SEPTEMBER HAS COME.

There is a magic in September. The very first day of it brings renewal of energy and ambition and industry. The man who walked about with a listless air and a negligee shirt on August 31st, walks in 4-4 time and wears astand-up collar the next day. There are a few fairs and picnics still to be undergone, but as a whole the summer play spell is ended. The rich folks are getting back from the lakes and mountains and seashore and the national two months siesta is finished. On September 1st we yawn, and stretch, and rub our eyes and wake-up. September is an anxious month. In Iowa, at least, it is a "hoss race" between Jack Frost and King Corn. Every day that the corn wins means thousands of dollars added to the wealth of the State. Talk about your English Derby, there never was a race with so high a stake as the Corn-Frost race in September. There is no other race watched by so many spectators. It is right that we should have our play spell in July and August, we all need it and some have deserved it, but now is the time to get busy. Locally, there is every reason to believe that this county will have a good season. The corn crop of Crawford is the best in Iowa. The price is bound to be high. Other crops have been somewhat short but there will be enough for feed and some grain to spare. Hogs and cattle will bring good prices. Now is the time for our merchants to bestir themselves. Denison is the best trading point within forty miles. We have the most attractive stores to be found between Boone and Fort Dodge and Council Bluffs. It is up to the merchants to impress this fact upon the people. The Review with its issue of 2750 weekly, offers the merchants of the county a splendid medium for bringing their wares to the attention of the people. At any rate we are glad September has come. The music of the school bells, the tang of autumn in the air, the glow of the golden rod, the touch of red on the sumac, all of these add to the zest of living and nerve us to do our best. The Review does not wish to become a common scold, but it cannot refrain from time to time, from jogging the memory of the directors of the Denison Improvement Company as to their duty in regard to the opera house. The funds for this building have been largely subscribed and there is good reason to believe that the additional funds needed can be raised. At least, until the effort has been made there is no reason to abandon the project. The awful paralysis which seems to have struck the new hotel building which is dragging on at a snail's pace, should be a warning that if the opera house is to be built in a single season as it should be, the work must be commenced early in the year. The plans must be selected this fall, the advertisement for bids must be made and the contract awarded by January first. There is no object in waiting until the hotel is completed. From present indications, few of us will live to see that accomplished. If we want the new opera house ready for the fall of next year the preliminary steps must be taken. The board of directors of the Denison Improvement Company contains some of the very best business men of Denison. There are men who have made successes of their own undertakings. They are competent, capable men, if they were about to build an opera house, any one of them, for their own ownership, it would be completed by next fall. But because it is a semi-public institution, it is allowed to languish and these same business men, who would not brook delay or defeat if the undertaking was their own, dilly-dally about the work until they invite criticism. If any one man on the board of directors had been building the hotel it would have been well-nigh ready for occupancy by this time. It will be late next spring before it is ready. "A Woman of Mystery" is an excellent vehicle for the display of emotions, ranging from the tenderest to the strongest. Miss Courtenay Morgan is doing the best work of her life in the part of Ashyee, which was created years ago by Madam Bernhardt. At Opera house Friday night this week.

The Big Magazine Section Begins this Month.

GOOD NEWS FOR READERS.

Look up Your Subscription and Make Sure That You Will Receive The Magazine.

The Review Magazine will resume business at the old stand sometime this month. Our readers have been missing it. Many have written us about it telling what a splendid feature it was. The first issue of the new magazine will appear with the Review of September 25th. This will give time for all our subscribers to get their subscriptions paid in advance so that they may not miss a single copy.

The Magazine adds a dollar to the value of the Review, and we are sure that every Review reader will testify that he is already getting his money's worth. The Magazine is an expensive feature, but it costs the subscribers nothing except promptness. If you do not get it the fault will be your own and you will be cheating yourself and your family out of a weekly treat you might just as well have.

To our out of the county subscribers we would announce that after April 1st 1908 the Review will be sent to Advance Paid Subscribers Only. This rule APPLIES ONLY TO SUBSCRIBERS LIVING OUTSIDE OF CRAWFORD COUNTY. Notice is given this far in advance so that every subscriber living outside the county may have plenty of time to pay up.

This rule is now being adopted by the majority of newspapers. It is difficult to collect small amounts from people scattered from Maine to California. The losses on what is called the "single wrapper" list are consequently much greater than on the county list. At the same time the expense is greater, both on account of postage and because of the great amount of time required in mailing each week. The county circulation of a newspaper is of value to local advertisers and thus is a valuable asset to the newspaper, but circulation outside the county is of very little benefit to the local advertisers and of no benefit to the newspaper, except when the subscription is paid. With seven months warning no out of the county subscriber can complain and we believe those who really want the Review will be glad to help us by paying in advance and will be glad to help themselves in securing the Magazine Section.

Remember the New Magazine appears Sept 25th. Look at your tag and get ready for it.

THE CRAWFORD COUNTY FAIR

The Dates are September 11-13 for the Big Arion Fair.

Bring your neighbors and friends to this fair and by so doing you will aid in a financial way to the support and encourage the perpetuity of an institution which will, in time to come, do more for Crawford county than anything else possible can. The superintendents of the different departments are as follows.

