

FALL ANNOUNCEMENT!

WE ANNOUNCE THE ARRIVAL OF OUR FALL GOODS, which were most carefully selected for our trade. They are up to date in style, fabric and colors for Fall and Winter. If you investigate the market in our line you will find a big advance in our line. Regardless of this we are marking our goods as low in price as we possibly can, so the advance will affect you little when buying of us. We can save you as much on the dollar as any dealer can. We will give you as good a grade of merchandise as is possible for the money. If you trade with us you need no proof, if not, give us a fair trial, we assure you courteous treatment and guarantee our goods. Come, make your purchases of Fall Supplies of us. Your trade is appreciated, no matter how small. Call and let us show you our beautiful goods for Fall and Winter wear.

DENISON, IOWA.
Kuettmann Bros
THE OLD "HUB" CORNER.

THE KIRON REVIEW.

E. E. CLAUSON, Department Editor.

NOTE—Mr. Clauson is empowered to receipt for subscriptions or to receive advertisements to be inserted in this column.

E. H. Muritz and wife took their departure Tuesday for their new home and location in Bronson. A number of their old schoolmates, friends and neighbors were at the depot to bid them goodbye and wish them success and prosperity in their new quarters. We regret to see them move away from our town and locality, where they have spent so many years and mingled together with Kiron people who will miss them.

Mrs. Erick Larson and children returned home on Monday from their two week's stay and visit at Des Moines. Miss Petersen accompanied them home and will remain for a short time.

Mrs. Jonas Fanberg died at her home eight miles northwest of Kiron on Friday last after a short but painful illness and was buried on Wednesday last. The funeral services were conducted from the Baptist church in Ida county of which the deceased was a most prominent and active member, the services conducted by Rev. A. Linholm. The deceased was 52 years old and leaves husband and six children.

Our progressive and happy restaurant man Miller, has torn down the addition to his restaurant which he built last spring of concrete blocks, and will rebuild larger to give him more room for cooking operation and for his ice cream manufacturing. The new building will be 24 by 22 and will give him ample room required for the increasing business.

Mrs. Herman Erickson and daughter Lena will soon bid farewell to our town to locate in Vermillion S. D., where Mrs. Erickson recently purchased a fine home property. She holds a sale on Saturday afternoon this week of her household effects. She has rented her Kiron home to Station agent McCallagan.

Nels Larson, while at Odebolt on Monday filed an application for a quarter of a section of the Adams ranch which is to be disposed of at $95 per acre, provided applications are made for the entire tract. This ranch contains some of the best and most productive land in the state and being divided up into small farms, will help the town of Odebolt greatly.

Mrs. E. E. Williams and children after a pleasant visit with relatives and friends here returned to her home in Redfield, S. D.

Agnes Sjogren and Annie Johnson went to Omaha Thursday with the intention of remaining for an indefinite time.

Harry Strahn drove down from Schaller on Thursday and remained over night with relatives.

Albert and Martin Reed went to Stamford, Texas, on Friday to assist their uncle harvest his cotton crop and to make some improvements on their farm.

John Baker who recently returned from a trip and visit to Sweden was most pleasantly surprised on Wednesday evening by a goodly number of neighbors and friends who gathered at his home to greet him back and spend the evening together with him and his family. An easy rocking chair brought along, and presented, will ever remind him of the happy event.

Olof Johnson, the restaurant man at Lake View visited between Monday and Tuesday at the home of his cousin, Peter Miller.

Jos. Menges and wife drove to Denison Monday night to visit relatives and attend the Band Concert on Tuesday.

The department has ordered a change on mail route 2 to take effect Nov. 16. The change will place the route two miles west of the P. W. Weberg farm corner, thence a mile north to the old established route and instead of coming into town on his home way when reaching the school house west of town, he will continue south to the Swan Maurtz corner, thence east 1-1/2 miles south to Wm. Linberg corner, when he will retrace the half mile on his way back to the office, making the route 26 1-4 miles with a pay of $900 per year.

Born on Thursday night a pleasant little miss to Aucher Lindstrom and wife, and being their first born the happy parents are overly happy.

Nels Windquest returned on Friday from his trip to Alcester, S. D., where he spent the past week visiting his son C. O. and investing in land.

Joseph Engberg went to Ames on Friday for a few days visit at the home of his sister, and at the college.

