

Do It Now!

What?

Come to HUETTMMANN BROS., they have so many good things to show you. One of the finest lines of Men's, Boys' and Children's Clothing, Overcoats, Underwear and Furnishings

In fact, almost everything one needs to keep comfortable for the cold coming winter. The styles are the latest, the patterns and fabric the newest, and best of all; prices that will meet the strongest competition. We desire to please you and give you a class of merchandise that will give you good satisfaction for the most reasonable prices.

DENISON, IOWA. Huettmann Bros THE OLD HUB CORNER.

Schleswig

John Evers of Denison was in Schleswig attending important business matters Sunday. Frank Jones and wife and daughter expect to leave Monday for a week's visit with relatives at Charter Oak and at other points. Mrs. Dr. Jones' mother, Mrs. Hall of Denison has been visiting her daughter and husband for the past few days. Born to Amos Hollander and wife a fine girl, Nov. 2nd. Otto Hollander purchased Tuesday the W. P. Hogan barber shop and at once took possession. W. P. Hogan expects to move to California soon. H. C. Hansen left for South Dakota Wednesday where he expects to put in his time until Christmas, threshing flax. A. P. Hollander and wife went to Ricketts Wednesday to visit at the John Doerfler home. Henry Carstens and family went to Adair Wednesday where they make their future home. Henry expects to be employed in a barber shop at that place. Charles Bargein and son of near Kiron, were at the Girard farm on business Saturday. Ben Witt and Floyd Carter were Denison visitors Sunday. Sara Hoiten visited her sister, Mrs. Walters and family from Saturday until Monday in Kiron. Will and Henry Schmidt went to Ida Grove Monday. Fritz Witt celebrated his 60th birthday on Monday. Friends and neighbors being present who reports a fine time.

West Side

Alice Dedrick of Denison visited at the home of her aunt, Mrs. M. J. Hannah last week, returning Sunday evening. J. W. Dewitt and wife moved to the Isaac Patterson farm last Thursday. Ed. Glascock and wife, who have been living there have moved to Lake View where they will make their future home. The program given by the "Alpha Sigmans" at the hall last Friday evening was very much appreciated by a large audience. After the play was presented the West Side and Vail High school basket ball teams engaged in a game of basket ball. The result being 14 to 22 in favor of West Side. Charlotte Anderson returned home Friday evening from Council Bluffs, where she had been in attendance at the teachers meeting which convened at that place Thursday and Friday. On Thursday evening, Oct 31, Mrs. J. C. Suhr, Mrs. C. L. Patterson and Mrs. Thos. Buton jr. entertained at the home of Mrs. Suhr. The invitations, amusements and decorations all were suggestive of Hallowe'en. Black cats, witches, etc., were conspicuous in every room. In the reception room fortunes were told. Several interesting contests took place. Miss Anderson and Miss Dodd won prizes in these. Later in the evening the guests were invited to the dining room where a very nice two course luncheon was served by the ladies. The weather was unfavorable that evening keeping many guests at home, but those who ventured out felt amply repaid by spending a most enjoyable evening. Rev. and Mrs. Cathart were in Vail Wednesday making pastoral calls. Aside from decorating the store windows on Main street, very little mischief was done on Hallowe'en. The weather being unfavorable and two extra watchmen on duty, rather put a damper on the boys' pleasure this year. Wm. Eiffert, wife and son Herbert are visiting in Kansas City at the home of Mrs. Eifferts brother. The Epworth League held its monthly social at the pleasant home of Peter Sievers and wife last Thursday evening. A very enjoyable time is reported by those who were present.

The John Mumm home was the scene of an accident Sunday evening. The children, while playing threw a pillow which hit a hanging lamp, breaking it and causing the cushion and surrounding things to take fire. Mrs. Mumm succeeded in extinguishing the flames before any damage was done, but in so doing both of her hands were severely burned.

Wm. Suhr was taken quite sick one day last week, at the store. He is able to be around town again, but is not feeling real strong yet.

The Ladies Industrial of the M. E. church met with, Mrs. M. J. Hannah Tuesday afternoon. The ladies are now working on fancy articles to be sold at a bazaar which they expect to hold early in December. At the close of the meeting Mrs. Hannah served very nice luncheon to those present.

