The Buck Grove BUDGET

Mrs. Fannie Bonney
Department Editor.

Ladies and Misses cloaks all the latest styles at Dyson Calvin & Co. Sell your potatoes to Dyson Calvin & Co. Highest market price paid. Dwight Hutchinson has returned from his vacation trip to Pierre, S. D. and other points. He intended to visit the Black Hills but was needed at home and so had to cut his trip short. James Tranter and wife were Omaha visitors for a few days last week. Howard Towne has returned from an extended trip to North Dakota and Wyoming. Howard sold his land out in Wyoming for a goodly sum it having tripled in value since he bought it five years ago. He has bought land in North Dakota and will move there with his family in the spring. John Green and wife spent Sunday with Mrs. Green's parents at Arion. There was a regular family reunion in honor of Mrs. Cruse's brother who is visiting her. Jake Kepford and wife visited at Omaha last week. Mrs. Dr. Gardner of Manilla visited with her friend, Mrs. Bonney Tuesday. Father Coffee of Manilla was a guest of John Faulkner one day last week. Mr. Mormon and wife of Nebraska are guests of their daughter, Mrs. Ben Quathamer. The latter's little sister is also with them. Bernard Smetherst of Manilla was a business visitor here Wednesday morning between trains. Dwight Hutchinson and Lizzie Sewing drove to Manilla to the entertainment there last Thursday evening. Lizzie Slattery of Manilla visited at her home from Wednesday morning until Thursday. Mrs. John Griffin has been quite sick for a few days, but is better at this writing. Eury Kepford and Elmer Polzien went to Astor Saturday to attend a birthday party given their cousin, Minda Tillett in honor of her sixteenth birthday. There were twenty-four young people present for the evening. Dainty refreshments were served and a good time had by all present. Minda is well known here and all hope that she will spend many more such happy days. Leo, O'Meara is quite sick having a severe cold, which borders on pneumonia, it is hoped that it will not develop into that dread disease.

Roy Slater and Hattie Sewing attended the play in Manilla Thursday night. Bernice Bonney returned home Saturday, having finished her fall term of school. Bernice is one of the fortunate teachers to have a school in Morgan township, where they pay the highest wages in Crawford county, she has a contract for a year and will return after a month's vacation. John Hoffert and family were hospitably entertained at the home of John Dieber last Sunday. Mr. Mise and wife of Hornick came Friday for a few days visit with James Boyer and family. Their little girl was taken very ill with spasms Saturday afternoon and they were afraid they would have to shorten their visit, but the little one was better Sunday. Ernest Stegeman and wife were business visitors at Manilla last week. Irene Stul of Manilla was a visitor at the Paulsen home Sunday last. John Tranter has rented the Town farm and will move on it in the spring. James Boyer is enjoying a visit from his sister and family, who have just returned from California. They moved to that state in the spring on account of their daughter's health, but the climate did not prove beneficial, so they were glad to get back to Iowa. Mrs. Cal. Carpenter and son, after a five weeks visit with her parents in Keosauqua returned home Friday. Cal has lost that lonely look he has been wearing lately. John and Elias O'Meara were Buck Grove callers Sunday. Bernard and Tommy Finnigan returned Friday from a week's visit in Omaha, they report a fine time in the city. Mollie Griffin is the proud possessor of a new Kimball Upright piano which arrived last Friday. A number of young ladies from out of town were entertained at dinner at the pleasant home of John Kepford on Sunday last. The fortunate ones were as follows: Gladys Crakes, Caroline McCracken, Clara Morgan, Effie Sows, Dora Schroeder, and Minda Tillett. All enjoyed themselves. Mrs. Fred Meyer and children, after a two weeks visit with her parents, returned to their home in Chicago Monday.

THE MOOREHEAD SALOON.

Report That Its License Has Been Revoked.

We commended last week on an act of a bar-keeper at Moorehead in assaulting Mr. McElwain the editor of the place, for something he had said as to the conduct of the saloon there. The report now comes that the council has revoked the license of the saloon where the assailant tended bar, thus putting it out of business. This was the proper thing to do. We said last week that the fighting had but just begun with the attack on Editor McElwain and it seems we were right.

