A reliable remedy for croup.

Mrs. S. Rosenthal, of Turner, Mich., says: "We have used Chamberlain's Cough Medicine for ourselves and children for several years and like it very much. I think it is the only remedy for croup and can highly recommend it." For sale by L. E. Blosser, Broadway Drugist.

HAY FOR SALE.—Hay for sale in any quantities. West Denison. Mill 41-1f.

Dow City.

Our worthy postmaster was a visitor at the county seat on Thursday.

The Baptist membership have arranged a plan to have preaching each Sabbath by means of a supply to come from the Baptist college at Sac City. Prof. Lee has been down for two Sundays.

G. W. Langley was over on the Willow Monday and the next day took a look at the county seat.

Mrs. McConaughy has consented to teach vocal music in our schools. Thus our school board is making the schools better.

Our teachers, the Misses Lisle and Alexander attended the Southwestern Teachers Association at Council Bluffs on the two last days of the week.

Rev. Curtis, the M. E. pastor is at Glenwood this week attending district conference.

There was some excitement in town Monday over a horse race. The horses owned by Albert Burkholder and Chris Suhr were matched. The Burkholder horse won, but the other side claimed unfair racing.

John Rae living southwest of town has about completed a system of water works on his farm. He has a wind mill, reservoir and the water piped to the barn and stock yards.

Mrs. Rolls, wife of the mayor and Ruby were in Denison one day last week.

The L. D. S. church is looking fine and the members are well satisfied. The building has been papered and painted anew and with five large gas lights is well lighted, which it was not before.

J. H. Rolls was up from Dunlap to see his son one day last week. He claims to be one of the oldest readers of the Review.

Mrs. R. T. Baber was in Denison on Monday.

A petition was given the council on Monday night asking for making and enforcing an "anti-spitting" ordinance. The petition was well signed and it is confidently expected that the much needed regulation will be made.

Our barber, Mr. Crandall took a look at Omaha last week.

The steel steps are put in place so the hall over the Cohn store can be used. The steps are on the north side of the building. People go east a short distance and then ascend the steps, facing to the west, the door being cut through the last window to the west, on the second floor.

Pastor Curtis took up the question of the enforcement of law in his sermon last Sunday night. He urged that disrespect for law bred anarchy. Incidentally he condemned the lawlessness of the saloons of Iowa, and the intolerance of even legal demands made by the people of Davenport.

Alfred Jackson and his sons, A. F. and A. L. were at Dunlap Sunday attending the funeral of F. J. Naughton an old acquaintance.

P. F. Jackson and Mr. Brake are kept busy with their new bakery. They can hardly bake enough to supply the demands.

There was quite an exodus of our people to Denison Saturday night to hear and see "The Flaming Arrow." Among these were W. E. Fishel and wife and daughter, Gene Crandall and Eugene Wiggins, Winnie Wiggins, Ida Davis, also Druggist Dozer and Miss Crandall.

Hallowe'en was not forgotten by our people in social life. There was a most merry party at the former S. E. Dow residence at which Louie and Neva Crandall were the hostesses. For the first hour or more the young people wore masks and costumes and there were some surprises when the masks were removed. A well prepared four course luncheon was served, and the affair one of the most enjoyable held here for some time.

In another part of town Mrs. Stempel invited a number of friends in honor of her guest Miss Sheldon of Oklahoma and a fine time is reported there. Last, but equally enjoyable to them a party for the little ones at the home of Mrs. Swazey. So in spite of the hard rain, Dow City was joyous that night.

The Beauchamp lecture on "Take the Sunny side" was a big success. He is one of the most popular lecturers of the country.

A Good Liniment.

When you need a good reliable liniment try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It has no superior for sprains and swellings. A piece of flannel slightly dampened with Pain Balm is superior to a plaster for lame back or pains in the side or chest. It also relieves rheumatic pains and makes sleep and rest possible. For sale by L. E. Blosser.

For Rent—120 acres, also 60 acres corn fodder for sale.
