Emil Palm has charge of the grain elevator, during John's absence.

The pump house erected by the town is nearly completed and the noble little structure is adding to the appearance of our town. The architectural work was effected by C. A. Dolk and Art Benson.

Rev. E. S. Swenson of Alta will visit Kiron this week and will preach at the Mission church on Wednesday evening. On Friday evening the young people's meeting will be held at the home of A. G. Sjorgren when a student from the Bible school at Chicago is expected to be present.

The ten day tent meeting to be conducted by Rev. J. W. Croft and wife assisted by others will commence next Saturday. These same people held a series of meetings here last fall and their coming again to our town is welcomed by many. May their meetings be a source of great good for our town and vicinity.

Mrs. August Linman was taken quite sick on Thursday last and reports at present are that she is no better. We hope that she will soon be able to be about again.

O. E. Clauson and John Cedargren and families and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hoaglund spent Sunday last visiting at the Aug. Lillieholm home near Denison.

Mary Norelius and family and N. A. Hanson were guests at the Cronquist home Sunday afternoon.

C. G. Carlson and the writer returned on Friday evening from a trip to Mitchell and Kimball, S. D. viewing the country. The vicinity of Kimball is fast being settled as is all the western part of South Dakota. Kimball has a profitable future and the lands are hard to beat. On the train coming home we met J. P. Jones of Denison, who had been looking after farms he owns in South Dakota.

Rev. A. Discher has resigned his pastorate at the German Lutheran church southeast of Kiron and accepted a pastorate at Wall Lake where he will move in about five weeks. We are sorry to see this amiable pastor and family move away. The church has called Rev. H. Weisbrodt of Tabor, Iowa but as yet has had no word from him.

John Winquist has been appointed administrator over the late A. M. Larson's property.

As the writer has been absent the past week our news budget will be incomplete, possibly many things have taken place of which we failed learn.

John Tureen and Chas Anderson went to Chicago Saturday evening with fattened stock.

A letter from Grace Selander in Sweden states that she will soon start on her return trip home and expects to arrive in June.

Mrs. Carl Olson who has been suffering with internal troubles for some time past found it necessary to have an operation performed for the removal of the trouble. The operation took place Sunday and reports are that she is improving nicely.

HOLINESS MEETING AT KIRON.

This meeting will begin next Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. On Sunday May 19th the order of services will be as follows: 10:30 a. m. song and praise, preaching at 11. The Deloit Diary.

MRS. S. E. HERR, Department Editor.

Mrs. Rhodes was away from home last week, attending the funeral of her brother-in-law.

Katie Halberg and son Leslie went to Peabody, Kansas last week to visit her sister Mrs. Viola Stovall and her sister Mrs. Grace McMillan at Aulne, Kansas. Lillie Rounds is keeping house for her during her absence.

We forgot to mention last week in the wedding notice that J. T. Turner said the words that made Herman Newcom and Chloe Myers, husband and wife.

J. T. Newcom and wife started to Okoboji last Tuesday, going by team. They will visit at the home of their son C. J. Newcom and family at Jackson, Minn., before their return.

We failed to say last week that the boys nine from Denison came up one week ago Saturday, and played the boys nine at Deloit and were beaten. Last Saturday the Deloit boys went to Denison and played the boys there and were beaten. The Deloit boys started out with scarcely any practice this spring. No doubt they will play better later on.

Millie Ducett of Lanesboro, came to Deloit on Thursday to visit at the home of her sister Mrs. C. J. Hunt.

Myrtle Howren of Monticello, Mo. who has been spending several weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Newcom returned to her home last Friday.

Mrs. S. Horr and Mrs. Olive McKim desire to express their gratitude to the neighbors who so kindly assisted them last week in caring for Mrs. McKim's sick baby. We are very glad to report he is much better and hope for a complete recovery. This community was greatly shocked this week by the death of Mr. J.

T. Turner, one of the pioneer settlers of the county and for many years a resident of Deloit. He was past 66 years of age and was greatly loved and honored by all. Arrangements for the funeral have not yet been made.

H. Koenekamp purchased two lots north of the saloon and will build a new residence.

Mrs. J. T. Turner has been suffering with an attack of erysipelas. We are glad to report that she is getting better.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Williams entertained her niece Mrs. Jas. Maynard of Lake View part of last week.

Eunice Dobson spent Saturday at Dow City with her sister Mrs. A. H. Rudd. She helped entertain the class of 1907 which graduates in the near future, Vinnie Rudd being one of the graduates.

Mrs. C. D. McKim's baby was seriously ill last week but is recovering.

On account of sickness in the family the correspondent has been unable to attend to her correspondence of late. We hope to do better hereafter.

The boys nine was organized last week with Albert Spence secretary and treasurer and Arthur McKim captain.

R. W. Robertson had Geo. Sprecher's automobile in town Sunday, which he brought home with him Saturday to repair.