Thos. Ahart, cattle; Hudson Down, horses; L. C. Butler, speed; J. B. Glassburner hogs; Wm. Eggers, sheep; D. F. Bryan, poultry; John Holst Jr., grain, seeds and vegetables; W. E. Fishel, fruits; D. J. Butler, buggies and agricultural implements; Mrs. John Lockmiller, plants and flowers; Mr. John Rae culinary articles and skill; Miss Ruth McHenry, reidework; T. J. Phillips, floral hall and C. W. Justice, privileges while Mott McHenry will perform the duties of marshal. Get ready to attend the county fair at Arion Sept. 11-13 inclusive, and help to make it a big success. The first day will mainly be a day of entry and preparation and no admission will be charged.

JUDGE KENESAW M. LANDIS

His Experience in the State Department With Gresham

Referring to the judge who imposed upon the Standard Oil trust the $25,240,000 fine the Washington correspondent for the St. Louis Globe-Democrat says: Judge Landis is only forty years old. His father was wounded in the battle of Kenesaw Mountain, hence his name. Judge Landis was born nearly two years after the civil war had ended. Judge Landis is picturesque in appearance and manner. He was private secretary to Walter Q. Gresham from 1893 to 1895. Judge Gresham had commanded the regiment in which Judge Landis' father served. Young Landis, prior to that, had been a republican, but turned democrat to accompany Gresham to Washington. While Landis was in the state department the Alliance 'affair' occurred.

The Alliance an American vessel, was overhauled by a Spanish gunboat outside the three-mile limit of Cuban jurisdiction and searched on suspicion of being loaded with munitions of war for the Cuban insurgents. There was a great hubbub developed in favor of demanding an apology. About that time Landis came near running the state department. Secretary Gresham was ill and President Cleveland had gone down the Potomac. Edwin H. Uhl of Michigan was acting secretary of state. He yielded to the popular cry and wrote a telegram to Hannis Taylor, the United States minister at Madrid, instructing Mr. Taylor to demand an apology of the Spanish government. He signed it 'Uhl, acting.' By the merest accident Secretary Landis saw the telegram. He withdrew it from the department's telegraph operator and hurried with it to Mr. Gresham. Under Landis' advice Mr. Gresham scratched out 'Uhl acting' text and signed his own name. A few days later the text of his telegram got into the newspapers, with Mr. Gresham's name attached, and the diving secretary of state was praised from one end of the country to the other. When President Cleveland returned home and learned what had occurred he was furious. He declined to sanction the demand for apology and redress, and it looked for a while as if he would haul Landis over the coals. Later Cleveland became attached to the young private secretary and offered to send him to Venezuela as minister. But Landis had seen enough of diplomacy and declined. He preferred law to politics.

Mr. Nichols returned from Wisconsin, but his wife will visit for some time with his parents. NEW YORK FASHIONS

Pattern For Shirt Waist or Blouse Designed by May Manton—No. 5719.

The simple tailored shirt waist is always in demand. Here is one of the latest models, which is smart in the extreme and which allows a choice of two styles of collar and sleeves. It is made of white linen, with large pearl buttons, and is worn with a separate turnover collar, but it can be cut out slightly at the neck and finished with a collar of the material, as shown in the small view, and it can be made with elbow sleeves so that there are practically two waists in one. Linen, madras and indeed all the washable waistings and also such materials as taffeta, pongee and lightweight woolsens are appropriate. The waist is made with fronts and back and is laid in tucks that are stitched for its entire length. It can be closed by means of buttons and buttonholes or invisibly, as liked, but in either case the two rows of buttons are used on the front. The sleeves are gathered at upper and lower edges, and the long ones are finished with regulation cuffs, the short ones with cuffs of the turnover sort. The quantity of material required for the medium size is 3 3/4 yards 27 3/4 yards 22 or 2 1/4 yards 44 inches wide. Sizes for a 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42 inch bust.

DIRECTIONS FOR ORDERING. Send 10 cents to this office, give number of this pattern, No. 5719, and state size desired. It will then be sent to you by mail postpaid. Be sure to write plainly and always give full address. Several days must be allowed for delivery of pattern.

for Los Angeles in about a month. Jake Sievers Jr. was operated on for appendicitis last week at Omaha. Bryon McMahon is reported very low and not expected to live very long. Grain is coming to town. Oats have been reported to yield 40 bushels per acre. Carl Fisminger from Defiance is visiting at the Miles home. Rev. Engleke of Manilla held services at the school house Sunday afternoon. The severe rain storm Wednesday night took out several bridges. A small tornado passed over the correspondents place, smashing the top off his grain stacks which were soaked with rain for ten feet deep. Reading recently some of Uncle Sam's weather bureau men of western Iowa claims that 4 inches of rainfall was the limit known in 24 hours but this time I know that a 16 foot tank had 9 inches of water in the next morning, said tank being not used, lately and perfectly empty and dry before the rain. However lightning did not do much damage here, only burning a couple of barley stacks for Geo. Waagner. Miss Courtenay Morgan—she's "A Woman of Mystery." At Opera house Friday night this week. Popular prices. One Minute Cough Cure For Coughs, Colds and Croup.
