

Do You Realize

How important it is that frequent photographs of the family circle should be made? Think it over and see...

Studio in Laub's Block

Ferguson

Don't forget about the Old Settlers dance at the Opera house Thursday night.

Senator Dolliver will speak at Ida Grove on Sunday morning Sept. 8th in the M. E. church.

Mrs. L. E. Younie of Tacoma, Wash., visited relatives in Denison the latter part of last week.

Misses Kathryn and Marie Fitzgerald of El Reno, Okla., visited last week at the John Kelly home.

Mr. C. F. Kuehne returned on Saturday from Chicago where he has been transacting business several days.

Herbert Kahler returned the latter part of last week to his home in Traer, after a visit with Carl Fredrick Kuehne.

Miss Anna Schumaker and Miss Hilda Broderson returned last Saturday from Chicago where they have been for the past week.

Mrs. Lottie Ley and daughter, Verne Stocking returned last week from Omaha where they have been visiting for the past month.

Mrs. H. S. Gulick and Mrs. Lou Martin left Saturday for Minneapolis and Wausau where they will spend several weeks visiting relatives.

Mrs. A. B. Rutledge and family left on Saturday for Minden, Nebr., to join her husband at that place, where they will make their future home.

One of the new teachers in the school is Prof. W. F. Meyer who will instruct in physics and chemistry. He is a graduate of Drake, the college of the Christian church at Des Moines, and graduated last June.

Editor Harthun of the Zeitung was in Omaha during the fore part of the week attending a great reunion of German soldiers. It is called the Krigerfest and is well attended by the former soldiers of the Fatherland.

Among those sustaining damage from lightning south of Denison were: Herman Otto living in Denison township who had two stacks of grain consumed and Rudolph Mickle in Nishnabotny township whose barn was struck but not set on fire.

The Misses Sarachon and niece Ann Hooley returned the last of the week from their extended visit in the east. They visited all the principal cities also took in the Jamestown exposition, stopping on their way home in Chicago to purchase millinery stock for their flourishing trade in Denison.

Merrill Fegtle was in the city this week visiting his uncle, Dr. Robert Plimpton. Merrill is the son of Rev. E. T. Fegtle and wife who are now stationed at Washta, in Cherokee county. He has been spending his summer vacation with his grandfather E. S. Plimpton at Salida, Colo., and worked in the mine owned by him, Merrill and two sisters will soon be attending Des Moines college at Des Moines. He informs us that his grandmother Mrs. J. Fegtle and daughter, Mrs. Carrie McCutcheon are spending the summer at Colfax, Washington, that his uncle Sam is a successful lawyer in Chicago, and that his aunt Bird is living at Nevada where her husband is the agent of the Northwestern. Merrill is a fine tall manly young man. The blood of two strong families runs in his veins.

Miss Margaret Owens is visiting friends near Charter Oak and Ute.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Miller of Deloit returned from Des Moines Saturday where they had been visiting relatives and taking in the state fair.

Mrs. Margaret Lally-Mahon and children, arrived in Denison Friday evening from Sedalia, Mo., to visit her parents. Miss Rachel Lally who has been spending the summer in Missouri returned with her.

Mr. Albion Carlson is back from Hermosa, S. D. where he had expected to live. He could not find a house to live in, and would not stay. He says that our late blacksmith, Mr. Harding has gone into the hardware business and is doing well.

Surveyor McHenry has been re-surveying some of the residence lots in the north part of town and is taking from one lot owner and giving to another. Mr. Schneekloth found that he had for his, a strip four feet wide off the lot of his neighbor Mr. Klinker.

Little Norvin Gable has made a nice recovery from his broken arm. He was hurt Tuesday night, and was able to get out of the house Saturday morning with his hand in a sling. Monday he started to school. He had the blessing of youth, and his little bones knit together very soon.

Frank Gibson the retired farmer from Paradise township who first bought south of the bridge on the way to the cemetery has now purchased the residence on Main street between Charles Menagh's and Wm. Raine. It is being given considerable repairing previous to Mr. Gibson moving in.

Mr. C. F. Chase of Washington township was in town Saturday and called at this office. He is one of our appreciative readers. He is particularly pleased with the magnificent correspondence contained in the paper from week to week. He finds news from Manila, Buck Grove, Arion and Dow City towns all around him. It's a fact, that we give the readers in his locality good service.

Among the visitors at Denison during the Chautauqua week was Mrs. Densmore Austin of Jefferson. She was at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Will Laub. Mrs. Austin is the wife of the fine strong Methodist minister who preached in Denison before the new church was built. He was not a man of long fine spun sentences, but spoke in short words, and in brief sentences, and made a strong impress on the people. He has left her a good home at Jefferson, and there by his request she will reside.