Goodrich

Alfred Clausen lost a valuable horse, on returning home from Denison up the east side of the river near Newton's, last week. Sam Anderson, wife and son and Steve Newton and wife spent Sunday at Albert Winey's. Messrs McHenry and Phillips with their wives drove over east of the grove Sunday. Fred Bauman and wife drove down to Denison to see her mother, who is quite ill again. Herman Grill was a Deloit visitor Monday. Rev. Bruce and wife spent Tuesday at the homes of Newton and Dunbar visiting. L. F. Morris and daughter drove over to Marvin Woolsoncroft's near Vail to visit on Monday. Mrs. Hannibal Fink is down to Denison helping care for Hannibal's father, who is reported as very ill. Mrs. Alma Prentice spent a few days at U. S. Dunbar's and also did some canvassing in that neighborhood. Mrs. Sam Anderson and son James visited with her friend, Mrs. Lilly Newton Thursday. Carey Phillips sold a fine stack of wild hay at a good price this week. Mrs. White of Ringgold county and Mrs. Chas. Campbell and babe spent Thursday at Lit Dunbar's. L. F. Morris received a card this week from his son-in-law Rev. W. C. Lee, that they would be the coming year at St. Peters, Minn., their many friends will be interested to know where they are located for next year. The Winey brothers and their sister, Mrs. Anderson were down to Denison Thursday as their father expected to be operated on, but it was delayed until later. Mrs. A. D. Winey and children spent Thursday under the parental roof. Maurice Winans had one of his fine horses cut by a scraper while working. Claus Dethman was in Deloit Friday for coal to thresh with Monday.

THE KIRON REVIEW.

E. E. CLAUSON, Department Editor.

NOTE—Mr. Clauson is empowered to receipt for subscriptions or to receive advertisements to be inserted in this column.

Popcorn picking in this locality will begin next week. The acreage is the largest ever planted in this locality and the yield and quality promises to be fair. Lillian Larson and Amelia Michaelson visited friends at Denison the latter part of the week, returning home on Friday afternoon. B. N. Benson returned on Friday afternoon from a few days stay in Odebolt, doing some carpenter work. The residence of P. B. Olson on Prairie street occupied by John Cedergrin is having a new dress of paint put on by painter Emil Mauritz. Mabel Larson of Odebolt, who is teaching the school three miles east of Kiron, visited at the home of Mrs. C. G. Carlson over Sunday. Mrs. Herman Erickson and daughter, Lena bade farewell to Kiron where their home has been so many years, and to the people here whom they have associated with for so long a time, and left on Monday for their new home in Vermillion, S. D. Quite a number was at the depot to say goodbye and wish them contentment in their new home. Ellen Larson came home from Odebolt Thursday and left on Friday for Dyton where she will visit friends. F. L. Johnson went to South Dakota on Friday, where he will visit several places holding religious meetings for some time. A reception was held on Tuesday night, last week by the Baptist church for their new pastor, Rev. A. Lagerquist and family who recently arrived from Kansas. An address of welcome on behalf of the church was given by I. Michaelson. Rev. O. Lindholm pastor of the Baptist church in Ida county welcomed the new pastor to the locality also Florence Johnson in a short speech bid him welcome, to the various branches of the Baptist work. Rev. F. Lavine of the Free Mission church and Rev. J. A. Christianson of the Lutheran church and the Mayor, G. A. Norelius upon request in short speech extended a welcome to the town and locality. At the close a sum of money was presented Rev. Lagerquist. Chris Nissen, while assisting to load a large water tank at Boyer on Wednesday had three fingers badly mashed on his left hand by the tank dropping on his hand. He came to Kiron as fast as a team could carry him to have his hand dressed. Victoria and Dewey Erickson drove down from Odebolt on Sunday afternoon to visit with friends. Rev. A. Discher of Wall Lake transacted business in Kiron on Wednesday and visited friends in the near vicinity. The horse and cattle sale drew a large number to Kiron Saturday afternoon. The cattle sold at good prices while the horses did not bring what they were worth. Chas. Sundeen of Boone was a very pleasant visitor at the Mrs. C. G. Carlson home west of Kiron between Saturday and Monday mornings. Station agent McLenihan moved his family this week into the pleasant home recently vacated by Mrs. Herman Erickson. At the recent annual meeting of the Kiron Mutual Insurance Co., held at Kiron. W. J. Sandberg was elected treasurer to succeed Sol Peterson. Mr. Peterson has most ably held this responsible office for over twenty-five years and the work in discharge of the duties of the same has been both large and particular, but Mr. Peterson has always performed the same accurately and satisfactorily. Getting along in years he decided to free himself from the load of responsibility and work and would not accept the treasurership any longer. The newly elected is efficiently qualified for the office and the association funds will be safe in his hands. H. F. Schlotfeldt died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John Carsten in Hayes township last Thursday night of pneumonia after a very short illness. Mr. Schlotfeldt was the father of our former townsman Gust, who died in Kiron some three years ago, and will be remembered by many by the frequent visits he made his son while he was living. Joseph Menges and wife left on Monday for Roxborough, Washington, 150 miles from Spokane where their future home will be, and where Joe will assume the management of a large lumber yard. This affable couple has a very large circle of friends who hate to bid them good-bye and who will deeply miss them. Kiron's loss will be Washington's gain. The Review will follow them into their new home and will bring its weekly news to them of Kiron's and Crawford's doings. Our enterprising merchant G. A. Norelius built a pop corn crib south of the railroad track last week and will speculate in that cereal. Farmers will now find a market for their pop corn in Kiron instead of hauling it to town north as heretofore. James Burrell and wife ended their pleasant visit in Kiron on Wednesday and returned to their home in Hawkeye. On their annual trips to our town in the past to visit their daughter and son-in-law, F. A. Burrows, they have formed the acquaintance of a number of Kironites who are always pleased to meet them. Lillian Engberg left on Wednesday for Lyons, Nebr., to spend a few weeks visiting at the home of her sister.

