

ORDER NOW

Your enlarged pictures for Xmas at

FERGUSON'S STUDIO.

LAUB BLOCK

Eat at the Oxford. 32-tf.
Mrs. John Muir visited in Omaha on Friday.
Mr. Ferguson is in Davenport this week on business.
Mrs. H. Scaggs made Omaha friends a visit this week.
W. R. Temple transacted business in Lake City on Saturday.
Mrs. Branaka of Schleswig visited Denison relatives over Sunday.
Mrs. Georgia Wade McClellan was a Saturday visitor in Woodbine.
Imported 'Teddy Bears' at the Racket store from 25 cents up.
For Rent—Five room flat, city water, inquire of Mrs. S. Dawes.
Mr. and Mrs. F. Fienhold of Kenwood were Denison visitors on Monday.

New York apples by the barrel, get our prices before buying. J. B. Lyon.
Mrs. N. L. Hunt will entertain Thursday afternoon complimentary to Mrs. L. Cornwall.
Chas. Green of Rolfe was a welcome visitor with old Crawford county friends last week.
To all lovers of needle work, we extend an invitation to look over our complete line of fancy work, the Racket store.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Smith are entertaining Chicago relatives who have come to the delightful Crawford county home to spend the honey moon.
Mrs. James Stormont will return on Thursday to her home at La Crosse, Wis., after a six weeks visit with her daughter, Mrs. P. C. Marshall.
Miss Maude Dixon returned last week from a delightful visit with her mother in South Dakota and with Council Bluffs relatives, Miss Dixon will teach near Schleswig this winter.

The Wheeler, Hover Orchestra will entertain the shoppers at the Racket store afternoon and evening at their Christmas opening, Saturday November 30th.
Mr. and Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Aeston if Woodbine were guests of Mrs. N. L. Hunt last week. Mrs. Aeston is upwards of eighty but she is still active both physically and intellectually.

Mrs. Brown, who resides near the McKim hall has taken her departure for Denver, Colo., where she will remain for the winter, visiting her son Julius Piper. Her many friends hope she will return in due time to Denison.

Red Jacket sweet cider—none better only at The Balle-Brodersen Co.
Mrs. O. M. Criswell is entertaining Penelope this afternoon.
Genuine Pure Vermont maple syrup at The Balle-Brodersen Co.
Dressmaking done at reasonable prices. For particulars phone No. 51.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Gregg returned this week from a visit with relatives in northern Iowa.
Maricus Nielsen returned from Montana last week. He is delighted with the country, but came back in order to give his father a chance to take a vacation.

Coterie is looking forward to the meeting with Mrs. Charles Bollen Friday.
The popular Hickman Bessey Co. at Opera house for one week, beginning November, 18th. Prices 10-20-30 cents.

Come to our store next Saturday and sample our line of "Best we have" canned fruits and vegetables. J. B. Lyon.
Mr. and Mrs. L. Cornwell leave next week for their winter sojourn in Pasadena. We trust they may have a delightful winter.

Wall Lake beat the Denison High school boys last Saturday. The boys feel the defeat keenly as they did not expect it. We regret to state that they lay it to the umpire.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Houlihan jr. have returned from their wedding trip to Muskogee. They report all the Denison folks as being well and happy.
W. S. Moore of Manilla was a Denison visitor on legal business on Tuesday. He was accompanied by his nephew, W. C. Moore of Springfield, Mo., who has been visiting Iowa relatives for the past thirty days.

Among those to renew their subscriptions during the past week was Fritz Mundt of Nishnabotny township. He is the owner of a fine farm in the center of his township not far from the school house. While he has some difficulty himself in reading English, he appreciates what the Review is to his family and so came in to pay well in advance. The firm support of the Germans of the county for the Review is not gratifying.

The great sales of the choice animals of the McHenry herd comes on Thursday Nov. 21st. Mr. W. A. McHenry is making great plans for the sale. All who come to buy will be taken care of at hotels. Send to him for a catalogue. This being the best herd of Aberdeen-Angus in the United States, buyers will come in great numbers. We hope that Crawford county farmers will hold some at home. The sale will be worth attending.

Mrs. J. B. Romans entertained the Coffee club on Thursday last. The guests numbered "sweet sixteen" and they were as jolly as though that was their age also. Mrs. Jensen gave some readings that were very well done, and though the hostess did not give any she served a supper that made all the guests willing to forgive her. Mrs. Romans was assisted in serving her beautiful supper by the Misses Junia and Alice Romans.

Jas. McClellan visited this brother John in Carroll on Monday.
Mrs. J. W. Smith visited with Wall Lake friends last week.
Ph. A. Schlumberger made a business trip to Council Bluffs on Sunday. Parlor Chairs, Rockers. The best in furniture. Inquire of John Fastje. 42-tf.

