Samuel Fox, Jr., and wife have returned from California. The many friends of Mrs. Fox are glad to know that her health is very much improved.

Mr. Johnson's family are quarantined for scarlet fever. They moved to Bell a short time ago.

Bertha Lee who is at the home of A. Alexander is quite sick.

John Garret and wife visited at the home of Mr. Henderson who lives near Dow City.