James Hattery, who has been living with his son in Wisconsin the past year stopped off in West Side Tuesday for a visit with friends. He is on his way to Mapleton to visit his daughter.

August Voss, who lives south of town has purchased thirty acres of land of Geo. Buck consideration being $5000. The land is situated south of the Catholic church and joins that of Louie Schomberg. We understand that Mr. Voss intends to build a fine residence there and make it his future home. This will be quite an improvement for the west end of town, and we are glad that Mr. Voss and family have decided to make West Side their home. Mrs. Frank Glascock was a Carroll visitor Saturday. Sophia Bauer went to Arcadia Friday to be present at the funeral of her grandfather, Mr. Dose.

Vail

Jess McAhren of Denison was on our streets Wednesday. W. J. Beck returned to Sioux City last week after a pleasant visit with friends here. E. P. Trechta of Cedar Rapids visited at the E. Kral home last week. Mrs. Jas. McAndrews and daughter Jennie were in Denison Friday. Mrs. Joe Duffy has been on the sick list for the past week. T. Finnigan of Carroll visited at Frank O'Boyle's last week. A. J. Kelly of West Side visited in Vail Saturday. Chas. Brown buried their infant baby Friday. Edmund O'Boyle came home from his claim in South Dakota and will spend the winter here.

R. H. Guhne a few weeks ago offered cash for the best corn brought to his place of business, and last Saturday the contest came off. There were sixteen contested for the different prizes. Beck Mitchell got first, John Monahan second and James Mitchell third. W. H. Brockelsby, M. R. McGrath and Mike Giblin were the judges. The exhibit was considered the best ever seen in Vail. Short and instructive addresses were made by a few of the farmers present on the best methods of producing prize corn. Refreshments were had in Mr. Guhne's cafe and all present claimed they had a very pleasant time. The corn shown was auctioned off by M. R. McGrath and sold to P. H. Lynch for four dollars and seventy cents. James Monahan was in Denison Friday on business. Ed. McCracken and daughter Mattie, of Scranton spent last week in Vail visiting relatives. Miss Eveline Fitch of Carroll spent Sunday here with her parents. John McCormick was in Denison Friday on business. J. J. Connor of Carroll visited relatives here last week. Ed. Duffy of Boone spent a couple of days here with his parents last week. Mrs. Crampton and daughter Edna was calling on friends in Denison Friday. Eva Norton spent last week in Omaha visiting friends. Ray Staininger left Monday last week for Hermosa, S. D. to prove up on a claim.

Ben Nicholson and family of Denison spent Sunday at the W. W. Watson home.

Mrs. Wm. Bredman of Chicago visited her sister, Mrs. H. C. Gronemeyer here last week. Beasie Hass of Carroll spent Sunday here with relatives.

Mrs. E. B. Fanske and son Ed. B. Jr. of Pierce, Nebr., visited her old friends here last week. Mike McGrath and Chas. Dugan were passengers to Denison Friday. Fae Ratchford spent Friday and Saturday in Denison.

Wm. Simon and wife of Herring spent a couple of days here the latter part of last week with relatives. Will Morrow, wife and son of Wall Lake were guest at the George Deiter home last Saturday.

W. W. Rhodenbaugh and wife of Denison visited friends here Sunday. The Hallowe'en party in the hall was not very well patronized on account of wet weather.

John Deiter was in West Side on business Friday. Mrs. Hugh Costello returned to her home at Wagner, S. D. Thursday after a pleasant two months visit with her parents Jas. Mitchell and wife and other relatives. A. D. Atkins of Garden City, Kan. Mrs. Clark White and daughter Enslah were visiting in Denison Saturday. Miss Carey of Portsmouth is visiting here with John McDonnells. Winnifred Wright of Denison was an over Sunday visitor with Emma Harper. Nellie Harrington and Kate Holland were shopping in Denison Saturday. Mrs. Hawley returned Friday evening from her visit with her sister at Cottonwood, S. D. Maragret and Eugene Reily of Denison spent Sunday with Mrs. Rose McCombs. Mrs. John Champion was in Denison Saturday. Ollie Deiter and Raymond Deiter visited in Carroll Saturday. Dan Molsed of Chicago is spending a few days here with relatives. Alva Daniels of Denison was calling on friends here Sunday. Johanna Walsh was a passenger west Saturday. Frank Lally of Hayes township made a business trip to Denison Saturday.

