Our honored townsman Mr. C. F. Kuehne received the sad news on Friday of last week that his father had died the previous day. Mr. Charles F. Kuehne was one of the oldest residents of Waterloo, Iowa. He was connected with the motive department of the Illinois Central road holding high position as a master mechanic. He retired from active work some ten years ago. He had reached the advanced age of eighty years and died respected by all who knew him. The friends of the distinguished son at Denison have not been unmindful that he has been called upon to meet the loss of his father.

THE PANAMA CONDITIONS.
The Review This Week Shows Much Light on the Great Canal and its Surroundings.

Of course no reader will miss that wonderful letter in the paper this week from the pen of Edgar Garrison. It is the richest thing on Panama ever written, and given in a breezy entertaining style. Edgar dishes up descriptions of some racy scenes, and you will miss much by not seeing what he has to say. With such talent for writing he ought to send a series of articles home. By a happy accident a writer for our magazine supplement has an illustrated article for this week on the Panama Canal and the two write-ups will supplement each other. We have an idea that the group of hospital buildings pictured on page seven may be the ones near which Mr. Garrison lives. At any rate do not miss reading both articles.

Millinery. Millinery always new novelties and latest styles. Prices the lowest at Bamford's.

On Saturday evening Nov. 2nd, at the Opera house, the romantic melodrama, "The Flaming Arrow," will be presented. This play is from the pen of Lincoln J. Carter, that past master in the construction of Melodramas and novel effects. In addition to a company which is large and artistically strong, he has secured many novelties with which to add realism to the situations of the play. Among the features are Moon Dog, a famous warrior; Red Flash, Custer's Famous Indian scout and the man who carried Custer's last message.

The S. S. C. had a delightful meeting Tuesday night. Miss Flora Iseminger had the menu in charge and served a most excellent supper, while Miss Willetta Strahn had charge of the program which was a Hallowe'en one.

That is a point worth remembering.

Broadcloths
Without Question Broadcloths Are the Thing
This season promised to be the greatest ever known for broadcloths, and so far the promise has been fulfilled. But, come to think of it, this is as it should be, for there never has been a wool material woven that adapts itself so readily to the styles now in vogue. Can you imagine anything more beautiful than an imported broadcloth made up by a clever tailor. We are showing every conceivable grade of broadcloth, in all the new and scarce shades—Blondines, Vateans, Gendarnes, Leathers, Navies, Browns, Myrtle, Nattier Blue, Baldwin Green—in fact, all the shades called for this season.
And the Greatest Assortments Are Found Here
At $3.00 Yard
A beautiful imported cloth may be had at $3.00 the yard, Sponged and shrunk ready for the needle. It is the equal of any cloth shown in the country today at a dollar higher than the price we have made. Only $3.00 the yard
Another magnificent grade of broadcloth is priced at $2.50 the yard, though we know the same quality is sold in many of the largest stores in the country as high as $3. Then we show other fine grades at $2 and $1.50, and good values at $2.25, $1.75 and $1.65