BLACKLEGGOIDS

Vaccinate your Cattle before placing them in Fall Pasture.

To be had fresh at all Times at Schlumberger's Pharmacy.

School supplies at Johnson's. Joe White visited friends in Vail over Sunday. Post card albums nice line at Johnson's. Miss Louis Gregg of Dunlap visited Edna Raine last Thursday. C. M. Jensen transacted business in Dunlap the first of the week. Biggest assortment and biggest Tablets for the money at Johnson's. Mrs. Tom Brunner left on Friday for a visit with Charter Oak friends. Miss Maud Cranny of Vail visited Denison friends the latter part of last week. Mrs. Hughes went to Omaha last Friday to visit friends for a week or ten days. Mrs. Dave Ringer returned to her home in Omaha after a month's visit with friends and relatives in Denison. Steers for sale weighing about 1000 pounds each, in fine condition. R. Lenfeldt, Denison, Iowa. 44-3t. It is reported that Miss Petersen of Preston, Iowa and Miss Plough of this city are about to do dress making here. The Junior League will serve ice cream and cake at the home of R. L. Hill, Friday evening, September 6th. Come. Mrs. H. R. Elsworth and daughters, Irene and Grace of Indianapolis were the guests of Mrs. T. J. Kelly last week. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Herman Riemers Friday, August 19th, a daughter which tipped the scales at ten pounds. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fienhold left Tuesday for Dakota to spend a few weeks with their daughter, Mrs. J. Garret. Don't fail to see Sarah Bernhardt's great Parisian play "A Woman of Mystery" at the Opera house Friday night this week. "A Woman of Mystery" will prove to be one of the magnets of the present theatrical season. Don't miss it. At Opera house Friday night this week. Mesdames J. P. Hughes and L. Jordan and children returned to their homes in Omaha, after a two weeks visit at the home of Mrs. James Owens. Mrs. Ella Ivens Sage came over from Modale last week giving her parents and friends a pleasant surprise. Her husband is in the restaurant business. Miss Nora Fitzpatrick left Saturday for Holy Cross, Iowa, where she will attend the Seminary for the coming year. Miss Fitzpatrick is a niece of Mrs. W. J. Bauman. Miss Meyers the librarian has been quite busy since her return from the east cataloguing new books. A large number of books in the German language have been put on the shelves. The next great attraction at the Opera house will be on Friday evening of this week, Miss Courtenay Morgan in the beautiful four act romance "A Woman of Mystery." Miss Morgan has been in our city before and she has the reputation of being one of the most clever characters that has appeared on our local stage. Don't miss this attraction. Prices 25-35-50 cents. Mr. A. C. Weeks is in receipt of a letter from his son Lucas who has headquarters at Monett telling of a fearful wreck in which he had a part. He was on his way home to Monett when his train had a head end collision with another train. Both engineers and five others were killed and fourteen wounded. Lucas spoiled a good suit of clothes helping to rescue the dead and wounded. He was back in the sleeper and not hurt.

THERE ARE ALWAYS TWO SIDES

to a question. But one side is the right, and the other the wrong side. Now one thing is sure—and that is—YOU will be on the RIGHT SIDE if you buy your Jewelry and kindred lines of

E. C. Chamberlin, The Jeweler & Optician

Thousand of new Post cards at Johnson's. Do you want a bargain in a Side Board? Call at Salomon's. Mrs. J. H. Gable and son "Toodies" spent Sunday with Boone relatives. Mrs. Guy Martin and children of Spenser, Iowa, are guests at the Austin home. Miss Jenna Strahn left the first of the week to continue her studies at Cedar Falls. F. Smidt and wife of Vail visited relatives in Denison and Schleswig the last of the week. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Littell of Independence arrived on Sunday for a visit at the Tabor home. Mrs. Jane Duff of Dundee, Ill., arrived in Denison Friday for a visit with friends and relatives. A. J. Bond is in Eagle Grove this week attending a reunion of his regiment the gallant 32nd Iowa. Miss Zola Blosser left on Monday to begin her work as one of the teachers in the Arion schools. Eugene Gulick made his first trip up-town this week since his operation for appendicitis. He was kept busy shaking hands with his many friends. Raymond Conner left yesterday for a visit of inspection at Mt. Vernon and Ames. He will probably attend one of these schools during the coming year. W. H. Wilroth goes to Sioux City next week to exploit the excellences of the "Canton Line" at the Inter State Fair. Wilroth will make a great speller. Miss Beatrice Kirkup has been elected to a position in the public schools of Greenfield, Mo., as instructor in music. Miss Beatrice is having a most successful career as a teacher. Hon. J. P. Conner returned last week from Mt. Clemens, Michigan where he left Mrs. Conner who will take a course of treatments. It is too early as yet to judge of results, but Mrs. Conner's friends are in hopes that she will be greatly benefitted. The S. S. Club held its first meeting for the season on Tuesday evening. Miss Charlotte Anderson was elected to membership and Miss Ethel Gulick was elected Vice President to fill the vacancy caused by Miss Beard's removal from the city. The Menu was in charge of Miss Allie Sewell and was most excellent.

