

Fine Days

these, for photography. Better have those photos made today at x x x

Laub Block

Ferguson's Studio

Eat at the Oxford. 32-11. Standard patterns at the Racket store.

Mr. P. W. Weberg is off again for Dakota.

Mrs. McMahon spent Sunday in Dunlap.

Special Rain Coat sale this Saturday at The Boy's.

Geo. Menagh made Onawa a business visit on Friday.

Dr. Simpson was called to Dunlap and Woodbine on Monday last.

Hon. Thos. Rae of Arion was a county seat visitor last week.

Coal hods, and other cold weather necessities cheap at the Racket store.

Mrs. Roy and Mrs. Spence of Dow City were Saturday visitors in Denison.

Mrs. R. A. Romans will entertain the Coffee Club on Thursday afternoon.

Special. Extra heavy husking mittens. $1.00 a dozen. Balle-Brodersen Co.

John Kelly is making extensive improvements to his home in west Denison.

The rustling clothing man, Charles Kemming was over at Charter Oak on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Claus Pahl of Schleswig were welcome Denison visitors Saturday.

Over eleven hundred pieces of sheet music at 10 cents per copy at the Racket store.

Mrs. Gaylord Weeks returned this week to spend the winter with her husband in Texas.

Mrs. A. D. Malony returned this week from a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Phelan in Omaha.

Mrs. Harry Carpenter acted as substitute teacher last week in the absence of Miss Marshall.

Mrs. Dubert, the trained nurse who has been caring for Mrs. S. S. Wilkinson returned to her home in Omaha last week.

Miss Maragret Stattler is expecting a visit this week from her friend, Miss Thompson, librarian at Nevada, Iowa.

Mrs. Pat Heffernan of Doland, S. D. arrived in Denison Monday evening for a few weeks visit with her many friends and relatives.

Mr. W. W. Ferguson is enjoying a visit from his father, of Clinton and Mrs. Ferguson is also entertaining her mother, Mrs. Mudgett.

Fred Lang a former Denison boy is now day operator at St. John, N. D. Mr. Lang has many friends here who will be pleased to learn of his prosperity.

Mr. E. Fink is very ill with a serious bladder complaint. His many friends are quite anxious about him. Mr. Fink is one of our highly respected pioneers and all hope for his recovery.

Rev. Curtis the Methodist pastor at Dow City was to be seen at the county seat on Monday. He returned home with a fine new buggy and his horse in a strong shining harness. His people in the country can now expect calls quite regularly from him.

Special Rain Coat sale this Saturday at The Boys.

Two good low wagons for sale cheap, inquire at this office.

Miss Anna Harding spent a portion of last week in Council Bluffs.

The Friday Club banquet is to be the social event of next week.

A fine new assortment of Japanese China just in at the Racket store.

Mr. and Mrs. Strahan left on Saturday for a visit in Cedar Rapids.

Miss Marion and Miss Clara Scriver spent a portion of last week in Omaha.

It is fur buying time now. Ladies' neck furs and coats at correct prices. The Balle-Brodersen Co.

Dr. J. K. Sewell was home for the wedding, returning to Omaha on Friday.

Miss Mame Rudd of Sioux City is the guest of her sister, Mrs. B. G. Lyman.

Mrs. Earl Bleakney has been again called to Glenwood by the illness of her mother.

Mrs. Faye Mann left on Monday for a brief visit with her parents at Hastings, Nebr.

A few thousand more new post cards arrived this week at the Racket store, 1 cent each.

Miss Myrtle McAhren who is teaching in the Charter Oak schools spent Sunday at home.

Mrs. Sears McHenry and daughter Margaret were Council Bluffs and Omaha visitors on Monday.

Mrs. Carl F. Kuehnle and Mrs. W. T. Perkins will spend the week-end in Council Bluffs and Omaha.

Special, Monarch smoked salomon in cans, delicious, palatable 15 cents a can. The Balle-Brodersen Co.

P. W. Sullivan is enjoying a visit this week from his mother and his brother and sister, of Iowa City.

Mrs. Georgia Wade McClellan is in Council Bluffs this week attending a convention of the W. C. T. U.

Miss Grace Meyers left on Tuesday to attend the librarian's convention at Council Bluffs and Omaha. The librarians of Iowa and Nebraska will attend and an excellent program has been provided.

Special Rain Coat sale this Saturday, at The Boys.

For Sale—Thoroughbred Duroc Jersey Boars, eligible for service. Animals can be seen at Andy Bowling's, east of Washington park. 41-2t.

