

Huettmann Bros FALL ANNOUNCEMENT

WE ANNOUNCE THE ARRIVAL OF OUR FALL GOODS, which were most carefully selected for our trade. They are up to date in style, fabric and colors for Fall and Winter. If you investigate the market in our line you will find a big advance in our line. Regardless of this we are marking our goods as low in price as we possibly can, so the advance will affect you little when buying of us. We can save you as much on the dollar as any dealer can. We will give you as good a grade of merchandise as is possible for the money. If you trade with us you need no proof, if not, give us a fair trial, we assure you courteous treatment and guarantee our goods. Come, make your purchases of Fall Supplies of us. Your trade is appreciated, no matter how small. Call and let us show you our beautiful goods for Fall and Winter wear.

THE KIRON REVIEW.

E. E. CLAUSON, Department Editor.

NOTE—Mr. Clauson is empowered to receipt for subscriptions or to receive advertisements to be inserted in this column.

Harry Strahn came over from Schaller on Friday to visit his relatives and talk Dakota lands.

Mrs. C. D. Herner went to Charter Oak on Friday morning for a short visit with his parents.

The stuff that made Milwaukee famous imbibed to freely by visiting parties on Saturday night, came very near getting them into trouble.

Peter Millman of Gothenberg and John Rodin of North Platte Neb., are visiting with relative and friends in Kiron this week. Mr. Millman is a brother to S. M. Moline at old Kiron and used to reside here some twenty five year ago.

Rev. J. Soderstrom will hold a sale of his household effects at the Baptist parsonage on Friday afternoon. We understand that they may possibly decide to locate in Washington.

Rev. J. A. Christianson and family are now located, and at home in the Lutheran parsonage.

E. N. Benson went to Cherokee on Monday last for a few day stay. He assisted in taking Mrs. P. Kullberg back to the asylum. Some three weeks ago he took her to Kiron, but her mental condition was such it was deemed best to take her back again.

E. I. Miller has put in several cement walks during the past week, which has taken the place of the old wood sidewalks. E. I. has a first class equipment and intends to do only first class work in this line which the work of the past week will prove.

Alma Nordholm, Bertha Hammett and Anna Moline drove down from Odebolt Sunday morning to spend the day with relatives.

A new Fernwood piano adorns the parlor of Albert Baker; purchased on Friday for his little girl of Clauson Bros.

Mrs. A. Dicher came down from Wall Lake on Friday to attend to business matters and visit friends, returning home in the evening.

Jud Gary with his house moving outfit came up from Denison the first of the week to move the Michaelson implement shop and the Miller livery barn.

John Pithan, the noted democrat from Ellis drove up to Kiron on Friday for a supply of the necessities of life.

OLD KIRON

A. Norelius visited the county seat on business last Tuesday.

P. E. Nordell went to Odebolt on business Tuesday.

S. Swanson spent the part of the week reshingling a house for J. P. Turin in Ida county.

P. E. Nordell visited friends at Whiting, also attended the fair at Sioux City the last of the week.

Ida Moline visited her sister Anna at Odebolt the last of the week.

Rev. Soderstrom and family, also John Winquest and family, were pleasantly entertained at the home of John Gustafson last Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. John Hoeglund and Neva Norelius were pleasant callers at Old Kiron last Friday afternoon.

Mr. Buller visited the at home of his son in Sac county a couple days last week.

F. Norelius, wife and children, visited A. Bergstroms in Sac county Sunday afternoon.

Miss Jessie Norelius and Julie Larson visited friend in Old Kiron Sunday.

Charter Oak

R. C. Pahriou left Tuesday for Humboldt, Co., to visit relatives and friends.

A large delegation from the Oak visited Sioux City Tuesday. Dan Patch day at the fair, being the drawing card.

Mr. Bennett of Milford is visiting his uncle, F. H. Davis. Mr. Bennett's parents live at Morning Side. Mr. Davis and wife will accompany him to Morning Side to visit friends and see the big show.

M. G. Riene has disposed of his chicken ranch and gone to Butte, S. D., to look over that country.

Mrs. F. Dubois expects to start next Wednesday for Ohio to visit friends and the land of her birth.

Grace Mains left Tuesday for Morning Side, and will take a course in the Conservatory of Music, her father accompanied her to see her properly located.

Rev. E. Robbins preached his last sermon to his people Sunday morning, before going to conference. We hope the announcement will be made, no change for Charter Oak as we very much desire his return to this charge.

Sunday evening Union services were held in the Presbyterian church.

A large congregation listened to Rev. H. H. Sawyer of Morning Side. Rev. Sawyer is superintendent of the anti-saloon league of Sioux City.

Herman Fester, an old resident of Crawford died at the home of his brother-in-law Theo. Roldnan, Friday morning and was buried in Soldier Sunday Sept. 15th.

Chas. P. Drake returned Tuesday to Morning Side to resume his studies.