B. Y. Nicholson and wife returned Saturday from a delightful western trip. Prof. Randall departed this week to enter upon his duties at the state university. Miss Jessie Goodrich and Miss Frances Hart left on Tuesday for a sojourn at Colfax. Mrs. E. L. Bleakney left for Glenwood the first of the week upon the receipt of news of her mother's serious illness. Miss Margaret Stattler returned the first of the week from a delightful vacation spent at her former home in Nevada, Iowa. Special prices, to move a few Side Boards in the next few weeks. Call look them over, they are worth your attention. Salomon's. William Paulsen has resigned his position with John Saggau to take effect next winter when he will go on a farm in Milford township. Well if you want one of those Side Boards at the special low prices you must come now, for they will not last long at the reduced price. Salomon's. We have been requested to defer mention of the approaching wedding of a well-known young man about town, but it is true, just the same. Mrs. T. J. Garrison and Miss Lillian left on Saturday for Denver. Mrs. Garrison expects to return shortly but Miss Lillian will remain for the winter. Chas. Gould of Harrington, Kansas is a Denison visitor this week. Chas. has been in the employ of the Rock Island for a number of years. It is a long time since he left Denison as a boy and we are glad to note his prosperity. On Monday Mrs. Prudence Clark the aged mother, sat for her portrait together with her four daughters, Mrs. Green, Mrs. Gould, Mrs. Ely and Mrs. Freed and her two sons George and Delos Servoss. If all the descendants living in Denison had been in the group it would have been a large one. Henry Lochmiller of Ainsworth, Nebr., is spending the day in Denison and will take in the old settler's picnic. He is a son of Caspar Lochmiller and left Denison in 1883. It is fifteen years since he had visited Denison. Mr. Lochmiller is now in the implement and stock buying business with a younger brother. W. J. McAhren returned last week from his stay in California. Our veteran auctioneer is looking in better health and spirits than he has for a long time and he is the bearer of good news concerning his wife who is now in better health than for many years. Mr. McAhren tells us that she has almost recovered her health. Her many friends in Denison will be rejoiced to hear this good news. "Our Family" was the title of a play given at the Sibbert Opera House on Saturday afternoon. Prices ranged from one cent for the gallery to five cents for extra choice reserved seats. Rowland Philbrook was stage manager and Carl Sibbert one of the stars. They had a good crowd and gave a fine show. The boys have a fine little opera house with drop curtains and everything complete.

Sweet, clean, fresh bread at the Jungerman Bakery. Will McCord of Defiance has been over at Denison seeing relatives. Dr. Van Meter of Arion came up to the county seat on Monday night. James Laird came up from Omaha for a visit with the Denison friends. The best of material used in the pies and cakes made at Jungerman's. Miss Ethel McCord is again in Denison after a week spent in Chicago. Misses Minnie Watje and Mary Oxwang visited Vail friends Monday evening. Mr. Geo. Albert of the Balle-Brodersen store visited his parents in Manning over Sunday. Mr. Barney Brodersen and family returned from their months outing at Okoboji last Thursday. Get in the habit of buying pies, cookies and fried cakes of the up-to-date Jungerman Bakery. Carl Moenck was up from Council Bluffs the first of the week calling on old friends and relatives. Our active veterinary surgeon Dr. Simpson was called to Dunlap on Monday on professional business. Miss Isabel Campbell of Council Bluffs is again in Denison this season trimming at the Balle-Brodersen store. First come first served. You will be first if you come first. Some one is sure to get a bargain in a Side Board. Salomon's. Mrs. Sam Kelly and daughter Edith, returned on Monday from Chicago where they have been visiting for the past two weeks. J. J. Murphy of Jackson township was a Denison caller yesterday. He has sold his personal property and does not know just where he will locate in the future. Mr. and Mrs. Sutor have returned from Boynton, I. T. and give a glowing account of the country and brought samples of Mr. Marks' corn from there. They expect to locate there in the near future. Dr. Philbrook is at Sioux City for a few days this week to attend a meeting of the North Iowa Dental Association. He will give an exhibition of handling a difficult case in his profession before the association. W. J. McAhren returned last week from his stay in California. Our veteran auctioneer is looking in better health and spirits than he has for a long time and he is the bearer of good news concerning his wife who is now in better health than for many years. Mr. McAhren tells us that she has almost recovered her health. Her many friends in Denison will be rejoiced to hear this good news. "Our Family" was the title of a play given at the Sibbert Opera House on Saturday afternoon. Prices ranged from one cent for the gallery to five cents for extra choice reserved seats. Rowland Philbrook was stage manager and Carl Sibbert one of the stars. They had a good crowd and gave a fine show. The boys have a fine little opera house with drop curtains and everything complete.

