INSPECTOR WELL IMPRESSED

Postoffice Inspector Ranger Thinks Denison Should Have Three City Carriers.

Postoffice Inspector C. S. Rauger spent two days of last week in Denison. He was driven about the city and inspected the office and the amount of business transacted. It is his opinion that Denison should have three carriers and he states that he will return to lay out the service just as soon as Denison has complied with the conditions as to naming the streets and numbering the houses. He also suggested that before the service is inaugurated each house should be provided with a mail box so that the carriers may not be delayed in delivering the mail. These boxes are not expensive and will undoubtedly be kept in stock at our hardware stores. Mr. Rauger will route the city upon his return. He will not require the carriers to deliver mail where there are no sidewalks. The people should bear this point in mind. If you would like to have the mail delivered you must see to it that there is a good sidewalk. The government goes on the theory that unless the city has sufficient pride to keep its streets named and the houses numbered, and unless the citizens has enough pride to have a decent sidewalk for the carriers to walk on, the government can place the service where it will be better appreciated. It is the purpose of Mr. Rauger to provide for four deliveries a day in the business portion of the city and two deliveries daily in the residence parts of town. There will be approximately twenty-five public letter boxes in different parts of the town. These will be a great convenience to the people.

Under the present rules carriers can deliver mail only outside the corporation. When city free delivery is established we understand that the rural carriers will be allowed to deliver mail to people living inside the corporation, but outside of the city free delivery limits. Denison covers a large amount of ground and some people who live more than a mile from the postoffice have heretofore been unable to get free rural service. With city free delivery even those living on the outskirts will be benefited as they have their mail delivered once a day by the rural carriers.

Our advice is that all those desirous of having the free delivery service see to it that the sidewalks are in good condition. Unless this is done there will be a whole lot of kicking by people who will want their mail delivered but who will not get it because Uncle Sam does not ask his carriers to wade through mud.

It will be six weeks possibly before the inspector will come again and in the meantime some half dozen miles of sidewalk should be built and about forty crossings should be put in. Examine the conditions in your block. See that your walk and your neighbor's walk are in good condition. See that some crossings are put in. For instance, the street running north and south just west of the college campus has no side walk and no crossing north of Broadway. There are a number of houses there but none of the residents will get the free delivery unless they bestir themselves. There are a good many other parts of town in the same fix. We are anxious that all the people should have the free delivery and we are giving them these pointers so that the fault shall be theirs only if they do not get it.

A CHARMING MEETING.

Penelope met with its beloved president Mrs. Conner on Tuesday afternoon. Despite the weather a large number of members were in attendance. Mrs. Conner had written very clever and complimentary verses about each member of the Penelope and they were read and enjoyed as another instance of Mrs. Conner's regard for the club. Mrs. Sears McHenry and Mrs. C. M. Jensen gave charming readings. Mrs. McMahon and Mrs. Boyle pleased everyone with their music.

Mrs. Conner was assisted by Miss Williams in serving a very fine two course supper. The bon-bons were tiny green candy bottles filled with cream de menthe that gave a delicious finishing flavor to the supper. Mrs. Adelbert Jones and Mrs. Clark Marshall, Mrs. McAhren, Mrs. Jensen and Miss Williams were the guests present.

The members always look forward with pleasure to the meeting with Mrs. Conner and they are never disappointed.

Come to the Normandy Friday evening and enjoy one of the best church suppers ever served. A good three course supper. Price 25 cents.

It costs enough to live without paying 15 cents for what you can get at 10 cents at the Racket store.

DESERVED KIND WORDS

Miss Florence Kirkup Makes a Good Impression at Naperville, Illinois, College.

We clip the following from the College Chronicle at Naperville, Ill., Miss Kirkup's friends will be pleased, but not surprised at her success.

Miss Florence Mary Kirkup, whose likeness appears in the frontispiece, is the new teacher of Vocal Music who was elected to fill the vacancy left by Prof. Middleton. Miss Kirkup was finally chosen, from a list of twenty-one applicants, many of whom had presented credentials of the highest order.

Miss Kirkup comes to us from a school of music in Wisconsin, where she had been employed for two and one-half years as a teacher of vocal music. Prior to this she had been engaged in teaching in a Normal School in Tennessee, at which place she taught both vocal and instrumental music. Her total experience as a teacher covers a period of seven years. Not only does Miss Kirkup come to us with the flattering testimonials of her former teachers, but all the schools which hitherto have employed her speak very commendably of her work and only deplore that they were unable to retain her services longer.

Miss Kirkup has studied the art of vocal music for a number of years under the best masters of the land, and besides this she is a graduate of the Denison Normal School at Denison. Equipped with a thorough knowledge of her art, trained in the school of experience, she is amply qualified to fill the position which she now holds. Miss Kirkup enters very hopefully upon her work, while her modest disposition and democratic spirit insure her popularity with her pupils. Already a growing interest is manifested in her department. We are glad to welcome a teacher of Miss Kirkup's abilities into our midst. We extend best wishes and hearty welcome.

