

Fine Days

these, for photography. Better have those photos made today at

Laub Block

Ferguson's Studio

A lot of new Books just in at Johnsons.

Fresh Cut Flowers always on hand at Barcher Bros. Furniture Store.

Mrs. P. W. Harding was a Council Bluffs visitor last week.

Husking gloves, pins, wrist protectors etc., at the Racket store.

J. H. Mahoney and wife were Omaha visitors one day last week.

Mr. Fred Morse and wife were visiting his parents at Woodbine last week.

Mr. Atkins of Kansas City was here looking after his land interests last week.

Surely a rare treat, "A Trip To The Jungle" at the Opera house Saturday night.

C. E. Lyman and wife went down to the Bluffs on Saturday for a visit with his mother.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kelly went down to Carroll Friday to visit their son, Joe and family.

Among those from here who were attracted to Pierre looking up land were: A. F. Boylan, Lon Randall and W. J. Welch.

Mrs. Lizzie Patterson and three children of Onawa have been welcome visitors at the home of her parents, W. R. Temple and wife.

Prof. Kies of Dow City was up on Friday to attend court and see the foot ball game. He is one of the wideawake educators of our county.

Mr. Green McAhren has been at West Side for some days doing a job of moving. He is a reliable man and so has plenty of work to do, laying walks and moving buildings.

Mr. E. J. Lewin and family have moved from the C. D. Miller farm in East Boyer to the Thos. Maxwell place in section 36 Milford. The new location is on the direct road from here to Vail.

Townsend Pearson was in Denison over Sunday. He is a member of the Des Moines college foot ball team and had been down to Omaha with his boys. He was accompanied home by a friend. They were off on Monday morning for the college again.

Mrs. Peter Hallowell of Dow City and daughter were in Denison on Saturday. They called at this office to see that the Review was sent to Miss Ada at Sugar City, Idaho, knowing that by this means she would be able to keep posted of doings at Dow City and Denison.

Rockwell City Republican—Mrs. Gulick and daughter, Miss Ethel, and Mrs. L. F. Martin, all of Denison, arrived in Rockwell City Wednesday evening and are guests at the home of Mrs. A. F. Dean, who is a niece of Mrs. Gulick. Mrs. Martin will sing at the Methodist church dedication services next Sunday.

Judge Powers gave an instruction to the Hassan jury that the sanitary condition of the jail should not be considered as having anything to do with the guilt or innocence of the defendants. However, if the jail is as bad as painted by the lawyers for the prisoners, the grand jury and the supervisors should be doing their duty. The people of the county expect a healthy jail and those in authority should see that it is so.

Foot Ball Saturday.

Miss Mamie Bell of Dow City visited Miss Junia Romans last week.

The Misses Gladys Tucker and Alice Detrick were Sunday visitors with friends in Deloit.

Bibles. We just have a new line that we can sell at jobbers prices. A rare bargain at Johnsons.

Miss Susie Carver of Carroll attended the Conroy-Houlihan wedding in Denison Tuesday morning.

If you enjoy anything in the way of a musical satire, take in McCabe's Troubadours at the Opera house Saturday night.

A new and complete line of fancy work, including pillow tops, dresser scarfs, center pieces etc., at the Racket store.

Miss Ada Bolten of Dexter, Iowa, is spending this week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bolten in Denison.

Miss Lydia Belle Kuehnle spent Saturday and Sunday visiting with the Miss Simms at Council Bluffs returning Sunday night.

You will surely get something for nothing, if you get the fine $25.00 Elwell Kitchen Cabinet Barcher Bros. are going to give away. See Cabinet in their window.

Denison people can now resume the even tenor of their ways. But, with the murder trial over and no campaign coming on, what on earth shall we talk about?

There will be a fierce foot ball game at Denison next Friday when the team from Missouri Vally comes up to wipe out its defeat of two weeks ago. But our High school boys are ready.

In the eighties Harper's Weekly was so good and pure and holy that it could not support James G. Blaine for president, now it is the sole defender of the Standard Oil Co. There is no change in the course Harper's Weekly has pursued, no inconsistency, it has been a hypocrite all the time.

Prof. E. W. Fellows and Prof. Jacob Johnson leave the latter part of next week for Sioux City to attend the meeting of the Northwestern teachers association. Prof. Johnson will read a paper before the Manual Training round table on "Things to be Considered in Planning Manual Training work for the Grades."

For Sale—Thoroughbred Duroc Jersey Boars, eligible for service. Animals can be seen at Andy Bowling's, east of Washingtong park. 41-2t.

Save Your Money
By Buying Your
Hair Brushes,
Tooth Brushes,
Rubber Goods,
Combs,
Soaps Etc., at
Schlumberger's
Pharmacy.

Eat at the Oxford. 32-tf.

Fastje for fine furniture. Call at shop and see for yourself. 42-tf.

November standard patterns now in, also the new Designers, at the Racket store.

Mesdames Brannon, Carpenter and McConaughy were elected members of the Coffee club.

