NOBLE MOTHER DIES

Mrs. J. F. Harthun Succumbs After Long Illness

MANY YEARS AN INVALID

Wife of Denison Editor Passes Away in Her Sixty-Sixth Year: Was a Noble Wife and Mother

On the morning of Friday, October 25th, occurred the death of Mrs. J. F. Harthun, wife of the editor of the Denison Zietung. Mrs. Harthun had been an invalid for many years and had been confined to her bed for many weeks. Death came to her as a relief from suffering, but to her loved ones it came as a shock of desperate and heart breaking grief. Although ill in body for many years she had been the conservator, the guiding spirit of the family and she will be missed from the home circle more than words can tell.

We well remember when the Harthun family came to Denison and invested their little all in the purchase of the Zietung. Mr. Harthun had the ability, the education, the genius, but it was to the wife and mother that the ultimate success was largely due. She devoted herself to her family with a whole hearted faithfulness that giving all asked for no reward, save in the happiness of others. Mrs. Harthun was typical of the best type of the good old German wife and mother. It is no wonder that her husband and her children are plunged in deepest grief for they have lost the dearest friend that earth affords. Especially does our sympathy go out to Anna, the faithful daughter, who has foregone the pleasures of girlhood in order that she might be helpful to her mother and who during the months of pain and anguish has been her mothers' stay and comfort.

Mrs. Alwine Harthun, nee Daer, was born in Doderlage Westpreussen, Germany, on June 13th, 1842. She was married to J. F. Harthun in 1872 and came to America with him the following year. They lived four years in New York, two years in Detroit, Mich., four years in Fon-du-lac, Wis., and three years in Omaha, coming to Denison in 1886 and making this city their home for the past twenty-one years.

Mrs. Harthun was the mother of ten children, five of whom, Herman, Anna, Julius, Hugo and Henry survive her. Mrs. Harthun has been an invalid for seventeen years and for the last seven weeks of her illness was confined to her bed.

Funeral services were held at the home on Tuesday afternoon. Rev. Hansen of Schleswig officiating. Many friends not only from Denison and vicinity but from Manning and other towns in the county were present. The pall bearers were: Messrs. A. C. Balie, C. C. Kemming, H. Koenekamp, L. Seemann, J. F. Pfarr and Chas. K. Meyers. Mrs. Harthun was a woman of strong character, true to every relation of life, faithful to her friends and loved ones, kindly, self-sacrificing, helpful and loving. Our hearts go out in sympathy for the bereaved husband and children and we feel that we, also, have lost a friend.

RELIEF CORPS CONVENTION

Fourth District of Iowa W. R. C. Convention in Denison

Denison has extended a cordial welcome to the ladies who came to our midst today in attendance on the district convention of the W. R. C. of Iowa. No more pure and worthy organization of woman exists in the nation. The convention was honored in that Mrs. W. A. McHenry a Past National President of this city was able to be with it during the afternoon session. Department President Mrs. Plopper of Iowa Falls was present. The ladies of the M. E. church gave a magnificent dinner and supper to the visitors and members of the local Corps. G. A. R. post and camp of Sons of Veterans. Flags were raised on all staffs in town in honor of the convention. Mrs. McClellan has taken much interest in arranging for the affair.

WILL WED TONIGHT

Waldo Kahler Joins Ranks of the Benedicts at Traer

This evening occurs the wedding of Waldo Kahler, junior member of the law firm of Harding and Kahler of Denison and Miss Edna Stevenson of Traer. After a brief honeymoon trip these young people will come to Denison making their home in the cottage now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Kelly.

MR. WALDO KAHLER, Brilliant young Attorney whose Wedding takes place this evening.

Mr. Kahler is a young man of character and ability. He has a host of friends here who extend congratulations and his fair young bride will receive a warm welcome from Denison people.

It was twenty years ago last Saturday when Mr. J. C. Phillips and Miss Della Ainsworth were married. They are now living on a farm on the Deloit road. Their friends who are many, arranged a surprise for them last Saturday and appeared at the home armed with a present of a nice set of China ware and plenty of good things to eat. It was a most happy occasion. Among those present from abroad were P. I. Christensen and wife of Dow City and Miss Edith Jones of Omaha. The presentation speech was made by Rev. Bruce of Deloit. We congratulate Mr. Phillips and wife and wish them more happy years.

TAKEN IN HER BLOOM

Miss Carrie Soehl Dies at Denison Saturday, Oct. 26.

A BEAUTIFUL CHRISTIAN LADY

She is Ready, Choses the Pall Bearers and Makes Other Funeral Directions.