Quinsy, Sprains and Swellings Cured.

"In November 1901, I caught cold and had the quinsy. My throat was swollen so I could hardly breathe. I applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and it gave me relief in a short time. In two days I was all right," says Mrs. L. Cousins, Otterburn, Mich. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is a liniment and is especially valuable for sprains and swellings. For sale by L. E. Blosser, Broadway Druggist. 40-5

Boyer Rippings.

Mrs. Longe Sherwood and children spent Friday and Saturday in Denison. Little Harla is now owner of a new tricycle. Edna Winans came down Monday on her usual trip to meet her class which she instructs in music. Jim Lestrangle and wife made a flying trip to Denison Sunday evening. Mrs. Claus Minster returned to her home from Denison last Monday. Mrs. Minster is feeling fine considering circumstances. Messrs. Aug. Henkel and Harvey Neville are again home from their extended trip in eastern Iowa, returning Saturday. Pete Hendrickson of Denison visited in and around Boyer last Monday. Mrs. Henry Neuman and Frena Frahm arrived Monday from Omaha to attend the Neuman and Gronau wedding. Mr. Mathson and wife were passengers for Schleswig Friday, to consult a physician about Mrs. Mathson's hand which has caused her much pain. The friends of Mrs. Chris Nissen are sorry to know that he met with a misfortune last Wednesday by having one of his fingers partly crushed, and the other finger hurt also, while lifting a water tank.

The marriage of Louie Gronau and Anna Neuman was solemnized at the German Lutheran church last Tuesday afternoon, at 3 p. m. Rev. Otto Richter officiated. The bride was attended by her two sisters, Augusta and Minnie, and the groom's best men were his brother Fred, and Gustav Neuman, cousin of the bride. The bride looked very pretty attired in her white satin gown and veil. The groom wore conventional black. After the ceremony the wedding party repaired to the home of the bride's parents, John Neuman's, northwest of Boyer where many relatives and friends had been invited. The house was nicely decorated for the occasion, a large bowery was also made for the young people where they enjoyed themselves. Mr. and Mrs. Gronau have been raised and reared in our community and are well known as to their high character and ability. We congratulate the young couple and are glad to know they will reside in our neighborhood at present living on the old Gronau homestead. Many valuable and useful presents were received. The out of town guests were, J. D. Neuman, Mrs. Henry Neuman and Frena Frahm, of Omaha, Mrs. Schmadke, Dora and Freda, Fred Neuman and wife, Gust Neuman, Mr. Burmaster and wife Henry Otto and wife, all of Denison. Andrew Hadenfelt and family, John Frahm and family of Ricketts, Martin Fischer and wife of Ricketts, Mrs. Eckert and children of Charter Oak.