Mrs. Mattie Miles Jones is expected in Denison this week. She will remain here for the winter.

John Peper returned on Sunday from a visit with his friend, Hans C. Jensen at Coon Rapids.

Mrs. A. G. Martyn left on Thursday for Sac City, after an all too brief visit with Denison friends.

For Rent—120 acres, also 60 acres corn fodder for sale. 41-tf. Mrs. G. Schafer.

For Dining room chairs and tables, John Fastje will give you the best value. 42-tf.

Hon. J. P. Conner spent Monday at Rockwell City where he listened to the claim of seven applicants for the Rockwell City postoffice.

Mesdames Blosser, Fred Marshall, Bollen, Penny, Carpenter and Miss Hart were elected members of the Current Event club on Thursday.

You can save money by buying a carpet or rug now at Barcher Bros Special Sale now on.

Mrs. M. J. Keane and daughter Marie, Mrs. T. J. Ratchford and daughter Faye and Miss Grace Long of Vail were Denison callers Saturday.

Rev. Dr. Griffith will occupy the pulpit in the M. E. church next Sunday morning. He will also conduct the First Quarterly Conference on Saturday evening.

Mrs. J. P. Conner, Mrs. L. A. Sewell, Mrs. A. J. Bond, Mrs. J. H. Mahoney and Mrs. P. W. Harding were Council Bluffs and Omaha visitors last week.

In the market for a Kitchen Cabinet? We show you some good values, just watch our window and call in, get prices. See our line. If 15-20 per cent saved on Furniture looks good to you, trade at Salomon's.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Brunt of Council Bluffs and their son were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Conner on Saturday and Sunday, making the trip in their auto.

"There are so many people who don't take any other county paper that I have to advertise in the Review"—was the remark of one Denison business man as he brought in his ad his week.

Mrs. Barclay of Boone was a guest of Mrs. R. A. Romans on Friday. Mrs. Barclay had just returned from the library convention where she received the great honor of election to the presidency of the library association for the ensuing year.

Mrs. H. S. Gulick and Mrs. Lou Martin have returned from a six week's visit in Warsaw, Wis. On their return journey they visited in Rockwell City and Mrs. Martin favored the congregation of the new M. E. church of that city with one of her brilliant solos, which was most appreciatively received.

Mrs. O. M. Criswell entertained most charming a few ladies on Saturday evening as a compliment to Mrs. A. G. Martyn of Farley, Iowa. The ladies brought their work and had a very happy old time visit together. The guests were: Mesdames Sewell, Cochran, Martyn, Penny, James Smith and Miss Meyers. Mrs. Criswell's two course supper was great, such as only good cooks like herself are master of, and her guests paid her the great compliment of empty plates.

There is One Case that the Jury Can Decide very easily.
And that is where to buy your Watches and Jewelry
No disagreement on this. TRY US
E. C. Chamberlin, Jewelry and Optician

Mrs. Sam'l Stewart has returned to her home at Medina, N. D.

November 1st is the date set for the Baptist ladies bazaar and supper.

Mrs. Maggie Talcott and son of Arion were Saturday visitors in Denison.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Laub visited in Council Bluffs the first of the week.

You should be posted in styles of Furniture. Call at Barcher Bros. and you will be.

Miss Alven Schroeder writes us that her present address is 121, Nob Hill, Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Butler have returned to Arion after a stay at the city hospital.

Plant Tulips, Hyacinths and Narcissus on your cemetery lot and get good results Memorial Day. For sale at Barcher Bros. Store.

There will be services at the Presbyterian church next Sunday both morning and evening.

Parlor Chairs, Rockers. The best in furniture. Inquire of John Fastje. 42-tf.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bullock returned today from a delightful visit with old friends in Macomb, Ill., and vicinity.

Have you taken notice of our window display? Just watch the Christmas goods on display every week at Salomon's.

S. S. Club had a novel meeting Tuesday night. Miss Orpha Marshall had the program in charge and presented a Ladies Home Journal number, the departments being taken by club members. A poem was read by Miss Bertha Kelly. Miss Hart had the supper in charge and crowned herself with glory.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gable gave a very elegant dinner Sunday as a courtesy to Miss Tompson of Nevada, librarian at that place and old time friend of Miss Statler. Mr. and Mrs. Gable are charming hosts and the guests were delightfully entertained. Mrs. Gable's dinner was a triumph of culinary art and ample justice was given it by the guests. Miss Tompson was a very sweet personality and made many friends for herself.

Just in, a stock of Remington Type Writer Ribbons and carbon. Don't order direct as the price is the same at home. U. G. Johnson & Co., Agents.

AMONG THE SICK.

Mr. E. Fink is still very ill. While he shows some temporary improvement it is feared that he will not be able to recover.

Miss Carrie Soehl is seriously ill. She shows little change during the past week.

Mrs. A. W. Gauger of Odebolt is at the home of Mrs. Kienle, where she has undergone a serious operation from which she is now recovering. Rev. Gauger is here in order to be with his wife during her illness.