John Kral went to Fort Dodge Saturday to visit his brother-in-law. Alf. Tempest spent Sunday in Vail with his family. E. Dobler and John Schuman of West Side was here Monday. Lon Mahan of Kansas City was seen on our streets Monday. Mrs. Stuyvestant of Lamoille is here visiting her sister, Mrs. H. McCombs. Maud Cranny was a Denison visitor Saturday. John Barnhoff of West Side was in Vail Monday. Miss McAndrews of Loronto is a guest at the John McDonald home. Quite a number of the young folks enjoyed a party at Tom Powers Sunday evening. M. J. Keane and Ignatius were in Denison Saturday. Jas. Rutherford will move to Gray this week where he is in business. Mrs. Naughton and children of Denison spent a couple of days here at the parental, Jas. E. Walsh home. Merle Molsed of Centerville, S. D. came Friday to visit his grandma. Mike Brennan and wife departed Friday for Manning to spend a couple of days and from there they will go to Prescott, Arizona, to spend the winter. Mrs. Ben Crampton went to Columbus, Nebr., Saturday morning for a month's visit with her daughter, Mrs. B. Huckstep. John McGovern made a business trip to Omaha Thursday. J. E. O'Dein and family of Arcadia visited friends here Sunday. Mrs. Alley of Nebraska came Friday for a couple of weeks visit with her mother, Mrs. A. Short. Mrs. Mollie Williams returned home Saturday from a six months visit with her daughter in Wyoming.

John Kepford is having a fine new hog house built on his farm southwest of town. Maggie McNertney of Manilla is visiting her uncle, John Finnigan and family. For the first time since the Catholic church at this place was built, it has a choir and music was rendered at Mass, Sunday which was fully appreciated by all present. James O'Meara and family entertained friends from Dunlap last week. Bertha Brundidge went to Dow City Saturday for an over Sunday visit at her home. Peter O'Meara and son Vernon came over from Dow City Sunday for a few hours visit with relatives. Rev. Richard S. Cartwright, of Chicago who has just finished a three weeks' mission at Sioux City stopped off Monday morning for a few hours visit with friends here. Father Cartwright, made his first appearance among us, seven months ago. At that time he gave a mission and although he was here only a few days, he made many friends, all of whom extend a hearty welcome whenever it is possible for him to return. This time he was entertained at the homes of J. P. Welsh and Dr. Bonney where "the latch string is always out" for Father Cartwright. The only trouble about his visit was, that it was entirely too short, as the Reverend gentleman had to leave on the evening train in order to reach Dubuque by Tuesday morning to continue his mission work.

Last Saturday noon occurred the marriage of Fred Landorf jr. and Anna Wulf at the home of the grooms' parents, Fred Landorf and wife. The bride is the only daughter of John Wulf and wife of Manning, and the groom is the eldest son of Fred Landorf and wife. That success and happiness will be theirs through life's journey, is the wish of their many friends. Frank Lally has purchased 80 acres of land from John Walsh. Detlef Wiese and wife are happy over the arrival of a baby girl born Oct. 28. Frankie Wiese of West Side spent Sunday at the home of Herman Martins. Albert Gerzen of Manning attended the Landorf-Wulf wedding of last week, and also Carl Gerzen and wife. William Hill and wife of Manilla were visitors at the Landorf home Saturday last.

A Methodist Minister Recommends Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. We have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in our house for seven years, and it has always proved to be a reliable remedy. We have found that it would do more than the manufacturers claim for it. It is especially good for croup and whooping cough. Rev. James A. Lewis, Pastor Milaca, Minn., M. E. church, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is sold by L. E. Blesser, Broadway Druggist.

The Buck Grove BUDGET

Mrs. Fannie Bonney Department Editor.

Mrs. Wehland of Manilla visited her friend, Mrs. Boyer for a few hours between trains Saturday afternoon.

Sidney Bonney arrived home Friday evening from South Dakota and other points west. He left home about four months ago to go on the railroad, but did not like the work, nor the country, and is well pleased to be back in old Iowa. He will pick corn for a few weeks before commencing his winter term of school.

