NEW BAPTIST PASTOR

Baptist Church Revives to New Endeavor with New Pastor

REV. C. E. LA REAU CHOSEN

A Young Man of Energy and Experience Ready to take up Energetic Work

After a period of some two months the First Baptist church of this city has a resident pastor. There was no hurry on the part of the membership to fill the vacancy until the committee considered they could recommend a proper man. This they consider they have in Rev. C. E. La Reau who comes from Lake City where he was pastor for two years. Rev. La Reau is a graduate of the Baptist theological seminary at Louisville, Ky., and since entering the ministry has been at Bradford and Charleston, Ill., and Lake City. He comes with an excellent record for energetic work, and the church seems ready to assist him. The membership is contemplating a public reception for the new pastor and his wife and then many can become acquainted with them. The people of Denison extend a cordial welcome and hope the work will be eminently successful for them. We find in the Lake City News an account of the farewell reception given Rev. La Reau and wife, and judging from it we gather that the people were sorry to have them go, and that they stood in high esteem. The account is as follows:

A large company of members and friends of the Baptist church and the ministerial brethren of the city, gave a reception Monday evening to Rev. and Mrs. C. E. La Reau, who leave this week for their new field of labor at Denison.

After spending a little time in singing, prayer was offered by Rev. J. D. McCord of U. B. church and then Rev. and Mrs. LaReau were invited forward and Rev. A. B. Miller of the Presbyterian church in a few well chosen words expressed feelings of himself and the pastors and churches generally and in behalf of the friends presented the retiring pastor and his wife with many tokens of their esteem and good will. Among the numerous gifts were the following. To the pastor, a gold watch, chain and a very fine oil painting. To the pastor and wife: a set of

OPERATES THE WIRELESS

Clarence Erickson Returns After Four Years in Uncle Sam's Navy.

Clarence Erickson is home again after four years spent with Uncle Sam in his great Navy. Clarence enlisted with others from Denison but he was the only one to stick it out. He rose rapidly from the rank of private to that of a petty officer, almost as high as he could get without Annapolis training. His knowledge of telegraphy was made use of and he was in charge of the wireless station on ship board. During the four years he traveled widely. He was in the Philippines and has been around the world. He has improved his opportunities and comes back a splendidly informed young man. It is doubtful if he will re-enlist, not because he does not like the service but because the training received has equipped him for more lucrative employment. Clarence is a fine young man and his many boyhood friends are glad to welcome him home.

SPECIAL SERVICES IN THE M. E. CHURCH.

Next Sunday the pastor will be assisted by two Deaconesses from the Des Moines Deaconess Home. In the morning Miss Britton will deliver an address; and Mrs. Stavton will remain to assist during the Revival Meetings.

Next Sunday evening the evangelistic services will begin, and continue each night during the week. A new song book will be used, and the singing will be led by a chorus choir. On Wednesday evening Evangelist Olen-slayer will arrive and preach his first sermon, remaining for three weeks. He comes very well recommended as a preacher and a singer. The public are cordially invited to attend these services.

The annual union Thanksgiving services will be held in the M. E. church Thursday evening at seven thirty. Evangelist Olen-slayer will preach the sermon.

COON GROVE LYCEUM MEETING.

On Wednesday November, 7th 1907, there will be a meeting of the lyceum club at the Coon Grove school house. Meeting will be called at 8 p. m., sharp. Important business will be transacted, and the practicability of a lyceum during the coming winter will be discussed. All members, and everyone else, interested in having a good, well conducted lyceum are urged to attend. John C. Hugg President. John O'Hara Secretary.

THE FAMILY THEATRE OPENS

Denison Gets into the City Class With Theatre Every Night

Next week Denison will put on additional city airs with an Electric theatre open every night with Wednesday and Saturday matinees. The new amusement enterprise is to be known as The Family Theatre. And the large store room recently occupied by the Semmann Harness Co., has been fitted and remodeled for its use.

Otto Moenck of this city is one of the proprietors of the new theatre. The managers have a fine new moving picture apparatus and are prepared to give Denison people the best there is in this line. The programs will be changed frequently. Illustrated songs will be made a feature and some Denison singers have been engaged to assist in this part of the program.

The management promises that nothing low or sensational will be permitted and the new "Family Theatre" will live up to its name as a place fit for one and all. The admission price has been fixed at the popular price of ten cents to all. We prophesy that the new theatre will prove very popular during the long winter evenings and that the matinees will attract many of our farmer friends during their afternoons in town.