No new cases of diphtheria are reported. The Lally family is out of quarantine and little Lenihan is as well and lively as ever.

Let us root for Denison next Saturday.

Frank Leesh is a Council Bluffs visitor.

P. E. C. Lally made Carroll a brief business trip on Monday.

See the Hallow e'en goods from 50 to 75c at U. G. Johnson & Co's.

Mrs. Randall, mother of A. D. Randall left today to visit a son in Glen Ellen, Kans.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Wright left on Tuesday for McCook, Nebr., where they will make their home.

For Rent—6 room house 2 blocks north of Post office. Inquire of Dr. Mueller.

A steel Sanitary Couch for $4.00 just for a short time. Want one? Salomon's.

W. F. Hinsel and wife of Walnut, Ill., were visitors on Monday and Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Allard.

Brand new, drop head Singer Sewing Machine for sale cheap. Leslie Reiter.

There will be a quarterly meeting at the German Methodist church on next Sunday. Rev. A. W. Gauger of Odebolt a former pastor here will be present.

It is not cheap goods that we are selling cheap, but goods up to date in every way and then low prices is what sells our furniture, Carpets and Rugs. Salomon's.

Charles C. Price and Miss Emma Conley were married at the Nielsen Hotel in Denison at noon on Wednesday, Oct. 16. Rev. G. E. Kienle of the German Methodist church officiating. They came up from Dow City, which place they will live on a farm.

THE FARMERS HOTEL.

Peter Meeves has leased the Farmers Hotel and has already taken possession of that old-time favorite hostelry. This is the old John Seaman hotel, for many years one of the best known farmers' resorts in West-Iowa. Mr. Meeves and his good wife propose to restore it to its old time popularity. Mrs. Meeves is a fine cook and a neat housekeeper and we believe the farmers will find the hotel homelike, cleanly and attractive. Mr. Meeves wants us to give his prices $3.50 per week for day board and $4.00 for board and room, and on his behalf to extend to all an invitation to patronize him.

WHERE'S LAMBORN?

The cry was, Where is Lamborn? Lamborn is at the old stand, where you can get the best of everything in Drugs, Cigars, Candies and Sundries—That's Where Lamborn is. 42-1t.

Post Cards in all varieties at U. G. Johnson's & Cs.

McCabe's Troubadours give the best of satisfaction and are greeted by a large audience everywhere. They furnish the best of music, have special scenery and every person on the cast is an artist. At Opera house Saturday night.

Marry the girl—we can furnish your kitchen more completely and cheaper now than ever before. The Racket Store.

THEODORE WALKER,
ABSTRACTER,
Denison, Iowa.
Office Abstract Room Court House

FREE!
$5.00 in Gold

Every month to the person bringing in printed cash register receipts representing the largest amount of cash purchase in our store during the month of issue. We have added a new national cash register and with every cash purchase you will receive a receipt issued by this machine showing the amount of the purchase

Boys and Girls get busy, some one will surely get that $5.00 gold piece in our window Nov. 1st.

Lamborn Drug Co.
Main Street Denison, Iowa.

To Prevent Spotting or Shrinking We recommend that you have all dress fabrics sponged by our New Duplex Spotless Method which gives the goods a dressy effect and a rich cloth finish. Costs 5c a yard, short lengths, 25c each.

THE HOME OF THE HOME JOURNAL PATTERNS

Husking Gloves and Mittens All kinds. Unusual purchasing facilities enable us to give greater values than ever before. A special value, double palm mitten, fleece in or fleece out, extra heavy best quality Canton flannel. All sizes for large or small hand, at $1 per dozen.

CLOAK ECONOMY

In the interest of economy and durability, as well as style, you should make your selection of fall cloaks here. The garments made for us in the celebrated Workshop of Worth please the economical as well as the fashionable. No matter how low the price, Worth Styles always hang gracefully, fit smoothly and reflect admirable taste in design.

At twelve-fifty we offer models similar to the illustration here, from a good quality of kersey and trimmed with silk braid around the arm holes and at the neck and cuffs—just enough trimming to be pronounced "neat." A touch of color at the neck adds "life."

A loose cloak is a very popular favorite, because it is so generously useful. We have a beautiful variety in this graceful shape—cloaks that will lend distinction to the shopping trip or the social call. Popular prices prevail, $5.50 $10.00, $12.50, $15.00 and up. We have the exclusive sale of Worth Styles.

Mentor Comfort Underwear

For the whole family, has been on the market for years. The Manufacturers have been compelled to enlarge their factory time and again to keep up with the demand. The word "Mentor" means underwear comfort to several hundred thousand men, women and children. It is because Mentor Comfort underwear combines the elements of fit, comfort, quality and wear that people appreciate it. If you try it once, you will wear it ever afterwards and tell your friends about it. That's the WHY of Mentor success.

We have Mentor Comfort garments in all sizes of union and two piece suits for women and children.

MENTOR COMFORT UNDERWEAR

The Balle-Brodersen Co.
DENISON, IOWA.