Mrs. Harry Sang and Mrs. Clarence Smith of Geddis, S. D. returned to their home Saturday morning. After having enjoyed a very pleasant visit with their parents, Chas. Robertson and wife.

The long joists for the new building of Thos. Thomsen and Co. have arrived this will enable the contractors to push the building to completion, as most of the material is on the ground.

M. L. Houlihan and wife went to Manila Thursday, to attend the funeral of Bryan McMahon a brother of Mrs. Houlihan.

C. H. Weed visited the big fair in Sioux City Friday.

Eighteen blooded hogs were unloaded from the express Saturday, having been purchased at the fair by Charter Oak farmers, who want the best.

C. C. Hardy's thoroughbred hog took second premium at the Sioux City fair and 4th premium at Nebraska State fair. Charley is well pleased with the roll of greenbacks he received as premiums.

Lewis Romans and wife are visiting their children and will take in the Sioux City fair while here.

Mrs. Dollie Wyckoff Bohan of South Omaha is visiting her parents, Theo. Wyckoff and wife, their daughter, Gusta had the misfortune to fracture her leg below the knee, the patient has the sympathy of the whole community, this is the second time her limb has been fractured in two months.

Mrs. J. J. McWilliams is visiting friends in Denison.

$100 FOR A BOTTLE.

This would not be a large price to pay for Dr. Dummond's Lightning Remedies if one could not get relief any cheaper. The Drummond Medicine Co., New York have received hundreds of unsolicited testimonials from grateful people restored to health by the use of their remedies, who would not hesitate to pay any price rather than suffer the former torture. If you would like to try these remedies, and your druggist has not got them, write direct to the company. Agents wanted.

COLLEGE NOTES.

This year's work has opened very favorably. The faculty is the same as last year with the exception of the preceptress, Miss Clare M. Fee, of Toledo, from the Leander Clark College is preceptress and teacher of language this year. She comes to the work very highly recommended after special preparation.

Prof. Beman is on hand and at work. He spent the most of his vacation in Michigan.

Miss Brackney was at home in Indianola for the summer. She has been looking up some excellent work in oratory for her classes.

Miss Lillie Raine has been confined to the house with an unusually severe case of la grippe. She will meet her music pupils this week as usual.

Mr. James Flemming of Deloit called on Monday. He came down with his father who was called for the grand jury. James is planning to teach this winter.

Attack of Diarrhoea Cured by One Dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy

I was so weak from an attack of diarrhoea that I could scarcely attend to my duties, when I took a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It cured me entirely and I had been taking other medicine for nine days without relief. I heartily recommend this remedy as being the best to my knowledge for bowel complaints.—R. G. Stewart, of the firm of Stewart & Bro., Greenville, Ala. For sale by L. E. Blosser Broadway, Druggist.

The Buck Grove BUDGET

Mrs. Fannie Bonney

Department Editor.

Mr. O'Meara, wife and son Leo went to Sioux City last Tuesday to attend the fair.

Robert Beutel, Will Moffitt and Byron McMullen, formed a pleasant party, took their dinners and spent all day Wednesday at the Sioux City fair, returning home in the evening.

Mrs. Bonney visited her friend, Mrs. Dr. Evans at Arion Wednesday, and witnessed the opening of the fair at that place.

Messers Winn, Sullivan and Peterson were among the Sioux City visitors last week.

Elmer Palzein, made a business trip to Omaha, returning home Wednesday.

Chris Gloe and family, with Pearl Bonney enjoyed Thursday at the Arion fair.

Dwight Hutchinson was an Arion visitor between trains, Thursday. He says he went on business not to attend the fair.

Ben Quathamer, Jack Welsh, L. W. Hagan and families took in the fair at Arion Thursday.

Mr. Miller of Whiteside, Ill. visited his nephew, Dwight Hutchinson, Thursday.

Thursday proved to be a rather unfortunate day for some of the Buck Grove people. Mr. Hagan is taking care of a bad cut on his temple, but able to attend to business.

Sadie Dieber is no longer working in Mr. Moffitt's store. She expects to go to school when it begins.

The school board had a meeting Wednesday but no business was transacted. Algebra must be taught in the Buck Grove school, whether there is any body to take that branch of study or not.

Bian and Carl Iseminger and Dr. Bonney drove to Denison Saturday afternoon.

Miss Nehls is now clerking for R. J. Moffitt.

Vernie Moffitt and brother, Roy are now attending college in Denison.

Ben Quathamer and wife entertained A. Hulsebus, wife and children from Defiance Sunday.

Willis Wiggins, wife and family of Dow City and Mrs. Champion of Arion, were guests of John Griffin and family Sunday.

Lawrence Finnigan, wife and children were guests of John Finnigan and family for a few days last week.

Nellie Sullivan and cousin Nora Finnigan returned from a weeks visit to Denison Thursday.

Gertie Griffin came up from Dow City for an over Sunday visit with her grandparents here.

Lizzie and Hattie Sewing are visiting relatives in Council Bluffs.

A number of farmer wives are lamenting over the loss of their chickens which have commenced to die, the young as well as the old.

