

THE MANILLA REPUBLICAN

Established 1896.

Incorporated in Denison Review 1907.

W. Wehland was an Irwin caller on business last Friday.

Herman Hagedorn shipped a car load of cattle Monday.

John Roehr of Aspinwall was a Manilla visitor Monday.

B. H. Buffington has purchased a new Ivers and Pond piano.

J. C. Ruby departed Monday for a trip out through Nebraska.

The next Guild meeting is at the home of Mrs. Frank Smith.

Hilda Olson has returned and is now employed at the Park Hotel.

Alice Barber is spending the week in Omaha attending the Aksarben.

Claus Peper, who resides at Astor transacted business in Denison on Saturday.

Sadie Milligan has returned home from her vacation and starts to work again Tuesday.

B. H. Buffington brought Rev. Hansen over to West Side after the church services Sunday.

Al Ivery returned from Yuma, Colo., where he is located on a homestead to visit relatives here.

Mrs. C. A. Sykes departed Saturday evening for Dakota where she expects to visit with her son.

Daily Smith and wife of Dunlap spent Sunday with the former's brother, Ed. Smith and sister, Mrs. Pryor.

The Guild met at the home of Mrs. M. Stone last Friday. Maple mousee, angle food and devil cake and coca were served.

Francis DeWitt, John Gludstock and Miss McGalson visited with Mrs. Weaver. Friday between trains on their way to Denison.

Marie and Ellen Barrett went to Neola Saturday morning to go hazel-nutting picking with their cousins. They returned home Sunday.

John Harder returned to his home in Pleasant Valley, Friday after a pleasant visit at the home of his parents, Geo. Harder and wife.

Wm. Piper, wife and children of Pleasant Valley, came Sunday on a surprise to visit with the latter's parents, Geo. Harder and wife.

Joe and Millie Milligan drove over to Denison Sunday and returned home in the evening accompanied by Edna Romans who is visiting at the Al Milligan home.

Herman Roehr of Aspinwall was seen on our streets last Friday and Saturday.

There will be communion services at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning.

Mrs. Adam Wiese and children of Aspinwall and Mrs. Reinholdt of Manning visited last week at the home of Peter Hoffeins.

Owing to the absence of the pastor the great rally services planned at the Presbyterian church were postponed until next Sunday.

Mr. Ammerman and wife and granddaughter, Letta Wicks departed for Des Moines last week for an extended visit with friends and relatives.

Geo. Merdinger and wife and children of Buck Grove came Thursday to attend the funeral of her sister, Mrs. Henry Myers' child which was held last Friday.

Mrs. B. H. Buffington and Mattie Willis took Ethel Thompson over to Denison Sunday. They stopped over night at the home of Jerry Buffington north of town.

John Opperman and wife attended the funeral of Mr. Vinke at Manning last Monday. Mr. Vinke is a brother to John Vinke, who lives on a farm south of town.

Mrs. Hill of Wisconsin and Anna DeWitt of Dedham came Sunday to spend the day with the latter's aunt, Mrs. Ida Weaver. Mrs. Hill and Mrs. Weaver were playmates in childhood.

Claus Sieck, wife, Pete Hoffeins, wife, Hans Sieck and Alfred Miller all went to Ute Sunday morning to spend the day at the country home of Fred Miller and wife. The Miller family formerly resided here.

John Woods expects to move into the house vacated by Mrs. Wright this week, and Mrs. Johnson, who bought the Wood property is going to move into the same. Tom Woodyard is expected back from Yuma, Colo., to occupy his own residence.

Abert Gessman, youngest son of Mrs. Jacob Gessman who was quite seriously injured a short time ago was removed last Wednesday from the hospital to his home. Albert is on a speedy road to recovery, which is glad news to his large circle of friends.

Father Coffee was a Earling visitor Monday morning.

Arthur and Mary Thorpe spent Thursday in Omaha.

Chas. Dempster was a Denison visitor the first of the week.

Henry Jochimsen and Chas. Henderson were South Dakota visitors a few days last week.

Two united with the M. E. church last Sunday. There will be a League rally at this church on next Sunday.

Mrs. J. H. Graham returned home from Marshalltown Thursday, where she has been visiting relatives the past week.

E. Y. Turpin went to Omaha Saturday and returned in the evening, accompanied by his wife and baby, who has been visiting in Shenandoah at her parental home.

The Methodist Sunday school had a good rally day. There were some special exercises. The pastor gave a special talk to the old people who had been asked to be present.

Ed. Scriven and wife of Mitchell, Nebr., T. A. Gray and wife of Manning came down to spend the day with P. C. Gray and wife Tuesday. They celebrated Mr. Gray's 57th birthday.

There is a well authenticated report that the hardware and implement firm of Hocket & Jahn has sold out to men hailing from Austin, Minn. This was a popular firm and there is regret that the men will be out of business here.

Rev. Lacey our hard working Presbyterian pastor had a narrow escape from being killed one day last week. He was coming in from the country on a bicycle in the dark, when he was thrown violently upon his face. He received fearful bruises which have not healed. He could not occupy his pulpit on Sunday. Mr. Robinson the Sunday school man spoke in the morning in the church.