Gust Sanders went to Omaha on Saturday for an over Sunday visit together with his wife, who has been visiting there the past week.

A number of people from town and near by went to Denison in Tuesday to attend the Band Concert and spend the day at the county capital.

Rev. J. Soderstrom and family shipped their household effect to Lake Crystal, Minn., on Wednesday, they following on the noon passenger Thursday. Their intentions are to remain a short while, with possible view of locating in Washington. During their years stay they have made many friends who regret their removal from our town and who wishes them God's speed and guidance in their new field of labor.

Rev. Frank Levine and sister Hilda left on Thursday for Alta to remain over Sunday attending a quarterly conference of the Free Mission state society.

Samuel Newcom of near Ells was in town on Wednesday. He has rented his farm to the German who mysteriously disappeared some weeks ago. Mr. Newcom and wife intends to make their future home near Sloan.

Mrs. Oscar Wennstrand and Mrs. Ed Erickson of Sloan visited at their parental home, P. A. Lindsboogs north of town last week.

John Fhrum was seriously kicked by a horse on Wednesday afternoon which will lay him up to mend for some time.

P. S. Rose went to Lake Crystal, Minn., last week to visit friends and view the country.

OLD KIRON.

P. E. Nordell transacted business in Denison last Tuesday.

A number of our young people attended a party at C. A. Larson's on Monday night of last week, all report a good time.

E. J. Wangler was a visitor in our vicinity one evening last week.

Mrs. P. Buller spent a few days last week looking after matters in and around her old home and visiting old neighbors.

Amelia Michaelson, Lillian Engberg, Eric Larson, wife, Esther Peterson also Miss Larson were pleasantly entertained at the home of John Gustafson on Sunday afternoon.

C. A. Larson and wife returned last Friday from a pleasant visit with friends and relatives at Sioux City.

A snap for quick sale. 120 acre farm one mile from town good house, barn, double cribs, new hog house, 10 acres hog tight fence, worth $75.00 per acre, for quick sale $67.50. Wirte M. B. Nelson Arion, Iowa, for more particulars.

30-tf.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy
Cures Colds, Croup and Whooping Cough.

Charter Oak

O. G. Kemp and wife of Oto, and F. W. Kemp and wife of Manning, who have been visiting their parents, D. N. Kemp and wife left Tuesday morning for their respective homes.

Mrs. Claude Morgan came home to visit her parents, J. J. McWilliams and wife and to attend the wedding of her friend, Verna Weed.

Wilma Robb gave a watermelon party to her young friends last Saturday night. Those who enjoyed the feast were: Hazel McWilliams, Veronica Adams, Elsie Kortmann, Franchion Probaco, Laura Herbison, Hilda Hansen and May Rogers.

Rev. E. Robbins and wife returned from conference Monday night with the news that he was to be transferred to Holstein. His congregation much regret to see him go.

Anna Thomsen has gone to Council Bluffs to begin study as a nurse in the Edmundson Memorial hospital. Anna is a quiet, good girl and will make a capital nurse.

Maylou Richards left Thursday for a visit of a few days with relatives in Dubuque before beginning her school work. She will spend this year in St. Catherine's school at Davenport.

Mrs. D. Waterhouse, Mrs. D. Bornholdt and daughter, Mabel left Sunday night for Davenport. On their way they will be joined by Maylou Richards. Mrs. Waterhouse and Mrs. Bornholdt will see their daughters safely settled in school at St. Catherine's.

D. H. McWilliams went to Westington Springs, S. D. to look over the country last Tuesday.

Mrs. Geo. Deter was at home to her Rebekah friends last Friday afternoon. The guests of honor were, Mrs. John Beau and her mother, Mrs. Wright.

Ray Robbins came from his work at Morningside College to help his parents pack, preparatory to moving to their new charge at Holstein. He returned Saturday morning.

Mrs. D. N. Kemp and Mrs. J. O. Wilson entertained a company last Wednesday afternoon in honor of the seventy-fifth birthday of their mother, Mrs. A. P. Knight. The "old ladies" report a very pleasant time and a most delicious dinner. The invited guests were, Grandma Graves, Grandma Brown, Grandma Soper, and Mesdames Holmes Vanderveer, Davis, Drake, Neal, Robbins, Riedeel, Robb, Probasco and McGrath.