Laura Moffitt was entertaining friends from Defiance for a couple of days last week.

The new organ has been ordered for the Catholic church and is daily expected.

Dr. Bonney and Bian Iseminger went out to the home of Fred Gigax, one day last week, and removed a swarm of bees, which were in the house and had been quite troublesome. They killed the bees and secured at together about eighty pounds. The three families can feast for a time on cheap honey.

Mrs. Alec McCord visited at Mrs. Bonney's on her way home from Denison Saturday. Her daughter Ethel came after her here, and they drove home to Defiance together. Ethel has recently returned from a visit to Chicago.

Mrs. Marian Newman, returned Thursday from an extended visit at Corning. She brought her little grandson with her for a few days visit.

Cal Carpenter and Will Staller were Sioux City visitors last week.

James Boyer, wife and son spent Sunday with friends in the country.

Grandpa Downey died last Wednesday, Sept. 11th.

Chris Simon is very sick and is not expected to live.

Mr. Mead a horse doctor gave a lecture and entertainment at No. 2 school house. He is an unfortunate man being struck by lightning in Sioux City seven years ago which paralyzed his left arm. It seems as though the lightning is after him in good shape, as it struck the White school house a few nights ago, where he was holding a meeting.

Earnst Gunn and wife went to Ft. Dodge last Saturday evening to take in the opera, "His Royal Chief".

A man by the name of Herman Stubbe living on the Hickey place disappeared last Wednesday, and about 100 of his friends spent two days looking for him, last seen between Boyer and Vail nothing heard of him up to Friday night.

Mrs. Wingert's mother living near Breda is very sick and not expected to live.

One of Henry Wollenbergs children is very sick with summer complaint. Wm. Rickie and family of Breda visited with Henry Schafer Sunday.

James Murphy gave his farewell party at Brothers Sunday—he says he is going to Okolahoma this week.

Edward Reir took in the dance given at Dan New's Saturday night.

Mary Fothergill returned to her home St. Joseph Mo., after an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. Geo. Gunn.

Ricketts.

A number of friends gathered to help Mrs. Jabens celebrate her 89th birthday at the home of her daughter Mrs. R. Timm on Monday.

Aug. Kuhlman and wife visited relatives here from Saturday until Monday.

Paul Voss left for Sioux City Tuesday and there took the excursion to Colorado.

Alfred Jacobs and his carpenters spent Tuesday in Sioux City taking in the fair and seeing Dan Patch.

Mesdames Vollerson, Voss, Wulf and Mahnke were callers at the Chas. Vogt home Wednesday.

Mr. Sturges, the Times editor from Charter Oak was over viewing our city Wednesday.

Mrs. Geo. Krohnke visited her parents at Charter Oak Tuesday.

Adolph Stier and wife, Anna and Chris Vollerson and Freda Voss are fair visitors at Sioux City this week.

Mrs. Emil Dickman is down from Schleswig spending a few days with relatives.

Lizzie Dorflar visited friends at Ute over Sunday.

Anna Munster and Lizzie Selz attended a party at the J. Drogmoeller home six miles north of town.

L. M. Ryman, E. G. Hess and C. Lyons took a short trip to the Soldier and enjoyed a day of fishing.

S. F. Hoffman of Hudson, S. D. after spending a few days at the Sioux City fair came on down to visit relatives and friends over Sunday.

Vena Smith returned to her home at Ute Saturday, after a few months visit with Mrs. C. Lyons here.

Al. Nay quit work on the section Saturday noon and left for Pisgah, where he has accepted a position manufacturing cement building blocks.

The Hanover band found the Ricketts people with a free band concert Friday evening which was much appreciated by a large crowd who gathered in the new building of P. C. Petersen. The band now consists of 13 pieces, and have just bought a new set of the famous Beau-Ideal instruments and under the direction of Prof. C. Wendt has become one of the best bands in this part of the state.

FOR SALE.

16 Chester White boars. Good quality heavy bone, good size. William Quade, Denison, Iowa, both phones.

37-tf.

There are many reasons why it pays to trade at DYSON, GALVIN & CO. STORE

Our goods are all New.

Our Prices are RIGHT.

We buy in large lots and for Spot Cash getting the best price.

We want your trade and will do our best to please you.

NEW FALL GOODS ARRIVING NOW. BRING US YOUR PRODUCE.

DYSON GALVIN & CO.

BUCK GROVE, IOWA.

Jackson

The youngest child of Mrs. Herman Obman died Tuesday Sept. 9th.

Willie Garts has purchased the Henry Gerkin place and will rent it to his son-in-law. Mr. Gerkin is to move into Wall Lake where he has purchased a fine building, and will go into business.

Mrs. Norton, a relative of Wm. Kelly is very sick at her home in Vail, and not expected to live.

Rickie Bruns is the happy father of a bouncing baby girl.

Louis Diernfeldt is passing the "bottle" around all over a baby girl that came to his house last Wednesday.