A fine line of handkerchiefs at the Racket store from 1 cent to 65 cents each.
T. J. Kelly, J. H. Tamm and G. L. Caswell were Wall Lake duck hunters last week.

New York State Buckwheat and Strictly pure Vermont maple Syrup at The Balle-Brodersen Co.
Hickman Bessey Co. for one week beginning Monday, November 18th at Opera house.

Mrs. C. L. Voss attended the Calve concert Thursday and reported highly delighted with the great singer.
The Racket store will have every thing in toys from 1 cent to $5.00 each an immense variety.

The chorus club held its first meeting of the year in the Carnegie club rooms Wednesday night.
H. A. Norman returned on Monday from Omaha where he was called by the serious illness of his brother.

Mr. J. P. Jones has been seriously sick at Redfield, South Dakota. He was threatened with pneumonia but we are glad to state is now rapidly improving.

The new regulations made by the Iowa railroad convention relative to telephone lines at railroad crossings is making an immense amount of work for the telephone companies.

You can't afford to miss taking in the great Hickman-Bessey Co. at the Opera house beginning Monday, November, 18th. "My Maryland" will be played on the opening night. Ladies free on opening night. Prices 10-20-30 cents.

M. E. Jones has word that an own aunt, Mrs. H. M. Jenkins is dead. She has been on the Chinese mission field for nearly fifty years, and was a woman of remarkable powers with the people there. She visited here many years ago. She is a sister of Mrs. Gallop who resides with Mother Jones.

Manager P. J. Klinker announces that the Hickman-Bessey performance next week will begin promptly at 8:15. Both the I. C. and the Northwestern now have local trains leaving after 10:30 and Manager Klinker believes that by beginning promptly many from other towns will come for an evening of enjoyment.

Adolph Bengtsson expects to leave the first week in December for his old home in Sweden. He would prefer to remain in America and returns simply on his parents' account. He says he has been in America too long to live any other place. He will have the Review sent to keep him posted on Crawford county affairs.

Cut Flowers,
Carnations, Roses, Chrysanthemums,
Always in stock.

BULBS,
For Fall Planting are now ready.

Bartcher Bros.

Yep, the work got to comin' too fast for me and I had to employ another watchmaker. So, good people, keep coming, and if two of us cannot do it all we will get another man. SEE!

And talk about prices on Ladies Gold Watches, how does $12.00 suit you for a good one? Give us a call.

E. C. CHAMBERLIN, The Jeweler and Optician, Denison

Thanksgiving Day will be here in two weeks.
H. L. Allard was an Omaha visitor on Tuesday.
C. T. Marshall of Charter Oak was a business visitor in Denison last week.

Fresh oysters shipped the day they are shucked, fresh from Baltimore free from ice water, J. B. Lyon.
Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Harthun returned to their home at Kansas City the last of the week.

The friends of Mr. John Way and daughter Mrs. Riddle are glad indeed that they will between now and the new year become again residents of Denison. They will be welcomed indeed to the Baptist church and their old time friends.

The premium lists for the great chicken and corn show at Denison December, 11 to 14 are out. Get your chicks and best corn ready, for it is no ordinary affair that is coming.

C. L. Nicholson of Blair, Nebr., visited his daughter, Mrs. Leslie Reiter the first of the week.
A. W. Green, Joe Ward, O. O. Spencer and W. P. Hover are all back from a few days of sport at Okoboji. They had a great time.

Mother Jones and Mrs. Gallop are expected home soon from their trip to the Pacific coast. Their friends will certainly be glad to see them home again.

Mrs. John Simon of Hanover township died at her home on Saturday Nov. 10. Mrs. Simon was greatly beloved and her death is mourned by all who know her.

Mrs. Peter Miller was taken to an Omaha hospital this week where she will undergo an operation on account of injuries received recently at Schleswig.
Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Rethlefsen of Defiance are guests at the Terry home. They are old residents both of Charter Oak and Denison.

Piano For Rent—Three dollars per month. Inquire of Mrs. W. E. Terry.
Mrs. J. P. Conner entertained informally at bridge whist on Friday evening, a number of her neighbors and sisters being asked to play with her house guests. Like many other impromptu affairs it was all the more enjoyable and the guests had a very delightful pursuit of that will of the wisp "good luck." Mrs. Conner's guests are old and highly favored guests in Denison and their friends are delighted to welcome them once more.

Mrs. Ley gave a afternoon bridge whist on Saturday as a courtesy to Mrs. Cowdrey, Mrs. Eruing and Miss Cowdery, the guests of Mrs. J. P. Conner. Mrs. Ley's guests were soon plunged into the delight of bridge and the afternoon passed all too quickly to the devotees of the game, which never seem to tire or lose interest for the players. Mrs. Ley served very nice light refreshments as a pleasant ending of a most charming afternoon, Mrs. W. T. Perkins, of Seattle, Mrs. Cowdrey, Mrs. Ewing and Miss Cowdrey were the out of town guests.