Perfectly resigned to leave this world and to be with her Savior and God, Miss Carrie C. Soehl died at her home in Denison on Saturday October 26, after an illness of some seven weeks. Miss Soehl was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Soehl who reside three blocks south from the court house. She was born at Rock Island, Ill., August 27th, 1876 and was thus thirty-one years old. The family came to Crawford county when she was ten, and she has lived on the farm in Denison township, at Arion, Manning and finally at Denison. Carrie fitted herself for a teacher and in the noble profession she did good work, beloved by her pupils and the parents. She began a term of school in Goodrich township this fall, but after teaching less than two weeks gave up sick, and going home, rapidly failed to the end. Her ailment a kidney trouble seemed to baffle medical treatment. She became perfectly resigned to death, gave directions as to the funeral arrangements and named six ladies for her pall bearers.

The funeral took place Wednesday at 1:30 at the home and 2:00 at the Lutheran church. Rev. Freese officiating. The pall bearers were the Misses Lena Topf of Charter Oak, Minnie Paulson of Buck Grove, Mathilda Hink, Amanda Brandt Anna Franke and Lizzie Lentz of Denison. Friends were most kind in sending flowers.

Miss Soehl is survived by her parents, Peter Soehl and wife, two sisters, Mrs. J. H. Lorentzen of Walla Walla, and Mrs. F. L. Evans of Seattle, and brother Fred H. of Guthrie, Okla. All were home before her death. Mr. Hugo Gebert is her cousin. Her beautiful, helpful character was not in vain, for she has left a heritage of strong character an example to the children and a source of precious memory to her parents and loved ones. It is needless to say that her parents are heart-broken at the loss of their beautiful daughter taken away in the full bloom of her womanhood. They have the blessed hope of a reunion when there will be no more parting, a comfort indeed.

THE FINANCIAL SITUATION.

In view of the reports in the daily papers it is due to our readers a few words as to the financial situation.

The recent financial flurry on Wall Street has been due to reckless speculation, and over selling of stocks. To one who has followed the course of the stock market in the past, there is little surprise at what occurred during last week. This year has been no exception. It is not because there is a want of money to answer the legitimate demands of trade, because there never was so much money in the country as at this time, but there will never be sufficient money to meet the requirements of the reckless speculators on Wall Street.

It is evident that the stringency which now prevails will prove but temporary, as the financial skies are already clearing, and business promises soon to assume normal conditions.

The large importation of gold from abroad to purchase our crops and stocks is most reassuring.

Happily for us, locally conditions throughout the West generally are satisfactory and our county will not be affected by the brief flurry.

WILL GATHER WASTE PAPER.

The City Federation of Women's Clubs has a brand new scheme. The ladies want to gather all the waste paper of the town. For a carload they will get $100, and the cash will go to the cemetery fund. You are requested to save your waste paper and when a pile has accumulated notify Mrs. Ley or Mrs. F. H. Morgan, who will send for it. Remember that every little helps.

Only a small lot of those Jackets left, 10 ladies jackets, $3.00 7 children's 6 to 12 $3.00 don't miss them at Bamford's.

Improve your stock by getting one of those Red Roosters, and get them now before they increase in price. Call or address. B. F. Philbrook, Denison, Iowa. 44-1t pd.

NINE HUNDRED AND FIFTY.

Names Printed in the Review Last Week of Local People.

With correspondence from eighteen different parts of the county and the large amount of local news from Denison in the paper of last week, our curiosity was aroused to see how many people were named. A count revealed that nine-hundred and fifty persons were mentioned by name in the issue of Oct. 23. No wonder the Review is interesting to the people of the entire county for there is not a locality from which the news is not sent. From the northeast comes the news from Jackson, West Side and Vail, in the southeast Hayes and Aspinwall makes a showing; to the south the notes from Manilla let few local matters escape. Moving west Buck Grove and Dow City let the people know these towns are wide awake. The Arion department is booming. From Willow on the west there is a letter also from Charter Oak. Not far away West Soldier news can be found. On the "Pumpkin Vine" The towns of Ricketts, Schleswig, Kiron, Boyer and Deloit send news, and the items from Goodrich end the round up. When you come to think about it, there certainly is much to be proud of in the news service we are giving.

ALL THE LETTERS USED.

A Sentence in the Magazine Supplement of October has all Letters of Alphabet.

Our brilliant young friend of the Bank of Denison, Mr. Miller has been puzzling his head to find the least number of words in which he can get all the letters of all the alphabet, allowing for certain duplicates. On next to the last page of the magazine, last week, was given a supposed telegram which gets in all the letters and no duplicates. Did you notice it? Well, here it is: "Jug CXV doz, qts. milk by wharf pen." The man who made this remarkable specimen establishes his claim to expressing sense by explaining that a milkman has a cow-pen at the Wharf and that he wired that message to his son who was in charge.

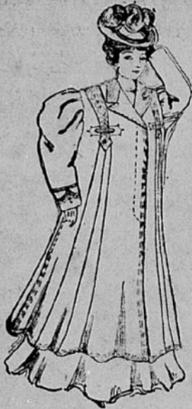

"Well, you people have almost everything"—its a remark we hear every day. Come and see for yourself. The Racket store.