Eat at the Oxford. 32-11. Ed. Measenbrink was a business visitor in Omaha last week.

Mrs. Thos. Ratchford of Vail was a Monday visitor in Denison.

F. O. Ivens has moved into the Van Tuil house in the 2nd ward.

W. A. Lamborn was taking the sights of Ak-Sar-Ben on Thursday.

Dr. Burrows of Kiron was to be seen at the county seat on Tuesday.

W. W. Ferguson suffered from a severe attack of bronchitis last week.

Mrs. Ben Talcott of Dow City spent Saturday with Denison friends.

Miss Blanche Stephens returned last week from a delightful visit in Chicago and Nevada, Iowa.

We are pleased to note that Mrs. E. H. Wood is recovering from a severe attack of bronchitis.

Mrs. Edgar Garrison of Logan spent a portion of last week with her sister, Mrs. J. H. Gable.

Miss Anna Crutmn of Earlham, Iowa is in Denison this week visiting her cousin, Mrs. Bert Lyman.

Mrs. A. C. Weeks left on Saturday morning for a visit with her son Luke, at Springfield, Mo.

The Current Event Club will meet tomorrow and will have the Standard Oil Co., as subject matter.

The Misses Nell and Delia McGrin and Miss Rose Clark were Omaha visitors the latter part of last week.

For Rent—120 acres, also 60 acres corn fodder for sale.

41-1t. Mrs. G. Schafer.

Miss Lou Chapin returned on Thursday to her home at Sibley, Iowa after a pleasant visit with Mrs. Fred Marshall.

Mrs. Barkley, one of the prominent club women of Boone will be the guest of Mrs. R. A. Romans, the latter part of the week.

Miss Lizzie McGuire spent Sunday with her parents in Denison. Miss McGuire has a fine position as stenographer in Manning.

Mrs. F. C. Curtis and her sister, Miss Della Fox of Dunlap were among the out of town guests at the McConnaughey-Sewell wedding.

Mrs. C. C. Tabor and Mrs. W. H. Littell returned on Sunday to their home at Independence after a greatly appreciated visit with Denison relatives.

Mrs. A. Oswald of Aibia, Iowa, is a welcome guest of Mrs. C. C. Kemming. Her old time Denison friends are pleased to welcome her back to Denison.

Rev. L. K. Billingsly, representative of Des Moines Methodist Hospital, will occupy the pulpit in the M. E. church next Sunday, in the absence of the pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Russell of Carroll made Denison folks a visit Friday. They are doing finely in their Carroll home, but they are far from forgetting their Denison friends.

The directors of the Northwestern went through on their annual tour of inspection this week. Such a house cleaning as there was all along the line last week you never did see.

Rev. T. E. Thureson left Monday on a business trip to Buffalo and other points in New York. He will also spend a little time at his old conference which will be in session in Buffalo.

The marriage of Miss Kate Servoss of this place and Mr. Dave Riley of Vail was announced at the Catholic church Sunday, the wedding to take place Tuesday morning October 15th. Friends of this popular young couple offer congratulations.

A nice new line of ladies back and side combs at the Racket store.

You Need a Good Watch

Before you begin husking corn; don't you? Well, you had better look over our line before you buy. IT WILL PAY YOU x x

E. C. CHAMBERLIN,

THE JEWELER AND OPTICIAN.

Commercial Club Friday night.

Fine fresh oysters this week at the Broadway Grocery.

Special Rain Coat Sale this Saturday, at The Boys.

You will save time if you mail your telegrams direct.

There will be preaching at the Presbyterian church on next Sunday.

Snow in May and Mosquitos in October. Whither are we drifting?

Mr. John Way of Charter Oak was a welcome Denison visitor on Tuesday.

No new cases of diptheria are reported for which we may well be thankful.

There was a council meeting on Monday evening at which many bills were allowed.

Special soap sale. Good quality laundry soap 10 bars for 25 cents. Balle-Brodersen Co.

Continuous Vaudeville at Court House all this week—Only it is no joke for principals.

Mr. Schneckloth is taking advantage of the sewer being laid near him and has connected his fine house with the main.

Mrs. Searl of Denison is teaching the Coon Grove school and has nearly forty pupils. She drives out from town each morning.

Watch our window from now on. We will show you some good Christmas goods. Something new every week, call in and make your selection early. Salomon's.

Eugene Wiggins, the capable assistant cashier of the Dow City bank was in town Monday morning. He drove up his speedy nag with which he won the race at Arion last month.