Our people were interested in the account of the wreck on the Milwaukee between Sioux Falls and Sioux City, because many of the train men were well known here. The same crew have been now in three wrecks together. This time the engine struck a cow and was derailed, as was every car but the sleeper. R. D. Rudolph the mail agent was hurt internally. His partner, R. B. Paine was also in the wreck.

Hugo Willey and wife moved into the R. D. Rudolph residence this week.

Maurice McNertney has moved into the M. Anmerman residence in the south part of town.

Johans Krohn returned home from his Dakota and Montana trip last Thursday evening.

Mina Edwards returned home from her visit with friends in Denison and Buck Grove the first of the week.

Mr. Arkins, a well known land man from Kansas, City Mo., was looking after business in town Friday.

Owing to the bad weather the ball which was to be given by the German Verein last Thursday was not very largely attended.

F. L. Van Slyke and wife drove over to Gallands Grove Wednesday to gather hazelnuts. They returned home in the evening.

Rev. Cable went to Council Bluffs the first of the week to help arrange a program for the next district conference which is to be held at Glenwood.

Alma Joens of Manning, who has been employed in the Park Hotel returned home the first of the week. The girl whose place she had been filling having returned.

Mrs. Gordon of near Armour, S. D. returned home Saturday after an extended visit with her parents, Mr. Vroman and wife, who lives north of town and other relatives.

The Epworth League of the M. E. church gave a reception last Friday evening to Rev. and Mrs. Cable in the Sunday school room. A very enjoyable time was had by all present.

Roy Ihrle, who has been working for John Naeve in Wagner, S. D. for the past year, came Tuesday morning for a few days visit at his parental home. Roy returned again to Dakota Friday morning.

The three months old child of Henry Meyer and wife died Wednesday evening. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Engelke of the Lutheran Trinity church, at the country home Friday afternoon, interment was made in the Nishnabotany cemetery. These people have the sincere sympathy of the community.

H. F. Steffen and wife mourn the loss of their two-year old daughter, Selma Luella who passed away last Tuesday after a few weeks of illness. Funeral was held in the Astor church Wednesday and interment made in the Astor cemetery. Rev. Cable conducted the services. Mr. Steffen and wife have the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community in their grief.

PRIZES FOR SAUNDERS.

The now famous Greeley Stock farm herd of short horn cattle, near Manilla had a showing at the big fair at St. Joe with the following results Prize-bred Class.

Second on two-year old steer, Geo. P.

First on Look Me Over, a yearling. Second on Look At Me, calf.

Sweepstakes, on Look Me Over, a steer.

Grade short-horn class.

First on Ike, a yearling class.

First on Arthur, a calf.

Grades and cross grades.

Third, on Arthur, in calf class.

Second on Ike, in a yearling class.

Grand Champion Over All Breeds and Ages, Look Me Over carried away the silver cup valued at $50 and made him king of the show. It has been accepted by Charles, jr.

Mrs. J. B. Gardner returned home from Des Moines last Tuesday evening where she had been visiting over Sunday with her daughter Grace, who is attending Drake University.

Mr. Henry Kellogg, a popular dining car conductor, who has been making his home here left Tuesday evening accompanied by his wife and daughter, Margaret for Chicago where they expect to make their future home.

C. A. Sykes has improved his store building property by fixing the vacant space on the east, so that it can be used for goods in addition to the store and installing a modern front in the whole building, which adds quite a bit to its appearance.

John Breckinridge sold his fine 160 acre farm last week for $125 per acre to L. L. Blinen of Panama, also James Ivery sold his farm just west of Astor to a man from Portsmouth, for $82.50 per acre. Both transactions were made by our popular real estate agents, Triplett and Hladik.

WHEN THE HEART IS AFFECTED. or the nucleus surrounding that organ by rheumatism, experimenting with sample treatment is like tampering with a live electric wire, for death may come at any moment. If life is worth it, do not hesitate to get the treatment which has stood the test for twenty years—Dr. Drummond's. Write to the Drummond Medicine Co., New York, and they will send you literature free, worth $5 to a rheumatic. It is not as quick as electricity, but will save your life if you act in time.

West Side

Dr. C. L. Patterson and wife attended the Moseed-Hickey wedding at Vail last Wednesday morning.

The entertainment given at the M. E. church last Thursday evening, by E. Janet Little was very good, but was poorly attended. Those who listened to Miss Little found her a very good impersonator and entertainer.

Dorothy Evers has been quite sick the past week, but is some improved at this writing.

At a meeting of the Ladies Industrial held Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. M. J. Hannah, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Pres. Mrs. C. A. Boock; Vice Pres. Mrs. M. J. Hannah; Sec'y. Mrs. M. S. Ewing, Treas. Mrs. C. L. Patterson.

Rev. Norman McCay got his household goods packed and left here Saturday for his new charge at Anthon, where he preached on Sunday.

Curt Eiffert visited his parents and friends in West Side last week.

Mrs. E. V. Hoyt who underwent an operation at Council Bluffs recently returned, to her home in West Side Sunday, feeling much improved, though still quite weak.