New Millinery...

Ready for Delivery

Opening Announcement Later

Sarachon Sisters.

Do Not Fail to See

COLE'S HOT BLAST Steel Ranges

The latest and best on the market.

Also a fine Range complete for $30.00—the best ever offered for the money. Bargains in 2nd hand Ranges.

Kerosene and Gasolene delivered at your home promptly.

J. G. Wygant, Phone 62

Longley Hats for Men.

New Fall Styles now here. The Styles are distinctly different and the New "Oak" Brown shade is fashions favorite. The "Varsity" Style in Oak brown and black leads all the styles this season. All Longley Hats are $3.00 each.

Cute Clothes for all the Teddies.

Ask to see them. Cloth your Teddy Bear in jumpers, overalls, sweaters, toques, furs. Also, a full line of doll clothes. Each article is well made and bound to please the little ones.

NEW LINE OF TEDDIES. second floor

The Balle-Brodersen Co.

DENISON, IOWA.

The Home of Ladies' Home Journal Patterns.

NEW FALL DRESS GOODS.

The arrival of some announced before. But now we have more and you must see them. Not an ordinary showing here, not a few pieces to fill in, but an entirely new line from plains to fancies, hundreds of pieces representing a lavish outlay of money to give our patrons an opportunity for selection rarely offered elsewhere. Many beautiful plaids, the predominating style in novelty dress goods; these are beautiful, superb, magnificent. Moderately priced to suit all purses.

SCHOOL STOCKINGS.

A word about the Rawhide and Black Cat Brands. We want to tell you about these celebrated hose for children. They are the best in the land for the price asked. They are the best for wear, obtainable; true fast black; narrow and wide ribbed and priced at 15 and 25c all sizes. For the best 15c hose ask for the Rawhide. For the best 25c hose ask for the Black Cat and you cannot be disappointed.

DRESS GOODS REMNANTS.

A table of wool dress goods remnants. The left overs of our spring lines now on remnant sale. All kinds and shades at small prices. Surely in the collection something for you; some piece of the material you must like, of a length that will just suit your personal need. But they are moving fast so we suggest just a little hurry, come in the morning after you read this.

K. & E. BLOUSES FOR THE SCHOOL BOY.

No blouses or waists like these to be had and we have them. No need of looking further. The newest patterns, the newest styles, the best fitting, most satisfactory waists on sale anywhere. It happens we are exclusive agents for this well known meritorious brand and we are glad to show you the line anytime. But rather now, when the line is at its best.

PRICED UPWARDS FROM 50c EACH.

SCHOOL SUPPLIES.

Also mentioned before, but we still have some left, tablets, pencils, slates, pencil boxes, erasers, pens and pen holders, etc., in fact, everything to fit out complete the school girl and boy. Also, complete line of stationery at popular prices for all occasions. Ask for our "Princess" style tablet, envelopes to match, economical, absolutely the most for the money.

SCHOOL SHOES.

Just now this should interest the mothers of little ones. Where to get the best for the least money is the live question and you need go no further. We think we have solved the problem in the brands of shoes we have stocked up with and now it is for us to show and you to be shown. Ask to see our shoes for children and we will do the rest. A special for boys—Box calf and Vici at $2.00 per pair. An unexcelled value. Other good values at $1.50 and $1.75.

SCHOOL SHOES.

Just now this should interest the mothers of little ones. Where to get the best for the least money is the live question and you need go no further. We think we have solved the problem in the brands of shoes we have stocked up with and now it is for us to show and you to be shown. Ask to see our shoes for children and we will do the rest. A special for boys—Box calf and Vici at $2.00 per pair. An unexcelled value. Other good values at $1.50 and $1.75.