Mrs. Boyer went to Sioux City Tuesday with a lady friend on a shopping expedition. Lizzie Hassett of Denison visited with her cousin, Mrs. Jack Welsh and family. Willis Wiggins, wife and children of Dow City visited with John Griffin and family Sunday. Lizzie Slattery of Manilla came down for an over Sunday visit with her parents. G. L. Caswell, wife and children of Denison were visitors with Dr. Bonney and family Sunday. Ethel McCord, was a Buck Grove caller Monday. Bernice Bonney accompanied her home to Shelby county for a few days visit. Rev. Father Coffey of Manilla visited friends here Friday. John Kepford is having a fine new hog house built on his farm southwest of town. Maggie McNertney of Manilla is visiting her uncle, John Finnigan and family. For the first time since the Catholic church at this place was built, it has a choir and music was rendered at Mass, Sunday which was fully appreciated by all present. James O'Meara and family entertained friends from Dunlap last week. Bertha Brundidge went to Dow City Saturday for an over Sunday visit at her home. Peter O'Meara and son Vernon came over from Dow City Sunday for a few hours visit with relatives. Rev. Richard S. Cartwright, of Chicago who has just finished a three weeks' mission at Sioux City stopped off Monday morning for a few hours visit with friends here. Father Cartwright, made his first appearance among us, seven months ago. At that time he gave a mission and although he was here only a few days, he made many friends, all of whom extend a

Hayes

Mrs. Robert Hawley and daughter Mary, returned from their visit at Cottonwood, S. D. last Saturday. Aug. Voss recently purchased 30 acres of land adjoining West Side from Geo. Buck, consideration, being $5000. Mr. Voss intends building a house on this land and will move there in the spring. Last Saturday noon occurred the marriage of Fred Landorf jr. and Anna Wulf at the home of the grooms' parents, Fred Landorf and wife. The bride is the only daughter of John Wulf and wife of Manning, and the groom is the eldest son of Fred Landorf and wife. That success and happiness will be theirs through life's journey, is the wish of their many friends. Frank Lally has purchased 80 acres of land from John Walsh. Detlef Wiese and wife are happy over the arrival of a baby girl born Oct. 28. Frankie Wiese of West Side spent Sunday at the home of Herman Martins. Albert Gerzen of Manning attended the Landorf-Wulf wedding of last week, and also Carl Gerzen and wife. William Hill and wife of Manilla were visitors at the Landorf home Saturday last.

A Methodist Minister Recommends Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. We have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in our house for seven years, and it has always proved to be a reliable remedy. We have found that it would do more than the manufacturers claim for it. It is especially good for croup and whooping cough. Rev. James A. Lewis, Pastor Milaca, Minn., M. E. church, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is sold by L. E. Blesser, Broadway Druggist.

When the heart is affected, or the muscles surrounding that organ by rheumatism, experimenting with sample treatment is like tampering with a live electric wire, for death may come at any moment. If life is worth it, do not hesitate to get the treatment which has stood the test of twenty years—Dr. Drummond's. Write to the Drummond Medicine Co., New York, and they will send you literature free, worth $5 to a rheumatic. It is not as quick as electricity, but will save your life if you act in time.

A GOOD TIME. To enter a good school that MAKES GOOD. Winter term of the Denison Normal and Business College opens November 12, the Students can enter at any time. 44-2t.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure Digests what you eat.

A Boston schoolboy was tall, weak and sickly.

His arms were soft and flabby. He didn't have a strong muscle in his entire body.

The physician who had attended the family for thirty years prescribed Scott's Emulsion.

NOW:

To feel that boy's arm you would think he was apprenticed to a blacksmith.

ALL DRUGGISTS: 50c. AND $1.00.

Kuppenheimer Clothing

Is known from Ocean to Ocean.

It is also known to be the best Clothing made. It is made by expert Tailors from the best Materials. If you want a Suit or Overcoat come and see us. We can save you some money.

A New Line of SELZ SHOES for the Fall Trade.

SELZ is the largest maker of Shoes in the World. They have grown very fast simply because every Shoe gives satisfaction. Give us a call, we will treat you right.

Yours truly

Dyson Calvin & Co.

OF BUCK GROVE IOWA