THE COFFEE CLUB MEETS.

The Coffee Club was most delightfully entertained on Thursday last by Mrs. J. P. Conner. All of the club members were present, but Mrs. Kirkup, who is in mourning for her father. The invited guests were Mrs. Eugene Gulick, Mrs. Jensen and Mrs. Morgan.

Mrs. Conner served a very elegant dinner, her color scheme being the artistic one of white and green. White carnations with ferns were the flowers used for the table. Bon-bons in the form of white flowers and green peas were served. The dinner was in three courses, Mrs. Conner presented each guest with a pound of coffee that she had brought from Hawaii of the native berry, this was a very nice case of the gift, suiting the name and the Coffee Club will always be glad they selected that name. Mrs. Conner's hospitality is of the kind that gives each guest an individual welcome and makes the entire company happy. In entertaining the Coffee Club as a club Mr. Conner paid them a rare compliment which was much appreciated.

Red Flash, an old man now, will be seen with this attraction. He was once, and indeed for a full decade, the fastest of all Indian runners. It is said that a sprint of 100 miles a day as bearer of important messages between forces of the regular army was but a trifle. He formerly was one of the most noted blood thirsty warriors in the Dakota plains. Red Flash, however, for many years has been an earnest friend, well wisher and servant of the whites.

CALVE COMES TO OMAHA

Great Musical Event at Omaha on November Seventh

The biggest piece of musical news for the season is the announcement that Mme. Emma Calve, the greatest of dramatic sopranos, has been secured for a concert at Boyd's Theatre, Omaha, Thursday evening, November 7th. Music lovers of Omaha and vicinity have long been waiting for an opportunity to hear Mme. Calve and now that their desires are to be gratified there is no doubt but that every seat in the theatre will be sold long before the night of the concert. The seat sale opened at Boyd's Theatre Monday morning, October 28th.

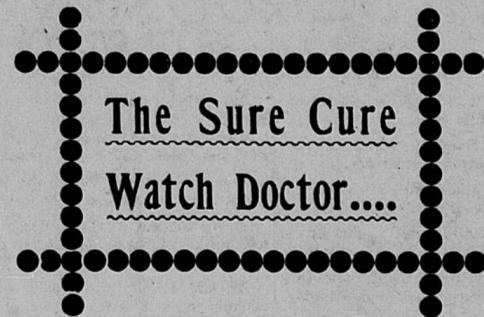

Mme. Calve is making a concert tour of this country during the fall and early winter and will give just forty concerts, Omaha being the only place in Nebraska where she will sing. The tour opened at Bangor, Me., Oct. 5th and will extend clear across the country. John Cort and J. Saunders Gordon are directing the tour and they have arranged for what is probably the longest concert tour ever undertaken by any of the operatic prima donas in this country. Nearly 30,000 miles will have been covered when the tour ends. At the conclusion of the tour through the United States Mme. Calve will make a trip to Cuba and to Mexico, singing in Mexico City at the invitation of President Diaz, whose guest she will be.

Mme. Calve has an optional and provisional contract with Oscar Hammerstein to appear in Grand Opera at his Manhattan Grand Opera House in New York City late in the winter, and would undoubtedly have been with him the whole season if it had not been for her contract with John Cort which was signed two years ago. Mme. Calve had not been heard in Grand Opera in this country for a number of seasons until last spring when she sang with the Manhattan Company, a d her success then was so great that the old desire for Grand Opera came back over the prima donna and she decided to give up concert singing except perhaps for brief tours in the east.

Mme. Calve's voice is now in its prime it is full and rich in tone and perfect in quality, with the warmth and color of passion in it. It is conceded by all critics that she has the most sympathetic voice of all the singers; she makes her listeners feel keenly and vividly, the emotions of the character she is impersonating, and acting. This is true of her concert singing.

DELIGHTFUL WHIST PARTY.

Mr. and Mrs. George Nicholson were at home to a number of friends Thursday evening entertaining them with progressive whist. Four tables were played. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Lally, Mr. and Mrs. Cushman, Mr. and Mrs. Gronau, Mr. and Mrs. Kuehne, Mr. and Mrs. Meyers, Dr. and Mrs. Wright, Mr. Alfred Wright, Mrs. Perkins and Miss Meyers. Refreshments were served at a large table which was beautifully decorated with Autumn leaves, red and white ears of corn and apples. The decoration was a very novel one and was consistently carried out in every detail, even to a large pumpkin which was used as a frappe bowl and proved a very popular resort for all the guests, candles of red lighted the room and the entire effect was a very striking one.

It was long after mid-night when the guests departed with delightful memories of the evening.