L. Romans and wife of Denison, Mr. Councilman and wife of LeMars came Wednesday to visit relatives and friends. They arrived just in time to attend the birthday party of Mrs. Knight who is an aunt of Mr. and Mrs. Romans.

W. J. Scriver of Denison was over on business Friday. He was accompanied by A. A. Hoepel of Wausau, Wis., an employee of the Stewart Lumber Company of that place.

Mrs. Frank Probasco and son Roy have been visiting this week in Sioux City and Salix. Roy is taking a vacation from his duties in the store.

Saturday afternoon Mrs. Chas. Robertson and Mrs. A. Fish at the home of the latter, entertained the Ladies' Foreign Missionary Society and a few other friends, complimentary to Mrs. John Beau and her mother, Mrs. Wright.

Rev. Zeilinger of the Lutheran church has accepted a call to a church in Ohio. He preached his last sermon Sunday. We are sorry to lose Mr. Zeilinger from our midst.

Last Thursday Mrs. Stark entertained the Social Circle of the Presbyterian church and a few other friends. The ladies spent a very pleasant afternoon.

John Beau left Monday morning for his new home at Laurens.

For Sale—A good 200 pound driving horse, buggy and harness for sale cheap. A. F. Larson. 40-1t.

The Buck Grove BUDGET

Mrs. Fannie Bonney

Department Editor.

Rev. Father Coffee of Manilla was a business caller here Monday.

John Finnigan returned from Omaha Monday afternoon, after placing his daughter Nora at the Sisters school for the coming year.

Crist Gloe and family visited friends in Denison Sunday last.

Dwight Hutchinson and Roy Slater attended the band concert at Denison Tuesday evening.

There were special services at the Catholic church Tuesday morning.

L. W. Hagan and Dr. Bonney were Arion visitors Tuesday. They relieved the hall building of a large swarm of bees, and secured a nice lot of honey.

Lulu Howorth of Arion visited with her friend, Mrs. James Boyfer Tuesday, returning to her school duties at Arion Wednesday morning.

George Bonesteel and family drove to the county seat Wednesday afternoon.

R. C. Kirkindall and wife are the happy parents of a ten pound girl, born Monday Sept. 16th.

Lute Peterson and wife are spending a few weeks with R. C. Kirkindall and family.

Dwight Hutchison left Sunday morning for the west. This is his vacation trip and he will be gone several weeks.

There will be a large Sunday school convention here next Sunday, Oct. 6th, instead of the thirteenth, as stated last week. Everybody, invited to attend.

Maude Noonan returned from a long stay with relatives in Colorado last week. She enjoyed it all right, but still thinks Iowa is all right.

Will Edwards and wife have returned after a weeks visit with relatives and friends in Page county.

Mrs. Pat Noonan left for Sioux City Thursday afternoon. She expects to be gone several weeks visiting at Pender, Nebr., and other points.

Mrs. Hillie Newman came up from Arion Wednesday, for an over night visit with her mother, Mrs. Geo. Carpenter.

Mrs. Nelda Smith and children of Denison visited a few days with her parents, James Tranter and wife at their beautiful home, two miles west of town.

Mrs. Stella Rudd and Mrs. Pearsal of Dow City were royally entertained by Mrs. Nate Hains at her comfortable country home last Thursday.

Bian Iseminger and family drove over to Aspinwall Saturday to visit Joe Miles and family. They returned home Monday.

Pearl Bonney took a trip to Omaha Saturday to visit the Aksarben. She returned Sunday evening, and reports a good time, but after the immense exhibition which she attended a year ago at St. Louis there is nothing of interest to her, but she enjoyed a visit with old time friends just the same.

Geo. Bonesteel has moved his barber shop into the Paulsen property, where he has more room and better facilities to take care of his trade.

James O'Meara has presented his wife with a beautiful cottage grand piano. Mrs. O'Meara says she will not raise any more chicks, flowers or garden, as she simply will not have time and will furnish her friends with lots of music.

Mr. Puleski has purchased an acre of ground from R. J. Moffitt consideration $350.00 for some land last week west of Geo. Dubois' property. We understand that the gentleman intends to build on said property at once.

Verne Moffitt and brother Roy were over Sunday visitors at home.

Nellie Welsh and sister Gladys went to Manilla Saturday for an over Sunday visit with their friend, Geraldine Perrion. They returned home Monday.