Coming Attractions
Nov. 16—"The Tramp and The Lady"
Nov. 18—One Week—"The Hichman Bessey Co."
Nov. 25—"Under The North Star"

New York State apples, strictly fancy varieties at, The Balle-Brodersen Co.
Charter Oak is well represented at the Rose vs Eggers case, Goodwin, Mains, Barber, Antrim and others are in attendance.

Rev. La Rue the new Baptist minister was here Sunday and will have his family in the parsonage soon. We shall speak more of him next week.

Mrs. N. W. Nash was called to Omaha this week on account of the critical illness of Miss Edith McWilliams, who underwent a severe operation at the Omaha German hospital.

The membership of the Presbyterian church is well pleased on finding in Rev. De Pree of Alta, Buena Vista county a pastor on whom they can all agree will suit them. He has preached here for two Sundays and his sermons are clear, forceful and able. His record is excellent. It is not sure he will accept as other places want him, but it is believed that he will come. He is married and has one child. He is young in the ministry, although with some experience. We congratulate the church on the choice.

MULE FOR SALE.
One of my mules died, so will sell the other, cheap, Crawford county phone, route 6 or address, E. H. Sauber, Ute Iowa. 46-1.

For Dining room chairs and tables, John Fastje will give you the best value. 42-tf.

FOR SALE.
A good family horse, will not scare, gentle and sound. Also carriage. Address F. O. Ivens, Denison, Iowa. 45-tf.

The Oxford

Dinner, Saturday, November 16, '07

Soup—Vegetable
Roast Prime Ribs of Beef Au Jus
Boston Baked Pork and Beans—Tomato Sauce
Boiled Shoulder of Lamb, Mint Sauce
Braised Sirloin of Beef with Vegetables
Mashed Potatoes
Early June Peas
Rice Custard Pudding
Coffee Tea Milk

This is our regular Twenty-five Cent Saturday Dinner.
Watch this space for our Bill of Fare, and try our Splendid Meals.

We want you to know

What a big stock of

BIBLES

We have. We can surprise you on prices

We can save you money on Toys, Dolls Doll Buggies, Fancy Goods, &c.

Our JAP - CHINA is making a great hit.

Our line of Holiday Goods Will be ready for inspection in a few days.

U. G. Johnson & Co.

FREE
All our old and new customers are invited to call at

Schlumberger's

Pharmacy
and receive free a

1908 Calendar & Weather Chart Combined.

Apples from New York State

A carload just received, 23 varieties, best winter stock of fancy apples; the best car shipment of apples received in Denison for some years. Will be pleased to show up and quote prices which are exceedingly reasonable considering the quality and scarcity.

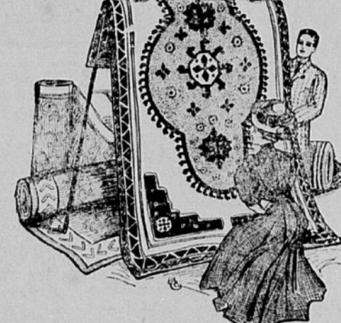

The Balle-Brodersen Co.

DENISON, IOWA.

PRUDENT HOUSEKEEPERS WILL BUY BLANKETS HERE NOW—NOW—NOW!

Express Shipments

Daily of new numbers and styles of ladies' Cloaks, Suits and Skirts from leading fashion centers. Our styles, distinctive and exclusive represent not only beauty of design but expert workmanship and high grade materials. Be sure and see them before purchasing.

Carpets and Rugs

Opportune showing of new arrivals. Nearly every one has now started to figure on retouching up the home for winter. First of all the carpet should be thought of, for if the floor covering is shabby it is almost impossible to make the room look bright and inviting. The market has shown an upward tendency since our large purchases but we shall maintain our old established prices as long as our present stock lasts; especially rugs have been received in new and beautiful colorings and prospective purchasers may expect here an unusually well chosen variety for selection in the small sizes as well as large room sizes for parlor, bedroom, dining room or living room.

And oil cloth and linoleum squares for stoves in this season's newest patterns at popular, low prices.

(Second Floor)

Men, Your Fall Hats Are Here

Did you ever realize that your hat will either add or detract from the appearance of your dress? It costs but a small fraction of the price of a suit, but it is equally important. Our hats are the attractive kind and are selected with a view to pleasing the most fastidious dressers and to insure good quality and real values we adhere to the Elk and Longley makes, recognized the peer of all hat values. Every preference of style in either soft or stiff hats are here and range in price from $1.50 to $3.00.

Main Floor, west front entrance.

NEW FALL NECKWEAR

The new styles are here, whatever fall fashions demand, you will find here. The 25c ties include a wide assortment of the most dressy neckwear; bows, four-in-hands, strings, tecks, in almost any color. The 50c ties are made of better silk and you'll find plenty of four-in-hands and string ties in the assortment.