Lecture Thursday night—Free.

Jas. Spence, wife and son of De-lot were county seat callers last week.

Mrs. C. F. Cassaday visited her brother, Mr. Frank McHenry of Dow City one day last week.

Carl F. Kuehnle and O. W. Wheeler have their pictures in the Fort Dodge papers this week, along with the other prominent Redmen of the state.

John Mordhorst and H. P. Kemmes, two of the substantial farmers of near Charter Oak were in Denison on Tuesday looking after some land near town which they may purchase.

Miss Ella Harding is back from the Hills country of South Dakota, looking as pretty as a peach and declaring that there is no place like the West. Nevertheless she seems glad to get back to civilization and will spend the winter here. She reports her parents as well pleased with their new home.

Mrs. A. G. Martyn was a welcome Denison guest today. She is on her way to Sac City to represent her district at a Presbyterian convention, and could not resist the temptation to visit old Denison friends. Mrs. Martyn has apparently gained in health since leaving Denison and she reports that Rev. Martyn has a most agreeable charge and that they are enjoying life in their new home at Farley, Iowa.

Special Rain Coat sale this Saturday at The Boys.

John Pencker one of the well known farmers of Hayes was in Denison on Tuesday.

Mr. T. J. Kelly went down on Tuesday to look after the Clarinda end of his shoe business.

There is a new cement crossing going in from the Johnson book store corner to the Zeitung office.

Mr. Gregg the picture man will close his gallery for three weeks and take a trip out further west.

Mrs. Charles Kemming is entertaining this week her friends, Mrs. A. Oswald of Aibia and Mrs. Anna Sandahl of Centerville.

Among those to attend the W. C. T. U. at Council Bluffs from here are, the Mesdames Merrill, Elmer Brown, A. J. Bond Florence Hope and Jom. Pearson.

On Thursday evening of this week comes the lecture on Christian Science by Wm. P. McKenize at the opera house. The admission is free and many plan to attend.

The foot ball game between the high school teams of Denison and Wall Lake which took place here Saturday, resulted in favor of the home boys by a score of 15 to 0. The referee was Mr. Norman Curtis of Dow City an old player and well posted on the game. There is talk of having him for future games.

Wanted—Dressmaking. We will go to the house by the day or take sewing to residence of Mrs. C. Schelm. Phone, Nos. 343 and 18A. Misses Peterson and Plough.

FREE!

$5.00 in Gold

Every month to the person bringing in printed cash register receipts representing the largest amount of cash purchase in our store during the month of issue. We have added a new national cash register and with every cash purchase you will receive a receipt issued by this machine showing the amount of the purchase.

Boys and Girls get busy, some one will surely get that $5.00 gold piece in our window Nov. 1st.

Lamborn Drug Co.

Main Street Denison, Iowa.

BLOOD!

on your hands can be easily avoided and cured when caused by corn husking in using

SCHLUMBERGER'S Corn - Huskers Lotion

which has had a reputation for 25 years For sale at Schlumberger's Pharmacy.

The Balle-Brodersen Co. DENISON, IOWA. The Home of the Popular Priced Musing Underwear.

Style Supreme

The average woman recognizes style when she sees it, but as regards materials and workmanship, she finds her greatest safeguard in buying garments made of standard materials and tailored by skilled craftsmen—such garments as emanate from the celebrated Workshop of Worth. Our experience with Worth Styles has been most delightful, and we cordially recommend them to the most discriminating dressers in Crawford county.

With each garment of this make goes a double guarantee—the reliability of this store and the reputation of the celebrated Workshop of Worth. The prices that we ask are no higher than you must pay for garments that do not compare with Worth styles. We have an especially strong showing of charming cloaks at $10.50

Blankets

It's blanket buying time. It is the time of all times for boarding houses, hotels and families to get their winter supply for cotton and wool are advancing in price. Already the maker's prices are not far from the prices quoted below and the end is not in sight. And the blankets! Every blanket in this store is at least the full weight marked on the ticket. Most of them are substantially heavier. Every blanket in this store has its size plainly marked. It may measure a little more but never less. Moreover, if we sell a blanket for "all wool" it is all wool, without any mixture of cotton or other adulterant. It is not so in a majority of stores.

Cotton Blankets, 50, 75, 85c, $1. and up to $2.50 each
 Union Blankets, Wool and Cotton mixed $2.25 to $3.00
 All Wool Blankets, Colors— Red, Gray, Tan and Fancy
 Plaids at $3.75 to $11.00 each.