A REMARKABLE SENTENCE

"J Q Vandz struck my big fox whelp"

This sentence contains twenty-six letters only and still it uses every letter in the alphabet.

Chas. Johnson of Denison hands us this clever sentence which is the best solution of the twenty-six puzzle we have ever seen. He tells us that while in business college the whole school struggled with the puzzle and a professor finally evolved this answer.

"Under the North Star" was presented at the Waterloo Theatre last night and was well received. This play was written by Clarence Bennett, who also wrote a "Royal Slave" and "The Holy City" and was well rendered by the troupe last week. It is a drama with enough comedy to give it some spice, and the plot of the play is laid New in Foundland. The speciality give by Fred and Marie James was especially well received by the audience.—Times, Waterloo, Iowa.

At Germania Opera house Monday night November, 25th.

A good time to look over a magnificent line of Holiday goods will be at the Racket store opening Saturday, November, 30th, goods displayed so looking is made easy.

For Rent—Five room flat, city water, Inquire of Mrs. S. Dawes.

ADVERTISING DOES PAY

Review's Matrimonial Bureau Creates Widespread Interest. Results are Apparent

The eligible list of Denison bachelors published in a recent Review has created great interest, not only in Denison but in many other communities.

Already one young man mentioned has been married and we understand that in another instance a young lady has found a friend among the Review's eligibles. Talk about results. Talk about quick returns from advertising. The Review advertises a list of eight young men, and before a week rolls around, one wedding has taken place. With such a recommendation we believe the Review's Matrimonial Bureau is destined to become a most popular feature of the Great and Only.

During the week numerous letters have been received which have been forwarded to the proper destinations, several telephone calls have been answered, and, where we felt that the young ladies were in earnest we have given them full particulars. No. 1, 3, and 5 have proven particularly popular.

A Western Teacher Writes

We are receipt of a letter from Wyoming which places a responsibility upon us which we have decided to shift upon our reader's shoulders. The letter is as follows and we would be pleased to receive advice as to the proper course to pursue.

Cody, Wyoming.

Editor Review.

Denison, Iowa.

Dear Sir:

By some lucky chance a copy of your splendid paper fell into my hands. I read your article as to the eligible young men of your city, and while I am not certain whether the article was written in earnest or in a spirit of fun, I have determined to write you. If it is all a jest no harm will be done and it not, well, they say marriage is a lottery at best.

I am young—my glass says—good looking. I have a section of good Wyoming land, under irrigation. I rent my farm and by teaching school I have a good income. Nevertheless I have no desire to die a "bachelor maid." I was particularly impressed by No 1 and 6 in your article, but I am unable to decide upon either of them. You evidently know both of these parties and I am going to leave it to you to decide. Hand enclosed letter to the one you select. Perhaps nothing will come of it—but who can tell?

Yours truly,

A Wyoming School Maam. Additions to the List

The cordial reception which our Matrimonial Bureau has received prompts us to extend the list. None are mentioned here who would not make first-class husbands and those who wish to enter into correspondence may rely on all the Review has to say.

No.—A poetic looking young man, dark luminous eyes, raven hair, studious habits, fine character, makes himself very agreeable to the ladies, is fond of children and is a successful teacher.

No. 10—A fine upstanding man, weighs 240 but does not look it, slightly grey but still a young man, occupies fine brick residence north of Court house. Has had much to do with the criminal classes but is none the worse for that. Only bad habit is that of running for office. Maintains that it is not his fault that he is a bachelor but this is hard to believe.

No. 11—City official, now building fine residence many sterling qualities, but so modest that the girl will have to do the asking. Remored that this has been done, but we are unable to verify the report.

No. 12.—Young man, handsome, winsome, earns good money as a tonsorial artist, has been studying short hand of late and is said to be partial to stenographers.

No. 13—(There is to be no No.13) Bright young business man—making money. A good mixer—at the Soda fountain. Has fine claim in Montana.

No 14— Young attorney but inclined to finance, son of rich but honest parents. Can tell a funny story with the soberest face of any man in town. A great home body, loves children and is looking for a quite, affectionate and trusting wife.

Next week by special request we will include a number of deserving widowers in our list. These gentlemen feel that they are qualified by experience to make excellent husbands and that the young fellows should not be given all the odds.

Remember to address all communications to Review Matrimonial Bureau giving number of the gentleman with whom you wish to correspond.