John Kruse, who is attending school at Ames, came home for a few days visit last week, he was accompanied by a friend, Mr. Wolf.

There was no preaching services at the M. E. church last Sunday as the newly appointed minister, Rev. E. M. Cathcart, formerly located at Glencoe, Minn., had not yet arrived. Jennie Hannah went to Denison Friday evening to visit over Sunday at the home of her aunt, Mrs. P. H. Detrick.

J. W. Dewitt and wife visited relatives near Deloit last week.

The business men held a meeting Monday evening to make arrangements for a lecture course. It was decided to secure three strong numbers. The first on the course to be given Oct. 11th, by Arthur McMurry.

Witt's Early Risers
The famous little pills

Are You Making Money?

We will give you big Cash Commissions and Valuable Prizes for each Subscription secured. None of the prizes are competitive. You can find out how you can do this by writing to the METROPOLITAN MAGAZINE for particulars concerning its great Subscription Campaign and the inducements which are being offered to Representatives. Equally interesting to old and young. Address THE METROPOLITAN MAGAZINE 3 West Twenty-ninth Street New York City is a blend of "Old Crop" Coffees combined with such skill and care that the full strength and richness—the delightfully aromatic flavor and bouquet are preserved from roaster to you intact. Buy a pound from your dealer and prove to yourself that OLD GOLDEN is the best coffee you ever had.

OLD GOLDEN COFFEE

25 cents a pound
TONE BROS.,
DES MOINES, IOWA.

Ricketts.

John C. Rabe was hurt in a runaway Wednesday evening. He was going to a party at J. Christensen when his horses became frightened at some cattle in the road throwing him from the buggy and dislocating his shoulder.

Clare Wendt and Lizzie Baak were Charter Oak callers Monday evening.

Mrs. John Dorflar is entertaining her mother, Mrs. Meyer of Lake View this week.

Mrs. L. F. Kreyburg and Mrs. L. M. Ryman were at Charter Oak Thursday.

Bennie Petersen had his face severely bruised Wednesday, while doing some draying for the cement men, he fell under the wagon, one of the wheels passing over his face.

Peter Hintze left Friday for Davenport, where he expects to move his family if everything suits.

Hugh Miller has accepted a position in Toy's Bank at Storm Lake and P. C. Claussen will fill the vacancy here.

Mrs. John Nemtz is visiting a few days with relatives in Sac county this week.

Mrs. A. F. Baak spent Wednesday and Thursday with her cousin near Mapleton.

Carol Lindblad Sundayed at her home near Kiron this week.

Mrs. Schutt of Nebraska is here visiting her cousin, Mr. Adolph Roseburg.

A dance was held at the Carl Happ home northwest of town Saturday evening with a large attendance.

H. R. Timm, Anna Vollerson and Freda Voss drove to Denison Sunday morning. Mrs. Emma Gary and Mrs. H. R. Timm returned with them in the evening.

Peter Claussen was up from Soldier to spend the day with his parents north of town.

Birthdays were celebrated at A. F. Baak's here in town and at Jens Claussen's and Adolph Stier's home a few miles north and east on Sunday.

W. S. MOORE,
LAWYER
PRACTICE IN FEDERAL AND STATE COURTS
MANILLA, IOWA.

We Accomodate

All Classes of People.

Many persons keep their money here as a permanent investment. We pay four per cent interest on time deposits.

Others deposit whatever cash they have and pay all bills by check—the only safe and convenient way.

Still others keep their surplus funds here, until they can find investment.

As lenders, we stand ready to aid any one who is building up a legitimate business.

First National Bank of Manilla, Iowa.

Dress Goods Announcement....

60 brand new patterns in dress goods now on display. All the most popular shades in the newest weaves and most Up-to-Date patterns—Here are a few of them:

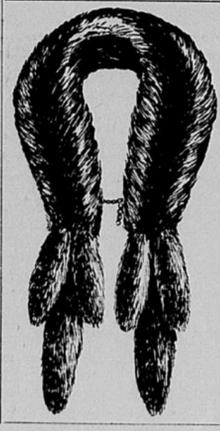

Brilliantine, up to, yd.	1.50	Lebanan Suitings, 56 in. wide, yd.	50c
San Toy, per yd.	1.50	The greatest value for the money ever sold, a good warmer waterproof suiting that can't be beat for wear—is worth every cent of 75c. Every piece is brand new and our price is, yd.	50c
Melrose, per yd.	1.00, 1.50	Black Voiles, up to, yd.	$1.25
Silkine Mohair, per yd.	1.00	Taffeta Velour, per yd.	1.00
Shadow Plaid Suitings, per yd.	1.25, 1.50
Wool Panama, per yd.	50c
Belfast Serges, per yd.	35c

The enormous amount of dress patterns sold by us during the past season warrants us in this unusually large purchase of dress goods. Our already complete stock being now reinforced by this big new lot, gives you such a large number of patterns to select from, that the most exacting will now be able to find just the right thing. Be sure to look over this line the next time you visit our store.

Swell Line of Furs

New Line of Ladies and Children's Scarfs and Furs. Prices.

85c to $13.50.

Manilla, Kehr's Department Store Sells Everything Iowa