Fred Gigax has bought a place in North Dakota and will move there in the spring. Carl Iseminger has also made arrangements to make a move to the same place.

56,560 Acres U S Homestead farming and grazing land will be thrown open on the Lower Brule Reservation, a few miles from Pierre, S. D. the state capital, October 7th to 12th. Reached direct by the train service of the Chicago & North Western Ry. Registration at U. S. Land Office, Pierre, October 7th to 12th. Homeseeker's rates first and third Tuesday of each month. For folders, maps and particulars apply to any ticket agent of the North Western Line. 33-2t.

DeWitt's Witch Salvo
For Piles, Burns, Sores.

Boyer Ripplings.

Chas. Erne and daughter Dora went to Omaha Thursday. While there Mr. Erne bought two carloads of sheep, which he had shipped to Boyer.

John Kuellberg went to Kiron Saturday to attend to some business.

Mrs. Aug. Henkel left Saturday for Clinton and other points in Iowa to visit with numerous relatives and friends.

Mrs. Claus Minster went to Denison Tuesday to have an operation performed on her foot. Mrs. Minster has been ailing more or less for about a year and a half, nothing serious until late. The physicians thought it best to take her foot off. Mrs. Minster is getting along nicely at present writing.

Tillie Erne went to Denison Wednesday, returning Thursday.

Harry Brown received his new Keystone corn sheller last week. Harry is a hustler and will no doubt make good use of it this winter.

John Sykes and family left Tuesday last for DeWitt where he was called to the bedside of his brother-in-law, John Awles dying from lock jaw.

August Jensen and brother Geo. drove to Adam Bernhard to visit.

John Kooch and family spent Sunday with John Hanses in Ida county.

Henry Neville departed Saturday for an extended visit in eastern Iowa.

Hans Wulf, Ernest and Carl Kullberg were passengers from Denison Friday.

The mail route service is as follows: Route No. 1, beginning at the Boyer post office, the carrier will go thence northeasterly to corner west of rail road 1-1-4 miles, thence north to north line section 12, 3-4 miles thence west 1-3-8 northwesterly to county line 1-1-8, 2-1-2 miles, thence to C. A. Olson corner, 1-1-4 miles, thence south to bottom road near north-western railroad 4 miles.

Thence Southwesterly to north line section 33 1-5-8 miles, thence east to school southwest corner section 26, 23-4 miles, thence north to Ells school house 2 miles, thence west past Ells post office and across North Western railroad 3-4 miles, thence northwesterly to Boyer post office, Length of route 18 1-8 miles.

F. A. Smith transacted business in Denison Wednesday.

Fred Messenbrink is the proudest man in town, a bouncing boy arrived Sunday, and Fred says he has come to stay. So we congratulate.

Tillie Nordholm visited us a few hours Saturday morning, while on her way to Kiron.

PUBLIC SALE.

Upon the farm known as the R. A. Romans farm, 4 1/2 miles north of Denison, being 2 miles north of Pat Mead's corner, on Milford Township line; 1 1/2 miles due east of the McAhren school house; farm occupied by A. M. Justice commencing at 1 o'clock, p. m.

TUESDAY, OCT. 8.
20 Head of Cattle—Consisting of 11 coming 2 year old steers; one grade Durham Bull; 8 cows, 4 giving milk, 4 dry fat cows.

5 Head of Horses—Three good farm horses and two 2-year-old colts.
245 Hogs and Shoats—Consisting of about 90 spring shoats, 45 old hogs, 6 registered Duroc Jersey brood sows 15. Sows with pigs sucking, 90 spring pigs.

20 tons timothy hay in stack. 400 bushels "Big" Seed Oats.
Free lunch at noon.

Terms:—All sums of $10 and under, cash; on sums over that amount one years time will be given on approved security at eight per cent interest.

SARAH D. FORD
AMY JUSTICE.

W. J. McAHREN
J. W. SMITH, Auctioneers.
Geo. Richardson, Clerk. 40-1t.
Eat at the Oxford. 32-tf.

We Want Your Trade

and have spared no pains in securing the best values in merchandise to offer you. Our stock is clean and new and priced as cheap as good goods can be sold. You should come in and see the new fall goods

New Outings, Blankets, Fleeced goods

Underwear, Shoes Etc

Buy Early and Get Your Choice
We Want Your Produce. . . .

DYSON CALVIN & CO.

BUCK GROVE, IOWA.